Season Opener:

Arizona gymnastics opens their 2018 season at home against Denver. Originally, Rutgers and New Hampshire were going to travel for this competition as well, but unfortunately could not make it due to inclement weather. The GymCats, lead by interim head coach John Court, head into the 2018 season ready to take down the competition.

New Faces:

The GymCats welcome four new freshman to their 2018 roster. Payton Bellows, Sydney Freidin, Laura Leigh Horton, and Adra Parks join the Wildcats from across the nation. Each gymnast brings a special set of skills to the team, and the GymCats are excited to see what they contribute to each competition.

Returning GymCats:

Arizona welcomes back 11 of last year's 15 GymCats. Returning sophomores are Christina Berg, Courtney Cowles, Jenny Leung, Maddi Leydin, and Heather Swanson. Returning juniors are Haylie Hendrickson, Lauryn Mattson, and Danielle Spencer, and the three returning seniors are Madison Cindric, Victoria Ortiz, and Kennady Schneider.

Pac-12 Championships Come to Tucson:

For the first time in eight years, the Pac-12 Championships are returning to Tucson. Join the Wildcats as they host session 1 and 2 of the Pac-12 final competition in McKale Center on March 14th, 2018.

HOW RANK IS DETERMINED

Preseason rankings are determined by vote of coaches. During the season rankings are determined every Monday morning by total season average from January 11 to February 15. After February 22 ranking is determined by Regional Qualifying Score (RQS).

REGIONAL QUALIFYING SCORE

An RQS is calculated by the six best regular season meet scores, three of which being road meet scores. Of those six scores, the highest score is eliminated and the remaining five scores are averaged.
