ARIZONA NOTES & NUMBERS

» Arizona will face Washington at home for some Friday night lights to kick off the second half of the season.

» Friday's game will kick off at 7:30 p.m. MST on ESPN2. Clay Matvick and Rocky Boiman will be on the call and Tiffany Blackmon will be reporting from the sideline.

» Arizona allows just 169.7 passing yards per game, which is second in the Pac-12 and 10th in the nation. The Wildcats have held their opponent to under 100 passing yards twice this season, the first time they have done so since 2008.

» Halfway through the season, Stanley Berryhill III has 48 receptions and is on pace to break Bobby Wade's school record for receptions in one season (93). He is 17 catches away from breaking into the top 10.

» Berryhill averages eight receptions and 74.2 yards per game, which are both second in the Pac-12. His eight catches per game also ranks eighth in the nation.

» Arizona has held their opponents under 400 yards in total offense four times this season after having achieved the feat just once across the 2019 and 2020 seasons.

» The Wildcats are fifth in the Pac-12 in total defense as they allow 372 yards per game. Arizona hasn't finished better than eighth in the conference since the 2010 season, which is also the last time Arizona allowed fewer than 400 yards per game.

» Arizona has converted 63% of the time on fourth down, the third-best rate in the Pac-12.

Adam Gonzales and Brett Gleason of Arizona Athletics Communication Services will assist media members throughout the season in their coverage of Arizona Football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Adam Gonzales via email at adamgonzales@arizona.edu or over the phone at (520) 591-6239.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

The Arizona Athletics Communication Services office will make every attempt to fulfill phone interview requests for media members. Interview requests for head coach Jedd Fisch and UA players should be directed to Adam Gonzales (adamgonzales@arizona.edu) and Brett Gleason (brettgleason@arizona.edu). To make a request by phone, call (520) 591-6239. Please submit requests well in advance to allow time for an interview to be scheduled. However, some requests may not be granted based on academic schedules and other team responsibilities. All player availability will be on Tuesdays.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

Head Coach Jedd Fisch is available twice weekly at press conferences each Monday and Thursday of game weeks during the regular season. Press conferences begin at 12 noon in the LSFF Digital Media Studio. A live web stream of the press conferences are available at: <http://pac-12.com/videos/university-arizona>.

PRACTICES

Practices are open to media upon request. All interviews with Coach Fisch and student-athletes will take place on Monday (coach), Tuesday (players), or Thursday (coach) afternoons in the LSFF Digital Media Studio. Contact Adam Gonzales or Brett Gleason for more specific information on the weekly availability throughout the season.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Arizona has a closed locker room policy after games. There is no player availability on the field immediately after the game. Head coach Jedd Fisch will address the assembled media only after his postgame radio show responsibilities have been completed both at home and on the road. At home games, Coach Fisch will hold a postgame press conference in the Digital Media Studio on the third floor of the Lowell-Stevens Football Facility. Selected offensive and defensive players will also be available after games. For road games, each locker room situation will dictate postgame protocol. Please direct any specific requests for players to Adam Gonzales and Brett Gleason with the UA Communication Services staff.

FACILITIES ACCESS FOR MEDIA

The team locker room, practice sites, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless special arrangements have been made through Adam Gonzales.

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at Arizona Athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes; these guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. All credential requests may be submitted at www.ArizonaWildcats.com/FBCredentials. Game-specific credential requests must be received no later than 48 hours prior to a contest. Parking and press seating may be limited for certain games. All questions concerning credentials should be directed to Brett Gleason at brettgleason@arizona.edu or (520) 621-0917.

WRAPPING UP SATURDAY: Freshman running back Jalen John toted the ball 11 times for 71 yards against Colorado, both of which are career-high marks ... John averaged 6.5 yards per carry and ripped off a career-long 23-yard rush in the second quarter ... Arizona held their opponent under 400 yards in total offense for the fourth time this season after having achieved the feat just once across the 2019 and 2020 seasons ... Christian Young tied his career-high with a team-high seven tackles against Colorado ... Trevon Mason and Isaiah Rutherford both recorded two tackles for loss ... A total of 11 Arizona players recorded a rushing attempt on Saturday, the most in a single-game this season ... Colorado's 117 rushing yards were the fewest allowed by the Arizona defense this season, and the lowest opponent rushing mark since holding Texas Tech to 104 yards on the ground in 2019 ... After rushing for 301 yards last season, Colorado running back Jarek Broussard was held to just 53 yards on 13 carries ... Kyle Ostendorp averaged 52.1 yards per punt on seven kicks, including a 61-yard boot.

VERSUS WASHINGTON: Arizona is 11-23-1 all-time vs. Washington ... The Huskies have won the last four contests ... Washington has won the last two in Tucson, but prior to that, Arizona won the previous four in the Old Pueblo ... Last season, Washington beat Arizona 44-27 in Seattle ... Jalen John carried the ball four times for 30 yards while Michael Wiley had four carries for 10 yards and a touchdown ... Stanley Berryhill III had two receiving touchdowns to go with a team-high five catches and 65 yards ... Boobie Curry had four catches for 55 yards ... Rhedi Short led the team with five tackles ... Paris Shand had one sack.

MR. YAC: Stanley Berryhill III has been outstanding for the Wildcats through five games thus far. A team-captain and one of the recipients of the No. 1 jersey, Berryhill leads Arizona with 48 receptions and 445 yards, both career highs for one season. Where Berryhill does his most damage is after the ball is in his hands, hence the name Mr. YAC. Through six games, 264 of Berryhill's 445 yards have been after the catch and also has two games with at least 70 YAC.

ON PACE FOR GREATNESS: Halfway through the regular season, Tucson's own Stanley Berryhill III has 48 receptions and is on pace to catch 96 passes, which would break Bobby Wade's school record for receptions in one season. He is also on pace for 890 yards, which surpass his total yards from his first three seasons at Arizona combined (733 yards). Berryhill, who averages over 12 targets per game, ranks second in the Pac-12 in receptions and receiving yards per game (8-74.2) and is also eighth in the nation in receptions per game.

<400: Arizona has held their opponents to under 400 yards four different times this season. The last time Arizona held their opponent to under 400 yards of offense four times in one season was back in 2018, but they haven't done it four times in the first six games since the 2013 season. Arizona, which ranks fifth in the Pac-12 as they allow 372 yards per game, haven't finished better than eighth in the conference in total defense since 2010, which is also the last time Arizona allowed fewer than 400 yards per game. The 2010 defense finished third in the Pac-10 allowing 340.8 yards per game.

SWARM TO THE BALL: If there's one thing defensive coordinator Don Brown emphasizes to his defense, it's run to the ball. There's no question that the Arizona defense takes to his coaching very well as five different players have at least 30 tackles this season (Pandy, Hayward, C. Young, Turner & Maldonado). Only two other teams in the Pac-12 have at least five players with at least 30 tackles (Stanford & Washington State).

JOHN MAKING THE MOST OF HIS OPPORTUNITIES: Jalen John had the most productive game of his career at Colorado last time out, rushing for 71 yards on 11 carries, both career highs. This season, he averages 6.2 yards per carry and has the longest rush of any Wildcat this season (23 yards – tied with Berryhill).

CONVERTING UNDER PRESSURE: Arizona converts on fourth down at a 62.5% clip, the third-best conversion rate in the Pac-12. Additionally, Arizona's 10 fourth-down conversions are the most in the Pac-12 and the ninth-most in the nation. Arizona has gone for it on fourth down at least once in every game this season and have converted at least twice in three different instances.

HEY TRE: Linebacker Treshaun Hayward comes to Arizona with already boasting a very successful career. The 2019 MAC Defensive Player of the Year played 39 games for Western Michigan and totaled 229 tackles, 16 TFLs and 5.5 sacks. Hayward was flat out dominant in 2019 as he was named an All-American by Sporting News and Phil Steele. The Ypsilanti, Mich. native finished the season with a conference-high 142 tackles and added in 10.5 TFLs. His 142 tackles was the third-most in the country and was one of five players to post 130+ tackles and 10+ TFLs. In five games at Arizona, Hayward has the second-most tackles on the team with 34 and is also second on the team with 2.5 TFLs. He recovered his first fumble as a Wildcat in the third quarter of the UCLA game and is 10th in the Pac-12 with 6.8 tackles per game.

THE PANDY MAN CAN: Senior linebacker Anthony Pandy is back for his fifth year as a Wildcat and has a large leadership role under first year head coach Jedd Fisch as he was named a team captain. Pandy leads the Arizona defense in tackles with 44 and is eighth in the Pac-12 with an average of 7.3 per game. Pandy had a career-high 13 tackles vs. UCLA, his second double-digit tackling performance of the season and third of his career. His 13 tackles was the most of any Pac-12 player that week.

NO FLY ZONE: Arizona has been exceptional defending the pass this season as they allow just 169.7 yards through the air per game, the second-fewest in the Pac-12 and the 10th-fewest in the nation. The Wildcats have held their opponent to under 100 passing yards twice this season, making it the first time since 2008 they have done so. Against UCLA, the Bruins had just 82 passing yards for the game and threw for just three yards in the first half. 82 passing yards allowed is the fewest Arizona has allowed since limiting The Citadel to 21 in 2010 and it is the first time the Wildcats held an opponent to under 100 yards passing since Colorado had 92 in 2020.

SPREADING THE LOVE: Jamarye Joiner became the fourth player this season to throw a TD pass after he found Michael Wiley in the back of the endzone at the end of the first half against UCLA on a double pass. For the first time since 2016, Arizona has four or more players with at least one touchdown pass.

- » QB Jordan McCloud – 2 TD
- » QB Gunner Cruz – 2 TD
- » QB Will Plummer – 2 TD
- » WR Jamarye Joiner – 1 TD

KICKIN' KYLE: Sophomore punter Kyle Ostendorp has been terrific in the first half of the 2021 campaign. On the season, Ostendorp ranks third in the Pac-12 and 11th in the nation with 47.3 yards per punt. He has a Pac-12 high 15 punts of 50 yards or more and has downed eight inside the 20. His 71-yard punt vs. San Diego State is also a Pac-12 high and is the longest punt by an Arizona punter since Keenyn Crier's 84-yard punt back in 2007. Against Colorado, Ostendorp averaged 52.1 yards per boot on seven kicks.

WOLMA NAMED CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST: Senior tight end Bryce Wolma was named a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy on Wednesday morning, as announced by the National Football Foundation. The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. Wolma, who graduated in the spring of 2021 with a degree in business management, finished undergrad with a GPA of 3.49 and has been studying Entrepreneurship as his postgrad study. The Saline, Mich. native caught his first touchdown pass of the season last week at Oregon on an 11-yard pass from Jordan McCloud. Wolma has five catches for 36 yards this season and has 47 catches for 412 yards and four touchdowns for his career.

DO THE SAFETY DANCE: With a sack by Mo Diallo in the third quarter vs. Oregon, Arizona became the first defense in the country with two safeties on the season. The previous safety came in the season opener against BYU as Rashie Hodge Jr. and Trevon Mason combined to bring down the BYU running back. Arizona had a two-safety season back in 2019, but prior to this year, Arizona defenses have forced only six safeties in the previous 15 seasons combined.

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!: Much like the NFL, head coach Jedd Fisch named team captains from the offense, defense and special teams unit... two from each unit to be exact:

Arizona 2021 Team Captains

Player	Unit
Stanley Berryhill III	Offense
Josh McCauley	Offense
Jalen Harris	Defense
Anthony Pandey	Defense
Lucas Havrisik	Special Teams
Thomas Reid III	Special Teams

I AM #1: At the beginning of camp, Jedd Fisch announced he would be holding a competition for who gets to wear the No. 1 jersey for the season. The Monday of week 1, it was announced that team captains and Arizona natives Stanley Berryhill III and Jalen Harris would each don the No. 1 jersey. Berryhill III is Arizona's leading returning wide receiver while Harris registered 18 tackles and 2.5 for a loss last season.

MCCAULEY NAMED TO RIMINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST: For the third time in his career, senior Josh McCauley was been named to Rimington Trophy Watchlist, which recognizes the top center in the country. The former walk-on has started all 27 games he has played in in the last three seasons and has anchored the Wildcats offensive line from the center position. Last season, he helped pave the way for big rushing games by Wildcat backs that included 268 yards vs. Colorado and 158 yards vs. USC. The Mesa, Ariz. native helped the Wildcats average 174 yards on the ground in 2019 and started all 12 games at center in 2018 when Arizona had the Pac-12's top rushing unit (202.4 ypg). Additionally, he was a key piece of the 2018 line that allowed the third-fewest sacks in the Pac-12.

HAVRISIK EARNS PRESEASON PAC-12 HONORS: Kicker Lucas Havrisik was named second-team Preseason All-Pac-12 heading into the season. Last year, Havrisik made six of seven field goals in five games, including a 51 yarder in the first game of the season. He made six-straight to end the season, with three coming vs. USC. The Riverside, Calif. native, known for his big leg, kicked 17 of his 21 kickoffs went for touchbacks. Havrisik finished the year ranked 16th in the nation with an 85.7% field goal percentage. The senior has a career long of 57 yards, which came during his freshman season in 2017.

STATE 48: The Wildcats roster features 34 players that call the state of Arizona home, including five players who stayed home in Tucson to continue their football careers. Arizona's 34 in-state players make up over 29% of the total roster. Among the notable Arizona natives are freshman safety Jaydin Young, sophomore running back Drake Anderson, redshirt freshman quarterback Gunner Cruz, redshirt sophomore wide receiver Jamarye Joiner, freshman quarterback Will Plummer, freshman running back Stevie Rocker Jr., junior linebacker Rashie Hodge Jr., redshirt junior defensive lineman Jalen Harris, redshirt senior offensive lineman Josh McCauley and sophomore offensive lineman Jordan Morgan.

WILEY NAMED A PRESEASON DOAK WALKER AWARD CANDIDATE: Running back Michael Wiley was named a preseason candidate for the 2021 Doak Walker Award back in late July, which recognizes the nations' top college running back. Last season, Wiley emerged as a part of Arizona's rushing attack as he finished the season with 222 yards on just 31 carries while scoring three touchdowns. The Houston, Texas native doubled his rushing yards from his freshman season with the exact same amount of carries. Wiley had a career game against Colorado as he gained 122 yards on just seven carries to go with five receptions. He set career highs in rushing yards (122), longest rush (45) and catches (5) that night.

#ITSPERSONAL: The No. 1 message Jedd Fisch has been pushing since he arrived on campus in December 2020 is 'Its Personal.' It's not just a catchy slogan that gets printed on shirts and that you see on social media, it is how the Arizona Football program is approaching every aspect of the 2021 season. From how the team plays on the field to how the coaches work on the recruiting trail... Its Personal.

WILDCATS IN THE NFL: As of week six, the Wildcats are once again well represented in the National Football League with nine former letterwinners active across the league. One of Arizona's most prestigious alums, tight end Rob Gronkowski, returned from retirement in 2020 to rejoin his longtime quarterback Tom Brady with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Over 10 seasons in New England and Tampa Bay, Gronkowski has hauled in 8,668 yards and 90 touchdowns. Quarterback Nick Foles is in his 10th NFL season after rewriting the Wildcats record books during his time in Tucson. The most recent Wildcats to make the transition to the NFL are running back Gary Brightwell (New York Giants) and defensive end Roy Lopez (Houston Texans). For a complete list of former Wildcats in the NFL, see the comprehensive chart below.

Current Wildcats on NFL Rosters

Player	Position	Team
Nick Foles	QB	Chicago Bears

RECAP

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Dylan Morris threw for 230 yards and two touchdowns, Washington got rushing touchdowns from three different running backs, and the Huskies routed Arizona 44-27 on Saturday night.

Washington (2-0) was thoroughly dominant, jumping to a 24-0 halftime lead and led 37-0 before Arizona finally found the end zone early in the fourth quarter. For a while, it appeared the Huskies could be in line to post their first Pac-12 shutout since a 30-0 win over Washington State in the 2009 Apple Cup, but the Wildcats feasted on Washington's backup defense in the fourth quarter.

While the Huskies defense stifled the Wildcats for three quarters, it was Morris and the Washington offense that showed efficiency and explosiveness that was absent in last week's opening win over Oregon State.

It started on the opening drive when Morris hit Puka Nacua on a 65-yard catch-and-run touchdown. He added a 20-yard TD pass to Cade Otton midway through the third quarter to give the Huskies a 37-0 lead. And in between, the Huskies got TD runs from Kamari Pleasant, Sean McGrew and Richard Newton.

Newton added a second TD early in the fourth quarter on a 54-yard run.

Morris finished 15-of-25 passing and his numbers would have been significantly higher if not for a handful of dropped passes. His TD strike to Nacua was his first career TD pass, but his favorite target was Otton. The Huskies talented tight end had a career-high seven catches for 100 yards.

Arizona (0-2) lost its ninth straight game dating back to last season — a streak that started with a home loss to Washington — and took a step back from last week's loss to USC.

The same offense that rolled up more than 400 total yards and scored 30 points on the Trojans managed just 66 yards through three quarters against Washington. Arizona didn't have a pass play longer than 14 yards until a 30-yard TD catch by Stanley Berryhill III early in the fourth quarter. For the first three quarters, Arizona averaged just 1.8 yards per play.

Arizona quarterback Grant Gunnell was 27 of 39 for 259 yards and three touchdowns, almost all of those numbers coming in the fourth quarter against Washington's reserves. He was sacked five times, twice by Zion Tupuola-Fetui.

Gary Brightwell was held to 55 yards rushing after having 112 last week against USC.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Redshirt junior wide receiver Stanley Berryhill III led the Wildcats with five receptions for 65 yards and two touchdowns. It was the first multi-score game of Berryhill's career. After Saturday's action in Seattle, Berryhill has now hauled in eight career touchdowns through the air.
- Sophomore running back Michael Wiley picked up his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter, a three-yard run. He finished the game with four carries for 10 yards.
- Freshman running back Jalen John made his collegiate debut for the Wildcats and picked up 30 yards rushing on four carries. He also added one reception for nine yards.

EDUCATION

- University of Florida — Bachelor's degree in Criminology
- University of Florida — Master's degree

Veteran NFL and college coach Jedd Fisch was hired as the head coach of Arizona Football on Dec. 23, 2020. Fisch comes to Arizona after eight years of coaching at the collegiate level, including stints in the ACC, Big Ten and Pac-12 and 13 years in the NFL, most recently with the New England Patriots.

The 44-year-old Fisch has been a part of championship seasons throughout his career, including with the Los Angeles Rams as a member of head coach Sean McVay's staff as the Rams won the NFC championship and appeared in Super Bowl LIII. Fisch's coaching pedigree also includes working under future NFL Hall of Famers Bill Belichick and Pete Carroll, as well as college football Hall of Fame member Steve Spurrier and Michigan's Jim Harbaugh.

Fisch has served on coaching staffs that reached five bowl games, highlighted by the 2016 Orange Bowl when he served as Michigan's passing game coordinator. His college coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Florida under Spurrier as the Gators advanced to the 2000 Citrus Bowl and the 2001 Sugar Bowl and won a SEC championship.

A widely-respected offensive mind, Fisch has helped guide top offenses in the NFL with three of his offenses finishing in the Top 10 in total offense, including the top-ranked offense with the Denver Broncos and the second-ranked offense with the Rams. While offensive coordinator at UCLA in 2017, Fisch guided the Bruins' offense to a top-three ranking in the Pac-12 before leading the Bruins in their final regular season game and to the Cactus Bowl as the interim head coach.

Fisch arrives in Tucson after spending the 2020 season as the quarterbacks coach for the New England Patriots. Prior to his position with the Patriots, Fisch spent two seasons as a member of McVay's offensive staff with the Rams as they posted the top offense in the NFL in 2018 with quarterback Jared Goff making back-to-back Pro Bowls.

Fisch's offense at Michigan produced the Big Ten's top scoring and red zone offenses, as tight end Jake Butt won the Mackey Award and consensus All-America honors in 2016. Butt was one of 10 offensive players for Michigan to receive All-Big Ten honors that season. Fisch's impact was instant on the Wolverine offense as Jake Rudock became only the second quarterback in school history at the time to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season.

In his second and third seasons as a college coach, the University of Miami's offense flourished under Fisch's quarterback tutelage. Stephen Morris set a single-season record for total offense with 3,415 yards in 2012 after Jacory Harris set a single-season Miami record with an efficient 65.0% completion for the season. Fisch first coached in a full-time capacity in college with the Minnesota Golden Gophers, serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach in 2009.

Fisch broke into the NFL coaching ranks with the Houston Texans in 2001, serving as an assistant to head coach Dom Capers. He would go on to join the coaching staffs with the Broncos, Baltimore Ravens, Seattle Seahawks and Jacksonville Jaguars working for head coaches Mike Shanahan, Brian Billick, Pete Carroll and Gus Bradley respectively.

Fisch is a native of Livingston, N.J. and graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Criminology in 1998. He earned his Master's degree from the University of Florida.

Fisch and his wife, Amber, have three daughters: Zaylee, Ashlee and Kendall.

RECAP

LAS VEGAS (AP) — Quarterback Jaren Hall accumulated 243 total yards and two touchdowns as BYU defeated Arizona 24-16 at Allegiant Stadium on Saturday night in the season opener for both teams.

Hall, the redshirt sophomore from Spanish Fork, Utah, made his third career start and first in the post-Zach Wilson era. Hall went 18-of-28 passing for 198 yards with two touchdowns for the Cougars, who won have won 12 of their last 13 games.

Hall also added one catch for nine yards and 36 yards on the ground, including a 39-yard dash down the left sideline that set up his second touchdown pass.

BYU's Neil Pau'u caught eight passes for 126 yards and both of Hall's touchdown passes.

Arizona, which played its first nonconference game in 721 days, lost its 13th consecutive game dating to 2019. It was also the debut for Wildcats coach Jedd Fisch, the former quarterbacks coach for the New England Patriots. Fisch replaced Kevin Sumlin, who went 0-5 in 2020.

Gunner Cruz was 34-for-45 passing for 336 yards with a touchdown and an interception as the Arizona starter. Cruz split time with Will Plummer, who amassed only nine yards passing on three attempts before Cruz finished the game.

THE TAKEAWAY

BYU: Even as the designated road team, the BYU contingent traveled well to Allegiant Stadium. The Cougars benefited greatly from a heavy blue-clad crowd after a slow start in the first quarter, when they had just 69 yards of offense.

Arizona: Despite going 2 for 2 on fourth down in the first half, the Wildcats only mustered three points. Lucas Havrisik missed two of three field goals, a 31-yard attempt in the second quarter and a 44-yarder in the third.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Senior Jordan Brookshire threw for two touchdowns and ran for another, Greg Bell broke a 55-yard scoring run on the fourth play from scrimmage and San Diego State beat Arizona 38-14 on Saturday night to extend the Wildcats' losing streak to 14 games.

Brookshire, who won the starting job late in fall camp, completed 9 of 11 passes for two scores in the first half as the Aztecs took a 35-7 lead.

Brookshire finished 10 of 14 for 183 yards and Bell had 125 yards rushing in 17 carries as the Aztecs opened 2-0 for the third straight season.

San Diego State had 454 total yards, 271 rushing.

Bell's 55-yard touchdown burst over the right side was an early indicator.

After Arizona (0-2) went three-and-out, Brookshire completed a 73-yard pass to Daniel Bellinger to set up a 3-yard scoring run. Bellinger had three catches for 113 yards.

San Diego State's Tyrell Shavers returned a blocked punt 27 yards for a score after Arizona's second three-and-out, and it was 21-0 less than eight minutes into the game.

Arizona's Gunner Cruz, who threw for 336 yards in a season-opening 24-16 loss to BYU last week, was 10 of 19 for 70 yards with a 43-yard scoring pass to Stanley Berryhill III and an interception.

Will Plummer was 8 of 17 for 109 yards and a 7-yard touchdown pass to Tayvian Cunningham after replacing Cruz late in the third quarter.

THE TAKEAWAY

San Diego State: With quarterback play like this, the Aztecs will contend in the Mountain West West. The Aztecs play good defense in their 3-3-5 scheme and with Bell can run the ball; the emergence of Brookshire could give them an arm to compete with the likes of Nevada's Carson Strong, Fresno State's Jake Haener and San Jose State's Nick Starkel.

Arizona: the Wildcats took a step backward after showing well in a 24-16 loss to BYU in Las Vegas last weekend, giving up chunk plays of the sort that hurt them in 2020, when they allowed 473 yards a game, ranking 116th of the 128 FBS teams.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — RJ Martinez threw a 9-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter and Northern Arizona stopped a late 2-point conversion attempt, extending Arizona's school-record losing streak to 15 games with a 21-19 victory Saturday night.

The Lumberjacks (1-2) didn't play like a winless FCS program, coming to life offensively in the second half after struggling in the first. Kevin Daniels scored on a 12-yard TD run in the third quarter and Martinez found Hendrix Johnson in the back of the end zone for a 9-yard score.

Arizona still had one last chance.

Trailing 21-13, the Wildcats (0-3) marched quickly down the field and Jordan McCloud hit Boobie Curry on a 3-yard touchdown pass with 2:16 left. After multiple stops starts, the Lumberjacks pressured McCloud into an incomplete pass on the 2-point conversion.

Northern Arizona fair caught a pooch kick and wound down the clock, picking up one of the biggest wins in program history while ending a losing streak to Arizona that dated to 1932.

Arizona hired coach Jedd Fisch in hopes of ending a losing streak that stretched back to October 2019. The former NFL and college assistant did all the right things off the field, generating a buzz around the program.

Not much has changed on the field so far.

The Wildcats took away some positives after rallying late in a 24-16 loss to No. 23 BYU, but little went right in last week's 38-14 loss to San Diego State.

Arizona's defense was sharp against NAU after giving up 454 yards last week, creating three turnovers and holding the Lumberjacks to 87 first-half yards.

The offense couldn't get out of its own way.

Arizona's offensive line struggled with the Lumberjacks' quickness early and the Wildcats were held to a pair of field goals after starting deep in NAU's end.

Will Plummer found Curry on a 49-yard TD pass, but also threw an interception that Shough returned 28 yards for a touchdown just before halftime, pulling NAU within 13-7.

Arizona's defense then started to bend in the third quarter.

The Wildcats had two players get ejected for targeting and the Lumberjacks picked their way down the field, taking a 14-13 lead on Daniels' TD run.

An interception by Devontae Ingram set NAU up near midfield and the Lumberjacks took advantage of poor Arizona tackling on two long third downs to keep the drive going. Martinez put NAU up 21-13 with his TD pass to Johnson.

McCloud replaced Plummer — who finished 19-of-34 passing for 191 yards with two interceptions — for Arizona's final offensive possession going 6 of 7 for 66 yards

THE TAKEAWAY

Northern Arizona sputtered offensively most of the night, but moved the ball when it needed to and shut down Arizona to pick up one of the biggest wins in program history.

Arizona suffered one of its worst losses ever, plagued by poor tackling and an ineffective offense.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Stanley Berryhill III's punt return of 51 yards was Arizona's longest punt return since Shun Brown's 63-yard return versus UTEP during the 2017 season.
- The Wildcats' first touchdown of the night, a 49-yard completion from Will Plummer to Boobie Curry, was the wide out's first career touchdown.
- Senior transfer linebacker Kenny Hebert's interception to end the first quarter was the first of his career.
- Sophomore Jalen John saw his first action of the season during Arizona's second drive of the third quarter. The halfback gained 37 rushing yards on four carries, eclipsing his yardage total from his freshman season.

RECAP

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Anthony Brown threw for 206 yards and three touchdowns, and No. 3 Oregon handed Arizona its 16th straight loss with a 41-19 victory on Saturday night.

Oregon (4-0, 1-0 Pac-12) extended its winning streak at Autzen Stadium to 15 games. The Ducks are the lone undefeated team left in the Pac-12.

Despite being winless this season, the Wildcats (0-4, 0-1) closed to within 24-19 late in the third quarter on Drake Anderson's 1-yard touchdown run.

Oregon extended its lead with Camden Lewis' 43-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter, then added Brown's 18-yard scoring pass to Spencer Webb to make it 34-19 with 8:26 left.

The Ducks put it away on Bennett Williams' 68-yard interception return for a touchdown on Arizona's ensuing series.

The Ducks got off to a quick start, with Brown's pass to Jaylon Redd for a 63-yard touchdown just more than a minute into the game. Then Oregon intercepted Arizona starter Jordan McCloud on the Wildcats' first series.

Arizona's depth chart this week included all three quarterbacks as possible starters.: Will Plummer, Gunner Cruz and McCloud.

Plummer started last weekend's loss to Northern Arizona, throwing for 191 yards and a touchdown. McCloud was inserted in the fourth quarter, throwing for 66 yards and a score.

It was clear from pre-game warmups that Plummer was nursing an injury. McCloud started and threw for 233 yards and a touchdown, but was intercepted five times.

Lewis gave the Ducks a 10-0 lead with a 21-yard field goal, and Arizona answered with McCloud's 11-yard scoring pass to tight end Bryce Wolma.

CJ Verdell scored on an 11-yard run for the Ducks before the opening quarter was over. Brown's 9-yard scoring pass to Terrance Ferguson gave the Ducks a 24-7 lead.

Lucas Havrisik's 28-yard field goal made it 24-10 with 4:24 left in the half.

Mo Diallo's safety and Anderson's touchdown run narrowed the margin in the third quarter.

Oregon was favored by more than four touchdowns in the game, according to FanDuel Sportsbook. But Arizona had surprised the Ducks before: The Wildcats' last victory over a ranked opponent was in 2018, when they routed No. 19 Oregon 44-15. In 2014, Arizona beat No. 2 Oregon 31-24 in Eugene.

Arizona's losing streak is the longest currently in FBS.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- The Arizona defense held Oregon to 393 yards of total offense, the third time this year the Wildcats have held an opponent under 400 yards. Across the 2019 and 2020 seasons, spanning 17 games, Arizona only held their opponents under 400 yards of total offense once (Arizona State, 11/30/19).
- Anderson's third quarter rushing score was the Wildcats first touchdown on the ground this season. It also marked the first touchdown of Anderson's Arizona career.
- Arizona's safety midway through the third quarter was the second secured by the Wildcats defense this year. It marked the first time that Arizona has recorded multiple safeties in a single season since the 2018 team also logged two safeties.

RECAP

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Brittain Brown ran for 146 yards and a touchdown, Dorian Thompson-Robinson accounted for three touchdowns and UCLA extended Arizona's school-record losing streak to 17 games with a 34-16 victory Saturday night.

UCLA (4-2, 2-1 Pac-12) relied on its ground game early as Thompson-Robinson struggled to find the mark and Brown sealed the victory with a 48-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Thompson-Robinson was limited to 82 yards passing, but ran for two scores and threw for another.

Arizona (0-5, 0-2) struggled in the red zone after moving the ball well against the Bruins and lost quarterback Jordan McCloud to a right knee injury in the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats scored one touchdown in six trips across midfield - three in the red zone - and McCloud was in tears as he was helped off the field after getting twisted up in a sack.

Coming off a 42-23 loss to Arizona State the Bruins went to the ground early against Arizona.

UCLA had 165 yards rushing by halftime and Thompson-Robinson had a hand in two touchdowns. He threw a 3-yard TD pass to Chris Dulcich in the first quarter and scored a 2-yard run in the second to put UCLA up 14-6.

Thompson-Robinson started to hit a few passes in the second half, setting up a 4-yard keeper that put UCLA up 24-16. Brown put the game out of reach by bursting up the middle for his 48-yard score.

The Wildcats have shown signs that their losing streak might come to an end soon and were coming off a bye week.

They had the Bruins on their heels early with their up-tempo offense, marching down the field throughout the first half.

Finishing drives continued to be a problem.

The Wildcats, 124th nationally in red-zone efficiency, had to settle for two field goals after reaching UCLA's 9- and 20-yard lines. A third drive ended at UCLA's 28 on a failed fourth-and-1.

A trick play finally got the Wildcats into the end zone. McCloud threw a back pass to Jamarye Joiner, who then hit Michael Wiley for a 10-yard TD to pull Arizona within 14-13 at halftime.

Arizona reached UCLA's 15 on its opening second-half drive, only to settle for another field goal, thanks to a penalty for blocking below the waist.

Then McCloud went down and so did the Wildcats' chances.

THE TAKEAWAY

UCLA racked up 337 yards rushing and buckled down on the Wildcats defensively in its own end of the field to avoid losing to a team that hasn't won since 2019.

Arizona's red-zone woes continued to take toll. A bigger concern could be McCloud's knee.

RECAP

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — The Colorado Buffaloes scored touchdowns on a blocked punt and an interception in their 34-0 win over Arizona on Saturday that extended the nation's longest losing streak to 18 games.

Stumbling since a season-opening rout of Northern Colorado, the Buffaloes (2-4, 1-2 Pac-12) shook off their four-game losing streak thanks to Trevor Woods' 36 -yard scoop-and-score of the punt he blocked and defensive end Carson Wells' 50-yard interception return for a touchdown on consecutive Arizona possessions.

Brendon Lewis followed up with a 62-yard scoring strike to Brenden Rice that put Colorado ahead 27-0 late in the third quarter.

Lewis finished 12 of 19 for 248 yards and two touchdowns and Rice caught three passes for 111 yards.

The Buffs managed just two first-half field goals against an Arizona team that hasn't won since beating Colorado 35-30 win at Folsom Field on Oct. 5, 2019.

The Wildcats (0-6, 0-3) had played better in recent weeks, keeping No. 9 Oregon and UCLA close until the fourth quarter but this one blew up on them in the third.

The Wildcats turned back to redshirt freshman Gunner Cruz after losing starting quarterback Jordan McCloud to season-ending ankle and knee injuries last week. By the fourth quarter, the Wildcats had turned to fellow freshman Will Plummer.

Neither was effective: Cruz was 13 of 22 for 82 yards and Plummer 7 of 17 for 71 yards.

The first half featured almost as many punts (five) as points as the Buffs took a 6-0 lead into the locker room on the strength of two Cole Becker field goals and a goal line stand.

The Wildcats were stuffed for no gain on three straight runs from the Colorado 1 late in the first half. Arizona coach Jedd Fisch called timeout and called for a fourth-down rollout.

Pressured by linebacker Nate Landman, Cruz misfired his pass to Stanley Berryhill in the end zone. The Buffs took over at their 1 and a defensive holding call gave them some breathing room and allowed them to run out the clock.

Colorado also faced fourth-and-goal from the 1 in the first half, but coach Karl Dorrell sent out his kicker much to the chagrin of the crowd of 49,806.

Becker's 19-yard field goal gave the Buffs their first opening drive score of the season and Dorrell's decision looked much better through the lens of Colorado's second drive that ended in a turnover on downs.

Running back Alex Fontenot was stuffed for no gain on fourth-and-1 from the Arizona 30-yard line.

Fontenot set up Becker's second field goal, from 37 yards out, by hauling in a 43-yard pass at the Arizona 24. Lewis uncorked the pass while under extreme pressure.

Not unexpectedly, the punters had some of the better plays for both teams.

Arizona's Kyle Ostendorf buried the Buffs at their own 3 with a perfectly placed 42-yard punt in the first half and Josh Watts followed that by getting Colorado out of trouble with a 64-yard punt out of his own end zone.

In the first half, the teams combined for nine plays in the red zone and they netted just a dozen yards, all by Colorado.

The Buffs went three-and-out on their first two drives after the break but their defense and special teams helped them break away for a rare rout at Folsom Field.

Lewis capped his big day with an 11-yard touchdown toss to Dimitri Stanley, and Colorado preserved the shutout when cornerback Nikko Reed broke up Plummer's fourth-down pass to Jalen Johnson in the end zone with a minute remaining.

ARIZONA NOTEBOOK

- Freshman running back Jalen John toted the ball 11 times for 71 yards against Colorado, both of which are career-high marks. John averaged 6.5 yards per carry and ripped off a career-long 23-yard rush in the second quarter.
- Arizona held their opponent under 400 yards in total offense for the fourth time this season after having achieved the feat just once across the 2019 and 2020 seasons.
- Colorado's 117 rushing yards are the fewest allowed by the Arizona defense this season, and the lowest opponent rushing mark since holding Texas Tech to 104 yards on the ground in 2019.
