THIS AND THAT

The 85 FGA against Florida Atlantic were the most by an Arizona team since attempting 91 shots against Northern Arizona on 11/24/2003.

Kylan Boswell had five steals in back-to-back games against Alabama and FAU, becoming the first Wildcat since Jason Terry in 1999 to do that.

Oumar Ballo had 21 rebounds against FAU, the most by a Wildcat since Jordan Hill grabbed 22 in 2008.

Ballo and Larsson both reached 1,000 career points in their overall college careers in the Jan. 6 game vs. Utah.

Ballo had 22 points, 13 rebounds on 8 of 8 shooting from the field. He's the only Wildcat since the 1996-97 season to have multiple games scoring 20+ points without missing a shot from the floor - he has 3 such games. The 19-point comeback win against UCLA on Jan. 20 was the largest comeback win for Arizona since defeating Drexel in 2013 after trailing by 19.

Arizona scored 100 points at Cal and 105 points at Utah, marking the first time since the 2008-09 season that the Wildcats scored 100 or more points in multiple Pac-12 Conference games in the same season.

The triple-overtime game at Utah on Feb. 8 was the first triple OT or longer game for Arizona since losing a 4OT game at USC on Jan. 9, 2016. Arizona's last win a 3OT game was Feb. 5, 2011 at Cal (107-105).

MAGIC NUMBER: 90

Arizona is 33-1 under Tommy Lloyd when scoring at least 90 points in a game. The lone loss was a 96-95 double overtime defeat against FAU on Dec. 23, 2023.

LLOYD LEADS THE WAY

Head coach Tommy Lloyd's record is 81-16 in his third season as a head coach. After setting the NCAA record for most wins in his first two seasons (61), the focus turns to the three-year record. The NCAA record for most wins through three seasons is 89 wins by Brad Underwood and Brad Stevens.

THINGS YOU 'LOVE' TO SEE

Senior guard Caleb Love leads the Wildcats in scoring (18.8) for the entire season, is third on the team in assists (80) and has a careerbest assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.8. He is one of 10 players on the Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award Watch List and is one of 30 players nationally on the Naismith Trophy Midseason Watch List and One of 20 on the Wooden Award Late Season Watch Lists for national player of the year.

Love has scored 20+ 11 times this season. including in each of his first five Pac-12 road games at Cal, Stanford, Washington State, Oregon State and Oregon.

The St. Louis native went off for a careerhigh 36 points at Oregon on 12 of 18 shooting overall and 5 of 8 from the 3-point line. The 36 points also set a new singlegame scoring record for Matthew Knight Arena in Eugene.

Love enters the stretch run of conference play as one of the favorites for Pac-12 Player

During Arizona's 6-game win streak, he's averaging 15.2 points, 12.7 rebounds and shooting 71.4% from the floor. He was named the Pac-12 Player of the Week (Dec. 26) after averaging 15.5 points and 16.5 rebounds over two games against Alabama and FAU.

His career FG% currently ranks as the best in Arizona history (63.1%).

Ballo became the 54th player in Arizona history to reach 1,000 career points in a Wildcat uniform with a 22-point, 13-rebound effort against Cal on Feb. 1. He was 8 of 8 from the floor, his third career game scoring 20+ points without missing a shot from the floor.

SWEDISH ARMY KNIFE

Senior wing Pelle Larsson was named Pac-12 Player of the Week on Feb. 12 after averaging 22.5 points, 5.5 rebounds and 5.0 assists in wins at Utah and at Colorado. He scored a career-high 27 points and a career-best eight assists in the win at Utah.

Always willing to be the first one on the floor for a loose ball, Larsson also leads the Wildcats on the defensive end with the ability to effectively guard one through four on the court and is the team leader in charges drawn.

BAM BAM BOSWELL

After graduating high school a year early, Kylan Boswell is an 18-year old sophomore, one of the youngest in the country. He is fifth in the Pac-12 in assists (95) and ninth in steals (35).

After scoring 14 points total over a four game span from Jan. 13-25, Boswell has averaged 11.5 points and 4.0 assists while shooting 35.5% from the 3-point line during Arizona's current 6-game winning streak.

Boswell scored a career-high 18 points in the season opener against Morgan State, and followed that up with 12 points, eight rebounds and five assists at No. 2 Duke on his way to being named Pac-12 Player of the Week. The Champaign, III., native was 4 of 6 from long distance on his way to 14 points against Colorado.

JADEN IS JUMPIN'

Sophomore guard Jaden Bradley transferred to Arizona over the offseason after spending his freshman season at the University of Alabama. His impact is largely felt on the defensive end, but he has 30 assists to just nine turnovers in Pac-12 play. He did score a career-high 21 points in the rout of Arizona State on Feb. 17 while adding five assists and four rebounds.

Bradley has a plus-minus of +274 this season, which is good for third on the team. He's done that despite playing more than 400 fewer possessions than Pelle Larsson (+321) and Caleb Love (+306).

Coming off a 13-point effort against UT Arlington, Bradley was 2 of 2 from the field against Michigan State, but drilled a clutch

17-foot jumper from the top of the key with 1:23 left to extend UA's lead to five.

LOOK OUT FOR LEWIS

Freshman KJ Lewis was a Top 100 recruit in his class, but Coach Lloyd has commented that he may have been underrated. The wing out of El Paso, Texas, is averaging 6.3 points, 3.2 rebounds, 2.1 assists and a 2.6to-1 assist to turnover ratio. He has 31 steals on the year and needs 5 more to break into the top 10 list for steals by a freshman in Arizona history.

In a pair of home wins against Cal and Stanford, Lewis played an average of 21 minutes and scored 13.0 points per game while shooting 64.3% from the floor.

During the current 6-game winning streak, Lewis is averaging 6.7 points, 2.5 rebounds, 2.0 assists and shooting 46.9% from the floor.

Over the summer, Borovicanin played for Serbia at the FIBA U19 World Cup in Hungary. In seven games, he averaged 14.1 points, 7.3 rebounds and 2.7 assists while shooting 47% overall from the floor. Serbia went 5-2 and finished sixth.

MAS MURAUSKAS

The other Lithuanian freshman is 6-foot-9 wing Paulius Murauskas. Known for his outstanding shooting ability, he won't hesitate to let it fly from the perimeter. Murauskas is 13 of 23 (56.5%) from long rang this season and has made at least one 3FG in nine of 15 games played. He exploted for 12 points in just over five minutes of action against Arizona State on Feb. 17.

TOMMY LLOYD

THIRD SEASON

81-16 OVERALL RECORD • 43-11 PAC-12 RECORD

Tommy Lloyd is in his third season as the head coach at Arizona after he was named head coach April 14, 2021, after serving as an assistant coach at Gonzaga the previous 22 seasons. Since he took over in Tucson, Lloyd and the Wildcats have brought a fast, fun and energetic style of play to the McKale Center, consistently ranking among the national leaders in scoring as assists.

His head coaching career has gotten off to a record-breaking start, compiling a 61-11 record through his first two years to set a new NCAA record for most wins by a coach in their first two seasons.

Lloyd is also the first power conference coach to win his conference tournament in his first two seasons after capturing the 2022 and 2023 Pac-12 Tournament titles in Las Vegas.

Year two for Lloyd in Tucson continued to add to the history and tradition of Arizona Basketball, as the Wildcats went 28-7 on the year and finished eighth in the final Associated Press poll of the season and No. 17 in the coaches poll. The Wildcats earned a No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament after being pegged as a No. 1 seed the previous season, marking the first time since 2014 and 2015 that Arizona secured a top two seed in back-to-back NCAA Tournaments.

As a team, Arizona finished the 2022-23 season second in the country in assists per game (18.9) and sixth in scoring (81.9). Individually, Azuolas Tubelis was a consensus Second Team All-American and a first team all-conference honoree. He became the seventh player in Pac-12 history to lead the conference in scoring (19.8) and rebounding (9.1) in the same season.

Oumar Ballo was also a First Team All Pac-12 honoree after finishing second in the conference in rebounding and third in field goal percentage and earning MVP of Maui Invitational. Courtney Ramey earned Pac-12 honorable mention and Kylan Boswell was on the Pac-12 honorable mention all-freshman team.

In his first season as a head coach in 2021-22, he was named National Coach of the Year by the NABC, USBWA and the Associated Press, becoming the first Arizona men's basketball head coach to win any of those awards. He led Arizona to a 33-4 overall record and a 18-2 mark in Pac-12 play to claim the conference's regular season title by three games over UCLA. The Kelso, Washington native set the Pac-12 record for most wins in his first season as head coach and the Wildcats became the first Pac-12 team to ever win 18 regular season conference games. The 33 wins are the second-most in NCAA history for a head coach in his first-ever season as a head coach, falling one short of UNC's Bill Guthridge mark of 34 in 1998.

Under his guidance in 2021-22, sophomore Bennedict Mathurin was named a consensus All-American as well as the Pac-12 Player of the Year and Most Outstanding Player of the Pac-12 Tournament, as he scored 655 points on the season, the ninth-most in Arizona history. Junior center Christian Koloko was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in addition to Pac-12 Most Improved Player of the Year and tied the Arizona single-season record for blocked shots (102) while also increasing his scoring output from 5.3 points per game as a sophomore to 12.6 as a junior and shooting 63.5% from the floor. Sophomore forward Azuolas Tubelis averaged 13.9 points per game and was named First Team All Pac-12 while Dalen Terry was honorable mention all-conference and ranked 12th nationally with a 2.84 assist-to-turnover ratio. Rounding out the award winners from the season was sophomore Pelle Larsson, who shot 47.8% from the floor and averaged 7.2 points and 3.4 rebounds to earn Pac-12 Sixth Man of the Year accolades.

As a team in 2021-22, Arizona led the country and set a new Arizona single-season record with 726 assists. The Wildcats also set a new program record with 210 blocked shots, a total that ranked second nationally. The fast-paced offensive attack led to Arizona averaging 84.0 points per game - third nationally - and the most by an Arizona team since 2003-04.

The Wildcats were also champions in the classroom during Lloyd's first season, recording a then-record setting 3.04 team GPA in the Fall 2021 semester with four players posting a perfect 4.0 GPA. Then in the Spring 2022 semester, the team GPA improved to an all-time program best 3.14 with eight players posting a 3.5 or higher GPA. Arizona also earned NABC Team Academic Excellence award in 2021-22 for having a team GPA of 3.00 or higher, marking the first time that Wildcats had received the honor since the award began in 2012-13 season.

Lloyd, who will turn 49 during the 2023-24 season, served as an administrative assistant at Gonzaga for Few during the 2000-01 season before being promoted to assistant coach prior to the 2001-02 season. In his 20 seasons in Spokane, the Zags posted a record of 578-109 (,841) and reached the NCAA Tournament every year, going as far as the title game twice, the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 four times. Gonzaga was also ranked No. 1 in the country for the first time in program history in 2012-13 and then again ascended to the top spot in 2016-17, 2018-19, 2019-20 and 2020-21.

During his tenure, Lloyd and the Zags won 19 West Coast Conference regular season titles and 15 WCC Tournament championships with the help of 87 all-WCC honorees, including nine newcomers of the year and six defenders of the year.

Coach Lloyd was instrumental in the Zags signing and developing NBA players, including two-time NBA All-Star Domantas Sabonis, Rui Hachimura, Kelly Olynyk, Zach Collins, Adam Morrison, Brandon Clarke, Kyle Wiltjer, Austin Daye, Robert Sacre, Ronny Turiaf, Jeremy Pargo and Elias Harris.

A 1993 graduate of Kelso High School in Washington, Lloyd went on to attend Walla Walla Community College for two seasons and was an All-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges All-East Region selection in 1995. Following his graduation from WWCC, he finished his career at Whitman College, earning his degree in biology and a secondary teaching credential. He played professionally in Brisbane, Australia in 1997 and Dusseldorf, Germany in 1999

Lloyd's contract at Arizona runs through the 2028-29 season after agreeing to a 5-year extension on Feb. 19, 2024.

Lloyd and his wife, Chanelle, have three children - Liam, Sofia and Maria.

THREE EXHIBITION GAMES

In addition to the sites mentioned above, the team also played three exhibitiong games on the trip - one in Israel and two in Abu Dhabi. Here's a brief look back at each of the three:

Arizona 124, Israel Select 77

The Wildcats outscored the Israel Select team, 72-42, in the second half and shot 58% from the floor for the game. Six Wildcats scored in double figures, led by Keshad Johnson's 24 point, eight rebound performance. Filip Borovicanin scored 13 points and made a trio of 3-pointers while Paulius Murauskas added 17 points. LLOYD INKS EXTENSION THROUGH 2028-29

(Feb. 19, 2024) - The University of Arizona and men's basketball head coach Tommy Lloyd have agreed on a five-year contract extension that will keep Lloyd in Tucson until at least 2029, pending approval by the Arizona Board of Regents.

"Tommy has proven to be a championship coach, an exceptional leader and recruiter, and has reinvigorated Wildcat pride by transforming the University of Arizona men's basketball program back into one of the top programs in the nation. We are thrilled that he will remain a Wildcat for years to come," said University of Arizona President Robert C. Robbins. "Thanks to the generosity of many in our community who love and support this university and are invested in its future, donor funds have been secured to cover the full cost increase of the extension."

Donor funds have been secured to fully cover the increase in Lloyd's university-paid compensation throughout the term of the extension. The five-year agreement includes total compensation of $5,250,000 in year one escalating to $6,000,000 in year five. Total compensation includes base salary and additional duties pay plus annual funding from agreements with Nike and Learfield.

Since arriving at Arizona in 2021, Lloyd has led the Wildcats to an 81-16 overall record, including going 43-11 in Pac-12 Conference play. He set the NCAA record for most wins by a head coach through his first two seasons with 61, while guiding Arizona to the 2022 Pac-12 regular season championship and back-to-back Pac-12 Tournament titles in 2022 and 2023

Arizona has been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll for 52 straight weeks (including Feb. 5 poll) under Lloyd and inside the top 10 for 41 of those weeks (as of Feb. 12). Arizona Basketball reached the No. 1 overall ranking in the AP poll earlier this season for the first time in a decade.

"I am humbled and grateful to finalize a long-term extension here at the University of Arizona. I am energized by the support of our fans, our players, our alumni, President Robbins, the Board of Regents and our donors," said Lloyd. "All of us are aligned on maintaining a highly competitive and nationally recognized basketball program that provides a great experience for the student athletes. We will continue to honor the Wildcat basketball heritage and give everything we have to make people proud to say 'Bear Down!"

In his first season, the Wildcats won the 2022 Pac-12 Conference Championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament's Sweet Sixteen with Lloyd named as the National Coach Year by the Associated Press, the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the United States Basketball Writers Association, as well as being named the Pac-12 Conference Coach of the Year. The following season, the program earned yet another berth to the NCAA Tournament.

McKale Center continues its legacy as one of the top venues in the country during Lloyd's tenure. The program led the Pac-12 Conference in attendance in each of his first two seasons as head coach and is on pace to lead the league this season as well. By leading the conference in attendance in 2023-24, Arizona will extend its streak as the Pac-12's attendance leader for a 40th consecutive season. Lloyd's teams have continued the program's dominance at home on the court as well, winning 95% of home games during the last three seasons.

It has also been a record-setting time in the classroom for the Wildcats, having twice set a new program record for semester GPA. Most recently, the team posted a GPA of 3.159 in the Fall 2023 semester, the best team GPA in a semester in program history, overtaking the previous record of 3.14 in the Spring 2022 semester.

Lloyd's coaching excellence at Arizona has also elevated his place at the highest international levels of basketball. He was recently named the head coach of the USA Basketball U18 National Team for the 2024 FIBA U18 Men's AmeriCup.

DESIREE REED-FRANCOIS NAMED ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

(Feb. 19, 2024) - Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Desireé Reed-Francois has been appointed the University of Arizona's new Director of Athletics, pending approval by the Arizona Board of Regents, President Robert C. Robbins announced today. Reed-Francois currently serves as the Director of Athletics at the University of Missouri and will begin her tenure in Tucson on March 3

The terms of the five-year contract include an annual base salary of $1 million in year one elevating to $1.2 million in year five, with an additional $250,000 annual contribution from the University of Arizona Foundation. Reed-Francois will have the opportunity for additional incentive compensation based on the department's athletic and academic success, as well as retention bonuses after four and five years of employment with the University. Thanks to Wildcat supporters who continue to show their deep commitment to the University and Arizona Athletics, any retention bonus or buyout expenses for Reed-Francois will be fully covered by donor funds. Donor funds have also been secured to cover the full payout costs of the University's previous athletic director.

Reed-Francois brings proven business expertise and financial acumen to the Director of Athletics position. She is an accomplished fundraiser and relationship builder and has transformed two collegiate athletic departments into high-performing, cost-effective operations. Reed-Francois also has deep ties to the University of Arizona, where she earned her juris doctorate from the James E. Rogers College of Law in 1997.

Reed-Francois has served as the Director of Athletics at the University of Missouri since 2021, raising the athletics program's profile over the past several years to include a top 10 football program, postseason berths across multiple sports, and enhancements to student-athlete welfare and support. In addition to hiring six head coaches, she has overseen the department's first budget surplus in six years; record-breaking successes in fundraising, including securing the largest gift in Missouri Athletics history of $62 million; five straight semesters of record student-athlete GPAs; attendance growth in football and basketball; the opening of the Stephens Indoor Football Practice Center; significant upgrades to the game-day experience for fans; the growth of the Missouri brand across the state and country; and implementation of innovative Name Image Likeness (NIL) initiatives

"There are very few institutions that would entice me to leave an SEC athletics department with strong momentum," said Reed-Francois. "The University of Arizona has tremendous potential and is an institution — and an athletics program — on the rise, and I want to be a part of shaping that future. We will provide a world-class student-athlete experience, which includes competing for championships and being among the nation's elite. I am grateful to President Robbins and the Arizona Board of Regents for this incredible opportunity."

Prior to her tenure in Columbia, Reed-Francois served as the Director of Athletics at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (2017-2021), revitalizing the department. During her time with the Rebels, she completed or implemented more than $70 million in facility upgrades; hired seven head coaches, including three who earned conference Coach of the Year honors early in their tenures; oversaw the completion and opening of a $35 million on-campus football training complex; and successfully negotiated a joint-use agreement with the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders with the opening of the new $2 billion Alleqiant Stadium.

Prior to ascending to the director's chair, Reed-Francois served several institutions in leadership roles, including as the Deputy Athletics Director at Virginia Tech, as a Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Cincinnati and as the Senior Associate Athletics Director at the University of Tennessee. Additionally, she has worked at Fresno State University, Santa Clara University, San Jose State University, the University of California Berkeley and the University of San Francisco. She also has experience at the professional levels, working with the then Oakland Raiders and the National Football League Management Council.

Reed-Francois currently is the Vice Chair of the Lead1 Association Board of Directors and serves on the organization's executive committee, as well as on the boards of Women Leaders in Sports, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches. Reed-Francois recently served as Vice Chair of the NCAA Baseball Selection Committee and formerly was a member of the College Football Playoff Committee's operations committee. In addition, she is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) and has been a presenter at NACDA, NACMA, Women Leaders in Sports, and Sports Business Journal's annual conventions.

Reed-Francois was a rower at UCLA, where she graduated with a degree in political science before earning her juris doctorate from the University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law. She is a member of the State Bar of California and has taught law classes at the University of Tennessee and at Santa Clara University.

She and her husband, Josh Francois, have a son, Jackson, who is currently a sophomore on the men's basketball team at the University of Missouri.
