SOME GAME THEMES: The Arizona Wildcats (8-3, 5-3) head north to face the Arizona State Sun Devils (8-3, 6-2) in the 99th iteration of the Territorial Cup, the nation's oldest rivalry trophy game...Friday's game will be nationally televised on FOX with Tim Brando (play-by-play), Devin Gardner (analyst), and Josh Sims (reporter) on the call...The game will also be broadcast live on Wildcats Radio 1290 AM and KHYT 107.5 FM featuring play-by-play from the Voice of the Wildcats, Brian Jeffries...Arizona and Arizona State have faced off 98 times previously, with games dating back to 1899 and the Wildcats holding a 51-46-1 edge in the all-time series...The Wildcats have won two of the last three meetings in the Territorial Cup, including the most recent matchup in Tempe in 2023...The Sun Devils won last year's contest, 49-7, in Tucson...The Wildcats dominant win last week over the Baylor Bears secured a winning conference record for Arizona, their first in the Big 12...Arizona has reached the eight-win mark for the 19th time in program history; it is the first eight-win season for Head Coach Brent Brennan.

THE NATION'S OLDEST RIVALRY TROPHY: In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona–Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player. On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game: the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists. Each year, members of the media vote on the Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor has been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.

LAST TIME OUT: The Wildcats defense posted a second half shutout while the Arizona offense scored 21 points to pull away from Baylor for a come-from-behind victory. Saturday's win secured a 6-1 home record for Arizona this season. Additional highlights from the Baylor game includes...

Notable Postgame Notes

- Arizona improved to 8-3 on the year with a 5-3 record in Big 12 Conference play. The Wildcats are now guaranteed to have a winning record in conference play. This marks the 19th time that Arizona has boasted a winning record in conference play since the Wildcats joined the Pac-12 Conference in 1978.
- The Wildcats finished their home slate with a record of 6-1 in seven home games, tying the program record for home wins in a season. Arizona has won six home games seven times, with this season being the first time since 2014.
- The Wildcats defense pitched a shutout in the second half while limiting Baylor to only 135 yards. Arizona has now posted 15 scoreless quarters this year. Arizona's defense has allowed just 84 points in the second half and 36 in the fourth quarter this year.
- DB Dalton Johnson led the Wildcats defense with a career-high 18 tackles, the most by a Wildcat since Scooby Wright has 19 at UCLA on Nov. 1, 2014.
- RB Kedrick Reescano paced the offense with a trio of touchdowns, giving him eight rushing touchdowns on the year. It was the first three rushing touchdown performance by a Wildcat since Quali Conley accomplished the feat against New Mexico in the 2024 season opener.

DALTON JOHNSON VOTED AS BIG 12 DPOTW: Arizona Football defensive back Dalton Johnson has been selected as the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week, the Big 12 Conference announced on Monday morning. For Johnson it is the first conference weekly award of his career, and for Arizona it marks the program's first Defensive POTW honor since DB Genesis Smith earned the recognition last November. Johnson led the Wildcats with a career-high 18 tackles and 0.5 TFL on Senior Day against Baylor, logging the most total tackles by a Wildcat since 2014. The fifth-year standout led the Wildcats secondary as they limited the nation's top passer to just 162 yards and only 40 in the second half. Johnson and the Wildcats defense held Baylor to just 343 total yards, their second lowest output of the season.

NOAH'S ARC: Redshirt junior quarterback Noah Fifita, one of the most prolific passers in program history, returns behind center to lead the Wildcats offense in 2025. The California native has logged three-plus seasons and 38 games with the Wildcats since his true freshman campaign in 2022. Over that span he has etched his name into the Arizona record books and looks to cement his legacy even further this season. Fifita currently sports 69 career passing touchdowns and 8,632 career passing yards, marks that rank first and third in program history, respectively. Fifita broke the Wildcats career passing touchdowns record in a ranked road victory at Cincinnati on Nov. 15; his 15-yard pass to WR Gio Richardson rewrote the Arizona record books. The fourth-year signal caller was selected to a trio of watch lists this preseason, earning national recognition from the Maxwell Award, the Polynesian Player of the Year Award, and the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. He was also added to the Manning Award watch list last month and has earned a pair of Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week nods.

GRAB YOUR ~~BOWLING~~ SADDLE SHOES: With their comeback win over Kansas two weeks ago, the Wildcats are now bowl eligible for the first time under head coach Brent Brennan. This marks the first time that Arizona is bowl eligible since 2023, and just the third time in the last nine seasons (also: 2017). The Wildcats have played in 22 bowl games in program history, with a record 10-11-1 in those games. Arizona's most recent bowl appearance was in the 2023 Valero Alamo Bowl in a matchup against the No. 12 Oklahoma Sooners; the Wildcats won the game, 38-24. Arizona remains tied to the Pac-12 legacy bowl affiliations: Alamo Bowl, Holiday Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Sun Bowl, LA Bowl. After those selections have been exhausted, they are eligible for Big 12 affiliated bowls: Pop-Tarts Bowl, Texas Bowl, Liberty Bowl, Rate Bowl, Independence Bowl.

NO FLY ZONE: Arizona's defense, in particular their pass defense, has led the charge for the Wildcats turnaround this season. While the Arizona defense as a whole ranks 21st nationally, the Wildcats ability to defend the pass has truly impressed. The Cats have allowed the sixth-fewest pass yards per game in the nation, while their pass efficiency defense mark ranks second among all FBS programs. A large part of their success is the secondary feasting on interceptions, with their 16 picks leading the Big 12 Conference and ranking sixth nationally. It doesn't stop at interceptions, though; Arizona's lockdown pass defense has held seven consecutive opponents to under 200 passing yards, the longest active streak in the FBS. The last Big 12 team with a longer run was Missouri's eight-game stretch during the 2004 season (via Stats Perform). Arizona's defense has allowed opponents to throw for multiple touchdowns just twice this year (at Houston, at Colorado) and has limited all nine remaining opponents to one or fewer. The Wildcats opened the year with five consecutive games without allowing a passing touchdown.

ON THE MARK: In the Wildcats week eight contest at Houston, quarterback Noah Fifita completed 24-of-26 passes for a 92.3% completion rate, tying the Arizona single-game program record. Fifita's ultra-accurate outing was the fourth best in the FBS this season, and the third best by a road quarterback in the last 30 years (minimum 25 attempts). Fifita is one of only three quarterbacks in the nation this season with a 90%-plus completion percentage in a game with 25 or more attempts.

THE WHOLE 99: The Wildcats retook the lead midway through the third quarter last week at Cincinnati with a 99-yard drive that was capped by a 50-yard rush from RB Kedrick Reescano. The extended march was the Wildcats first 99-yard drive since going the maximum against Texas Tech in September 2019. Prior to that, Arizona's most recent 99-yard drive came against Northern Arizona in 2009, giving the Wildcats only three 99-yard drives in the last 17 seasons.

Arizona's Recent 99-Yard Drives

Date	Opponent	Plays-Yards	How Scored
11/15/25	at Cincinnati	6-99	K. Reescano 50-yard rush
9/14/19	Texas Tech	13-99	G. Brightwell 1-yard rush
9/12/09	Northern Arizona	17-99	M. Scott 2-yard pass

UNSHEATH THE SWORD: Arizona's turnover sword has been busy this season, seeing use in 8-of-10 games so far with multiple uses in six separate games. The Wildcats 20 turnovers forced through 10 games are tied for the 8th most in the nation and the most for the program since creating 25 turnovers across 13 games in 2017. With five turnovers against Colorado and Hawai'i, the Wildcats now boast multiple five-turnover

WILDCATS IN THE NFL: The Arizona Wildcats are once again well represented in the NFL, with 11 players currently sprinkled throughout league rosters. Highlighting the group of former Wildcats are a pair of first round picks in Tetairoa McMillan (2025) and Jordan Morgan (2024). With his selection earlier this year, McMillan became the 12th Arizona player to earn a first round NFL Draft pick. He joined a list that includes Morgan (2024; 25th, Green Bay), Antoine Cason (2008; 27th, San Diego), Trung Canidate (2000; 31st, St. Louis), Chris McAlister (1999; 10th, Baltimore), John Fina (1992; 27th, Buffalo), Chris Singleton (1990; 8th, New England), Anthony Smith (1990; 11th, Oakland), Rickey Hunley (1984; 7th, Cincinnati), Mike Dawson (1976; 22nd, Arizona), Bill Lueck (1968; 26, Green Bay), and Walt Nelson (1939; 10th, New York Giants). McMillan was the first of four Wildcats selected in the 2025 NFL Draft, marking the most Arizona picks since 2008.

EDUCATION

- UCLA — Bachelor's degree in History

Brent Brennan was named Head Coach of Arizona Football in January of 2024. Brennan enters his second season at the helm of the Wildcats in 2025, following seven seasons leading the San José State University football program where he steered the Spartans to three bowl game appearances and earned 2020 Mountain West Coach of the Year.

Brennan, 52, is an experienced leader in college football who enjoyed two stints coaching under legendary Arizona head coach Dick Tomey, the winningest coach in program history. The San José native first learned under Tomey with the Wildcats as a graduate assistant in 2000, and again from 2005-09 at SJSU as an assistant coach. The ties between Brennan and the University of Arizona run deep, with Brent's brother Bradley playing five years as a wide out in Tucson under Tomey, and Brent's wife Courtney being an alumna of the University.

Among a multitude of accomplishments at San José State, Brennan became the first head coach in SJSU history to lead the Spartans to three bowl games in a four-year span. He also steered SJSU to back-to-back winning seasons in 2022 and 2023, marking the first time it had been accomplished by the Spartans since the 1991-92 campaigns.

Throughout Brennan's lengthy and accomplished career, he helped develop five All-Americans and 19 Professional Football players, including six who enjoyed NFL careers of five-plus seasons.

The 2023 season at San José State saw Brennan's Spartans charge down the final stretch of the season, winning six consecutive conference games to close out the regular season and earn a bowl berth. During that six-game stretch Brennan's offense averaged over 38 points per game while the defense held opponents to a meager 17.8 points per game. SJSU's offensive efforts were fueled by ball security, turning the ball over just 10 times, the best mark in the Mountain West and the ninth best in the nation. The trend was continued from the 2022 campaign in which the Spartans led the country with only six turnovers on offense and a +12 turnover margin that led the MWC.

"I am so blessed and excited to come back to the University of Arizona," Brennan said. "This incredible university is special to my family and I as it's where I started as a coach as part Coach Tomey's legacy. I can't wait to meet the players, families, fans, alumni and supporters and build on the success the players and staff have started. Bear Down and Go Cats!"

Across time as a coach and player, Brennan has been part of nine teams that reached bowl games including in each of the last two years at San José State. The highlight of his SJSU tenure was a remarkable 7-1 campaign in 2020 that secured the Spartans their first Mountain West Conference championship and the school's first outright conference championship since topping the Big West in 1990.

Since that impressive 2020 season under Brennan's leadership, the Spartans have posted a 20-10 record against Mountain West competition and went 26-19 overall.

Brennan twice had the opportunity to learn from Dick Tomey, first as a graduate assistant at Arizona in 2000 and again as an assistant coach at San José State from 2005-09. His crossover with Tomey at SJSU included the Spartans impressive 9-4 campaign in 2006 that concluded with a victory over the University of New Mexico in the New Mexico Bowl. That 2006 season orchestrated by Tomey and Brennan still stands as one of just 14 nine-plus win seasons in SJSU history.

A former wide receiver during his playing days, Brennan has long been regarded as an exceptional offensive mind. Players recruited and coached by Brennan litter the San José State receiving record books, while his time at Oregon State from 2001-15 included the mentorship of numerous standouts highlighted by 2013 Biletnikoff Award winner Brandin Cooks.

Prior to his second stint in San José, Brennan logged six seasons coaching wide receivers at Oregon State where he and the offensive staff fielded some of the most dangerous offenses in the country. The Beavers passing attack was explosive and relentless, ranking top 20 nationally in 2011 (19th), 2012 (20th), and 2013 (3rd).

Brennan also logged time with Cal Poly (2001-04) as an assistant coach. He opened his coaching career with Woodside High School in California before securing a trio of one-year graduate assistant positions at Hawai'i (1998), Washington (1999), and Arizona (2000).

His playing career spanned five seasons at UCLA as a wide receiver, where he lettered as part of the Bruins 1993 Rose Bowl team. Brennan earned a degree in history from UCLA in 1996.

Brennan and his wife Courtney are the proud parents to two daughters, Blake and Casey, and one son, Scott.

The Nation's Oldest Rivalry Trophy

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its Hall of Fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player.

On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game - the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a "Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. Now, to ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup moves from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists.

Each year, members of the media vote on a Most Valuable Player at the conclusion of the game. Since 2008, the honor as been named the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player Award, named after the longtime East Valley Tribune sports reporter who also worked at the Arizona Daily Star for 13 years and covered both schools as a beat writer and columnist. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, has become the physical award given to the game's MVP. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, is presented and kept each year by the winning coach.
