POSTGAME NOTES

TEAM NOTES

» Arizona expanded their lead in the Territorial Cup to 52-46-1 and have now won two of the last three.

» The Cats have now won back-to-back road Territorial Cups for the first time since 2009 and 2011.

» The Wildcats improved to 9-3 on the year and finished their second regular season in the Big 12 with a 6-3 conference record.
  » Arizona has won five consecutive games for just the third time in the 21st centuray and the 23rd time in program history.

» Arizona has now won nine games for just the eighth time in program history and the sixth time since the program joined the Pac-12 Conference in 1978.

» Head Coach Brent Brennan has now won nine games for the first time in his head coaching career. His nine victories are tied for the most by an Arizona second-year head coach in program history (also: James C. Young, 1974, 9-2).

» Friday's win was the Wildcats eighth all-time victory over a team ranked in the College Football Playoff rankings.

» The Wildcats dominant Territorial Cup victory wrapped up an undefeated 5-0 November for Arizona, marking the first five-win November in program history (records from 1899–1930 do not include game dates).
  » It is the 13th undefeated November in program history and just the second in the 21st century (also: 2023, 4-0).
  » Arizona also collected three road wins in November for the first time in program history.

» Friday's win marks the first time winning 5 games in November and first time winning 3 road games in November for the Wildcats.

» Arizona's forced five turnovers and now have 28 turnovers on the year, their most in a season since the 2000 team created 33.

» The Wildcats defense shut out the ASU offense in three of four quarters, and now has five shutout periods across the last two games.
  » Arizona has allowed just 36 points in the fourth quarter this year, and average of 3 points per game in the final period.

» Arizona limited ASU to just 214 yards, their lowest offensive output since Utah held them to 83 yards in November 2023.
  » ASU's seven points are the fewest since that same game, when Utah limited them to 3.
  » The seven points scored by ASU are their fewest in the Territorial Cup since scoring seven in 1992 (W, 7-6).
  » The Wildcats limited the Sun Devils to just 114 yards through the air, marking Arizona's eighth straight game holding their opponent under 200 yards through the air. It is the longest streak in the Big 12 Conference since Missouri strung together eight such games in 2004.
