THE BEAR DOWN ORIGIN STORY

"Tell the Team to Bear Down"

John Byrd "Button" Salmon was the university's student body president and quarterback, and his enthusiasm, determination, and leadership left a lasting mark. After a car accident in 1926, Salmon's final words to his teammates – "Tell them... tell the team to bear down" – became a rallying cry for Wildcats. From classrooms to locker rooms, the phrase has inspired generations, becoming the University of Arizona's official motto and an enduring symbol of perseverance and excellence.

MOST RECENT MEETING

TUCSON, Ariz. — No. 2 Arizona overwhelmed Auburn from start to finish Saturday night, cruising to a 97-68 win behind a dominant offensive performance and a balanced effort across its starting lineup.

Arizona (8-0) shot a blistering 61% from the field and outscored Auburn 60-24 in the paint, using its size, pace, and unselfish play to remain unbeaten. The Wildcats took control late in the first half with a 15-0 run and never allowed the Tigers (7-3) to creep back within striking distance.

Freshman forward Koa Peat powered Arizona with 18 points on 8-of-11 shooting, flashing his versatility with strong drives, mid-range touch, and active work on the glass. Jaden Bradley and Brayden Burries added 16 points apiece, both repeatedly slicing through the Auburn defense in transition.

Arizona's interior presence set the tone early. Motiejus Krivas finished with eight points and nine rebounds, helping the Wildcats build a 44-32 halftime lead that ballooned to more than 30 in the second half. The Wildcats also dominated the assist battle 23-7, with Ivan Kharchenkov posting a game-high eight assists to go with 12 points.

Auburn struggled to keep pace despite a 30-point explosion from freshman guard Tahaad Pettiford, who knocked down five 3-pointers and was one of the Tigers' few consistent scoring options. Auburn shot just 33% from the field and committed 15 turnovers, repeatedly feeding Arizona's transition attack.

The Wildcats' depth again proved decisive, with the bench contributing 27 points and providing steady defense during the team's second-half surge. Arizona outscored Auburn 53-36 after the break and led by as many as 31 in front of a sold-out McKale Center crowd of 14,688.

Tommy Lloyd has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in college basketball history, building a powerhouse at the University of Arizona defined by winning, player development, and sustained national relevance. Since taking the reins of the Wildcats in 2021-22, Lloyd has authored the most accomplished opening stretch for a head coach in NCAA history, leading Arizona to six conference championships, deep NCAA Tournament runs, and a return to the Final Four—while setting multiple national records along the way.

Now in his sixth season at Arizona, Lloyd's teams have become synonymous with unselfish play, offensive efficiency, and championship results, positioning the Wildcats among the elite programs in the country. He is one of four coaches to be named National Coach of the Year in twice within his first five years as a college head coach, joining Fred Taylor (Ohio State), Tom Izzo (Michigan State) and Roy Williams (Kansas).

AT ARIZONA

Since being named head coach on April 14, 2021, Tommy Lloyd has delivered unprecedented success in Tucson. Through his first five seasons, Lloyd compiled a 148–36 record, setting the NCAA record for most wins by a head coach in his first five seasons, while also posting a 61–11 mark across his first two years—another NCAA record.

There have been eight seasons of 30 or more wins in Arizona basketball history, and two have come under Lloyd's guidance.

The Wildcats enjoyed the most successful season in program history during the 2025–26 campaign, winning a school-record 36 games, capturing both the Big 12 regular season championship and Big 12 Tournament title, and advancing to the Final Four for the first time since 2001. Arizona finished the season ranked No. 3 in both the AP Poll and KenPom, boasting the No. 5 offense and No. 2 defense nationally. Lloyd earned Naismith National Coach of the Year, The Sporting News National Coach of the Year, and Big 12 Coach of the Year honors.

Across his tenure, Lloyd has guided Arizona to:
• Three conference regular season championships (2022, 2024, 2026)
• Three conference tournament titles (2022, 2023, 2026)
• Four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in five seasons
• A Final Four appearance in 2026

Arizona is one of only eight programs nationally with 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins since the start of the 2021-22 season.

Lloyd's teams have consistently been among the nation's most efficient offensively. Since 2021-22, Arizona leads the country in total assists, ranks among the top teams in scoring, and leads all major-conference programs in field goal percentage, reflecting his hallmark team-first style of play.

Individually, Lloyd has coached three different conference Players of the Year—Bennedict Mathurin (2022), Caleb Love (2024), and Jaden Bradley (2026)—and has seen five players selected in the NBA Draft, including multiple first-round picks. His immediate impact was evident in 2021-22, when he became the first Arizona men's basketball coach ever to earn Associated Press, USBWA, and NABC National Coach of the Year honors after leading the Wildcats to a 33–4 record and the Pac-12 regular season title.

Lloyd is also the first power conference coach to win his conference tournament in his first two seasons after capturing the 2022 and 2023 Pac-12 Tournament titles in Las Vegas.

The Wildcats were also champions in the classroom during Lloyd's first season, recording a then-record setting 3.04 team GPA in the Fall 2021 semester with four players posting a perfect 4.0 GPA. Then in the Spring 2022 semester, the team GPA improved to an all-time program best 3.14 with eight players posting a 3.5 or higher GPA. Arizona also earned NABC Team Academic Excellence award in 2021-22 for having a team GPA of 3.00 or higher, marking the first time that Wildcats had received the honor since the award began in 2012-13 season.

In April 2026, Lloyd signed a contract extension through the 2030–31 season, solidifying continuity

PRIOR TO ARIZONA

Lloyd, who will turn 52 during the 2026-27 season, served as an administrative assistant at Gonzaga for Few during the 2000-01 season before being promoted to assistant coach prior to the 2001-02 season. In his 20 seasons in Spokane, the Zags posted a record of 578-109 (.841) and reached the NCAA Tournament every year, going as far as the title game twice, the Elite Eight twice and the Sweet 16 four times. Gonzaga was also ranked No. 1 in the country for the first time in program history in 2012-13 and then again ascended to the top spot in 2016-17, 2018-19, 2019-20 and 2020-21.

During his tenure, Lloyd and the Zags won 19 West Coast Conference regular season titles and 15 WCC Tournament championships with the help of 87 all-WCC honorees, including nine newcomers of the year and six defenders of the year.

Coach Lloyd was instrumental in the Zags signing and developing NBA players, including two-time NBA All-Star Domantas Sabonis, Rui Hachimura, Kelly Olynyk, Zach Collins, Adam Morrison, Brandon Clarke, Kyle Wiltjer, Austin Daye, Robert Sacre, Ronny Turiaf, Jeremy Pargo and Elias Harris.

Lloyd has used his knowledge of the European game to help Gonzaga players earn professional contracts overseas while also helping to cultivate recruiting relationships that have led to the signing of international players such as Martynas Arlauskas (Lithuania), Joel Ayayi (France), Oumar Ballo (Mali) and Pavel Zakharov (Russia). Also included among his former players are Japanese National Team member Hachimura; Polish National Team member Przemek Karnowski; Lithuanian National Team member Sabonis (the son of Naismith Hall of Famer Arvydas Sabonis); Canadians Kevin Pangos, Olynyk and Sacre; Germans Harris and Mathis Mönninghoff; JP Baptista of Brazil; Frenchmen Turiaf, Killian Tillie and Mathis Keita; Filip Petrusev of Serbia; Guy Landry Edi of the Ivory Coast; and Addullahi Kuso of Nigeria.

The Zags have had one of the most potent offenses in the nation over the last 20 years, joining North Carolina and Duke as the only three schools in the country to average more than 80 points per game. Gonzaga also led the country in overall field goal percentage (49.6%) and three-point field goal percentage (37.9%) in that span.

PERSONAL

A 1993 graduate of Kelso High School in Washington, Lloyd went on to attend Walla Walla Community College for two seasons and was an All-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges All-East Region selection in 1995. Following his graduation from WWCC, he finished his career at Whitman College, earning his degree in biology and a secondary teaching credential. He played professionally in Brisbane, Australia in 1997 and Dusseldorf, Germany in 1999.

Lloyd and his wife, Chanelle, have three children - Liam, Sofia and Maria - and three grandchildren, Luka, Londyn, Roman.

Liam played basketball two seasons at Grand Canyon University (2020-22) and two seasons at Northern Arizona University (2022-24) before transferring to play at Arizona for his fifth season. He appeared in 110 games over five seasons, making 57 starts, and scoring a total of 447 points in his college career.
