TEAM ACADEMIC AWARD: The Arkansas State football team has won the Sun Belt Conference Team Academic Award five of the past six years.

THE ARKANSAS STATE-NORTH TEXAS SERIES: Arkansas State is 10-8 all-time against North Texas and has won the last four meetings, including a 31-24 victory at Fouts Field in 2005 that secured its spot in the New Orleans Bowl. Three of the last four meetings between the two teams have been decided by a touchdown or less, including a 33-28 ASU victory last season at Fouts. The last time the two teams played at ASU Stadium, Arkansas State pulled out a 31-27 win decided in the game's last two minutes. The Red Wolves four-game winning streak against the Mean Green is currently their longest against any Sun Belt Conference opponent. The all-time series dates back to the 1983 season, when NT defeated ASU 17-0 at War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock.

ARKANSAS STATE vs. THE SUN BELT CONFERENCE: Arkansas State is 57-59-1 all-time against current members of the Sun Belt Conference. Since the league's inaugural football season in 2001, the Red Wolves are 28-32 against all opponents that have been a member of the league. Against current members of the conference, ASU is 23-28 since 2001. The Red Wolves hold their most all-time victories against Louisiana-Lafayette with 17, while its most victories against a Sun Belt opponent since 2001 is Louisiana-Monroe with five. The Red Wolves have defeated every team in the Sun Belt Conference since the football league was formed in 2001 with the exception of Western Kentucky, which ASU will play for the first time on Dec. 3.

OLD TIES: While Arkansas State and North Texas have met the past eight seasons as Sun Belt Conference opponents, it is not the first time the two teams have shared a league. Both the Red Wolves and the Mean Green were members of the Big West Conference from 1999-2000 and the Southland Conference from 1983-1986.

LONE STAR SUCCESS: Dating back to the 2007 season, Arkansas State has won its last five games against teams from the Lone Star state. The Red Wolves fell to Texas in their 2007 season opener, but came back to sweep their games over SMU and North Texas before knocking off Texas A&M, Texas Southern and North Texas in 2008.

THE DOCTOR IS IN: Junior safety M.D. Jennings recorded a team-high nine tackles, two pass break-ups and an interception in the Red Wolves game against Middle Tennessee. Jennings' nine tackles, which included 0.5 TFL, was his second most of the season and tied the most by either team during the game. While the interception was Jennings' first of the season, it was the fifth of his career. Jennings now leads ASU in tackles (63), pass break-ups (6) and fumble recoveries (3).

CARRINGTON MOVES UP RECORDS LIST: Alex Carrington recorded his fourth sack of the season against Middle Tennessee and now has 16.5 for his career, which is the sixth most in school history. He passed Lynn Rowland and Michael Cline on the ASU records chart. He needs one more sack to take over fifth place in the record books.

ATTACKING THE BACKFIELD: ASU recorded 7.0 tackles for loss against the Blue Raiders, its third most of the season. It was the most tackles behind the line of scrimmage for ASU since it posted 9.0 against Troy. Alex Carrington, who finished the game with 1 TFL, now has a team-leading 8.5 for the season.

ARNOLD NOTABLES: Senior RB Reggie Arnold scored his team-leading 11th rushing TD of the season against Middle Tennessee last week, giving him 32 for his career and leaving him just one shy of tying the second most in school history. . . Arnold posted his most rushing yards (55) since the FIU game when he had 104. Now with 3,775 career yards, he is 173 yards away from breaking the school record for career rushing yards.

NO RUNNING ROOM: STREAK COMES TO A CLOSE: ASU has allowed just one 100-yard rusher this season. The Red Wolves entered their game against FAU as one of just eight teams in the nation to not allow a 100-yard rusher this season. FAU's Alfred Morris rushed for 117 yards in the game two weeks ago.

STRONG D: Arkansas State is currently ranked No. 3 in the Sun Belt Conference and No. 59 in the nation in total defense, allowing 359.4 yards per game. If the season ended today, ASU would be ranked among the top three teams in the Sun Belt Conference and top half of all teams in the nation in total defense for the fourth consecutive year. Below is a break down of ASU's defensive statistical rankings for the last four years:

Year	SBC Rank	National Rank	YPG
2008	2	46	336.5
2007	1	43	362.3
2006	2	32	309.4

ELITE EIGHT: After rushing for over 1,000 yards each of his first three seasons, senior Reggie Arnold can become the eighth player in NCAA history to hit the rushing mark all four years of his career. The seven players who have currently achieved the feat are Tony Dorsett of Pitt (1973-76), Amos Lawrence of North Carolina (1977-80), Denvin Manns of New Mexico State (1996-99), Cedric Benson of Texas (2002-05), Ron Dayne of Wisconsin (1996-99), DonTrell Moore of New Mexico (2002-05) and Tyrell Fenroy of Louisiana-Lafayette (2005-08).

GAINING GROUND: With 3,755 career rushing yards, junior running back Reggie Arnold is ranked second among the career rushing leaders in ASU history. Arnold has rushed for at least 100 yards in a game 16 times for his career for the second most in school history. Arnold needs 173 more yards to pass Richie Woit (1950-53) as ASU's all-time rushing leader.

APLIN PUTS UP SOLID NUMBERS: Redshirt freshman Ryan Aplin saw his most extensive playing time of his young career the last three games, including the entire FAU game. Aplin set career highs for completions (20), attempts (27), passing yards (168), passing touchdowns (1), rushing yards (82) and total offense (250 yards) against the Owls. He is partially responsible for the two longest offensive plays this season, recording a 47-yard run against FAU and a 64-yard pass to Taylor Stockemer against Louisiana-Lafayette.

THOMPKINS NEARING SEASON HIGHS: Brandon Thompkins, ASU's leading receiver with 36 receptions and 471 yards, Brandon Thompkins needs five more receptions and 40 more yards to tie his single-season career highs.

LEONARD BREAKING RECORDS: Senior quarterback Corey Leonard broke two career records this season, one during the Louisville game and the other during the Mississippi Valley State game. During the Louisville game, he became the school's all-time leader in completions and now has 571. Leonard broke ASU and NFL quarterback Cleo Lemon's (1997-2000) previous school record of 551 completions . . . Leonard broke the school record for total offense in the Red Wolves season opener against MVSU and now has 8,887 yards of total offense for his four-year career.

THOMPKINS BREAKS SBC RECORD: Senior wide receiver Brandon Thompkins became the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leader in kickoff return yards during the Louisville game. He now has 2,602 kickoff return yards. He passed Troy's Leodis McKelvin who had 2,346 kickoff return yards for Troy from 2004-07. Thompson is the only player in school history to record over 2,000 kickoff return yards in a game eight times during his career at ASU.

ARAUCO BREAKS SBC RECORD: Senior kicker Josh Arauco became the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leader in field goals made during the Louisville game and now has 56 for his career. The former record of 50 was held by Troy's Greg Whibbs (2004-07). Arauco has made multiple field goals in a game 18 times during his career. Arauco holds sole possession of second place for the most points by kicking in Sun Belt Conference history with 276 points.

WILBOURN NOTABLES: In Sun Belt Conference games only, Ryan Wilbourn is ranked first in the league with a 43.5 yards per punt average. Wilbourn had a career-long 65 yard punt against ULM that is the second longest punt by a Sun Belt player this season and the longest by an ASU player since Jarod Little posted a 66-yard punt against LSU in 2004 . . . Wilbourn also kicked a 49-yard field goal against ULM on his only attempt of the season. The 49-yard field goal was the longest by an ASU player since 2005 when Eric Neihouse hit a 50-yarder against ULM as well.

DAVIS NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK:

Sophomore linebacker Demario Davis was named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week on Oct. 26 after recording eight tackles, two tackles for loss, two sacks and a forced fumble in the Red Wolves 27-10 homecoming victory over Florida International.

ARAUCO EARNS WEEKLY HONOR:

Senior Josh Arauco was named College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) Honorable Mention National Placekicker of the Week after making four field goals in the Red Wolves' game against Florida Atlantic . . . Arauco received the weekly honorable mention placekicker honor along with Casey Barth (UNC), Josh Cherry (Kansas State), Morgan Flint (Oregon), Matt Nelson (Louisiana Tech), Alex Henery (Nebraska), Alex Carlton (Army), Matt Waldron (Virginia Tech) and Ian Watts (Wyoming) . . . The Grand Prairie, Texas native was a perfect 4-of-4 on his field goal attempts from 35, 19, 22 and 21 yards out. His four field goals tied the most of his career in a single game and the most by a Sun Belt Conference player this season. The game marked the 18th time of his career he has made multiple field goals.

WILBOURN NAMED CFPA PUNTER OF THE WEEK:

Sophomore Ryan Wilbourn was named the College Football Performance Awards (CFPA) national punter of the week on Oct. 25 after averaging a career-best 48.0 yards per punt in the Red Wolves 27-10 homecoming victory over Florida International . . . Wilbourn received the weekly punting honor along with Utah's Sean Sellwood and Tulsa's Michael Such . . . The Searcy, Ark. native punted five times for 280 yards and his 48.0 yards per punt average was over five yards higher than the top average in the Sun Belt Conference at the time. He pinned FIU inside its own 20-yard line three times and boot-ed three punts that covered at least 52 yards, including a long of 57 yards. He also had one punt ruled a touchback.

TWICE AS NICE: Senior quarterback Corey Leonard and senior running back Reggie Arnold posted 120 and 104 yards rushing, respectively, against FIU on Oct. 24, marking the first time since the 2008 season opener against Texas Southern that ASU had two players rush for over 100 yards in the same game.

HOMECOMING HISTORY: With its 27-10 victory over FIU, Arkansas State improved to 55-26-1 all-time in Homecoming contests. The Red Wolves have now won their last seven homecoming games, including the last six against Sun Belt Conference opponents.

BACK-2-BACK: ASU played back-to-back nationally televised games for the first time in school history at Iowa on Oct. 3 and at ULM on Oct. 13 as both games were televised by ESPN2. ASU's outing at Iowa marked its first national television appearance since the 2005 New Orleans Bowl when it was on ESPN2 as well.

GAMEDAY SHOWCASES MUSE STORY:

Freshman wide receiver Allen Muse's story of his courageous path to the football field with the Red Wolves went national when ESPN's College GameDay showcased his story on Oct. 3 . . . Prior to signing with ASU, Muse was a survivor of Hurricane Katrina and a record-setting pass catcher at Leesville, La., High School - where he had wound up after the storm. After signing with the Red Wolves, a physical followed by further tests uncovered a problem with Muse's heart. Extra tissue was restricting blood flow and making the heart work harder than it should . . . On Sept. 11, 2008 Muse went into major surgery not knowing if he would be able to play football again, but six months later he was working out with the ASU football team during its spring camp. Now fully recovered, Muse has played in all three games this season as a true freshman and is playing a major role on the team as a key receiver.

GROWING CROWDS: With a crowd of 21,056 on hand for the MVSU game and 23, 641 at the Troy game, ASU has now drawn a crowd of over 20,000 in 15 games all-time at ASU Stadium and six of those have come over the last nine games. Of those 15 games, 11 have been played with Steve Roberts as head coach. The crowd of 23,641 for the Troy game was the seventh largest in ASU Stadium history.

BIG AUDIENCE: The crowd of 85,035 for the ASU-Nebraska game was the fifth largest to ever watch an Arkansas State game, while the crowd of 67,989 in attendance for the ASU-Iowa game was the 13th largest. Conference opener at ASU Stadium for the first time, now standing 4-1 in those games

THE SHUTOUT: With its 61-0 victory over Mississippi Valley State, ASU shutout an opponent for the first time since defeating Florida Atlantic 3-0 in three overtimes in 2005, a span of 41 games.

A LARGE MARGIN: ASU'S 61-point victory over Mississippi Valley State tied the seventh largest margin of victory in school history. ASU also picked up a 61-point win when it defeated St. Mary (Kan.) 68-7 in 1963. The largest margin of victory in school history was a 101-0 win over Central Arkansas in 1917.

CHANGING THE RECORD BOOKS: ASU changed a number of ASU and Sun Belt Conference records during its game against the Delta Devils. ASU's 21 rushing first downs tied the second most in Sun Belt Conference history. It scored nine touchdowns, tying the third most and fifth most in SBC and ASU history, respectively. Prior to kickoff, the teams, head coaches and administrators from both schools met at midfield to shake hands, illustrating and emphasizing respect for the opponent.

RED WOLVES TAKE TIME TO SHOW APPRECIATION TO LOCAL BUSINESSES: While their fall camp was in full swing, members of the Arkansas State football team and head coach Steve Roberts took some time away from the meeting rooms and practice fields to visit local businesses and thank them for their support of the Red Wolves. A number of the players and coach Roberts divided up into groups early on the morning of Aug. 20 and left the ASU Football Complex with not only orange juice, doughnuts and gift bags in hand, but also looking forward to the opportunity to show their appreciation for all the ways area businesses have backed the program.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH STEVE ROBERTS

Not long after leading Arkansas State to the 2005 Sun Belt Conference championship and New Orleans Bowl, head coach Steve Roberts continues to make ASU a dominant force in the Sun Belt Conference and has ASU on track for continued success in the upcoming years.

When the 2005 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year took over the program in December 2001, he impressed everyone with his wide-eyed enthusiasm and limitless energy. And, most of all, they believed that Roberts would bring success to the ASU football program. Roberts has been the driving force behind ASU's recent success, leading the football program to its most victories over a seven-year span since 1985-91.

Roberts came to Arkansas State University and brought with him a fresh enthusiasm, energy, and an "I Will" philosophy that has been adopted by everyone associated with the program.

"I Will" became the rallying cry as Roberts and his staff charged ahead through a grueling 13-game schedule in 13 weeks with no open date in his inaugural season and came within 11 points of winning the Sun Belt Conference championship and playing in the Sun Belt Conference prize—the New Orleans Bowl.

ASU ended the season with a record of 6-7 and finished third in the league rankings. That tied the most wins since rejoining Division I-A in 1992. The Red Wolves finished in the top ten turnarounds by Division I-A football schools for improving football records after finishing 2-9 in 2001. Also, attendance increased significantly in 2002.

The 2003 season saw a lot of success as well. Among ASU's many achievements was another increase in attendance, two defensive linemen ending up in the National Football League and the team winning the Sun Belt Conference Academic Award.

Under Roberts' direction, ASU continues to add to the achievements that began upon his arrival. The 2006, 2007 and 2008 ASU teams backed up the 2005 Sun Belt championship with non-conference wins over teams such as Army, Memphis, SMU and Texas A&M. The 2006 squad knocked off New Orleans Bowl champion Troy and the 2007 team fell to then-ranked No. 4 Texas by just eight points and pushed New Orleans Bowl champion Florida Atlantic to the final minutes. Last year's victory over the Aggies was one of the biggest wins in school history as ASU picked up its first victory over a BCS conference school since joining the FBS.

The 2006 team posted six wins for the second consecutive year, marking the first time since the 1986 and 1987 seasons that the Red Wolves had recorded at least six victories in back-to-back seasons.

The 2007 team won the Sun Belt Conference Academic Award, marking the fourth time in the last five years ASU had earned the honor. The 2007 squad posted the second most yards of total offense in school history only to see the 2008 team break the 57-year old record. The 2007 and 2008 ASU defense also ranked No. 1 and No. 2, respectively, in the Sun Belt Conference.

Roberts already holds the fifth most wins among ASU's 26 all-time head coaches and has led the Red Wolves to a 29-10 record at ASU Stadium, which included a 4-1 record in 2008.

During his tenure, ASU has upgraded its facilities with a new training room, weight room, locker room, recruiting room and state-of-the-art ProGreen turf on the field.

Roberts was named Arkansas State's 26th head football coach on December 21, 2001, to bring full circle his coaching odyssey from his home state through Louisiana and back. But, the trek has been a successful one, including an 8-4 record and national ranking in Division I-AA in 2000 at Northwestern (La.) State.

Roberts spent two seasons at NSU, where he and his staff and team took on a tough schedule which included a 27-24 overtime upset at TCU. While at NSU, Roberts was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award. Prior to going to NSU, Roberts served as the head coach and defensive coordinator at Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia from 1994-99. While there, his 1997 team won the Gulf South Championship, earning him Gulf South Coach of the Year honors. The Muleriders finished with a cumulative record of 26-5 from 1997-99, including 9-1 in 1999, 8-2 in 1998 and 9-2 in 1997.

During that span, his teams enjoyed top conference rankings in scoring offense, scoring defense, total offense and total defense. At SAU, he also served as the defensive secondary coach and recruiting coordinator from 1990-94 before being named head coach. Academically, his program ranked first in academic achievements in the Gulf South Conference three seasons.

Roberts, an avid fisherman, graduated from Robinson High School in Little Rock. A 1987 graduate of Ouachita Baptist University, where he was an Academic All-American, Roberts received his masters from SAU in 1989. He and his wife Sherri have one daughter – Abby (15).

September 26, Jonesboro, AR (ASU Stadium - 23,641) - Troy 30, Arkansas State 27

JONESBORO, Ark. (09/26/09) – Troy wide receiver Cornelius Williams hauled in an 8-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Levi Brown with 7:53 to play for the go-ahead score, and the Trojans kept the ball away from Arkansas State over the final 5:52 to secure a 30-27 victory over the Red Wolves in the Sun Belt Conference opener for both teams at ASU Stadium.

Williams' score came on the heels of an Arkansas State fumble following a Troy punt, and the Red Wolves' miscue set the Trojans up with just 25 yards to go for what proved to be the winning touchdown.

The Troy touchdown wiped out an Arkansas State rally that saw the Red Wolves bounce back from a 23-10 second-half deficit to take a 27-23 advantage.

Following Williams' touchdown, the Troy defense held the ASU offense without a first down on the next Red Wolves possession, and when Arkansas State punted with 5:52 to play, the Trojans held the ball for the remainder of the game.

Brown completed 33-of-46 passes for 355 yards and two touchdowns, while ASU senior quarterback Corey Leonard connected on 12-of-24 attempts for 190 yards and a score. Wideout Brandon Thompkins added 206 all-purpose yards and a touchdown for the Red Wolves.

Troy and Arkansas State went into the game as the 1-2 picks, respectively, in most SBC preseason polls.

Arkansas State put points on the board on the Red Wolves' first two possessions to jump out to an early 10-0 lead. Following Arnold's 1-yard scoring run with 7:12 remaining in the opening quarter, Troy went to work, reeling off 20 unanswered points before halftime.

Glusman added his third field goal of the afternoon with 13:02 remaining in the third, sending the ball through the uprights from 21-yards out to lift the Trojan lead to 23-10.

Arkansas State countered with a 17-point outburst to take a 27-23 lead that held until Williams scored to put the Trojans back on top.

Sophomore Jaquan Kilcrease led the ASU defense with a career-high 12 tackles, including one behind the line of scrimmage.

GAME 4

Oct. 3, Iowa City, IA (Kinnick Stadium - 67,989) - No. 13 Iowa 24, Arkansas State 21

IOWA CITY, IA (10/3/09) – A late Arkansas State rally fell short as the 13th-ranked Iowa Hawkeyes held on for a 24-21 victory over the Red Wolves at Kinnick Stadium.

Trailing 24-14 following a 20-yard field goal from Iowa's Daniel Murray with 10 minutes remaining, the Red Wolves (1-3) cut the Hawkeye lead to 24-21 on a four-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Corey Leonard to tight end Trevor Gillott with 2:01 to play, but time ran out on ASU as Iowa held on for the win.

The Red Wolves' defense held the Hawkeyes without a first down after Iowa recovered an ASU onside kick attempt following Gillott's touchdown, but just 10 seconds remained on the clock when Arkansas State got the ball back at its own 18. Two deep pass attempts from Leonard were incomplete, allowing Iowa to escape with the win.

Iowa jumped out to a 14-0 first quarter lead behind a pair of touchdown passes from quarterback Ricky Stanzi before Arkansas State got on the board just before halftime on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Leonard to wide receiver Brandon Thompkins. Thompkins crossed the goal line with 44 seconds remaining in the half, and placekicker Josh Arauco added the point-after to cut the Hawkeye lead to 14-7 at the break.

Iowa used a 43-yard scoring strike from Stanzi to wideout Marvin McNutt to take a 21-7 lead with 13:16 remaining in the third, but Arkansas State cut the lead to a touchdown when linebacker Demario Davis picked off a Stanzi pass and returned it 75 yards for a touchdown with 14:41 remaining in the game.

Iowa answered with Murray's 20-yard field goal to give the Hawkeyes a 10-point cushion.

Leonard completed a season-high 22 passes on 40 attempts for 216 yards and two touchdowns, while Thompkins caught a career-high eight passes for 76 yards and a score to lead the ASU offense. Cornerbacks Daylan Walker and Cordarius Mingo each recorded eight tackles, including seven unassisted for Walker, to lead the Red Wolves' defensive effort.

Bryan Hall recorded six tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss, both career highs, against Iowa.
