A-STATE/UT MARTIN SERIES HISTORY

- A-State and UT Martin have met 21 times in history with the Red Wolves holding a 15-5 mark over the Skyhawks (one A-State win was later vacated). The first games in the series occurred in the 1935-36 seasons when the two teams split two meetings. The two squads didn't meet again until the 1966-67 season when A-State won 76-67 in Jonesboro.
- The Red Wolves are 9-1 all-time against UT Martin in Jonesboro and defeated the Skyhawks last season in Jonesboro by a score of 72-62. The UTM game was A-State's second game of the season and home opener a season ago.
- The Red Wolves had four scorers in double-figures in last season's win versus UTM. Kirk Van Slyke led the team with 16 points, while Melvin Johnson III (15), Cameron Golden (13), and Brandon Reed (10) all scored at least 10 points. Golden is the only returner to this season's squad of that group. Marshun Newell led all scorers with 18 points and returns for the Skyhawks this season.
- A-State has won seven straight contests against UT Martin with UTM's last victory coming in the 2005-06 season when the Skyhawks won an 80-77 decision in overtime in Martin, Tenn. A-State coach John Brady is 5-0 against UT Martin since becoming the Red Wolves' head coach and 7-1 against UTM all-time as a head coach.

LAST TIME OUT

- The Red Wolves lost their first exhibition game of the John Brady era Nov. 12 to Southern Arkansas 69-67. A-State led SAU 40-30 at halftime, but the Muleriders fought back to lead most of the second half. Sean Gardner tied the game on a deep three-pointer with eight seconds left, but SAU's Tyrell Taylor drove coast-to-coast and hit a game-winning floater as time expired.
- The loss to SAU was only Arkansas State's second exhibition loss in its last 22 games with the other coming to Arkansas-Monticello before the 2004-05 season (71-66).

SCOUTING UT MARTIN

- UT Martin enters the contest having already played their season opener back on Friday, Nov. 14 at Marquette. The Skyhawks trailed 38-30 at halftime and were outscored by eight points in the second half as well (41-33) to lose to the Golden Eagles by a final of 79-63. Deville Smith led the team with 12 points, while Twymond Howard chipped in with 11 points. Alex Anderson also scored 11 points after coming off the bench in the game. Myles Taylor grabbed 11 rebounds to lead the team and Marshun Newell dished out three assists and had one block to lead the team in both categories.
- The Skyhawks were an 8-23 team last season with a 3-13 mark in the Ohio Valley Conference, which was sixth place in the west division and 12th overall. UTM returns seven lettermen and three starters from a season ago. The Skyhawks also added 10 newcomers and have a new head coach.
- Heath Schroyer was named UT Martin's ninth men's basketball coach in history on March 20, 2014. He most recently was the Associate Head Coach at UNLV for three seasons. The Runnin' Rebels made two NCAA tournament appearances during his time there. Schroyer also had stints as a head coach at Portland State from 2002-2005 and Wyoming (2007-2011). In eight total seasons as head coach, he has compiled an 84-116 record with one conference championship (Portland State '04-'05) and one postseason appearance (Wyoming '08-'09 CBI Postseason Tournament).

A proven winner in the collegiate coaching ranks, John Brady's vision of taking the Arkansas State men's basketball program to the highest competitive level nationally has made the two entities a perfect match.

Brady has certainly become accustomed to success throughout his distinguished coaching career as evidenced by a Final Four appearance and 380 career victories.

The past two seasons (2012-13 and 2013-14) clearly illustrate Brady's success as A-State has compiled back-to-back 19-win seasons to represent the Red Wolves' most single-season victories since 1997-98 campaign. The 2012-13 team posted a 19-12 overall mark and claimed a Sun Belt Conference (SBC) West Division Championship title while the 2013-14 squad registered a 19-13 overall record.

A new era in A-State men's basketball history began on March 19, 2008 when Brady was announced as the Red Wolves' 15th head coach in the program's history.

Brady has wasted little time making a positive impact on the A-State program as in his initial three years at the helm, he turned the Red Wolves into a success story on the court by capturing a share of the Sun Belt Conference's Western Division Championship title in 2010-11 along with compiling double-digit SBC wins back-to-back for the first time in nearly 20 years and going 13-0 at home.

During his first season with the Red Wolves, Brady helped lead A-State to one of the best starts in program history and achieved the No. 22 ranking on Collegeinsider.com's Top 25 poll.

Brady would take the Red Wolves a step further in his second season (2009-10), improving their record to 17-14 while making a Sun Belt Conference Tournament Semifinal appearance and finishing second in the SBC's West Division. For his efforts, Brady was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year and the District VII Coach of the Year by the USBWA.

For the 2009-10 season, A-State registered an 11-7 SBC record which signified its best conference mark since the 2006-07 campaign when A-State achieved an identical league mark. A-State's 11 wins represented the seventh time in which the Red Wolves compiled a double-digit league victories total since joining the Sun Belt. A-State would then duplicate its SBC wins in the 2010-11 season by finishing with an 11-5 conference ledger.

Prior to Arkansas State, Brady spent 10-plus seasons serving as LSU's head coach. During his tenure at the school, Brady guided the Tigers to six post-season berths, two Southeastern Conference (SEC) Championship crowns and three SEC Western Division titles. With his success, Brady was tabbed as the SEC Coach of the Year twice (1999-00 and 2005-06).

Brady's 16-year tenure as a head coach at both LSU and Samford in Birmingham, Alabama, has been decorated with achievements. He has coached a combined 25 All-TAAC and SEC selections, 48 academic all-conference choices, posted 11 winning seasons and collected five division championships. Brady compiled up the third most wins in LSU history with 192 and left Samford after the 1996-97 season as the Bulldog's all-time leader in coaching victories (89) as well.

Brady quickly turned around an LSU's men's basketball program that had suffered four consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival, leading the Tigers to a 28-6 record, an SEC Championship and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in just his third season (1999-00) at the helm. Under Brady's direction, the Tigers recorded six consecutive winning seasons from 2001-02 to 2006-07 while making three trips to the NCAA Tournament and two more to the NIT. The 2005-06 campaign saw LSU post a 27-9 overall record and advance to the Final Four for the first time in 20 years.

Not only did Brady coach the Tigers to 23 wins versus ranked opponents, he also led them to victories over two teams ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll (Arizona in 2002-03 and Duke in 2005-06). Additionally, he orchestrated a 19-game home winning streak over SEC opponents, the third longest stretch in LSU history.

While at LSU, Brady coached two NBA Lottery picks and six current NBA players. The Tigers signed nine Parade All-Americans and four McDonald All-Americans under Brady, who also coached three SEC Players of the Year, four players named SEC Freshman of the Year, one SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and 17 All-SEC selections.

Prior to taking over the reigns at LSU, Brady served as Samford's head coach from 1991-92 through 1996-97. He quickly turned around a Samford program, which was coming off six straight losing seasons, by guiding the Bulldogs to a 17-10 overall record in just his second season. Brady went on to lead Samford to three consecutive winning seasons (1995-97) for the first time since 1982-84, culminating in a 19-9 overall record and division crown in 1997. SU placed first in the Trans America Athletic Conference's (TAAC) West Division in each of Brady's final two seasons for the first time in program history.

Brady's four winning seasons at Samford represented the first for any coach at the school. He directed SU to an 89-77 record after the Bulldogs went 27-83 the four seasons prior to his initial year. Brady coached eight All-TAAC and 14 Academic All-TAAC student-athletes over six seasons at Samford.

A native of McComb, Miss., native, Brady earned his bachelor's degree from Belhaven College in 1976. He was a three-year starter at BC and scored over 1,000 career points. Brady, a two-time All-Southern States Conference selection, was inducted into his alma mater's Hall of Fame.

Brady began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Mississippi State men's basketball program where he earned his master's degree from 1976-77. Brady took his first head coaching position in 1977 at Louisiana's Crowley High School and led the basketball squad to a 129-49 (.725) overall record in five seasons. He was honored as the 1981 Louisiana Sports Writers Association Class 3-A Coach of the Year.

Brady returned to the college coaching ranks in 1982 as an assistant coach at Mississippi State. He spent eight years with the Bulldogs, the first four seasons under coach Bob Hoyt and the preceding four as a chief recruiter for coach Richard Williams. Following his tenure at MSU, Brady returned to Louisiana to serve as an assistant coach at the University of New Orleans. Brady helped lead UNO to a NCAA Tournament berth in his only season with the Privateers.
