A-State has won at least 20 games in a season five times - 1986-87 (21-13), 1987-88 (21-14), 1988-89 (20-10), 1990-91 (23-9) and 1997-98 (20-9) since joining the NCAA-I ranks in 1970-71.
- A-State's 19 victories in the 2013-14 season (19-13 record) tied for the second most single-season wins since 1997-98 and also marked a tie for the highest win total in head coach John Brady's A-State coaching career. The Red Wolves went 19-12 overall in 2012-13, which was the program's most wins since 1997-98 (20-9 record). - A-State's next victory will give John Brady his 100th win as the squad's head coach. Brady is currently sitting on 99 wins (99-93 overall record).

A-STATE/CENTRAL ARKANSAS SERIES HISTORY

- A-State and Central Arkansas have met 39 times in history with the bulk of the meetings coming before the 1952-53 season. The Red Wolves lost the first meeting in the series in the 1927-28 season, only the school's second year of men's basketball, by a score of 41-24. A-State lost the first four meetings to UCA (known as Arkansas Teachers College at the time), but grabbed its first victory in the second of two meetings during the 1929-30 season in a very close game by a score of 30-27.
- Arkansas State swept both season's meetings for the first time in the 1931-32 season by scores of 32-31 and 38-24 and the two teams played each other on and off until the 1952-53 season. A-State took the meeting in that season by a score of 102-92 to tie the overall series at 18-18, but the Bears and Red Wolves didn't meet again until 2011-12 season.
- Since the series has resumed, A-State has won all three meetings. A-State topped UCA 71-64 at the Convocation Center in the 2011-12 season and defeated the Bears in Conway 73-72 in the 2012-13 campaign when Cameron Golden hit a three-pointer with 4.8 seconds left to give A-State the win. Last season, the Red Wolves defeated UCA 99-56 at home and have won four straight overall in the series.
- In last season's 99-56 win, five Red Wolves scored in double-figures, while every player that played except for Cameron Golden scored in the contest. A-State outrebounded UCA 48-26, including posting 16 offensive rebounds to seven for the Bears. Additionally, A-State outshot UCA by a mark of 49.2 percent to 35 percent. Lennell Brown led Central Arkansas with 12 points. The win brought John Brady to 3-0 against UCA overall, with all three meetings coming as A-State's head coach.

LAST TIME OUT

- Arkansas State fell to 0-2 on the season after losing a close game to Lamar, one of UCA's Southland Conference foes, by a score of 63-58. The Red Wolves and Cardinals played to an even 35-35 after one half, but Lamar built a seven-point lead of 46-39 early in the second half. A-State got within three on two occasions late in the contest, but couldn't score as Lamar went on to win 63-58.
- Anthony Livingston led all scorers with 16 points and was one rebound shy of a double-double, while Golden and Gardner scored 13 and 11, respectively. Nouhoum Bocoum chipped in with six points and seven rebounds off the bench and Golden dished out a team-high four assists. A-State shot 41.3 percent from the floor to Lamar's 45.3, but Lamar outshot the Red Wolves 43.5 percent to 31.6 in the second half.
- The loss to the Cardinals was A-State's first loss in the series since the 2011-12 season when A-State dropped a 65-62 decision in Beaumont, Texas. The Red Wolves defeated Lamar 93-53 at home in the 2012-13 season, before winning last season's meeting 95-89 on the road.

SCOUTING CENTRAL ARKANSAS

- Central Arkansas enters the contest with an 0-6 mark, including an 0-5 mark on the road. UCA lost its only game in the Farris Center this season by a score of 74-68 to Southeast Missouri, but went 0-3 in the state of Nebraska before that game by falling to Creighton (104-77), Nebraska-Omaha (100-75), and the University of Nebraska (82-56). Within the past week, the Bears have dropped road contests at Charleston Southern (80-67) and UALR (85-71).
- In their latest contest against UALR, the Bears trailed 47-37 at halftime, but were only outscored 38-34 in the second half. The Trojans outrebounded the Bears by a count of 32-27 and shot 54.5 percent from the field, compared to UCA's 47.3 percent. UCA had three players tally double-figures, including Mike Martin and Jordan Howard recording 21 and 20 points, respectively.
- This season, Jordan Howard is the leading scorer for Central Arkansas, averaging 17 points a game. Mike Martin (11.8) and Jake Zuilhof (10.2) are also averaging double-digits for the Bears. Zuilhof is the leading rebounder by averaging 5.2. UCA is coached by Russ Pennell, who played at Central Arkansas from 1982-84. He has been interim head coach at Arizona and coached Grand Canyon University, compiling an 112-79 record.

Living-strong: Sophomore forward Anthony Livingston had little problems adjusting to Division I basketball after transferring from San Jacinto Junior College. He scored a team-high 26 points (19 in the first half) in the season-opening loss to UTM and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds. He followed that performance up with a 16-point, nine-rebound performance against Lamar last Tuesday. He also added a team-high two blocks and two assists against the Cardinals. Livingston is averaging a team-high 21 points a game and team-high nine rebounds a contest.

Doubling Up: A-State had three players in double-figures against UT Martin with Anthony Livingston's 26 being the most points scored in a season-opener in the John Brady era. Cameron Golden scored 17 and Sean Gardner added 15 of his own against the Skyhawks. Those same three proved to provide the bulk of A-State's scoring with Livingston contributing 16 points to lead the way against Lamar. Golden scored 13 and Gardner scored 11 in last Tuesday's loss to Lamar.

Nouhoum, No Problem: Junior center Nouhoum Bocoum came off the bench to provide a spark for the Red Wolves in last Tuesday's game against Lamar. The Harlem, N.Y., native tallied six points and had the second most rebounds on the team with seven in only 12 minutes of action. The six points off the bench for the big man were a welcome site to an A-State squad that didn't register any bench points in its season-opening loss.

What's Returning: A-State returns three players from the 2013-14 team in juniors Cameron Golden, Kelvin Downs, and Josh Pierre as the Red Wolves' top five scoring leaders graduated. The trio combined to account for 13.4 percent (325-2,432) of the Red Wolves' scoring output from a season ago. Golden returns as A-State's leader in scoring (7.6 ppg.), rebounding (2.5), assists (2.5), and steals (1.1).

New Assistants: Carlos Wilson and Mike Scutero will begin their first season at A-State in 2014-15 as assistants on head coach John Brady's staff. Wilson previously was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Odessa (Texas) College while Scutero spent the 2013-14 season as an assistant at Kennesaw (Ga.) State. Prior to KSU, Scutero was an assistant to the head coach (Kermit Davis) and director of basketball operations at Middle Tennessee State from 2010-13.

Ready To Play: Guards PJ Hardwick and Sean Gardner are both eligible for competition this 2014-15 season after not playing in the 2013-14 campaign. Hardwick, a transfer from North Texas, sat out due to the NCAA Division I Transfer Rule while Gardner was redshirted after signing with the Red Wolves prior to the 2013-14 season. Hardwick, who started in 17 of UNT's 32 games for the 2012-13 season, scored a team seventh-best 3.7 points (118 pts.) and 2.9 rebounds (92 rebs.) while averaging 23.7 minutes per contest (758 total). Gardner compiled per game averages of 10.7 points (320 pts.), 3.6 rebounds (108 rebs.), and 3.0 assists (89 ast.) in 30 2012-13 outings at Motlow Community College, coached by former A-State men's basketball player Jerry Nichols (2005-06).

Productive Helper: Cameron Golden's team-leading 81 assists in 32 appearances last season represented a personal single-season best, bettering his 65 assists in 31 games for the 2012-13 campaign. Golden set personal season highs in points (244), steals (36), field goals made (81), free throws made (39), minutes played (768), and games played (32) this past 2013-14 season.

Did You Know?: Junior forwards Ronnie White and Nouhoum Bocoum were teammates at Paris (Texas) Junior College this past 2013-14 season ... Sophomore guard Daijon Macklien played football at NCAA Division I North Alabama in the 2012 season ... Sean Gardner and junior forward Charles Waters are stepbrothers Nouhoum Bocoum wears size 18 shoes ... Cameron Golden has switched his jersey number to one for this upcoming season after wearing zero this past 2013-14 campaign.

Among The Best: Arkansas State was one of the nation's top three-point shooting teams in the 2013-14 season as the Red Wolves ranked 12th among the final NCAA Division I leaders in three-point field goals per game (8.8), 22nd in three-point field goals made (282), 36th in three-point field goal attempts (737), and 40th in three-point field goal percentage (38.3 percent).

Scoring Machine: A-State's 2,432 points scored in the 2013-14 season is a program all-time best, surpassing the 2,392 points set by the 2006-07 team. The Red Wolves averaged 76.0 points a contest in 32 games, which represented the program's highest scoring average since the 2004-05 team scored an average of 76.1 points per game (2,207 pts.) in 29 outings.

Close Ties: Guard Josh Pierre's father, Butch, will embark on his seventh season as the associate men's basketball head coach at Oklahoma State University. Butch spent 11 seasons (1997-08) at LSU as a member of current A-State head coach John Brady's staff, including six as an associate head coach. Josh has a twin brother, Joseph III. Pierre doubled his points production last season by tallying 12 points in eight games after netting six points in four appearances for the 2012-13 campaign.

A proven winner in the collegiate coaching ranks, John Brady's vision of taking the Arkansas State men's basketball program to the highest competitive level nationally has made the two entities a perfect match.

Brady has certainly become accustomed to success throughout his distinguished coaching career as evidenced by a Final Four appearance and 380 career victories.

The past two seasons (2012-13 and 2013-14) clearly illustrate Brady's success as A-State has compiled back-to-back 19-win seasons to represent the Red Wolves' most single-season victories since 1997-98 campaign. The 2012-13 team posted a 19-12 overall mark and claimed a Sun Belt Conference (SBC) West Division Championship title while the 2013-14 squad registered a 19-13 overall record.

A new era in A-State men's basketball history began on March 19, 2008 when Brady was announced as the Red Wolves' 15th head coach in the program's history.

Brady has wasted little time making a positive impact on the A-State program as in his initial three years at the helm, he turned the Red Wolves into a success story on the court by capturing a share of the Sun Belt Conference's Western Division Championship title in 2010-11 along with compiling double-digit SBC wins back-to-back for the first time in nearly 20 years and going 13-0 at home.

During his first season with the Red Wolves, Brady helped lead A-State to one of the best starts in program history and achieved the No. 22 ranking on Collegeinsider.com's Top 25 poll.

Brady would take the Red Wolves a step further in his second season (2009-10), improving their record to 17-14 while making a Sun Belt Conference Tournament Semifinal appearance and finishing second in the SBC's West Division. For his efforts, Brady was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year and the District VII Coach of the Year by the USBWA.

For the 2009-10 season, A-State registered an 11-7 SBC record which signified its best conference mark since the 2006-07 campaign when A-State achieved an identical league mark. A-State's 11 wins represented the seventh time in which the Red Wolves compiled a double-digit league victories total since joining the Sun Belt. A-State would then duplicate its SBC wins in the 2010-11 season by finishing with an 11-5 conference ledger.

Prior to Arkansas State, Brady spent 10-plus seasons serving as LSU's head coach. During his tenure at the school, Brady guided the Tigers to six post-season berths, two Southeastern Conference (SEC) Championship crowns and three SEC Western Division titles. With his success, Brady was tabbed as the SEC Coach of the Year twice (1999-00 and 2005-06).

Brady's 16-year tenure as a head coach at both LSU and Samford in Birmingham, Alabama, has been decorated with achievements. He has coached a combined 25 All-TAAC and SEC selections, 48 academic all-conference choices, posted 11 winning seasons and collected five division championships. Brady compiled up the third most wins in LSU history with 192 and left Samford after the 1996-97 season as the Bulldog's all-time leader in coaching victories (89) as well.

Brady quickly turned around an LSU's men's basketball program that had suffered four consecutive losing seasons prior to his arrival, leading the Tigers to a 28-6 record, an SEC Championship and an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in just his third season (1999-00) at the helm. Under Brady's direction, the Tigers recorded six consecutive winning seasons from 2001-02 to 2006-07 while making three trips to the NCAA Tournament and two more to the NIT. The 2005-06 campaign saw LSU post a 27-9 overall record and advance to the Final Four for the first time in 20 years.

Not only did Brady coach the Tigers to 23 wins versus ranked opponents, he also led them to victories over two teams ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press Poll (Arizona in 2002-03 and Duke in 2005-06). Additionally, he orchestrated a 19-game home winning streak over SEC opponents, the third longest stretch in LSU history.

While at LSU, Brady coached two NBA Lottery picks and six current NBA players. The Tigers signed nine Parade All-Americans and four McDonald All-Americans under Brady, who also coached three SEC Players of the Year, four players named SEC Freshman of the Year, one SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and 17 All-SEC selections.

Prior to taking over the reigns at LSU, Brady served as Samford's head coach from 1991-92 through 1996-97. He quickly turned around a Samford program, which was coming off six straight losing seasons, by guiding the Bulldogs to a 17-10 overall record in just his second season. Brady went on to lead Samford to three consecutive winning seasons (1995-97) for the first time since 1982-84, culminating in a 19-9 overall record and division crown in 1997. SU placed first in the Trans America Athletic Conference's (TAAC) West Division in each of Brady's final two seasons for the first time in program history.

Brady's four winning seasons at Samford represented the first for any coach at the school. He directed SU to an 89-77 record after the Bulldogs went 27-83 the four seasons prior to his initial year. Brady coached eight All-TAAC and 14 Academic All-TAAC student-athletes over six seasons at Samford.

A native of McComb, Miss., native, Brady earned his bachelor's degree from Belhaven College in 1976. He was a three-year starter at BC and scored over 1,000 career points. Brady, a two-time All-Southern States Conference selection, was inducted into his alma mater's Hall of Fame.

Brady began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Mississippi State men's basketball program where he earned his master's degree from 1976-77. Brady took his first head coaching position in 1977 at Louisiana's Crowley High School and led the basketball squad to a 129-49 (.725) overall record in five seasons. He was honored as the 1981 Louisiana Sports Writers Association Class 3-A Coach of the Year.

Brady returned to the college coaching ranks in 1982 as an assistant coach at Mississippi State. He spent eight years with the Bulldogs, the first four seasons under coach Bob Hoyt and the preceding four as a chief recruiter for coach Richard Williams. Following his tenure at MSU, Brady returned to Louisiana to serve as an assistant coach at the University of New Orleans. Brady helped lead UNO to a NCAA Tournament berth in his only season with the Privateers.
