Bluejays not Blue Jays:

The Creighton mascot is Bluejay or Bluejays, one word.

Live Stats

The weekend series with Arkansas State as well as Tuesday's battle with Central Arkansas are scheduled to offer live stats.

The direct link for all games are provided on the Creighton website:

http://www.gocreighton.com/liveStats/liveStats.dbml?&DB_OEM_ID=1000

The Road So Far

After opening the season with four losses, Creighton has been unbeaten in five straight. The Bluejays evened their record with four consecutive wins, then were forced into a tie with Charlotte due to travel constraints.

Present

Creighton will face off with Arkansas State in a three-game series that was moved to Millington, Tennessee on March 8-10. The series with the Red Wolves was originally scheduled in Jonesboro, Ark., but weather complications made the Arkansas State field unplayable. On its way home, Creighton will play Central Arkansas in a single game on March 11.

Looking Ahead

Next week the Bluejays open their home schedule with a three-game series against South Dakota State from March 14-16. Following the Jackrabbit contest, Creighton faces intrastate rival, Nebraska, on March 18 at the Huskers home in Lincoln, Neb.

Head Coach Ed Servais (11th Season):

Ed Servais enters his 11th season leading the Creighton baseball program in 2014.

He is the winningest coach in program history, surpassing Jim Hendry (289) in 2011, when he led his team to a 45-16 overall record, MVC regular-season and tournament titles and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Servais was named the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) Coach of the Year following the 2011 season, the fourth time he has earned the award at Creighton. He led the Bluejays back to the NCAA Tournament in 2012 as Creighton posted a 4-0 record in the MVC Tournament to advance in the UCLA Regional.

Servais holds a .626 winning percentage at the helm of the Bluejays, the second highest in school history. He has taken Creighton to four NCAA Tournaments (2005, 2007, 2011 & 2012). In 10 seasons under Servais' leadership, the Bluejays have averaged just under 36 wins per season.

During the summer of 2013, Servais served as one of three assistants for USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team. Servais was primarily responsible for team defense and was the first base coach. Servais helped Team USA post a 7-3 record against Japan and Cuba, including a five-game sweep of the Cuban National Team.

Servais' tenure ranks among the best as a Creighton head coach. He has guided the team to a 357-213 record. His overall record of 539-296-1 places him 23rd in the nation in winning percentage amongst active coaches (.646).

Servais led Creighton to the MVC Tournament title three times (2007, 2011 & 2012) and regular-season crowns in 2005 and 2011.

His teams have finished among the nation's best in fielding percentage and sacrifice bunts every season, including 2013, when the Bluejays finished ninth in fielding percentage (.979) and seventh in sacrifice bunts (76).

Since coming to Creighton, Servais' teams have committed the fewest errors in the nation, while holding a .977 fielding percentage in the last 10 seasons, which also leads the country.

The Bluejays topped the 30 win mark for the eighth time under Servais in 2013, finishing with a 30-18 mark.

Creighton Not Pleased with Tie

The Creighton Baseball team capped off an unbeaten weekend with a rare 5-5 tie after 10 innings against Charlotte on Sunday, March 2.

Due to Creighton's travel plans, coaches had predetermined before the game that no inning would start after 3:50 pm (ET). The tenth inning ended at 3:54 pm.

It is the first tie for the Bluejays since the 1998 season, when Creighton and Stetson played to a 9-9 tie on March 15. The Bluejays have recorded nine ties in the history of the program. Ed Servais has two in his career as a head coach, the other coming in 1989 at the helm of St. Mary's (Minn).

McKewon Keys Bluejay Rally

Down 6-0 entering the sixth inning at Charlotte on Friday, Feb. 28, senior Brad McKewon took center stage in Creighton's seven-run rally.

The Bluejays' leadoff man, McKewon opened the sixth with a single to center. After coming around to score on a bases loaded walk, McKewon delivered again with a single and a run scored in the seventh.

Down 6-5 entering the ninth, McKewon went to work once more, opening the ninth with an infield single and eventually scoring the game-tying run.

Creighton earned the 7-6 win with a run in the tenth.

Warren Delivers Again

Sophomore Matt Warren is Building a case to become the Creighton ace, as he posted the best start for a Bluejay in 2014 allowing one run in six innings on Saturday, March 1. Warren moved to 2-0 on the season as he led Creighton to a 3-1 win, allowing one run on four hits and one walk.

Murray Enjoys Being Home

An Omaha native, Brett Murray spent his freshman season at Hill JC in Texas. The outfielder/DH joined the Bluejays prior to the 2013-14 year and has opened the spring red hot. Through nine games, Murray leads the Bluejays with a .393 average, (11-for-28) with four doubles and a .526 slugging percentage.

Hitting in a Pinch

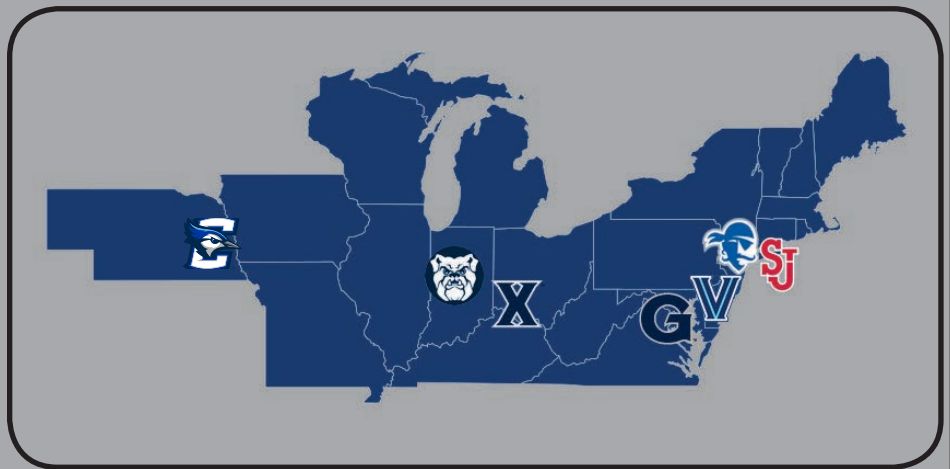

After getting just five hits in 40 at-bats from pinch hitters in 2013 (.125), the Bluejays have opened 2014 with three hits in 10 opportunities (.300).

Gerber Gives Grand Finale in Florida

Senior Mike Gerber provided a memorable ending for Creighton's three-game stretch in Fort Myers, Fla. against Minnesota as the Bluejay centerfield delivered a grand slam in the ninth inning to seal Creighton's 8-0 win on Sunday, Feb. 23. Gerber was also the last Bluejay to deliver a bases-clearing bomb on March 17, 2012 against North Dakota.

Sova Time = Game Over

Senior Bryan Sova has appeared in six games in 2014, closing the door for the Bluejays in five contests. In the three-game series at Charlotte (Feb. 28 - March 2), Sova picked up his first win and his first save on Feb. 28 (win) and March 1 (save).

Five Team For First Shutout Since 2012

While Gerber's blast took center stage for the offense, a quintet of Bluejays teamed to provide the first shutout of 2014 and the Bluejays' first since 2012 on Sunday, Feb. 23. The first four hurlers were all underclassmen.

Freshman Jeff Albrect got things going with three scoreless frames. Sophomore Austin Groth followed with two innings, then sophomore John Oltman took the game into the seventh with 1.1 innings. Sophomore Nick Highberger followed with 1.2 innings, before giving way to senior Bryan Sova for a scoreless ninth. The last combined shutout for Creighton came on April 8, 2012 as Shane Lisaka, Mark Winkelman and Kurt Spomer downed Indiana State, 8-0.

Warm Weather Fits the Iowan, Peter

Junior Jake Peter closed out a three-game series in Fort Myers, Fla., against Minnesota with a .500 average (6-for-12) with five RBI and four runs scored ... He delivered three extra-base hits (one double, one triple, one home run), closing the series with a 1.000 slugging percentage and a .600 on-base percentage ... Peter got Creighton going with early offense in each of the first two games as he blasted an RBI triple in the first inning on Friday, then belted a two-run home run, his first of the season, in the first inning of Saturday's contest.

Making the Most of His Chance

Senior Cody Kottich got a spot start in the DH role on Sunday, Feb. 23 and the Bellevue native made the most of the opportunity with a 2-for-3 day, including a run scored.

Warren Reporting for Duty

Sophomore Matt Warren picked up the Bluejays' first win of 2014 with a 6.2 inning relief effort on Saturday, Feb. 22 ... Warren entered the game in the second inning with the bases-loaded and just one out ... He was able to induce a ground ball back to the mound to get out of the inning with Creighton's 3-2 lead in tact ... Warren took the game into the top of the ninth, allowing just two runs on six hits, recording two strikeouts and did not issue a walk.

Servais Knows How to Fix a Bad Start

Since Ed Servais took over the Bluejays helm in 2004, Creighton has opened the season 0-3 on two other occasions (2006 & 2009).

In 2006 the Bluejays dropped two games at Arkansas-Little Rock and a third contest to Illinois-Chicago before winning their next 15 games. Creighton went on to finish the 2006 season, 31-21.

In 2009 the Bluejays dropped their first six contests and got off to a 1-9 start, but Creighton closed the year with a 31-25 mark.

Fast Start in February

In his first three years on the job, head coach Ed Servais posted .500 records or better in the month of February. The Jays then went sub-.500 in each of the middle three opening months. Since 2010, however, Creighton has been dominant in the opening month, posting a 16-3 mark. Below is Creighton's records in the month since 2004:
