GETTING IT DONE IN THE CLASSROOM

• UALR basketball boasts an exhausted-eligibility graduation rate of 100 percent in the 12 years Steve Shields has served as head coach. All 34 players that have exhausted their eligibility under Shields have earned their diplomas.

• Outside of the classroom, Shields keeps his players involved in the community through bi-monthly visits to the Arkansas Children's Hospital, working with the Arkansas Special Olympics and the Miracle League, and participating in the Trojans for Education program, among other activities.

LEEPER ACADEMICS

• Gus Leeper boasts a 3.9 GPA as a double major in international business and business management.

• Leeper was one of nine students from UALR's College of Business named to its Ambassadors Program, which pairs high achievers with area business leaders while providing networking opportunities.

• In the summer of 2013, he studied abroad in Guadalajara, Mexico, while an internship in the regulatory department at Windstream provided experience with communications administration and policy issues.

• Leeper has already secured a position at Stephens Inc. as part of the company's private client group. He graduates in May 2015 and will start the position in June.

DEPARTMENT ACADEMIC SUCCESS

• For the fourth time in the last five years, UALR has posted the highest Graduation Success Rate of all Division I athletic departments in Arkansas.

• UALR posted an overall GSR of 79 percent based on the 2007-08 freshman cohort. Four of UALR's 14 sports posted scores of 85 percent or higher.

• The men's basketball team's score of 87 percent was the highest for its sport of any Division I program in Arkansas.

SOCIAL MEDIA

• Fans and media can follow the UALR basketball program through any number of social media platforms this season.

• The UALR Department of Athletics primary Twitter account (@UALRathletics) will contain news updates, releases, scores, images and video of the MBB team throughout the year.

• For a more in-depth look at the team, follow @UALRbasketball, which will provide all of the previously mentioned information, as well as in-game updates and more pictures and videos from behind the scenes.

• You can also follow the Trojans through Facebook (/UALRTrojans), Instagram (@UALRathletics), Vine (@UALRathletics) and Google+ (/UALRathletics).

• Fans are also encouraged to watch player interviews, highlights and feature videos at the Trojans' YouTube Channel: youtube.com/UALRathletics.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JACK STEPHENS CENTER

• This season will be the 10th that UALR men's and women's basketball have played their home games in the Jack Stephens Center.

• The 2005-06 season marked the debut of the Jack Stephens Center.

• Thanks to a generous $22.4 million gift from Jackson T. Stephens, the late Little Rock businessman and philanthropist, the UALR volleyball and men's and women's basketball teams made the move to its current 5,600-seat facility.

• Measuring 149,000 square feet, the Jack Stephens Center features a full-court practice gym named after UALR alum Derek Fisher, an academic support center complete with 23 computer terminals, a first-class weight room, an athletic training room, locker rooms for basketball and volleyball and a Nike team store.

• The arena also houses the offices for the men's and women's basketball and volleyball coaches, as well as the athletic administration and support staff.

In 11 years as head coach at UALR, Steve Shields has led the Trojans to six championships and one NCAA Tournament appearance, all while becoming the winningest coach in school history. Entering his 12th year as head coach, Shields will have an experienced roster to build off a 2013-14 season that saw the Trojans reach the quarterfinals of the Sun Belt Tournament.

Shields will enter the 2014-15 season with an overall record of 179-160 in 11 seasons at UALR (.528 winning percentage). He spent four years as the head coach at McLennan Community College prior to coming to UALR as an assistant coach for the 2000-01 season, and sports a lifetime coaching record of 255-211 (.547 winning pct.) across all divisions.

The 2004 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Shields guided the Trojans to consecutive East Division championships in his first two seasons as head coach (2003-04 and 2004-05). The Trojans captured back-to-back division titles for the second time under Shields in 2007-08 and 2008-09, with both squads reaching 20 wins – something that hadn't been done at UALR since the 1988-89 and 1989-90 campaigns. The 2008-09 Trojans went 23-8 with a school-record 15-3 mark in conference play.

Shields and the Trojans made history in 2010-11, winning four games over higher-seeded teams in four days to capture the program's first-ever SBC Tournament title after ending the regular season with a sub-.500 record. In the Sun Belt Championship game, SBC Player of the Year Solomon Bozeman hit a 3-pointer with 1.5 seconds remaining to lift the Trojans to a 64-63 victory over North Texas and give UALR its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance – ending the program's 21-year drought.

During his 11 seasons at the helm, Shields has coached the Sun Belt Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year, two Male Student-Athletes of the Year and the league's Male Sporting Behavior recipient. Eleven of his players have received All-Sun Belt Conference honors, along with six NABC All-District selections, one USBWA All-Region honoree, and one Associated Press All-American.

Shields' impact at UALR goes beyond the basketball court, as his emphasis on academics has allowed UALR to graduate 100 percent of the players who have exhausted their eligibility under his watch (34 of 34).

Shields was also a collegiate athlete, beginning at Oklahoma City University, where he sat out his freshman year as a redshirt before transferring to McLennan and playing basketball for a year. He then transferred to Baylor University where he played golf for his father, longtime Baylor coach Gene Shields, and earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1987.

Shields, born March 9, 1965, earned his bachelor's of science in education in 1988 and a master's in education in 1992, both at Baylor. He has one son, Hayden Dieterich Shields (13), and one daughter, Halle Elisabeth Shields (9). He and his wife, Kenda, were married on May 24, 2012. Kenda is the Director of Marketing and Promotion with the North Little Rock Chamber of Commerce. She is the mother of two children, Hayden Jennings Ford (15) and Madison Leigh Ford (18).
