SEVEN GAMES AND COUNTING

- A-State has a seven game winning entering Saturday's contest at Texas State.
- It is the ninth time in program history that A-State has had a 7 game winning streak.
- The last time it happened was the 2012-13 season when the Red Wolves won 7 straight games.
- Khadija Brown-Haywood is averaging 20.1 points and 10.1 rebounds per game during the streak, which also covers all of the Red Wolves SBC games.

TOUGH CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

- The Sun Belt Conference returned to travel partners this year and Appalachian State is the lone team without a travel mate. The Mountaineers face 10 opponents coming off a bye date, but the combined days between games opponents have preparing for Appalachian State are less than what A-State faces this season.
- A-State faces four opponents this season coming off one of their two bye dates on the league schedule in addition to UT Arlington with a two-day leg up. ULM (6), Little Rock (3), Georgia State (6), Louisiana (6) and UT Arlington (2) have a total of 23 days in preparing for A-State while Appalachian State's 10 opponents coming off a bye date total 21 days. ULM has three consecutive Thursday opponents in February coming off a Saturday bye date.

QUARTERLY REVIEW

- The Arkansas State defense has done a very good of keeping teams from scoring "big quarters" against them this season. Out of a possible 64 quarters, the Red Wolves defense has held its opponents to 15 or fewer points 37 times. Teams have scored 10 or fewer points 16 times.
- On the other end of the floor, the A-State offense has been able to produce big quarters and has scored 20 or more points 28 times this season.
- The squad has scored 25 points in a quarter 7 times and has one 30-plus point quarter.

KHADIJA THE REBOUNTING QUEEN

- Khadija Brown-Haywood ranks first among all Sun Belt Conference players with 9.3 rebounds per game. She also ranks third in scoring at 16.8. She is the only player in the league to rank in the top-5 in both categories.
- In league play she averaging 10.1 rebounds and 20.1 points per game. The rebounding average leads the league, while she ranks second in points.
- Nationally she ranks 21st among all Division I players with 7.0 defensive rebounds a game.

TEAMS FINDING IT TOUGH TO SCORE AT THE CONVO

- Teams have averaged just 51.0 points against the Red Wolves this season at the Convo.
- No team has scored more than 60 points (App St.) and two teams have been held to points totals under 50 (ULM - 43 & Wichita State - 40).
- If the average holds, it would be the lowest opponent home scoring average in the Brian Boyer era. The next lowest average is 54.8 during the 2005-06 season.
- Only six of Boyer's have have had opponents scoring averages at the Convo in the 50s.

THE BOYER FILE

One of the most recognizable names and faces in the Sun Belt Conference and women's college basketball, Brian Boyer has built an illustrious career highlighted by countless milestones, including becoming the all-time wins leader in the SBC.

In his 16 years on the sidelines, Boyer was the primary architect in transforming the Arkansas State women's program into a model of consistency since taking over in 1999 and guiding the team to an appearance in the Women's National Invitation Tournament. He has coached the Red Wolves to six appearances in the WNIT and two SBC regular-season championships including the outright regular season crown in 2013-14.

An ambassador for both Arkansas State and the sport of college basketball, Boyer has enjoyed an unprecedented level of success through an energetic and positive approach to the game. A three-time Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year (2003-04, 2004-05 & 2013-14), Boyer has compiled an impressive 272-223 (.549) record over his 16-year career.

Boyer possesses the most conference wins by a coach in Sun Belt Conference in both the men's and women's game. He is the longest tenured basketball active coach in the conference and has also coached more games than any basketball coach (men's or women's) in Arkansas State history.

A-State has an unprecedented run of success over the last two years and has compiled 46 wins from the 2013-14 through the 2014-15 season, the third most in school history over any two-year span. Boyer helped guide the team to back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship appearances and led his squad to back-to-back WNIT berths for the first time in a decade.

The 2014-15 season saw numerous records fall in what could be considered Arkansas State's most successful run in school history. The Red Wolves tied a school record with 21 regular season victories and fell just one win shy of tying the all-time mark of wins in a single year at 25. The squad participated in the Preseason WNIT and Postseason WNIT, one of just two teams in the country to do that, and narrowly missed garnering the program's first NCAA Tournament berth with an RPI of 44 at season's end. The Red Wolves had the highest RPI of any team in the country to not make the NCAA Tournament.

Boyer and the Red Wolves also made the Convocation Center one of the toughest places to play in the league, compiling a perfect 10-0 record in league play and winning a total of 14 games in Jonesboro, tying the school record (men's and women's) for most home in a single year. In addition, A-State has won 16 straight games at home during conference play, the second longest streak in the SBC.

Under Boyer's tutelage, Aundrea Gamble collected her second straight Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year honor after winning the league's scoring title and setting the school record for most assists in a single season. She was also named a CollegeSportsMadness.com Mid-Major First-Team All-American and earned Sun Belt Conference All-Tournament Team honors. In addition, Jasmine Hunt and Khadija Brown-Haywood also earned Third-Team All-Conference honors and finished second and third on the team respectfully in scoring.

The 2013-14 campaign was perhaps the best of Boyer's historic career at A-State. The Red Wolves finished with a 22-12 overall record and a 14-4 mark in the Sun Belt Conference (SBC). The squad captured the outright regular-season Sun Belt Conference title for the first time in school history. A-State entered the SBC Tournament as the No. 1 seed and advanced to the championship game for the second time in program history.

It was also a historic year for Boyer, who surpassed former Louisiana Tech coach Leon Barmore and Florida International coach Cindy Russo for the most league wins in Sun Belt Conference at 136 on March 5, 2014 and won his third career SBC Coach of the Year award at the end of the season. Boyer currently stands at 153 career league wins.

Boyer has coached 25 players to All-Conference status during his tenure, but his team's success is not limited to just on the court. The program won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Team Academic honors in 2012-13 and 2013-14 with team GPAs that were over the 3.0 mark.
