- By comparison that ranks as the highest in school history by a women's basketball player, surpassing Sonja Tate's .503 mark.
- For a further baseline comparison, the top true shooter in the NBA in 2014-15 was Atlanta's Kyle Korver at .699.
- The chart below details Gamble's true shooting percentage against both the best shooters in A-State history (men and women) and the returning WBCA All-Americans from the 2014-15 season.

*With Boyer's 197th Victory, he became the all-time leader in wins at A-State.

THE BOYER FILE

One of the most recognizable names and faces in the Sun Belt Conference and women's college basketball, Brian Boyer has built an illustrious career highlighted by countless milestones, including becoming the all-time wins leader in the SBC.

In his 16 years on the sidelines, Boyer was the primary architect in transforming the Arkansas State women's program into a model of consistency since taking over in 1999 and guiding the team to an appearance in the Women's National Invitation Tournament. He has coached the Red Wolves to six appearances in the WNIT and two SBC regular-season championships including the outright regular season crown in 2013-14.

An ambassador for both Arkansas State and the sport of college basketball, Boyer has enjoyed an unprecedented level of success through an energetic and positive approach to the game. A three-time Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year (2003-04, 2004-05 & 2013-14), Boyer has compiled an impressive 272-223 (.549) record over his 16-year career.

Boyer possesses the most conference wins by a coach in Sun Belt Conference in both the men's and women's game. He is the longest tenured basketball active coach in the conference and has also coached more games than any basketball coach (men's or women's) in Arkansas State history.

A-State has an unprecedented run of success over the last two years and has compiled 46 wins from the 2013-14 through the 2014-15 season, the third most in school history over any two-year span. Boyer helped guide the team to back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship appearances and led his squad to back-to-back WNIT berths for the first time in a decade.

The 2014-15 season saw numerous records fall in what could be considered Arkansas State's most successful run in school history. The Red Wolves tied a school record with 21 regular season victories and fell just one win shy of tying the all-time mark of wins in a single year at 25. The squad participated in the Preseason WNIT and Postseason WNIT, one of just two teams in the country to do that, and narrowly missed garnering the program's first NCAA Tournament berth with an RPI of 44 at season's end. The Red Wolves had the highest RPI of any team in the country to not make the NCAA Tournament.

Boyer and the Red Wolves also made the Convocation Center one of the toughest places to play in the league, compiling a perfect 10-0 record in league play and winning a total of 14 games in Jonesboro, tying the school record (men's and women's) for most home in a single year. In addition, A-State has won 16 straight games at home during conference play, the second longest streak in the SBC.

Under Boyer's tutelage, Aundrea Gamble collected her second straight Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year honor after winning the league's scoring title and setting the school record for most assists in a single season. She was also named a CollegeSportsMadness.com Mid-Major First-Team All-American and earned Sun Belt Conference All-Tournament Team honors. In addition, Jasmine Hunt and Khadija Brown-Haywood also earned Third-Team All-Conference honors and finished second and third on the team respectfully in scoring.

The 2013-14 campaign was perhaps the best of Boyer's historic career at A-State. The Red Wolves finished with a 22-12 overall record and a 14-4 mark in the Sun Belt Conference (SBC). The squad captured the outright regular-season Sun Belt Conference title for the first time in school history. A-State entered the SBC Tournament as the No. 1 seed and advanced to the championship game for the second time in program history.

It was also a historic year for Boyer, who surpassed former Louisiana Tech coach Leon Barmore and Florida International coach Cindy Russo for the most league wins in Sun Belt Conference at 136 on March 5, 2014 and won his third career SBC Coach of the Year award at the end of the season. Boyer currently stands at 153 career league wins.

Boyer has coached 25 players to All-Conference status during his tenure, but his team's success is not limited to just on the court. The program won back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Team Academic honors in 2012-13 and 2013-14 with team GPAs that were over the 3.0 mark.
