Let's Recap

Southeast Missouri baseball saw a number of streaks and trends end this past weekend at Austin Peay. Friday evening's 6-1 loss snapped the Redhawks' 11-game winning streak and served as their first Ohio Valley Conference loss of the season after starting 12-0. The Redhawks tried to come back in game two of the series but fell short, 8-6, dropping their first conference series. Southeast salvaged game three of the series with a 7-3 victory. In Sunday's win Chris Osborne became the first Southeast Missouri player to hit for the cycle since 2003; he was also the hero in the come-from-behind victory over Arkansas State earlier in the week, hitting a three-run home run in the eighth inning. For the week Osborne hit .667 (6-for-9) with a 1.667 slugging percentage and .727 on-base percentage; in 21 games this season Osborne is hitting .400 and slugging .880.

Series History

All time, Southeast trails in the all-time series 17-23. The Redhawks and Red Wolves have split the home-and-home series each of the last two seasons. Southeast hasn't swept the series since 2011. Southeast won in Jonesboro on Mar. 25 last season, 6-5, but fell in Cape a week later, 12-10, on Mar. 31.

Last Week's Meeting

Southeast came out on top of last week's game at home against Arkansas State, 4-2. The Redhawks trailed 2-1 going to the bottom of the eighth inning. Chris Osborne played hero with two-out, three-run home run to go ahead 4-2 on the Red Wolves. Garrett Gandolfo scattered three hits against the Red Wolves with a run and a walk. In his fourth start of the season, Jacob Lawrence pitched six and two-thirds innings. Lawrence allowed one run on five hits with five strikes. Lawrence would get a no decision after the go-ahead run scored off Redhawk reliever Jake Busiek. Justin Murphy picked up the victory after pitching one and a third innings to finish the game.

Osborne Hits for the Cycle

Junior outfielder Chris Osborne became the first Southeast Missouri baseball player to hit for the cycle since 2003 on Sunday at Austin Peay. Osborne singled in the second inning, homered in the fifth, tripled in the eighth, and doubled in the ninth to complete the cycle. Denver Stuckey was the last Southeast player to hit for the cycle on May 4, 2003 at UT Martin.

The Latest RPI Ranking

In this week's NCAA RPI rankings, Southeast Missouri has moved up nine spots from 51 to 42. Four OVC programs appear in the top 100. Behind Southeast is Morehead State (66), Austin Peay (82), and Jacksonville State (96). D1Baseball.com ranks the Redhawks 43rd.

The Top Trio

The Redhawks' three weekend starting pitchers, Joey Lucchesi, Clay Chandler, and Robert Beltran, have been nearly unstoppable this season. The three each rank in the top six ERAs in the OVC, led by Lucchesi's 1.48 clip. The three have combined for a 2.26 ERA and have struck out 173 batters. Together, the three are 14-4 in their 24 starts on the mound. Lucchesi leads the country with 71 strikeouts this season.

Key Two-Out Hitting

The Redhawk offense has capitalized on two-out situations this season. In all, the Redhawks have scored 242 runs on the season, 224 of which were driven in. With two out, Southeast has recorded 89 runs batted in this season, 40% of the Redhawks' total RBI. The Redhawks have 110 two-out hits this season and hit .294 with two down in an inning.

Going Streaking

Trevor Ezell's 34 game on base streak that dated back to last season, came to an end Tuesday against Arkansas State. He has reached base in 27 games to begin the season. Garrett Gandolfo is riding a team-best 12-game hitting streak while Ryan Rippee has strung together a 10-game on base streak.

Tailgate Dates Announced

The Department of Athletics announced five free tailgate games for the 2016 baseball season. The five tailgates will begin April 2 and run through May 3.

Apr. 2 - Wings Etc. and River Eagle Distributing
Apr. 16 - Jimmy Johns and Kohlfeld Distributing
Apr. 26 - Bluff City Beer (food and beverages)
Apr. 29 - Bank of Missouri and River Eagle Distributing
May 3 - Wings Etc. and Kohlfeld Distributing

Three Consecutive OVC Pitchers of the Week

The Redhawks have had an OVC Pitcher of the Week each of the first three weeks of the season. Clay Chandler has earned the honor twice (Feb. 22, Mar. 7) and Joey Lucchesi earned it once (Feb. 29). No team in the OVC has ever earned three-straight pitchers of the week to begin a season until now. On Feb. 29, Lucchesi earned Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week honors followed by Chandler earning the honor on Mar. 7.

Doubling Down

Branden Boggetto currently ranks eighth with 53 doubles in his career. Boggetto ranks third among all active NCAA DI players in the category. Boggetto nearly broke the single-season doubles record in 2015 with 23, which ranked sixth nationally a season ago. The career record is 68 (Zach Borowiak, 2000-03).

Now Appearing...

Senior right-handed pitcher Alex Siddle is on track to break Southeast's all-time appearances record. Siddle has appeared in 75 games in a Redhawk uniform. He currently ranks second on the list. Siddle's 75 appearances ranks 32nd among active Division I players in pitching appearances. The Southeast record, held by Jason Swearingen (1995-98) is 76 appearances. Siddle has averaged 22 appearances each season of his three-year career.

Tabbed to Three-Peat

Ohio Valley Conference head baseball coaches and sports information directors have tabbed the Redhawks to win the OVC in 2016. The Redhawks received 19 first-place votes of the 22 ballots cast. The Redhawks will look to win their third-straight OVC championship in 2016. Jacksonville State was picked to finish second while Austin Peay (two first-place votes) was tabbed third in the preseason polling.

Preseason Pitcher of the Year

Senior left-handed pitcher Joey Lucchesi was named the 2016 Preseason OVC Pitcher of the Year, the league announced last week. Lucchesi finished his first season in a Redhawk uniform with a 7-2 record and a 3.17 ERA. Lucchesi began the season coming out of the pen before settling in to a starting role at the beginning of conference play. He was 7-1 in league games with a 2.13 ERA. Lucchesi held the league's best ERA (3.17), opponent batting average (.192), and strikeouts (93). Lucchesi also earned First Team All-OVC praises.

STEVE BIESER

HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON
SOUTHEAST MISSOURI, 1989

@BIESERSR

In just three seasons at the helm of the Redhawks, head coach Steve Bieser has transformed the Southeast Missouri baseball program into a championship-caliber team in the Ohio Valley Conference as well as a program to make waves on the national level.

Entering his fourth season at the helm of the Redhawks, Bieser carries a career head coaching record of 99-76 and 58-33 in OVC play. The Redhawks won back-to-back Ohio Valley Conference Regular Season Championships in 2014 and 2015. It was the first time in program history Southeast had won back-to-back titles. The Redhawks tallied 30-win seasons in each of their championship campaigns under Bieser's tutelage.

Southeast won its second-straight OVC crown in 2015 with a record of 22-8 in league play, 36-23 overall. The Redhawks earned a number of postseason honors. Most notably, Joey Lucchesi was named the OVC Pitcher of the Year. Lucchesi finished the season with a 3.17 ERA, a 7-2 record, and 93 strikeouts; all of which were top in the OVC. Southeast had four Second Team All-OVC members: first baseman Ryan Rippee, shortstop Branden Boggetto, designated hitter Garrett Gandolfo, and utility player Andy Lennington. Freshman Trevor Ezell picked up All-Freshman Team honors.

Southeast Missouri made its 21st-consecutive appearance in the OVC Tournament in 2015. The Redhawks advanced to the championship round of the tournament for the first time since 2008.

Other postseason honors included Capital One Academic All-American Second Team Honors bestowed upon Jason Blum, Ezell being named NCBWA Freshman All-American, and Boggetto picking up ABCA/Rawlings All-South Second Team Honors.

Junior Alex Winkelman began the next level of his baseball career when he was drafted in the 21st round of the Major League Baseball Draft by the Houston Astros. Winkelman was the 619th overall pick in the draft and became the second draft pick under Bieser. In three years at Southeast, Winkelman compiled a 14-9 record and 4.51 ERA in 50 appearances and 35 starts. He was credited with two saves and recorded 204 strikeouts in 229.2 innings in his career.

The 2015 squad drew national attention with a pair of wins over Southeastern Conference opponents. Southeast defeated SEC powerhouse Arkansas on Mar. 18 in Fayetteville, 12-11. The Redhawks followed it up with an 8-5 victory over in-state foe Missouri on May 5.

In only his second season as head coach, Bieser's Redhawks won the 2014 OVC regular season championship, tied a program record for wins in a season going 37-20, posted the ninth-best team batting average in the country (.309), scored the ninth-most runs in the nation (408), finished eighth in scoring (7.2 runs per game), mentored Matt Tellor, 2014 OVC Player of the Year, and Travis Hayes, the 2014 OVC Co-Pitcher of the Year, and saw three players go on to continue their professional careers on the baseball field.

The 2014 team made a name for itself by ranking nationally in a number of statistical categories as a team as well as individually. The team's .309 batting average ranked ninth in the nation. Southeast averaged 7.2 runs a game, ranking eighth, while their 408 total runs ranked ninth. The Redhawks finished second in the country in sacrifice flies with 47 on the season. Southeast boasted a .389 on-base percentage and a .422 slugging percentage on the season. Defensively, the Redhawks turned the ninth-most double plays and averaged 1.11 per game. On the bases, Southeast ranked 10th in the nation with 97 stolen bases; stealing 1.7 bases a game.

Individually, Derek Gibson and Tellor ran the gambit in a number of categories. Tellor ranked in the top-25 in 10 different statistical categories while Gibson appeared in five top-25 lists. Tellor was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the MLB First-Year Player Draft in the 10th round. Tellor was the 313th overall pick of the draft and is the highest draft pick out of Southeast Missouri since Galen McSpadden was drafted in the sixth round of the 1974 draft. Gibson signed a free agent contract with the St. Louis Cardinals on June 19, 2014. Bieser's son, Cole, went on to sign with the Gateway Grizzlies out of the Frontier League.

Academically, the Redhawks have been equally impressive with Bieser at the helm.

His clubs produced three Academic All-Americans, eight Academic All-District picks, one OVC Scholar-Athlete, six OVC Medal of Honor recipients and 48 OVC Commissioner's Honor

Roll selections. Southeast recorded a team GPA above 3.0 each of the last three years, grabbing one OVC Team Academic Award along the way. Additionally, Bieser's teams are active in the community, averaging 550 team community service hours each of the last two years.

Bieser was named the fifth head coach of Southeast Missouri baseball on May 15, 2013.

Prior to taking over as head coach of the Redhawks, Bieser served as the pitching coach in 2011 and 2012.

Bieser coached starting pitcher Shae Simmons, who led the OVC in strikeouts in 2012 with 89 on his way to being named Second Team All-OVC. Simmons was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 26th round of the 2012 MLB Draft. Simmons made his MLB debut May 31, 2014 against the Miami Marlins.

In 2011, the Redhawks pitching staff ranked third in the OVC in pitching recording a team ERA of 4.97, as the Redhawks recorded their first earned run average under five since 2007.

The Redhawks team ERA also improved from 2010 as the Southeast hurlers trimmed their team ERA by over one run. Bieser also mentored two pitchers to Second Team All-OVC honors in Logan Mahon and Jordan Underwood. Mahon was later drafted by the Colorado Rockies in the 22nd round of the MLB Draft.

Bieser, a native of Ste. Genevieve, Missouri came to Southeast after a very successful campaign as head coach at St. John Vianney High School in Kirkwood, Missouri. In seven seasons leading the Griffins, his team won two state championships in 2004 and 2006. He compiled a record of 137-51.

Five of his players were selected in the First Year Major League Player Draft (1st, 5th, 21st, 22nd, & 42nd rounds). Over 80 percent of his high school players went on to play collegiate baseball with 16 playing at the Division I level, four attaining freshman All-America status and one, former Redhawk Jim Klocke, being named a two-time All-American.

In 2009, he took over the Danville Dans of the Prospect League. Bieser coached the Dans to the Central League Championship.

As a player, Bieser graduated from Southeast Missouri State in 1989 and was selected in the 32nd round of the 1989 June Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies.

On April 1, 1997, he made his Major League debut with the New York Mets as a catcher. Bieser was the ultimate utility player for
