- Named to the 2015 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll

SCOUTING ARKANSAS STATE

Arkansas State enters the midweek matchup with a 24-26 record after going 3-1 last week. The Red Wolves beat Memphis, 4-3, to start the week before taking two-of-three from Texas State. When the Rebels come to town, A-State will be wrapping up an eight-game homestand. Joe Schrimpf leads Arkansas State at the plate as the only one on the team hitting over the .300 threshold. Along with his .309 batting average, Schrimpf leads the team in RBI (40) and runs (34). Tanner Ring follows closely behind with a .297 average, providing power to the lineup with 13 doubles and seven home runs. On the mound, freshman Zach Haake will make his first career start. Haake has pitched 6.2 innings over eight appearances this season. The Red Wolves are by Tommy Raffo, who is in his eighth season at ASU.

LAST TIME WE MET

Earlier this season (Feb. 24), Ole Miss rallied from behind with a run in each of the last two innings to keep perfect season intact. A Cameron Dishon sacrifice fly in the bottom of the ninth scored pinch-runner Ray Alejo to lift the Rebels to a 4-3 victory over Arkansas State at Swayze Field. The win over the Red Wolves marked the seventh straight Ole Miss victory when the two opponents have faced off against each other. Tate Blackman continued to shine at the plate with his fourth straight multi-hit game. The second baseman reached base all four times he stepped up to the dish, drawing a pair of walks to go along with two hits. Blackman's two-out single in the bottom of the eighth tied the game and gave Ole Miss life late in the contest. On the mound, freshman Dallas Woolfolk picked up his first career win. As a pitching staff, the Rebel arms struck out a season-high 12 hitters.

BREAKING OUT THE BATS IN JONESBORO

When the Rebels make the 154-mile trek to Jonesboro, Arkansas, they usually remember to bring their bats. Over the past three seasons, Ole Miss has averaged 14.7 runs per game in Jonesboro, outscoring the Red Wolves a combined 44-13 and winning each game. The Rebels won 11-1 in 2013 before claiming a high-scoring affair, 16-9, in 2014. Last season, slugger Sikes Orvis went 3-for-3 with two home runs and eight RBI to lead the Rebels to a 17-3 victory in a seven-inning contest.

MIDWEEK SUCCESS

Ole Miss is 11-2 in midweek games. The Rebels have won games over Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Arkansas State, Murray State, Southern Miss and UT Martin, while also sweeping Memphis, Southeast Missouri and UAB in a pair of midweek contests. Ole Miss has outscored the opposition a combined 84-33 in midweek matchups, averaging 6.5 runs per game. The Rebels won their first eight midweek contests of the season for the third time in program history, also accomplishing the feats in 2007 and 2010. As has been the case throughout the entire season, major credit goes to the bullpen. In midweek games this season, the Rebel bullpen has allowed just 11 earned runs in 47.0 innings, boasting a 2.11 ERA.

MILESTONE RECORDS IN REACH

At 39-13 in 2016 and four games left on the regular season slate, Ole Miss is one victory away from reaching its goal of winning 40 games prior to postseason play. The Rebels have won 40 regular season games three times in program history (2005, 2009, 2014), which stands as the school record. Another mark Ole Miss can reach is its best non-conference record. During the 2002 season, the Rebels went 23-3; with a win over Arkansas State, they will match that program best as well.

WOODMAN TABBED A FERRISS TROPHY FINALIST

Ole Miss junior outfielder J.B. Woodman has been named a finalist for the C Spire Ferriss Trophy, the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum announced Monday morning, May 16. Woodman is one of five finalists up for the award, named for Mississippi baseball legend Boo Ferriss, which will be presented to the most outstanding baseball player in the state of Mississippi at a luncheon on May 23 at the Cleveland Country Club in Cleveland, Mississippi. Woodman joins Delta State's Will Robertson along with Mississippi State players Dakota Hudson, Reid Humphreys and Jake Mangum as the five finalists. Major League Baseball scouts and college coaches chose the five finalists and also will vote again this week from among the five. As a team captain, Woodman has been a leader on and off the field all season long. Tied for the SEC lead with 12 home runs, the junior also paces Ole Miss in multi-hit games (21), RBI (47), runs (41) and steals (10), while also ranking among the top Rebels in batting average (.325), hits (62) and doubles (12). Moreover, he is hitting .340 during SEC play, cracking the conference's top-10 list. Known for his clutch hitting, Woodman is 24-for-54 (.444) with runners in scoring position this season. He also ranks in the top-25 nationally with six sacrifice flies, always finding a way to get a runner across the plate. As the Rebels' starting center fielder, the Orlando, Florida native has nine outfield assists which is tied for the most in the nation. Seven of his nine outfield assists have been at the plate, keeping runs off the scoreboard. Woodman is looking to become the sixth Rebel to win the Ferriss Trophy. Former Ole Miss outfielder Auston Bousfield took home the honor in 2014, joining previous Rebels Stephen Head (2004), Brian Pettway (2005), Scott Bittle (2008) and Drew Pomeranz (2010) in claiming the award.

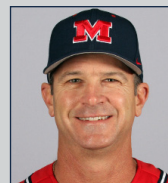

SEC NETWORK SELECTS OLE MISS-TEXAS A&M AS WILD CARD GAME

The Southeastern Conference has announced that the May 19 baseball game between No. 6 Ole Miss and No. 2 Texas A&M will air on national television. The series opener between the Rebels and Aggies will be broadcast live on SEC Network with first pitch moved up to 6 p.m. CT at Blue Bell Park. The three-game set against Texas A&M is the final regular-season series for Ole Miss. With the last Thursday of the regular season designated as a wild card selection date for television, the series-opening matchup was chosen over the other six SEC games on the schedule that evening. The matchup will feature a pair of the nation's top teams fighting for the SEC West crown. Along with Saturday's series finale on SEC Network as well, Ole Miss Baseball is slated to finish the 2016 regular season with 11 game that appeared on national television. The Rebels have played nine of those contests thus far, sporting a record of 7-2 that includes a pair of victories over both then-No. 21 Arkansas and then-No. 8 LSU.

HERE'S TO YOU, MR. ROBINSON

A preseason All-American, junior Errol Robinson has flashed the leather at shortstop all season long. His bat has sparked recently to provide a solid combination of offense and defense. The Boyds, Maryland native has recorded a hit in 23 of the last 25 games, putting together 12 multi-hit performances and posting a .361 batting average during that stretch. Robinson is currently riding a season-high 14-game hitting streak. Against Kentucky (May 12), the shortstop went 5-for-6 with four runs, earning new career highs in hits and runs scored in the Rebels' 14-2 victory. With five hits, Robinson became the first Rebel to put together a five-hit game since Auston Bousfield (April 26, 2014) also accomplished the feat against Kentucky.

RALLY REBELS

Never count Ole Miss out of a baseball game. Three times this season, the Rebels have come back to win after being dealt a five-run deficit. On Saturday, Kentucky took an early 5-0 lead through three innings. Ole Miss scored four runs to enter the ninth trailing by one before Henri Lartigue delivered the walk-off three-run homer for the 7-5 victory, completing the sweep of Kentucky. Trailing by five runs through the first seven innings of the series finale versus Auburn, the Rebels made a remarkable comeback with six runs in the last two frames to win 6-5. Colby Bortles started the rally with a two-run home in the eighth, putting Ole Miss on the board. Freshman Ryan Olenek belted a three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth, and Lartigue's clutch single provided another walk-off victory. Earlier in the season (March 2), the Rebels trailed Memphis 6-0 before winning by a 9-7 final.

FOUR IS THE MAGIC NUMBER

In terms of offense, four seems to be the magic number for Ole Miss. With an outstanding pitching staff, the Rebels are 38-1 when scoring at least four runs in a game. The lone loss when plating more than four runs came at the hands of South Carolina (March 25) in a 9-5 setback.

SUPER SWEEPERS

With a three-game sweep of Kentucky, Ole Miss collected its sixth weekend sweep of the 2016 campaign. The Rebels swept Florida International to begin the season, won all three games at the Chanticleer Classic and closed out the weekend non-conference slate with a trio of wins over Grambling State. In conference play, Ole Miss has swept SEC West foes Arkansas and Auburn at Swayze Field. The Rebels also earned two-game sweeps of Memphis, Southeast Missouri and UAB in midweek contests.

SLOW DOWN SHORT

After earning a spot on the midseason watch list (April 28), Ole Miss closer Wyatt Short has put together an impressive 2016 campaign to be recognized as a serious candidate for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Award, an award given to the top reliever in NCAA Division I Baseball. In 17 appearances, Short has 10 saves to go along with a 2-1 record and 1.83 ERA. While the junior southpaw holds the team lead in saves, he has also shown his versatility as a long reliever. Against No. 10 South Carolina (March 26), Short pitched a career-high 5.2 innings of relief and allowed just one unearned run on one hit. Moreover, seven of his 10 saves have been earned by pitching more than just 1.0 inning. Through 34.1 innings this season, the lefty has recorded 26 strikeouts while only issuing six walks. When pitching at the back end of the bullpen, Short has not blown a save. For his career, Short holds a 1.89 ERA and limits opposing hitters to a .208 average at the plate. His 23 career saves already rank fourth on the Ole Miss all-time charts.

DOUBLE MACHINE

Junior Colby Bortles has blasted 16 doubles thus far in 2016, five more than his nearest teammate. His 16 doubles rank fifth among SEC sluggers. The Oviedo, Florida native is three doubles away from cracking the Ole Miss single season top 10 list. He needs nine more to break the single season record, currently 24 by Brad Henderson (1999) and Will Allen (2014).

STRINGING TOGETHER INNINGS

Against Murray State (April 5), the Rebels scored in four straight innings to take an 8-0 lead before claiming a five-run win. It was the third time this season Ole Miss put together four consecutive scoring innings, matching the series opener versus Grambling State (March 11) and the neutral site contest against Southern Miss (April 5). The Rebels also scored runs in three straight innings in games versus Georgia (May 7), Arkansas-Pine Bluff (May 4), No. 8 LSU (April 30), No. 18 Coastal Carolina (March 5), GSU (March 13), as well as a pair of contests against No. 21 Arkansas (April 8-9).

CATCHER U

The tradition of great catchers at Ole Miss is well known, especially over recent history. Stuart Turner was a Johnny Bench Award winner and Will Allen was an All-American. Last year, Austin Knight threw out 17 baserunners. This season, another Rebel catcher is making his presence known. After spending most of last season as the team's designated hitter or backup catcher, junior Henri Lartigue has taken the reigns behind the plate in 2016. The Southaven, Mississippi native is the team's top hitter at the plate and leads all SEC catchers with a .351 batting average. Moreover, Lartigue is raking during conference play, hitting at a .390 clip, which ranks fifth among all hitters. He has put together nine games with at least three hits, pacing the Rebel bats. In a walk-off, come-from-behind victory over Auburn (April 24), Lartigue went 4-for-5, tying a career high in hits which included the game-winning single in the bottom of the ninth. He added another walk-off hit, a three-run homer, against Kentucky (May 14). Lartigue's impressive year has earned him a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List.

OUTFIELD ASSISTS

The Ole Miss outfield has had its fair share of assists this season, especially as of late. Rebel outfielders have tallied 16 assists in 2016. Out of the 16 assists, 10 have been outs at home to prevent opponents from scoring. J.B. Woodman leads the way with nine assists, throwing seven runners out at the plate. Against LSU, the center fielder made three perfect throws home to keep runs off the scoreboard. Freshman Ryan Olenek has four assists to his credit, while Cameron Dishon has three.

HENRI, KING OF COMEBACKS

When Henri Lartigue has stepped up to the plate in high-pressure situations with the game on the line, the junior catcher has come through in the clutch. Twice this season, Lartigue has provided walk-off hits to complete a five-run deficit and a three-game sweep over a conference opponent. Against Auburn (April 24), the switch hitter smacked a base hit to knock in Rebels' fourth run of the ninth inning and cap a 6-5 comeback victory. Last weekend versus Kentucky, Lartigue walked to the dish with runners on the corners, one out and his team trailing by one. Battling against UK closer Sean Hjelle, the Ole Miss catcher belted a deep fly ball to right field that cleared the fence for a three-run home run, giving the Rebels a 7-5 win and earning his second walk-off hit of the season.

CAPTAIN CLUTCH

One of three team captains, J.B. Woodman has shown his leadership ability by being a clutch hitter all season long. The junior is hitting .400 with runners on base, including a remarkable .444 (24-of-54) with runners in scoring position. Both averages lead the Ole Miss Rebels. With a runner on third and less than two outs, Woodman has scored the runner in 10 out of 13 opportunities. He also posts a .571 rate of advancing runners on base.

OLE MISS IN THE POLLS

After another SEC weekend sweep, their third of the season, the Rebels climbed the polls once again. Baseball America, the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA), Perfect Game and the USA Today coaches poll all have Ole Miss as the sixth-best team in the country. D1Baseball moved the Rebels up to No. 7 in the national rankings. Collegiate Baseball listed Ole Miss 12th in its poll, up eight spots from last week. With the combination of a quality record and strength of schedule, Ole Miss is fifth in the RPI which should help in terms of national seeding for the 2016 NCAA Tournament.

BLACKMAN'S BAT

Throughout the spring and fall, there was talk about the improvement of Tate Blackman. After going through a difficult freshman season, the Altamonte Springs, Florida native was determined to prove that his 2015 preseason expectations (a preseason freshman All-American before he even took the field in an Ole Miss uniform) were more than just hype. Putting in the time to get better during the offseason, Blackman's hard work has paid off in 2016. He leads the team in hits (63), is second on the team in batting average (.333) and multi-hit games (18), while ranking third in runs (40) and RBI (36). The second baseman also has reached base in 48-of-52 games this season.

STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

Ole Miss ranks in the top 25 nationally in several statistical categories. Individually, two Rebels are ranked in sacrifice flies. With a team-high seven sacrifice flies, sophomore Tate Blackman is 11th in the country.

BRAMLETT AND LARTIGUE EARN ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT HONORS

The Ole Miss battery of pitcher Brady Bramlett and catcher Henri Lartigue has been named to the Academic All-District Team as voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Both baseball Rebels earned the honor for the first time in their respective careers. Ole Miss was just one-of-two schools with multiple student-athletes on the District 6 team, joining Southeast Missouri State. The 12 student-athletes that made the list will now have a chance to be voted as CoSIDA Academic All-America. Bramlett continues to shine both on and off the field. Earlier this week, he was named one of the M-Club's Student-Athletes of the Month. As a biological science major, Bramlett holds a 3.43 GPA and will graduate later this summer. Lartigue, a junior, is an accountancy major with a 3.73 GPA.

STRIKING EARLY

Ole Miss wastes no time striking first, outscoring the opposition 52-21 in the first inning. The Rebels have scored in the opening frame 23 times this season, posting a 20-3 record in those ballgames. The first three innings are the Rebels' best in terms of outscoring the opponent. Ole Miss has recorded a combined 137 runs in the first three frames, while only giving up 68 runs through the first third of the game for a +69 advantage. The second inning is the team's best inning offensively, tallying 53 runs. On the mound, Ole Miss has surrendered just 20 runs in the third inning of contests.

Score by Innings	1	2	3	Total
Ole Miss	52	53	32	137
Opponents	21	27	20	68

SEC GRIND

Traditionally known as the best conference in college baseball, the SEC has once again lived up to that expectation again this season with over half of the conference ranked in the nation's top 25. The Rebels have fared well in the nation's toughest conference over the years. Ole Miss has posted a .500-or-better SEC record in 13 of the last 16 seasons, including this year with 17 wins in conference play. To put that in terms of difficulty, the Rebels are just one-of-two SEC schools that have accomplished the feat. South Carolina has been .500-or-better in the SEC in 15 of the last 16 years.

MLB REBELS

The 2016 Major League Baseball season is now underway, and eight former Rebels earned spots on big league ballclubs: Aaron Barrett (Washington Nationals), Chris Coghlan (Oakland Athletics), Zack Cozart (Cincinnati Reds), David Goforth (Milwaukee Brewers), Lance Lynn (St. Louis Cardinals), Drew Pomeranz (San Diego Padres), Alex Presley (Milwaukee Brewers) and Seth Smith (Seattle Mariners). While they are certainly not new to the big leagues, Coghlan and Pomeranz find themselves on new teams for the 2016 campaign. Barrett and Lynn continue rehab from Tommy John surgery as the two MLB Rebels look to return to the diamond. After beginning the year with the Triple-A affiliate Colorado Sky Sox, Goforth and Presley both earned promotions to the big leagues and remain on the Brewers' roster.

BIG INNINGS

Ole Miss has put together big innings throughout the 2016 campaign. Nine times this season, the Rebels have scored at least five runs in an inning. Ole Miss scored a season-high nine runs in the first inning versus FIU. Against Memphis (March 2), the Rebs used a seven-run third inning to rally from an early 6-0 deficit. At the Chanticleer Classic, six runs in the second helped Ole Miss roll to a 7-1 win over Cincinnati. The Rebels had two five-run innings to cruise past Grambling in a weekend sweep. A pair of five-run fifth innings helped Ole Miss down UAB 5-1 (March 16), as well as Tennessee, 10-7 (March 20). With six runs in the bottom of the eighth (April 9), the Rebels held off No. 21 Arkansas before claiming the weekend sweep with a win in the series finale. Over the weekend, Ole Miss used a five-run inning to build a double-digit lead and cruise past Kentucky, 14-2 (May 13).

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Swayze Field provides the best atmosphere and some of the biggest crowds across the country for college baseball games. Rebel Nation has come out to the ballpark in full force to support Ole Miss throughout the 2016 season. The Rebels averaged 8,502 fans per game, including five contests with the attendance over 10,000, to rank second nationally. In total, 272,081 fans have watched Ole Miss Baseball at Swayze Field this season, which is also the second-high total attendance in the country. Both marks are regular season attendance records. The third-largest combined attendance for a three-game home series (28,659) watched the Rebels take two-of-three from No. 2 Louisville. On Saturday, the fourth-largest crowd in Swayze Field history (10,561) saw the Rebels battle the Cardinals. Attendance on opening day was 10,129, the sixth-largest in stadium history and the biggest opening day crowd in school history. Ole Miss finished its regular season homestand at 26-6 and are in prime position to host an NCAA Regional.

ON DECK

Closing out the regular season, the Rebels will head to College Station, Texas to face No. 2 Texas A&M (May 19-21). The series begins Thursday night at 6 p.m. CT on SEC Network. Game two is slated for 6:30 p.m. on SECN+ Friday, while Saturday's series finale is on SEC Network with a 2 p.m. first pitch.

BRAMLETT ELECTED TO HALL OF FAME, WHO'S WHO HONOREE

While on the road with the team (March 4), starting pitcher Brady Bramlett received some major recognition on campus. A redshirt-junior on the field but a senior academically, Bramlett was named to the 2015-16 University of Mississippi Hall of Fame. The Bartlett, Tennessee native was one of 10 seniors throughout the entire university that earned the honor. He was also just the first student-athlete elected into the university's hall of fame since Maggie McFerrin of women's basketball (2013). Bramlett was selected based on his academic achievement, community service and potential for future success. He represents the SEC and serves as the Vice-Chair of the NCAA National Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and is a representative on the NCAA Strategic Vision and Planning Committee, a subcommittee of the NCAA Division I Council. Bramlett is also a representative on the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee. Bramlett's busy schedule off the field includes serving as president of the Ole Miss SAAC, singing in the university choir and working towards his degree as a biological science major. He also donates his time to the community, going to local elementary schools as part of the Reading with the Rebels program. Along with his hall of fame induction, Bramlett was also chosen to represent Ole Miss on the 2015-16 Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

BIANCO EARNS 700TH CAREER VICTORY

Head coach Mike Bianco, the winningest coach in Ole Miss Baseball history, collected his 700th career victory March 4 as Ole Miss cruised to a 15-2 win over Grambling State. The win was also Bianco's 600th as head coach of the Rebels. With the milestone victory, Bianco became just the ninth coach in NCAA Baseball history to earn at least 600 wins at an SEC school. Ole Miss has reached the 30-win plateau in each of Bianco's previous 15 seasons, proving that the Rebels reload their roster, not rebuild. With 13 postseason appearances in 15 years, five Super Regional appearances over the last 11 years and a College World Series appearance in 2014, Ole Miss has continued to rank among the nation's elite each season under Bianco.

REBELS VERSUS RANKED OPPONENTS

The Rebels have faced their seven different ranked opponents this season. Ole Miss is 9-9 versus ranked teams, including series victories over then-No. 2 Louisville, then-No. 8 LSU and then-No. 21 Arkansas. The Rebels also topped then-No. 5 Mississippi State and then-No. 18 Coastal Carolina in games earlier this year.

PINCH-HIT HOMERS

During the weekend series at Georgia, Holt Perdsock and Kyle Watson each delivered pinch-hit home runs for their first career homers. Overall, Ole Miss has hit three pinch-hit homer runs this season. Michael Fitzsimmons belted the other pinch-hit dinger (March 9) versus Southeast Missouri.

WOODMAN EARNS NATIONAL AND SEC WEEKLY AWARDS

After dominating all aspects of the game throughout the past week, Ole Miss junior outfielder J.B. Woodman was named the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) National Hitter of the Week and the SEC Player of the Week. Woodman was a monster at the plate and also made play after play in the field to earn the awards. Playing four games against top-10 teams last week did not seem to faze Woodman. The Orlando, Florida native recorded two hits in each contest, hitting at a .500 clip throughout the week. Woodman went 6-for-12 with three home runs, two doubles, eight RBI and five runs in the weekend series versus No. 8 LSU to help Ole Miss conquer the SEC rivalry series. He not only led the Rebels at the plate, but also in the field. From his center field position, Woodman threw three runners out at the plate and now has a team-high nine outfield assists this season. In the series opener against LSU, Woodman gunned down a pair of runners at home which proved to be the difference in a one-run game. In game two, he belted a two-run homer and threw another Tiger out at the plate. Woodman made sure the Rebels took the series finale, hitting a pair of home runs to deep center field and driving in a career-high four runs. Extending his home run count to a team-leading eight, Woodman became the first Rebel to homer twice in one game since Sikes Orvis accomplished the feat last season (May 3, 2015 at Missouri).

BRAMLETT EARNS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Ole Miss ace Brady Bramlett has been having another phenomenal season on the mound that has earned him some national recognition. The redshirt junior was named a Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week for his performance against Arkansas (April 8), tossing seven shutout innings and recording 12 strikeouts. Bramlett also earned a spot on the watch list for the National College Baseball Hall of Fame's 2016 National Pitcher of the Year Award. Bramlett was one of 16 pitchers from the Southeastern Conference on the watch list. Bramlett has had a stellar year as the ace of the Rebels' rotation. The right hander is 6-2 on the season with a 2.61 ERA to go along with 73 strikeouts. Out his 73 strikeouts, 33 of them have been looking which ranks second in the SEC.

MCARTHUR NAMED SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Ole Miss pitcher James McArthur was named SEC Freshman of the Week for the period ending April 24. McArthur earned the first weekly accolade of his career and became the first Rebel to earn SEC Freshman of the Week since Will Golsan claimed the honor last season (March 23, 2015). McArthur had an outstanding week on the mound, making two appearances that helped Ole Miss complete a perfect 5-0 record throughout the week. The New Braunfels, Texas native pitched 11.2 innings without allowing a run, giving up just six hits and recording 11 strikeouts. In a midweek win over Memphis (April 19), McArthur tossed a career-high seven scoreless innings and tied his career high in strikeouts with seven. Five days later (April 24), the tall right hander made his SEC debut versus Auburn. Entering the game in the second with the Rebels trailing 4-0, McArthur was able to strikeout his first two SEC hitters to get out of the jam. He continued to keep his team in the game with 4.2 scoreless innings of relief. In just his first collegiate season, McArthur has settled in and has been impressive, especially as of late. Over his last seven outings, he boasts a 5-0 record with a 1.62 ERA and 39 strikeouts in 33.1 innings. The freshman has allowed just 14 earned runs this season, the third-fewest in the SEC among qualifying pitchers.

PLAYING IN PROFESSIONAL BALLPARKS

Playing in the Governor's Cup Tuesday night, the Rebels returned to Trustmark Park for its fourth game in a Minor League Baseball ballpark this season. Ole Miss faced Memphis at AutoZone Park, home of the Memphis Redbirds (Triple-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals) last week (April 19). The Rebels met UAB at Regions Field (March 15-16), home of the Birmingham Barons. Earlier this month (April 5), Ole Miss headed down to the Mississippi Braves' Trustmark Park for a neutral site matchup against Southern Miss.

A COINCIDENTAL SHUTOUT

Opening up the Southeastern Conference weekend series at Alabama, Ole Miss used three pitchers to post a 4-0 shutout over the Crimson Tide. Coincidentally, prior to the Friday night matchup, the last shutout pitched by the Rebels was also against Alabama in a 4-0 victory, April 25, 2015. In both shutouts, Brady Bramlett was the starting pitcher that led Ole Miss to victory. The right-hander tossed a career-high 7.1 scoreless innings in last season's matchup, striking out nine. This year, Bramlett went 6.0 frames without allowing a run before turning the game over to Will Stokes and Wyatt Short. The duo combined to finish the final three innings and secure the shutout. In two career starts versus Alabama, Bramlett has been lights out (13.1 innings, 0 runs, 7 hits, 15 strikeouts, 3 walks).

12-GAME WIN STREAK

Ole Miss won at least 12 straight games for the sixth time in program history. The Rebel bats are averaging nearly seven runs and 10 hits per game. Hitting .307 as a team during the streak, Ole Miss has increased its season batting average a whopping 54 points. On the mound, the pitching staff holds a 1.82 ERA with 97 strikeouts during the 12-game stretch. The combination of hot bats and solid pitching has kept the Rebels on the victorious side of the scoreboard.

SWEEPING THE CHANTICLEER CLASSIC

Sweeping the 2016 Chanticleer Classic, Ole Miss won three games in a regular season tournament for the first time in school history. Ole Miss began the weekend with a 7-3 victory over Ball State. Switch hitter Henri Lartigue went 3-for-3 from the right side of the plate and reached base all four times he stepped up to the plate. On the mound, Brady Bramlett earned his third win in as many starts, and freshman Dallas Woolfolk pitched the remainder of the game to earn the rare three-inning save. On Saturday, the Rebels faced a ranked team for the third straight weekend. Tate Blackman doubled twice and recorded three RBI as No. 13 Ole Miss continued its business with an 8-2 victory over No. 18 Coastal Carolina, the host of the tournament. A key to the Rebels' success was getting the leadoff hitter on base. Seven times, the Ole Miss leadoff hitter reached base and in five of those innings, the leadoff Rebel came around to score. Ole Miss starter Chad Smith earned his first win as a Rebel, allowing just two runs over 5.0 innings. The Rebels wrapped up the Chanticleer Classic with a 7-1 win over Cincinnati Sunday afternoon. Thanks in part to a six-run second inning, the Rebels held an early 7-0 lead and never looked back, completing the tournament sweep. Redshirt-junior Sean Johnson turned in a phenomenal performance on the mound. In six innings of work, Johnson allowed just one hit and issued one walk, retiring the final 17 batters he faced.

TOURNEY TIME

As a participant in the 2016 Chanticleer Classic, the Rebels played in their first regular season tournament since 2009 (Coca Cola Classic - Mobile, Ala.). Under head coach Mike Bianco, Ole Miss has played in five tournaments. The Rebels hosted the Ole Miss Invitational in Bianco's first season, before hitting the road for the other regular season tournaments.

Ole Miss in Regular Season Tournaments (Bianco Era)

- 2001 - Ole Miss Invitational (Oxford, Miss.)
- 2003 - Crowne Plaza/Rice Invitational (Houston, Texas)
- 2005 - Coca Cola Classic (Houston Texas)
- 2007 - Dairy Queen Classic (Minneapolis, Minn.)
- 2009 - Coca Cola Classic (Mobile, Ala.)
- 2016 - Chanticleer Classic (Conway, S.C.)

REBELS' ALL-TIME SAVES LEADER NAMED DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

Former Rebel Brett Huber has been named as a director of operations for the Ole Miss baseball program, head coach Mike Bianco announced, March 2. An Ole Miss pitcher from 2010-13, Huber joins Jake Scott as one of two directors of operations for the Rebels. As a four-year letterman for the Diamond Rebels, Huber collected 38 saves throughout his career, an Ole Miss record. He recorded 12 saves during his freshman campaign to earn second team All-SEC accolades. The right-hander combined for 14 saves during his sophomore and junior seasons before adding 12 more as a senior. In his final year at Ole Miss, Huber struck out 26 batters and held opponents to a .181 batting average against with a 1.54 ERA. Drafted in the 31st round of the 2013 MLB Draft, Huber spent a year in the Detroit Tigers minor league system. Not only was Huber a Pro Reb on the field, but he also donated his time off the field as an active member of the Detroit Tigers Community Commitment program. Huber returns to Oxford after working two years as a pitching coordinator and office administrator for the St. Louis Pirates baseball club, mentoring kids who wish to play college baseball following high school.

BACK TO THE GAUNTLET

Last year, Ole Miss faced the nation's toughest schedule on its way to its 13th NCAA Regional appearance in the past 15 seasons. This season, the Rebels faced some of the toughest competition right off the bat. Ole Miss hosted FIU and Louisville at home, two teams that made the NCAA Tournament in 2015. Facing a pair of tournament teams in the first two weekend series of the season is rare. In fact, only seven teams play weekend series against tournament teams to kick off the first two weeks of the season. The Rebels were the only 2015 NCAA Tournament team to face fellow tournament qualifiers.

Teams That Faced 2015 NCAA Tournament Teams in First Two Weekend Series

- Florida Gulf Coast (Florida, Illinois)
- Ole Miss (FIU, Louisville)
- Rhode Island (Florida State, Maryland)
- Sacramento State (Auburn, LSU)
- Stanford (Cal State Fullerton, Texas)

UIC (Texas Southern, Vanderbilt)

Xavier (Arizona State, Mercer)

REBEL DEBUTS

While Ole Miss returned seven position starters from last season's squad, 14 Rebels made their debuts during opening weekend, including nine pitchers. Taking the field in an Ole Miss uniform for the first time were: Ray Alejo, Brian Browning, Brady Feigl, Michael Fitzsimmons, Nick Fortes, Connor Green, Andrew Lowe, James McArthur, DJ Miller, Ryan Olenek, Andy Pagnozzi, David Parkinson, Chad Smith and Dallas Woolfolk.

ROBINSON RACKS UP PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA HONORS

Entering the 2016 season, Ole Miss shortstop Errol Robinson said has been tabbed a first team preseason All-America honoree by Baseball America and D1Baseball.com. Major League Baseball scouting directors voted Robinson the nation's top shortstop heading into the 2016 season, and D1Baseball gave him the nod as well. Along with first team All-America recognition, Baseball America also tabbed Robinson as the No. 21 prospect in the country. D1Baseball listed him 28th on its prospect chart, while Perfect Game placed the Rebel shortstop at No. 45. Robinson will begin his junior campaign as the most experienced Rebel on the field with 124 starts at shortstop under his belt. Along with being a career .296 hitter, he has made numerous highlight plays with his glove. Robinson assisted in turning 68 double plays over the past two seasons. Last year, Robinson hit at a .297 clip, collecting a team-high 62 hits. The Boyds, Maryland, native continued his strong sophomore season into the summer, competing in the prestigious Cape Cod Collegiate Summer Baseball League. Posting a .312 batting average as a league all-star, Robinson recorded a team-high 44 hits during the season to lead the Hyannis Harbor Hawks to the CCBL Championship Series.

SHORT NAMED TO STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Ole Miss closer Wyatt Short was named to the preseason watch list for the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Award, given annually to the top relief pitcher in NCAA Division I baseball. The organization also named Short second team NCBWA Preseason All-America. Short is one of 10 players on the watch list that also collected NCBWA Preseason All-America honors. The junior is only one of 15 closers on the list to eclipse double digits in saves last season. A native of Southaven, Mississippi, Short earned the NCBWA accolades after a dominating 2015 season in which he earned All-SEC honors as the Rebels' closer. The southpaw posted a 4-1 record with a 1.38 ERA as a sophomore, striking out 44 hitters over 39.0 innings. He added 10 saves as the team's shutdown reliever, tying for the fifth-most saves in a single season in school history. In just two years, Short has collected 13 saves to sit in a tie with Skipper Wright for sixth in the Ole Miss Baseball record book.

RETURNING REBELS

The Rebels return 16 players from last season's team, including seven starting position players (DH included). First or second-year players took 70.9 percent of the team's at-bats throughout the 2015 season, and nearly all of them are back for the 2016 campaign. Ole Miss also welcomes 16 newcomers, featuring 13 freshmen and three junior college transfers. One of the young Rebels that was relied upon as a leader in 2015 was Errol Robinson, a fan favorite who is back for his third year as the Rebels' starting shortstop. Five other starters in the field return for Ole Miss, including all three outfielders: seniors Connor Cloyd and Cameron Dishon as well as junior J.B. Woodman. Third baseman Colby Bortles is back at the hot corner and will provide power in the middle of the Ole Miss lineup. The Oviedo, Florida native belted 11 doubles and seven home runs to go along with 47 RBI in 2015. After a superb freshman season in which he hit .290, Will Golsan will look to build off his debut season. Tate Blackman and Kyle Watson combined for 74 starts a season ago, and the pair of sophomores have a chance to crack the lineup once again.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Team captains for this season's team are: junior third baseman Colby Bortles, senior pitcher Matt Denny and junior outfielder J.B. Woodman. The captains were selected from a vote by the team.

MACMILLAN NAMED VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Marc MacMillan, a four-year letterman for the Ole Miss baseball team during the 1990s, was named the Rebels' new volunteer assistant coach during the offseason. MacMillan moved into the new position after serving as the team's director of operations over the past two seasons. MacMillan filled the role left by Stephen Head, a three-time All-American during his playing days (2003-05) and the Rebels' first base coach during the 2014 and 2015 seasons. Head recently accepted a job with the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as an area scout for the Major League Baseball organization. MacMillan spent the past two seasons as the Rebels' director of operations. Prior to returning to Ole Miss, MacMillan was the associate head coach at the University of Arkansas - Pine Bluff. He spent three years at UAPB, working with the pitchers, infielders and base runners, while also coordinating the program's recruiting efforts plus strength and conditioning programs.

OLE MISS PREDICT TO FINISH FIFTH IN SEC WEST

SEC coaches submitted their season predictions in terms of the conference standings. No. 24 Ole Miss was projected to place fifth in the SEC West after being projected to finish sixth in the last two preseason polls. In those years, the Rebels exceeded conference expectations with a College World Series appearance in 2014 and a NCAA Regional berth last season. No. 1 Florida and No. 3 Texas A&M earned the most votes in their respective divisions. Ten SEC teams are ranked in at least one poll to begin the 2016 season. A total of seven SEC teams qualified for NCAA Regionals in 2015 and conference teams comprised half of the College World Series field. The SEC slate begins March 18 with the Rebels traveling to Tennessee for a weekend series against the Volunteers.
