LEADING OFF

• Memphis will host Arkansas State for the first of two games against the Red Wolves this season. Last year the Tigers were swept in the two-game season series with the Red Wolves. Memphis head coach Daron Schoenrock has had mixed results against Arkansas State in his career, posting an 11-13 record since 2005.

• Memphis is looking to get back on track after being swept in a three-game conference series for the first time since 2012. The Tigers had won six consecutive weekend series this season leading up to the sweep at UConn.

• The Tigers won their 20th game on April 5 against Alcorn State, marking significant improvement from last season. Memphis ended the 2016 regular season with 19 wins and picked up the 20th on May 26 in the American Athletic Conference tournament.

• The series win at Cincinnati was the first for Memphis since 2004 and the first for head coach Daron Schoenrock. The Bearcats won the series over Schoenrock's Tigers in 2005 before joining the Big East Conference. The teams reunited in the American Athletic Conference in 2014. The Tigers and Bearcats played two series in 2015 and 2016.

• The Tigers finished off the season sweep of nationally-ranked Ole Miss with a 2-1 walk-off win at AutoZone Park March 21. The sweep of the Rebels is the first since 2013. With a 3-3 record so far against teams from the SEC, Memphis sits at 17-17 over the last five seasons versus the nation's toughest conference. The Tigers are still scheduled to play two games against Arkansas in April.

• As part of the Tigers Feb. 24-26 sweep of Illinois State, Memphis rallied from an 11-0 deficit to win 12-11 in extra innings during the second game of the series. The comeback win is the largest in the Daron Schoenrock era of Memphis baseball.

• Senior outfielder Chris Carrier was named the American Athletic Conference Hitter of the Week April 3 after slugging two doubles and three homers in four games during the week. The conference weekly recognition is the third of his career.

• Memphis had a junior pitcher named to the American Athletic Conference Weekly Honor Roll after the first four weeks of the season. RHP Connor Alexander twice received the recognition after starts against Illinois State and Southern Illinois. RHP Colton Hathcock was honored after recording three saves in a four game stretch and LHP Drew Crosby was recognized after his opening weekend start against Tennessee. Jonathan Bowlan and Andy Bowman were then both named to the American Athletic Conference Weekly Honor Roll March 27.

• After the first three weeks of the season, Memphis starting pitching had compiled a 7.16 ERA through 12 starts and 44 innings pitched. With Alex Hicks joining Drew Crosby and Connor Alexander in the weekend rotation, the Tigers have seen a bounce-back, with nine quality starts over the last five weekends.

• Memphis had a record-setting opening weekend against Tennessee at FedExPark. The two teams squared off Sunday Feb. 19 in front of the largest crowd in FedExPark history of 2,188. The three-game series set another facility record, attracting 4,793 fans throughout the weekend.

• Memphis started the season with 15 of its first 16 games at home and the Tigers played five-of-six weekends at home in non-conference play. The start to league play wasn't as friendly, with trips to Cincinnati and UConn right out of the gate. In all Memphis will play 35 home games, including the two at AutoZone Park.

• More than 70-percent of the Tigers' innings pitched last season were by freshmen and sophomores and all 10 of those players return this season. This year's pitching staff is rounded out by the addition of four incoming freshmen pitchers and two junior college transfers.

NOTING THE FIRST EIGHT WEEKS

- After only winning three series all of last season, Memphis won six consecutive weekend series before dropping the series to UConn April 7-9. With the March 21 win at AutoZone Park, Memphis finished off the sweep of nationally-ranked Ole Miss and surpassed last season's midweek win total. The Tigers are 3-3 in midweek games so far this season.
- The Tigers won their 20th game on April 5 against Alcorn State, marking significant improvement from last season. Memphis ended the 2016 regular season with 19 wins and picked up the 20th on May 26 in the American Athletic Conference tournament.
- Memphis has been successful playing from behind so far this season, winning 11 games in which they have trailed. Seven times Memphis has rallied from a multiple-run deficit. Last season the Tigers had only seven come-from-behind wins. Memphis is 11-5 this year when the opponent scores first and last year the team was 7-22. After going just 1-5 in extra-inning games last season, the Tigers are 3-1 in extra-innings this year.

BULLPEN IS STRONG

- The Tigers bullpen was somewhat of a weakness last season, compiling an 8-11 record and a 5.60 ERA. The Memphis coaching staff knew that they needed to see an improved bullpen in order to win more game this season.
- So far this season there have been some positive signs. The Tigers relief corps has compiled a 7-4 record with 12 saves and a 3.52 ERA. Junior Colton Hathcock has been a key addition to the bullpen, with 14 appearances and nine saves. He has struck out 26 batters and walked 10.
- The key statistic might be the strikeout-to-walk ratio. So far this season Memphis relievers have struck out 113 and walked 64, while last season the Tiger bullpen had 166 strikeouts and 101 walks through 61 games.

MAN BEHIND THE MASK

- Catcher Jason Santana is having a solid sophomore campaign, starting 27 games and batting .255. His 24 hits have already surpassed the hit total from his 43 games played as a true freshman.
- He has shown improvement behind the plate too, throwing out 12 runners on the base paths.
- With 27 starts through 32 games, he is on pace to make the most starts by a Memphis catcher since 2011, when Phillip Chapman started 54 games behind the plate.

FRESHMAN PHENOM

- Alec Trela isn't the typical freshman shortstop. The 6-4, 218-pound first-year player has had his ups and downs as any freshman does, but he also has shown the potential to single-handedly win games for the Tigers. Of his team-leading 35 hits, 15 are for extra bases and one of his four home runs was a walk-off winner against Southern Illinois.
- He has started every game at shortstop and leads the team with 11 doubles and is tied for second with four homers. His 25 RBI are tied for second on the team. Defensively Trela has been part of 15 double plays turned and he leads the team with 92 assists. After committing six errors through the first 14 games, he had a streak of nine straight errorless games snapped against Mississippi State. He has just one error in the last 18 games.

A NEW FACE IN THE OUTFIELD

- After the departure of three-year starter and MLB Draft pick Darien Tubbs, there was a big spot to fill in center field. Tyler Webb has come right in as a junior college transfer and barely missed a beat.
- Despite not playing six games because of injury, Webb is batting a team-high .314 with eight doubles, a triple and two home runs. His first homer proved to be the game-winner in the series finale against Missouri State.
- Defensively Webb has been a great addition as well with three outfield assists.

A NEW ROLE

- Junior pitcher Colton Hathcock has found himself in a new role this season, as the team's closer. Primarily a starting pitcher as a sophomore last season and used as a middle reliever and spot starter his freshman season, this role is relatively unfamiliar.
- It has gone well so far. The junior has nine saves in 14 appearances and is tied for ninth nationally in the save category. He has struck out 26 batters in 18 innings pitched.

SWEEPING THE REBELS

- Memphis finished off the sweep of nationally-ranked Ole Miss with a 2-1 extra-innings victory at AutoZone Park. The Tigers have had recent success against the Rebels. The win is the seventh over Ole Miss since 2012 and gives Memphis a 7-5 advantage in the series since then. The season sweep of the Rebels is the first since 2013.
- The Tigers are now 17-17 against teams from the nation's toughest conference, the SEC, over the last five seasons. Memphis is 3-3 so far this season against the SEC with two more scheduled games.
- The midweek sweep is great start for a Memphis team that struggled in midweek games last season, posting a 2-12 record and dropping games to regional rivals Arkansas, Ole Miss and Mississippi State.

11-RUN DEFICIT? NO PROBLEM.

• Memphis trailed 11-0 to Illinois State on Feb. 25 before mounting the largest comeback win in the Daron Schoenrock era of Memphis baseball.

• After a rocky start that saw Illinois State score one in the first inning, seven in the second and three in the third, The Tigers mounted a furious comeback.

• Memphis chipped away initially, scoring two runs in the third inning before exploding for seven more in the fifth, one in the eighth, one in the ninth and the winning run in the 11th.

• The Tigers took advantage of 12 walks, including scoring the game-winning run via base on balls. Colton Neel walked it off with his fourth walk of the game. Zach Schritenthal walked three times in the game.

RECORD-SETTING WEEKEND

• Memphis started the season with a bang, hosting Tennessee Feb. 17-19 for the largest attended weekend in FedExPark history.

• The three-game series, which ran Friday, Saturday and Sunday attracted a total of 4,793 fans throughout the weekend. No weekend series had ever even seen 3,000 fans come through the gates of FedExPark.

• The series finale on Sunday saw the largest single-game crowd in FedExPark history of 2,188 fans. The previous record was also against Tennessee, when 2,107 saw the teams play on a Wednesday night in 2012.

• The series started with a crowd 1,117 that was an Opening Day record for FedExPark.

• Saturday's crowd of 1,489 is the fourth largest all-time at FedExPark.

AXE BATS

Take a close look at the bats that the Tigers swing and you'll notice a distinct difference from bats you've picked up in the past. The University of Memphis baseball program is in its fifth season as a partner with Baden Sports and swings the AXE Bat exclusively. The patented Axe handle puts the bat in the fingertips for a consistent swing plane and a freer release. The Axe shape gives a better grip with less tension and delivers important benefits through the swing. The handle's oval shape prevents hitters from over-gripping the bat, thus providing the tension-free swing and greater energy through the ball. The axe-handled bat has made its way into professional baseball too, with Dustin Pedroia and Mookie Betts of the Boston Red Sox both using the technology. Other pros using the axe bat include Carlos Correa (Houston), George Springer (Houston), Kurt Suzuki (Minnesota) and David Peralta (Arizona).

UP NEXT

Memphis will host its first home American Athletic Conference series of the season, welcoming Houston to FedExPark Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The Tigers will then travel to Arkansas to play the Razorbacks in Fayetteville Tuesday and in Little Rock Wednesday.
