LAST TIME OUT: vs. Louisiana (W 83-67)

Little Rock outscored the Eagles by 11 in the pivotal third quarter to come away with a 58-46 Sun Belt Conference women's basketball victory over visiting Georgia Southern on Thursday evening at the Jack Stephens Center in Little Rock.

The Trojans (4-10, 2-1 SBC) kept their conference winning streak alive with the victory as Little Rock has won its last 37 straight league games at home. Georgia Southern falls to 5-9 overall and 2-1 in the league with the loss, thwarted in its bid to notch its first win over the Trojans since joining the Sun Belt.

Defense was the story of the first half as Georgia Southern held Little Rock to just 10.5% shooting from the floor in the first quarter in building a 10-7 lead. Little Rock hit 5-of-7 shots from the floor in the second quarter to draw even, 21-all, at the break.

The third quarter was the difference in the contest as the Trojans held Georgia Southern to just four field goals and 10 points total in the period, getting a Sydney Chastain three-pointer at the end of the period to take a 42-31 lead and hold off the Eagles the rest of the way.

No Eagle reached double figures for the first time since Georgia Southern fell to the Trojans, 64-34, on Jan. 6, 2018. Kyra Collier's 16 points led Little Rock.

ABOUT THE RED WOLVES

Arkansas State is 5-9 overall and 2-1 in the Sun Belt after downing Georgia State, 70-68, in overtime on Thursday evening in Jonesboro. The Red Wolves trailed by 10 at the end of the third quarter but rallied to force overtime, then Jada Ford hit the game-winner with just over a minute left in the extra period for the win.

Peyton Martin (13.0 ppg) and Jireh Washington (12.4 ppg) lead the Red Wolves offensively on the season, while Morgan Wallace (9.8 ppg, 8.1 rpg, 2.1 spg) leads defensively.

Arkansas State leads the overall series between the two teams, 9-1, and the Red Wolves won last season's matchup in Jonesboro, 86-75.

TAKING CARE OF THE BASKETBALL

Turnovers have been a big indicator of whether the Eagles have success on the floor during the 2019-20 season. Thursday night, Georgia Southern committed 25 turnovers in a 58-46 loss at Little Rock - the seventh game this year in which the team has had 20 or more turnovers. Georgia Southern is 1-6 in those games this season. The Eagles are 4-3 in games in which they turn the ball over 19 times or fewer.

DEPTH IS KEY

Georgia Southern head coach Anita Howard was determined to utilize the team's depth to help the Eagles succeed in her first season at the helm of the program.

And so far in 2019-20, when the Eagles have gotten everyone on the roster involved, it's resulted in victories. In Georgia Southern's five wins this year, the Eagles' bench has outscored the opponents' bench by a 181-68 margin, including a 35-0 edge in bench scoring last Thursday night in the win over UL Monroe. And overall, Georgia Southern's bench has outpointed the opposition in 12 of 14 games this campaign.

DO-IT-ALL McDONALD

Graduate transfer Nikki McDonald has been a Swiss Army knife for head coach Anita Howard in her first season with the Eagles. The Louisiana Tech transfer is averaging 8.5 points and 6.2 rebounds per game through 14 games and notched her first collegiate double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds vs. Wofford on Dec. 1, while scoring a career-high 26 points in Georgia Southern's overtime loss at Ole Miss on Dec. 16.

She currently leads Georgia Southern in field goal percentage (43.7%), and rebounding, while also ranking third in scoring, third in steals (14) and second in free throw percentage (88.0%). Her 10 rebounds on Thursday vs. Little Rock were her third game this season with 10+ rebounds - the rest of the Eagle players have one 10+ rebound game combined (Alexis Brown).

BROWN BEST IN THE NATION AT THE STRIPE

Georgia Southern senior guard Alexis Brown begins the 2020 calendar year as the nation's best free throw shooter. The Madison, Ga., native has connected on 37-of-39 free throws for a 94.9 percentage, putting her ahead of Santa Clara's Tia Hay (34-of-36, 94.4%) for the lead in NCAA Division I.

Brown has steadily improved her free throw shooting throughout her four-year Eagle career. She hit 71.2% of her free throws as a freshman, but that rose to 75% as a sophomore and last year, 82%. Her career 80.3% (236-294) free throw percentage is on pace to be the new record at Georgia Southern, as she would join current record holder Meredyth Frye (2009-13, 80.1%) as the only other Eagle to shoot better than 80% from the free throw line for a career with a minimum of 200 free throws made.

GETTING TO THE GLASS

One of the bright spots so far this season for the Eagles has been the effort on the glass. Georgia Southern has been outrebounded just four times this season out of 14 games, including coming out +18 on the rebounding margin vs. Winthrop on Dec. 1 and a staggering +27 against St. Francis Brooklyn on Dec. 20. Georgia Southern ranks third in the Sun Belt in rebounding margin at +3.7 and ranks 100th nationally in that category. On the offensive glass, the Eagles also rank third best in the league at 15.0 offensive rebounds per game.

BROWN CLIMBS THE CHART

Senior Alexis Brown became the 24th Georgia Southern player to reach 1,000 career points at Wofford on Dec. 1. The next question for Brown is how high she can climb on the Eagles' all-time scoring chart. She cracked the Top 20 with her 16 points against Louisiana last Saturday and currently sits in 20th with 1,085 points. Below is a list of Brown's immediate company on the all-time scoring list:

Rk	Points	Name (Yrs)
17.	1,131	Patrice Butler (2014-17)
18.	1,106	Meredyth Frye (2009-13)
19.	1,094	Ashley Melson (2005-09)
20.	1,085	Alexis Brown (2016-Present)
21.	1,077	Danna Simpson (1998-02)

ATWATER GETTING THE ASSIST

Senior point guard Amira Atwater currently ranks third on the Georgia Southern all-time assist chart with 385. She needs just 34 more assists to pass Danna Simpson (419, 1998-02) for the Georgia Southern career assist record. Atwater's two assists against St. Francis Brooklyn on Dec. 20 moved her past Rosie Arnold (374, 1995-99) into second on the all-time chart. Her 385 assists rank her 35th among NCAA Division I current active leaders.

HEAD COACH ANITA HOWARD

anita HOWARD

Head Coach • First Season

Griffin, Ga. • Armstrong Atlantic State (2003)

Anita Howard is in her first season as the head women's basketball coach at Georgia Southern University. Howard comes to Statesboro from Columbus State University, where she served as head coach of the Cougars for three seasons.

Howard became the eighth head coach in Georgia Southern women's basketball history and the first African American female head coach when hired in March of 2019. In essence, she has returned home as Howard graduated from Armstrong State University in 2003. Georgia Southern and Armstrong State consolidated in 2017.

"We are incredibly excited to have Anita Howard lead our women's basketball program into its next chapter," Georgia Southern Director of Athletics Tom Kleinlein said. "She is a rising star in the coaching ranks and her ties to Georgia make her the logical choice to build Eagle women's basketball into a successful and competitive program in the Sun Belt Conference."

In her three seasons prior to Georgia Southern, Howard led Columbus State to two NCAA Division II Championships appearances and an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2016-17. Her overall record was 66-25 over the three seasons, including an outstanding 45-18 mark in Peach Belt Conference play. The Cougars captured the Peach Belt regular season and tournament titles in 2016-17 and reeled off 22 straight wins during the campaign. Columbus State defeated Lander, 76-61, in the 2017 PBC Tournament Championship game and downed No. 13 Lincoln Memorial, 86-75, in the Southeast Region final, securing the third NCAA Region title in school history and the first since 2001. For her efforts, Howard was named the Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year.

Prior to Columbus State, Howard served as the head coach at Livingstone College for two seasons and Salem College for three seasons. She led Livingstone to a Top 5 national ranking and a record 23-game winning streak, while also turning around a Salem College program that won just four games before her arrival and directing the Spirits to 17- and 21-win seasons, earning Great South Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors. In seven seasons as a collegiate head coach, she has compiled a 145-55 overall record, for an outstanding .725 winning percentage.

Born in Montgomery, Alabama, Howard was a standout high school player at A.E. Beach High School in Savannah under the legendary Ronald Booker. She played collegiately for three seasons at Fort Valley State University, earning SIAC Defensive Player of the Year honors all three years. She then transferred to Armstrong State for the 2002-03 season, where she helped the Pirates compile a school-record 27-4 mark, capturing the Peach Belt Conference regular season and tournament title while leading the team to their first NCAA Championships appearance.

She graduated magna cum laude from Armstrong State in 2003 with her bachelor's degree in fine arts design. Beginning her coaching career in Savannah, she was the head coach at Savannah High before moving into the collegiate ranks as an assistant coach at Winston-Salem State, Shaw (N.C.) and St. Augustine's (N.C.) before beginning her head coaching career at Division III Salem College in 2012.

In August, Howard was named as one of Georgia Southern's 40 under 40 Outstanding Alumni. The honorees were chosen out of 120,000 living alumni, nearly 50,000 of which are under 40 years old. 40 Under 40 honorees not only represent the excellence of the University's young alumni but also demonstrate the positive contributions and remarkable achievements for which Georgia Southern and Armstrong graduates are known.

Howard and her husband, Theo, have three children: Jason, Thallan and Theo II.
