LEADING OFF

- The Red Wolves are entering the weekend series after 2-1 series win over Southland opponent Stephen F. Austin.
- In the three-game, season opening series vs. SFA, Arkansas State played error-free baseball for the first time since ULM in 2016 (Apr. 22-24).
- Arkansas State dropped the season opening contest (Feb. 14) against the Lumberjacks 3-2.
- Saturday's matchup against the Lumberjacks included a stellar performance from senior Zach Jackson, on the mound and the Red Wolves' new look infield.
- Jackson (1-0) finished his first start of the season with seven strikeouts and only one walk. In relief, Stone struck out one of the seven batters he faced, in his second appearance of the 2020 campaign.
- Sunday's rubber match (8-4) saw the first go-ahead grand slam of the year for the Red Wolves as junior Jaylon Deshazier launch one out of the park in the bottom of the sixth.
- Chandler Coates (1-0) registered a quality start for the Red Wolves as he worked 7.0 shutout innings in his first start of the season for, scattering five hits and walking one to go along with five strikeouts to earn the win.
- Newcomer, Liam Hicks punched in a dominant performance in the weekend series against SFA as he registered two home runs, three RBI and scored three times.
- Newcomer, Ben Klutts made noise for Arkansas State in its opening weekend as he gave A-State early momentum with a solo home run shot in the first inning of the Red Wolves 3-0 win over SFA (Feb. 15).
- The Red Wolves mid-week matchup against Ole Miss was rescheduled to April 28 at 6:30 p.m. due to bad weather in Oxford.

TEAM NOTES & SERIES HISTORY

AT THE SANDLOT

- A-State trails the all-time series to New Orleans 27-50. The first matchup occurred during the 1974 season when the team traveled to the New Orleans Tournament.
- Arkansas State also faced Illinois State and Notre Dame at the event, but lost to the Privateers 19-0 in their lone matchup. That game was the only one of the 74 contests the two teams played as nonconference opponents.
- A-State didn't win a game against the Privateers until the 1990 season when the Red Wolves took a 3-1 decision in Jonesboro with losses in the other two games of the series.
- A-State was 1-12 against UNO while both were members of the ASC from 1988-1991 with one loss coming in the conference tournament.
- From 1992-2010 the two teams were members of the Sun Belt and played at least once each season except for the 1993 campaign. Over that time frame A-State is 24-36 against UNO, including a 3-4 mark in the SBC Tournament.
- Head coach Tommy Raffo is 6-3 against New Orleans all-time with three-game series played in each of his first two seasons (2009 and 2010) when UNO was still a member of the Sun Belt Conference. A-State lost two of three during the 2009 campaign at New Orleans before sweeping the Privateers in New Orleans in 2010 by scores of 14-6, 7-6, and 17-3.
- UNO is now in the Southland Conference and is currently 1-3 on the year with its lone win coming from Praire View A&M.

"RAIN, RAIN GO AWAY"

- The Red Wolves mid-week matchup against Ole Miss was rescheduled to April 28 at 6:30 due to bad weather in Oxford.

"BASEBALL WAS LIFE, AND I WAS GOOD AT IT"

- Senior right-handed pitcher Jack Jumper was the lone A-State player to earn SBC preseason recognition.
- Jumper ended the 2019 campaign with a team-best 1.87 era through 43.1 inning pitched. Jumper had 38 strikeouts against 18 walks.

"SNEAKY, ROTTEN, AND LOW... AND COOL."

- Fifth-year senior center fielder Drew Tipton can be seen as the glue to the Red Wolves defensively.
- Tipton earned a team-high 29 stolen bases on the season as he notched a .347 on base percentage.
- The speedy senior earned a .275 average on the 2019 campaign.

THE NINTH MAN

- Senior DH Sky-Lar Culver is a veteran hitter with feel for the barrel who uses the whole field.
- Culver led the 2019 Diamond Wolves with a .316 average while he also notched 7 home runs. Culver also saw a .406 slugging percentage to go along with a .976 fielding percentage.
- On the 2019, campaign Sky-Lar drove in 45 runners as he saw home plate 38 times.
- The Mountain Home, Ark., native saw a team-high 15 doubles to go along with a lone triple on the year.

JONESBORO, Ark. (2/16/20) A pair of home runs along with a quality start by Chandler Coates lifted the Arkansas State baseball team to an 8-4 series-clinching win against Stephen F. Austin Sunday afternoon at Tomlinson Stadium/Kell Field.

Coates worked 7.0 shutout innings in his first start of the season for A-State (2-1), scattering five hits and walking one to go along with five strikeouts to earn the win. Three Red Wolves registered multi-hit days, led by Ben Kluttz, who went 3-for-4 on the day with two runs scored.

SFA (1-2) used seven pitchers on the afternoon, with reliever Joseph Spambelluri taking the loss in 0.1 innings pitched in which he surrendered the go-ahead grand slam by Jaylon Deshazier in the sixth.

SFA threatened in the second on a leadoff single by Jared Martin followed by a double by Dillon Eatman that put runners at second and third with nobody out, but the A-State defense buckled down and gunned out both runners at the plate. Martin was caught stealing before Sean Moore grounded into a fielder's choice that saw Eatman put out on a throw from Kluttz to Cullen Ray for the second out. Coates then worked out of two-on, two-out situation with a flyout to right to keep it scoreless.

After surrendering a leadoff single in the third to Kyle Cullen, Coates retired 12 in a row before SFA broke up that trend in the seventh with an infield hit by Eatman.

SFA starter Jacob Stobart worked 5.0 shutout innings, scattering three hits while striking out eight Red Wolves and walking two before giving way to Spambelluri.

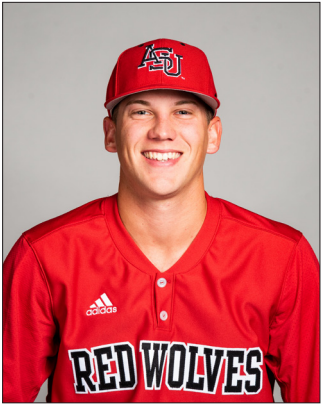

With one out and runners on the corners in the sixth, Colten Nix broke the stalemate with an RBI double down the line to plate Kluttz from third and send Sky-Lar Culver to third. Spambelluri walked Tyler Duncan to load the bases and was lifted for Austin Roth. The new Lumberjack reliever was then greeted with a monstrous grand slam to left-center by Deshazier to make it 5-0 A-State through six.

The Red Wolves added another run in the seventh when Duncan plated Kluttz from second on a two-out RBI single to center that chased SFA reliever Seth Campbell.

SFA closed the gap with four runs in the top of the eighth, with the first run coming on the second of two balks by Max Gehler. Pinch-hitter Gabe Irwin then drove home Cullen from third on a single up the middle to make it 6-2. After Jack Jumper came on and earned back-to-back strikeouts, Martin sent a 1-2 pitch over the left field wall to cut it to 6-4. Jumper ended the inning without further damage with his third strikeout of the frame.

A-State responded with two runs in its half of the eighth on a one-out, two-run homer to right by Liam Hicks – one of his two hits – to give Jumper an 8-4 lead going into the ninth. After allowing a leadoff double in the ninth, Jumper notched back-to-back strikeouts and then forced a pop-up to close it out.

Drew Tipton also registered two hits for the Scarlet and Black. Overall on the weekend, Duncan went 5-for-9 at the plate (.556) to lead A-State offensively. Defensively, the Red Wolves played errorless baseball the entire weekend.
