Chanda Rigby begins her eighth season as the head coach at Troy in 2019-20. In her first seven seasons, Rigby has quickly turned around the Troy program. The team won just two games in 2011-12, the season prior to Rigby's arrival, but has won at least 18 games in each of the last five seasons including back-to-back Sun Belt Conference Tournament titles in 2016 and 2017.

In 2018-19, the Trojans finished 22-9 and earned the programs first-ever invitation to the Women's National Invitational Tournament in program history. Rigby's 22 victories is tied for the second most in program history, joining her 2016-17 squad who also had 22 wins. Senior forward Sky'Lynn Holmes was named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the first player in program history to earn defensive player of the year honors. Holmes was also named to the All-Sun Belt Second Team. Once again Rigby's squad was one of the best offensive teams in the country. Rigby guided her squad to an 82.3 points per game average, fifth best mark in the NCAA and a 10.3 rebound margin and also the fifth best mark in the nation. The Trojans finished first nationally in offensive rebounds and first in the country in rebounds per game at 50.48.
