BUTCH JONES

Head Coach • Second Year at A-State

33rd Year Coaching • 13th Year as a Head Coach
Ferris State '90

Butch Jones was announced as the Red Wolves' 31st all-time head football coach on December 12, 2020.

Jones not only brought 11 years of head-coaching experience at the NCAA FBS level with him to Jonesboro after previous stops leading the football programs at Tennessee (2013-17), Cincinnati (2010-12) and Central Michigan (2007-09), but he also spent three seasons (2018-20) working as part of Nick Saban's staff at national-power Alabama.

During Jones' 12 seasons serving as a head coach, his teams have combined to win four conference championships, play in eight bowl games and finish ranked in the AP Top 25 five times. He has coached a total of 87 all-conference honorees and 27 NFL Draft picks, including All-Pro selections Alvin Kamara, Travis Kelce, Nick Bellore and Antonio Brown.

Jones guided 10 players to 11 all-conference selections in 2021, led by Alan Lamar's first team selection as a kick returner after posting a school and Sun Belt Conference-record 1,333 kickoff return yards. Among the 11 All-Sun Belt picks were five offensive players who helped the Red Wolves rank 11th in the country in passing yards per game.

Since his arrival in Jonesboro, Jones has made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail. The 2022 Arkansas State recruiting class not only ranked as the best in school history, but was also listed No. 1 in the Sun Belt Conference by both 247Sports and Rivals and inside the top five among Group of Five programs.

In 2020, Jones served as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach at Alabama, helping the Crimson Tide post an unblemished 13-0 record on their way to claiming the National Championship. He was also an offensive analyst for the program in 2018 and 2019 as it compiled a combined 25-3 record. The 2018 team played in the CFP national championship game, while the 2019 squad capped off the year with a 35-16 win over Michigan in the Citrus Bowl to finish ranked No. 8 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Prior to Alabama, Jones spent a five-year stint at the University of Tennessee, collecting 34 wins and leading the Volunteers to bowl wins three times. He inherited a program that hadn't won a bowl game since 2007 and proceeded to direct the Vols to three consecutive bowl game victories for the first time in over 20 years (1994-96).

While Tennessee didn't have any Top-25 finishes the five seasons prior to Jones' arrival, he led the program to a pair of Top-25 rankings in both the final AP Poll and Coaches Poll in 2015 and 2016. Following the 2016 campaign, which saw Tennessee defeat both Florida and Georgia in the same season for the first time in 15 years, the Vols had six NFL Draft selections taken within the first four rounds for the first time since the 2001 season.

During his time in Knoxville, Jones was one of just three SEC head coaches to post back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories. Heading into his final season at Tennessee, he had the second most wins by a head coach in the conference behind only Saban.

Focusing on the complete student-athlete, Jones helped mentor over 200 academic all-conference winners and 100-plus academic honor roll recipients while in Knoxville. Under his direction, every academic record in Tennessee history was broken with 85-plus players earning their degrees. In addition to Tennessee, both Cincinnati and Central Michigan also posted the highest graduation rates and team GPAs in school history while under Jones' leadership as head coach.

Jones took over the Tennessee program after spending the 2010-12 seasons as Cincinnati's head coach. The Bearcats compiled a 23-14 record in his three seasons while also winning the Big East title in 2011 and 2012. Jones was named the league's Coach of the Year after Cincinnati's 10-win season in 2011, while also earning the same honor from CBSSports.com in 2012 after his squad captured its second consecutive bowl victory and finished in the Top 25.

Jones was also the head coach at Central Michigan from 2007-09, winning 27 contests and leading the Chippewas to the 2007 and 2009 Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles. His three-year stint in Mount Pleasant saw Central Michigan compile a 22-3 MAC record, make three consecutive bowl-game appearances and post a No. 23 postseason ranking in 2009. Jones was the only head coach to lead the program to consecutive bowl games, as well as the first in the history of the MAC to do so in his first three seasons.

Prior to making his second stop at Central Michigan, Jones was the wide receivers coach at West Virginia from 2005-06. While coaching in Morgantown, WVU combined to post a 22-3 record, including a Sugar Bowl win over Georgia and Gator Bowl victory against Georgia Tech.

Jones served as an assistant at Central Michigan for seven years from 1998-2004. During that time, he served as offensive coordinator (2002-04), running backs coach (1999-2004) and as tight ends coach (1998).

He was also the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Ferris State, from 1995-97 and at Wilkes University from 1993-94 while also serving as an assistant at Rutgers from 1990-92. His original entry into the coaching ranks was as an intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-89.

Jones is a 1990 graduate of Ferris State University in Michigan. Jones and his wife, Barb, are the parents of three sons - Alex, Adam and Andrew.

The Burlsworth Trophy is presented annually to the most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on and has shown outstanding performance on the field. He ranks seventh on the team with 24 tackles and fourth with 4.0 tackles for loss, including one sack.

BEEN A MINUTE: A-State held Grambling State to 102 total yards, fewest by any opponent since Mississippi Valley State had 69 total yards in 2009. The Red Wolves also held Grambling State to 50 rushing yards, first time an A-State team held an opponent to 50 or fewer since Troy had 47 in the 2017 season. After holding Old Dominion to 51 rushing yards, A-State has held two opponents to 55 or fewer rushing yards this season, most in a season since the 2017 defense held three opponents to 55 or fewer rushing yards in a game.

GO JOHNNIE GO: Johnnie Lang Jr. earned Sun Belt Conference Special Teams Player of the Week honors following the 45-28 win over ULM. He became the third player in Sun Belt history to have a rushing touchdown, receiving touchdown and kickoff return touchdown in the same game. He was the 15th player in FBS history to do so, first in the Sun Belt Conference since T.Y. Hilton (FIU) in 2010. Lang returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, had a 1-yard rushing score and an 18-yard touchdown reception against the Warhawks. It was the first kickoff return for a touchdown at Centennial Bank Stadium since Kirk Merritt did so against Georgia Southern in 2018. Lang was also named to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll, recognizing the most versatile players in college football, following his performance against ULM.

ON THE RETURN: Johnnie Lang Jr. posted a career-long 63-yard punt return for a touchdown during last season's contest at Tulsa, A-State's first punt return for a score since Blaise Taylor found the end zone on a 63-yard return against Nebraska in 2017. Lang finished the season with 16 returns for 129 yards, an average of 8.1 per game, ranked 24th nationally in return average. This season, Lang has returned 26 kickoffs for 690 yards, an average of 26.5 per return. This season marks the first time he has returned kicks since the 2019 season at Iowa State.

RAY'S EIGHT: Ryan Hanson was among eight standout punters for week two in FBS to land on the Ray Guy Award Ray's 8 presented by the Augusta Sports Council. Hanson had seven punts travel 361 yards for an average of 51.6 yards per punt, with a long punt of 68 yards at No. 3 Ohio State.

THE PUNTING DUO: Ryan Hanson and William Przystup have shared punting duties in the last five outings and offer a unique pairing. Hanson is a right-footed punter while Przystup is left-footed. The different kick legs presents a different spin on the ball for opposing returners. In those five games, the pair have combined for 33 punts covering 1,393 yards, an average of 42.2 and a net punt average of 39.2 yards. The duo has combined for no touchbacks, eight punts of 50-plus yards and 14 landing inside the 20.

KICKING IT DEEP: Tristan Mattson solidified kickoff duties last season with 26 of his 60 kickoffs resulting in touchbacks. Just one of those 60 kickoffs went out of bounds and the Red Wolves kickoff return unit ranked 26th nationally limiting opponents to 18.46 yards per return. So far this season, 23 of his 48 kickoffs have resulted in touchbacks, none going out of bounds.

THE SHOW BEGINS: Dominic Zvada broke camp as the starting place kicker for A-State as a true-freshman. Zvada, a product of Valley Christian High School in Chandler, Ariz., made 62-of-65 PATs and scored 74 points kicking in his senior season. Zvada converted a 55-yard field goal as a junior, the longest in Arizona high school Class 3A history. Thus far, Zvada is a perfect 23-for-24 on PATs and 13-for-13 on field goals. He is the only kicker to go 4-for-4 on field goals at Ohio State since at least 2000. His 13 consecutive field goals made tie for the second-most in program history and are the most since Brian Davis made 13 consecutive in the final games of the 2012 season and start of the 2013 season. The record is held by Josh Arauco at 15 consecutive field goals made in 2008.

FROM 45 PLUS: Dominic Zvada is not only a perfect 13-for-13 on field goals thus far, he's 3-for-3 from 45-plus yards. Dating back to the 2011 season when Bobby Zalud converted six 45-plus yard field goals, A-State has not had a season with more than two 45-plus yard field goals made.

CENTENNIAL BANK STADIUM • JONESBORO, ARK. • SEPT. 3, 2022

JONESBORO, Ark. - A potent offense and stout defense lifted the Arkansas State football team to a dominant 58-3 season-opening win over Grambling State Saturday night at Centennial Bank Stadium.

A-State (1-0) pounded out 339 yards on the ground and 233 through the air for 572 yards of offense, while holding the Tigers (0-1) to just 102 total yards of offense. The Red Wolves' rushing total is the most since Oct. 5, 2016 (343 versus Georgia Southern). A-State also did not punt in a game for the first time since Sept. 24, 2011, against Central Arkansas.

The Red Wolves scored six times on the ground, eclipsing last season's total (4) and the most in a single game since Oct. 3, 2015, versus Idaho (6). Johnnie Lang led the ground attack with 124 yards on 13 carries, while Brian Sneed rushed 12 times for 57 yards. Freshman Mike Sharpe II added 32 yards on seven attempts. All three found the end zone.

Defensively, A-State held its opponent without a touchdown since Oct. 19, 2019, while also limiting the ground game to under 50 yards since Dec. 2, 2017. The Red Wolves also allowed the fewest yards since giving up just 69 on Sept. 5, 2009 (vs Mississippi Valley State).
