No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines. No one is permitted in the bench area, on the playing field or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and the sideline any time after competition begins, including timeouts. BUTCH JONES

Head Coach • Second Year at A-State
34th Year Coaching • 14th Year as a Head Coach
Ferris State '90

Butch Jones was announced as the Red Wolves' 31st all-time head football coach on December 12, 2020.

Jones not only brought 11 years of head-coaching experience at the NCAA FBS level with him to Jonesboro after previous stops leading the football programs at Tennessee (2013-17), Cincinnati (2010-12) and Central Michigan (2007-09), but he also spent three seasons (2018-20) working as part of Nick Saban's staff at national-power Alabama.

During Jones' 13 seasons serving as a head coach, his teams have combined to win four conference championships, play in eight bowl games and finish ranked in the AP Top 25 five times. He has coached a total of 96 all-conference honorees and 27 NFL Draft picks, including All-Pro selections Alvin Kamara, Travis Kelce, Nick Bellore and Antonio Brown.

Last season, Jones saw eight players combine for nine all-conference selections, led by true-freshman place-kicker Dominic Zvada. A Lou Groza Award semifinalist, Zvada broke the Sun Belt Conference single-season record by a true freshman for points by kicking with 81, the ninth-most in school history. Among the nine All-Sun Belt picks were four offensive players, two defensive players and two specialists.

Jones guided 10 players to 11 all-conference selections in 2021, led by Alan Lamar's first team selection as a kick returner after posting a school and Sun Belt Conference-record 1,333 kickoff return yards. Among the 11 All-Sun Belt picks were five offensive players who helped the Red Wolves rank 11th in the country in passing yards per game.

Since his arrival in Jonesboro, Jones has made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail. In back-to-back recruiting classes, 2022 and 2023, the recruiting class not only ranked as the best in school history, but was also listed No. 1 in the Sun Belt by both 247Sports and Rivals and among the top-10 in the Group of Five both years.

In 2020, Jones served as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach at Alabama, helping the Crimson Tide post an unblemished 13-0 record on their way to claiming the National Championship. He was also an offensive analyst for the program in 2018 and 2019 as it compiled a combined 25-3 record. The 2018 team played in the CFP national championship game, while the 2019 squad capped off the year with a 35-16 win over Michigan in the Citrus Bowl to finish ranked No. 8 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Prior to Alabama, Jones spent a five-year stint at the University of Tennessee, collecting 34 wins and leading the Volunteers to bowl wins three times. He inherited a program that hadn't won a bowl game since 2007 and proceeded to direct the Vols to three consecutive bowl game victories for the first time in over 20 years (1994-96).

While Tennessee didn't have any Top-25 finishes the five seasons prior to Jones' arrival, he led the program to a pair of Top-25 rankings in both the final AP Poll and Coaches Poll in 2015 and 2016. Following the 2016 campaign, which saw Tennessee defeat both Florida and Georgia in the same season for the first time in 15 years, the Vols had six NFL Draft selections taken within the first four rounds for the first time since the 2001 season.

During his time in Knoxville, Jones was one of just three SEC head coaches to post back-to-back seasons with at least nine victories. Heading into his final season at Tennessee, he had the second most wins by a head coach in the conference behind only Saban.

Focusing on the complete student-athlete, Jones helped mentor over 200 academic all-conference winners and 100-plus academic honor roll recipients while in Knoxville. Under his direction, every academic record in Tennessee history was broken with 85-plus players earning their degrees. In addition to Tennessee, both Cincinnati and Central Michigan also posted the highest graduation rates and team GPAs in school history while under Jones' leadership as head coach.

Jones took over the Tennessee program after spending the 2010-12 seasons as Cincinnati's head coach. The Bearcats compiled a 23-14 record in his three seasons while also winning the Big East title in 2011 and 2012. Jones was named the league's Coach of the Year after Cincinnati's 10-win season in 2011, while also earning the same honor from CBSSports.com in 2012 after his squad captured its second consecutive bowl victory and finished in the Top 25.

Jones was also the head coach at Central Michigan from 2007-09, winning 27 contests and leading the Chippewas to the 2007 and 2009 Mid-American Conference (MAC) titles. His three-year stint in Mount Pleasant saw Central Michigan compile a 22-3 MAC record, make three consecutive bowl-game appearances and post a No. 23 postseason ranking in 2009. Jones was the only head coach to lead the program to consecutive bowl games, as well as the first in the history of the MAC to do so in his first three seasons.

Prior to making his second stop at Central Michigan, Jones was the wide receivers coach at West Virginia from 2005-06. While coaching in Morgantown, WVU combined to post a 22-3 record, including a Sugar Bowl win over Georgia and Gator Bowl victory against Georgia Tech.

Jones served as an assistant at Central Michigan for seven years from 1998-2004. During that time, he served as offensive coordinator (2002-04), running backs coach (1999-2004) and as tight ends coach (1998).

He was also the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Ferris State, from 1995-97 and at Wilkes University from 1993-94 while also serving as an assistant at Rutgers from 1990-92. His original entry into the coaching ranks was as an intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-89.

Jones is a 1990 graduate of Ferris State University in Michigan. Jones and his wife, Barb, are the parents of three sons – Alex, Adam and Andrew.

RAYNOR DEBUTS: True-freshman QB Jaylen Raynor made his debut against Stony Brook and finished with nine rushes for 57 yards. He became the first A-State QB to rush for 50-plus yards since Justice Hansen posted 76 against Georgia State on Oct. 18, 2018. He led two scoring drives and was 4-of-6 passing for 78 yards and a touchdown.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE: QB Jaylen Raynor made the start against Southern Miss, the first true-freshman quarterback starter for A-State since Elliot Jacobs on Oct. 27, 2001 against Idaho (34-31, W). Jacobs (3) and true-freshman Josh Driscoll (4) both made multiple starts in the 2001 season. Prior to the two true-freshmen earning starts in 2001, Cleo Lemon made seven starts in 1997, Brent Pettus made one start in 1994 and Johnny Covington made seven starts in 1992. Raynor's start marked just the fourth time A-State had started a true-freshman quarterback in a Sun Belt Conference game. Jacobs started against Idaho (Oct. 21) while Driscoll got the starting nods against Louisiana (Oct. 13) and North Texas (Oct. 20) in 2001.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Freshman WR Reed Linder celebrated his birthday on Sept. 23 in great fashion, blocking a Southern Miss punt. It was the first blocked punt for A-State since KaRon Coleman in 2020 vs ULM (Dec. 5).

LOU GROZA SEMIFINALIST: Dominic Zvada was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Lou Groza Award last season, the fifth player in program history to be named a semifinalist joining Blake Grupe (2019), Brian Davis (2012 and 2013), Josh Arauco (2008) and Jeff Caldwell (1994). Zvada finished 31-for-32 on PATs and 17-of-18 on field goals. He is the only kicker to go 4-for-4 on field goals at Ohio State since at least 2000. He made 13 consecutive field goals to tie for the second-most in program history, most since Brian Davis made 13 consecutive in the final games of the 2012 season and start of the 2013 season. So far this season, Zvada is 2-for-4 on field goals and 3-for-3 on PATs.

IT'S GOOD: Dominic Zvada converted a 56-yard field goal at Texas State, the second-longest field goal in program history and second-longest make in FBS last season. Scott Roper against North Texas in 1987 and Joe Duren against McNeesee State in 1974 each converted field goals of 63 yards to hold the school record for longest field goal made. Bobby Zalud against Memphis in 2011 and Joe Duren against McNeesee State in 1974 also hit from 56 yards.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Sophomore K Dominic Zvada was named the Sun Belt Conference Special Teams Player of the Week following his 14-point outing against Southern Miss (Sept. 23). Zvada was 3-for-3 on field goals, including a 53-yarder, and 5-for-5 on PATs. His 53-yard field goal is the longest in by a Sun Belt Conference kicker this season. Zvada was also recognized as a Lou Groza Award Star of the Week for week four.

FROM 45 PLUS: Dominic Zvada was not only 17-of-18 on field goals last year, he was 6-for-7 from 45-plus yards. Dating back to the 2011 season when Bobby Zalud converted five 45-plus yard field goals, A-State has not had a season with more than two 45-plus yard field goals made. With his 53-yard field goal made against Southern Miss (Sept. 23), Zvada is now 7-of-8 in his career from 45-plus yards, best among any A-State kicker since at least 2009.
