» Improve A-State's record in the series against Indiana State to 2-3.
» Bump the Red Wolves' record in regular-season MTEs to 64-58 since 1962.
» Be A-State's first win outside of the contiguous 48 U.S. states since 2001 in Hawaii. It would also be the program's first victory on non-American soil since 1987.
» Mark the Red Wolves' first win over a Missouri Valley Conference opponent since 2018.
» Be better than a loss...

KNOW THY FOE

» Arkansas State is facing Indiana State for the fifth time ever on Friday to open the Baha Mar Nassau Championship.
» The Sycamores, which reached the final of the NIT a season ago, are 3-3 on the year after an 87-77 loss at Southern Indiana on Monday.
» ISU is one of the nation's fastest teams in terms of tempo, ranking sixth nationally with 73.8 possessions per game.
» New head coach Matthew Graves is no stranger to the Red Wolves, having spent five seasons (2013-18) as head coach at South Alabama.

» Cody Head tallied 9 points while also recording career highs in rebounds (6) and assists (8).
» A-State grabbed 19 offensive rebounds for the third game in a row.

DEFENSIVE DUBS

» We all know that Arkansas State can score the basketball, but the Red Wolves have won games on defense this year as well.
» A-State has limited three straight opponents to 64 points or less: Little Rock (63), Stephen F. Austin (49) and Lane College (60). Under Bryan Hodgson, the Red Wolves are 8-0 when limiting their opponent to 64 points or fewer - 3-0 this season.
» The Red Wolves enter Friday with the league's best field-goal percentage defense, allowing opponents to shoot just 37.1 percent, while ranking eighth nationally in 3-point field-goal defense (.248).
» That has reflected in the analytics as well, with A-State ranked among the top 100 nationally on KenPom in defensive efficiency at 100.5 points allowed per 100 possessions. The mark ranks 85th nationally and is second best in the Sun Belt.

TURN IT OVER

» Staying on the defensive end... Arkansas State has forced double-digit turnovers in all five games to open the season and ranks third in the conference in turnover margin (+2.6)
» A-State has also been adept at forcing the steal, ranking fourth at 8.6 thefts per night.

PAINT PARTY

» Anyone who's watched Arkansas State under Bryan Hodgson knows that the Red Wolves rely heavily on not only shots from the perimeter, but also shots close to the basket.
» When scoring 40+ points in the paint, the Red Wolves are 12-4 under Hodgson - 1-0 this season.

CRASHING THE BOARDS

» Arkansas State has been a strong rebounding squad so far in the Bryan Hodgson era, setting a program record for rebounds (1,419) and offensive rebounds (489) last year.
» This season, A-State is on track to do the same thing, topping the Sun Belt in rebounds per game (44.6/9th NCAA) and in offensive rebounding (15.4/13th) while ranking second in defensive boards (29.2)
» The Red Wolves enter Friday on three straight games of 19 or more offensive boards, and have recorded 40-plus rebounds in all five contests to start the season, including 51 against Lane.
» Forward Rashaud Marshall leads the Pack on the glass with 42 boards (8.4/game).

WATCH ME, WATCH ME

» Redshirt senior and Preseason SBC Player of the Year Kobe Julien has raked in several preseason and early-season honors so far this season.
» Julien most recently was one of 50 players - and just two from the Sun Belt - named to the Early-Season Watch List for the Lou Henson Award, presented annually to the top player in mid-major college basketball.
» He is the first Red Wolf up for the award since Norchad Omier in 2021-22.

KLEPTO KOBE

» Forward Kobe Julien mastered the art of thievery in A-State's rivalry win over Little Rock.
» The Baton Rouge native set a career high with five steals in the first half alone, adding another in the second half to give him six on the night - just one shy of tying the First National Bank Arena record in the category.

JULIEN TO THE LINE...

» While we're talking about Kobe, he also has a knack for getting to the line.
» Last season at Louisiana, he made the second-most free throws in the conference (131). This year with the Red Wolves, he has picked up where he left off, ranking ninth with 21 makes from the stripe.

JUSTIN TIME

» Freshman wing Justin Johnson made a splash in A-State's win over Lane College last Friday, doing something that hasn't been done by an A-State rookie in quite a while.
» The Miami, Fla., native had 20 points, 8 rebounds and 5 assists in the victory, becoming the first A-State frosh with at least 20 points, 5 rebounds and 5 assists in a game since Brandon Reed versus South Alabama on Jan. 9, 2010.
» Johnson is one of just six freshmen in Division I this year to achieve the feat.

TERRIFIC TODD

» Senior guard Taryn Todd returns to Jonesboro for his final season of college basketball after leading Arkansas State in scoring (12.8) a season ago - earning Third Team All-SBC honors.
» This year, Todd earned Preseason Second Team all-league acclaim to his resume and looks to conclude his collegiate career on a high note.
» The Canadian guard once again leads the Pack in scoring entering Friday (15.0) with a season-best 21 points coming against Stephen F. Austin on Nov. 16.

MAYORAL DUTIES

» Redshirt senior Avery Felts is climbing up the career charts for 3-point shooting, and the "Mayor of Bono" is in his final season of passing legislation from long range.
» After a season-high five treys on Friday, he moved up to eighth in program history in career triples (167) and needs just three to tie for seventh.

» Another Ford - Terrance Ford, Jr. - is looking to return back to his freshman season form after missing nearly all of last season due to injury. The floor general from Chicago has filled the point guard spot well so far, with a team-leading 18 assists on the year.

SCORING IN BUNCHES

» Points did not come at a premium for Arkansas State in the first year of the Bryan Hodgson era and resulted in a program-record 2,917 points scored.
» The Red Wolves dropped 85 or more in six league games (90+ in 5 games) to average a conference-leading 81.1 points in SBC play. It was the first time ever an A-State team eclipsed 85 points six or more times since conference affiliation began in 1964-65.
» The Scarlet and Black also scored 75-plus in 14 of 18 conference games, the most since doing so 14 times in 1997-98. The Red Wolves eclipsed the 90-point threshold seven times - the most since 2001-02 (7) - including three 100-point efforts for the first time since 2002-03.
» This year, A-State has scored 80 or more three times, going 3-0, as well as 79 in its lone loss at No. 2 Alabama. The Red Wolves enter Friday's game second in the Sun Belt in scoring (80.2) and first in scoring margin (+13.2)

SHARE THE WEALTH

» Arkansas State was among the most unselfish squads in the Sun Belt last season, averaging 14.5 assists per game to rank fourth in the league. It also tallied the second-most assists in a single season in school history (536) - the most since 1987-88.
» The Red Wolves had 15-plus assists in 17 games, including five past 20 dimes. The 17 games with 15 or more helpers was the most since 2021-22 (19).
» A-State also had a dozen games with an assist percentage of 60 percent or greater.
» Guard Terrance Ford Jr. enters Friday's game ranked fifth in the league averaging 4.5 assists per game.

FAST & FURIOUS (& EFFICIENT)

» Arkansas State's offense was among the fastest in the league last season, averaging nearly 70 possessions per night. It also posted the league's highest efficiency rating of 113.5 - the program's best in the history of KenPom (since 1999).
» This year, that trend of A-State leading the way in offense has continued once again, entering Friday with an efficiency rating of 107.3 (points scored per 100 possessions).

EFFICIENCY METRICS

THREE'S COMPANY

» Make no mistake... When Arkansas State takes the court, a plethora of 3-pointers WILL be taken.
» A-State set the single-season program record for 3-pointers made (341) and attempted (991) a season ago, which means the famous 3-point balloon at First National Bank Arena should be at the ready at any moment this year.
» Nearly half (48.8%) of A-State's shot attempts have come from the perimeter, the third-highest percentage in the league entering Friday behind South Alabama (50.0%).
» A-State enters the Nassau Championship averaging 35 3-point attempts per contest - second most nationally. It averages 10.8 makes per outing, which is good for 22nd.
» Defensively, the Red Wolves have locked down the perimeter well, allowing opponents to shoot just 24.8 percent from downtown - eighth nationally.

ROSTER NUGGETS

» Arkansas State lost assist-machine Caleb Fields to graduation (and an overseas career), but it brings back most of last season's major contributors.
» A-State returns eight players from last season's team, including leading scorer Taryn Todd and leading rebounder/shot blocker Izaiyah Nelson. Derrian Ford also returns for his second season, as well as perimeter standouts Dyondre Dominguez, Avery Felts and Zane Butler.
» Terrance Ford, Jr., is back from injury and looks to assume Fields' mantle as PG, while Jacob St. Clair is back after redshirting his first season.
» Eight newcomers also grace the roster, including three of the highest-rated signees in program history: Josh Hill, Justin Johnson and R'Chaun King.
» A-State also picked up four Division-I transfers out of the portal, led by SBC scoring leader Kobe Julien (Louisiana). Rashaud Marshall returned to NEA after a season at Ole Miss, while Joseph Pinion comes to A-State after two years in Fayetteville. Cody Head joined the Red Wolves following a standout rookie campaign at Lipscomb. Out of the JUCO ranks, Kameron Johnson joins younger brother Justin on the squad.

IRON SHARPENS IRON

» Arkansas State's schedule was tough last year with multiple high-major road tests. This year features more home games, but still a tough slate to prepare for Sun Belt Conference play - and possibly further.
» In the first two weeks alone, the Red Wolves faced four teams all picked second or better in their respective leagues.
» It doesn't get much easier coming up, facing an Indiana State team that reached the NIT Championship last year, as well as a Hofstra squad that received an AP top-25 vote earlier this season.

FINAL FIVE MINUTES

» The final five minutes of a game were key for Arkansas State a season ago, and that has remained the case through three games this season.
» When leading with five minutes remaining in regulation, the Red Wolves are 24-2 in the Bryan Hodgson era (4-0 in 2024-25), while going 0-16 when tied or trailing at the under-5 mark.

SECURE THE BANK

» Home-court advantage is a huge deal, and that is no different for the Red Wolves.

HEAD COACH BRYAN HODGSON

Bryan Hodgson, one of the nation's top first-year head coaches in 2023-24, is entering his second season at the helm of the Arkansas State men's basketball program in 2024-25.

Regarded as one of the top recruiters and assistant coaches in the nation with 16-plus seasons as a collegiate coach, Hodgson was announced as the program's 17th head coach on March 22, 2023.

Hodgson - a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, presented to the nation's top first-year head coach - guided the Red Wolves to one of its most successful seasons in program history in 2023-24. Under his watch, A-State was one of just two programs under a first-year head coach to win 20 or more games over Division-I foes. Hodgson was also one of five first-year coaches to lead their team to 20-plus wins in their inaugural season after inheriting a 20-plus loss team.

A-State ended the year as one of the hottest teams in the country with wins in 12 of the final 16 contests, ending the year in the semifinals of the Ro College Basketball Invitational - the program's first postseason appearance since 1999 that included its first postseason victory since 1991.

After being picked ninth in the preseason poll, the Red Wolves went on to finish fourth in the conference standings and reach the championship game of the conference tournament for the first time since 2007. Hodgson became the first head coach since Chris Beard in 2019 to guide a team to the Sun Belt Conference championship game in their first season.

The Red Wolves broke numerous single-season school records in Hodgson's inaugural year, setting new program-best marks in scoring (2,917 points), field goals made (1,021) and attempted (2,313), 3-pointers made (341) and attempted (991) along with total rebounds (1,419) and offensive rebounds (489). That excitement, combined with a stellar final half of the season, led to A-State hosting its first nationally-televised game since 1997 - a 79-71 victory over Troy on ESPNU.

Hodgson came to Arkansas State after spending the last four seasons at the University of Alabama, which followed stops at the University of Buffalo (2015-19), Midland (Texas) Junior College (2013-15), Jamestown (NY) Community College (2010-13) and Fredonia State (NY) University (2007-10).

Rated as the No. 2 recruiter nationally by 247Sports.com, Hodgson played a vital role in recruiting top-15 classes each of his four seasons in Tuscaloosa. Alabama, the overall No. 1 seed in 2022-23, posted a 92-42 record, and advanced to the Sweet 16 twice in three-straight appearances at the NCAA Tournament since Hodgson joined head coach Nate Oats in Tuscaloosa. In total, Hodgson brought 15-plus seasons of collegiate coaching experience to Jonesboro, including six of the last seven NCAA Tournaments and a combined 15-2 record in Division I conference tournaments.

In his time with the Crimson Tide, Hodgson helped the program claim its first regular season conference title since 2002, first conference tournament title since 1991 and first Sweet 16 appearance since 2004. Four Alabama players have been drafted to the NBA since 2020 after the program had one selection from 1992-2019.

In 2022-23, Hodgson assisted as Alabama was one of only two teams nationally, joining Houston, to rank in the top-15 in both defensive adjusted efficiency (No. 5) and in offensive adjusted efficiency (No. 15) according to KenPom. Alabama, winner of the SEC regular season and SEC Tournament crown, made its ninth NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in program history, its second appearance in the span of three seasons. Two Crimson Tide players - Brandon Miller (2nd, Charlotte Hornets) and Noah Clowney (21st, Brooklyn Nets) - went on to be selected in the first round of the 2023 NBA Draft.

After finishing the 2019-20 season with a 16-16 record and 8-10 mark in SEC play, Alabama finished the 2020-21 campaign ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press poll, highest in program history at the time. The Crimson Tide's 26 overall wins were the second-most in school history, while the Sweet 16 appearance in the 2021 NCAA Tournament was the first for Alabama in 17 years. Alabama clinched its first regular season title in 19 years and captured the SEC Tournament title for the first time in 30 years.

Hodgson blazed a trail to Canada as he signed the first Canadian players in Crimson Tide program history – Joshua Primo and Keon Ambrose-Hilton – Canada's No. 1 and No. 3-ranked players, respectively, in 2020. He followed that by getting a third Canadian, Charles Bediako, to Tuscaloosa in 2021. Primo spent the 2020-21 season with Alabama before being selected 12th overall in the 2021 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs.

In addition to ranking as one of the top recruiters in collegiate basketball, Hodgson was named to The Athletic's Top-25 up-and-coming coaches and one of the top 50 Most Impactful High Major Assistant Coaches. He was invited to participate in the prestigious 2020 TopConnect Seminar which identifies the top assistants in the country and connects them with mid-major athletic directors. Previously, Hodgson was one of 30 assistant coaches named to the 2016 Under Armour 30-under-30 Team by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).

Hodgson spent four seasons (2015-19) with Oats at the University of Buffalo, where together they took the program to unprecedented heights. Hodgson helped guide the Bulls to three NCAA Tournament appearances and three Mid-American Conference Tournament championships, while also earning a pair of MAC regular season titles. Buffalo reached the Round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament in 2018 and 2019.

During his time at Buffalo, the Bulls were ranked for 20 weeks in the Associated Press Top-25 throughout the 2018-19 season marking the first time in school history the program had earned a national ranking. Buffalo went on to climb as high as No. 14 in the nation – the highest ranking by any MAC team in the past 40 years.

In the 2018-19 campaign, the Bulls finished with an impressive 32-4 overall record with the 32 victories marking the most in program history and most-ever by a MAC program. Coupled with a 27-9 mark in 2017-18, Buffalo had a combined 59-13 record from 2017-19 setting the best two-year stretch in school history.

In addition to his recruiting prowess, Hodgson is also known for his ability to develop talent. During his four seasons at Buffalo, nearly every player on the roster made tremendous strides on the court, none more so than 2019 MAC Player of the Year CJ Massinburg, who finished his career as a three-time All-MAC honoree and second in school history with 1,990 career points and 273 career treys. He went on to be named an honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press as a senior.

Hodgson served two seasons, one in a volunteer capacity, as an assistant coach at Midland (Texas) College, where he helped lead the team to a six-win turnaround during the 2014-15 season.

A western New York native, Hodgson served as an assistant coach from 2010-13 at Jamestown Community College. In his time at JCC, he coached 14 players who received scholarships to four-year schools after their graduation while nine were all-region players.

Hodgson played collegiately for two seasons at Jamestown CC, serving as a two-year captain, before heading to Fredonia State. While at Fredonia State, he served as an assistant coach and earned his undergraduate degree in sports management in 2011. He later earned his masters degree in education from the University of the Southwest in 2015.

Adopted at the age of two, Hodgson has been an active participant in Big Brothers, Big Sisters Program throughout his career. He is the founder and president of Coaching Love, Inc., established to benefit at-risk youth, particularly those in the foster care system and those waiting to be adopted.
