Jay Santos was named head coach of the Arizona State women's gymnastics team in May of 2016. Previously, Santos was the head coach at Eastern Michigan where he led the team to the 2016 Mid-American Conference Championship, the program's first-ever NCAA Regional appearance, and finished the season ranked 17th in the nation - the highest national ranking in the history of the program.

During the 2016 season, Santos earned NCAA Central Regional Head Coach of the Year honors after his team broke eight school records, including three on beam. Santos guided Eastern Michigan sophomore Rachel Slocum to be only the second gymnast in school history to qualify for the NCAA Championships after scoring a career high 9.900 to win the NCAA Ann Arbor Regional title on floor.

Prior to leading Eastern Michigan, Santos coached at the University of Illinois-Champaign where he served as assistant coach, then associate head coach in his four-year tenure. At Illinois, Santos coached the team to three NCAA Championship appearances in 2011, 2013, and 2014, finishing 11th in the nation each year. Santos also coached eight Illini gymnasts to All-American honors, including Allie Weinsten, the 2012 and 2013 Regional All-Around Champion, 2013 Honda Award Finalist, and 2013 South Central Region Gymnast of the Year.

Santos' wife, Jessica Santos, was named as the Sun Devil Gymnastics program's associate head coach.
