THE GAME - The Big 12 Champion Sun Devil Football program returns to action in the postseason, making its debut in the College Football Playoff and squaring off against the Texas Longhorns in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl on New Year's Day at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta. Scheduled for a 11 a.m. AZT/1 p.m. local kickoff, the CFP quarterfinal contest between the fourth-seeded Sun Devils and fifth-seeded Longhorns will be broadcast nationally on ABC (Joe Tessitore, Jesse Palmer, Katie George, Taylor McGregor). The game will also be available over the local airwaves in Arizona on Arizona Sports 98.7 FM (Tim Healey, Jeff Van Raaphorst, Kevin Turner, Jeff Munn). The game will also be available on ESPN National Radio (Anish Shroff, Andre Ware, Paul Carcatera).

ON THE CHICK-FIL-A PEACH BOWL/COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF - This will be Sun Devil Football's first appearance in the College Football Playoff. It is the team's second appearance in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, though it hasn't played in the game since 1970 - a 48-26 victory over North Carolina to cap off an 11-0 season. Texas is making its second consecutive appearance in the CFP, the only team in the 2024 field to do so despite the expansion to 12 teams this year.

ON THE LONGHORNS

- » This will mark just the second matchup in history between the Sun Devils and the Longhorns, with Texas getting the better of ASU in the 2007 Holiday Bowl, 52-34, in the only other contest.
- » The Longhorns were the runners-up in the SEC Championship and the No. 5 overall seed in the College Football Playoff, entering the game ranked No. 4 in the AP.
- » Texas and Arizona State were two of just five FBS teams in the regular season with four wins against teams ranked in the AP Top-25 at the time of the game (joining Georgia, South Carolina, Notre Dame).
- » One of the elite defenses in the country, Texas has held opponents to just 12.5 points per game prior to the CFP and to 17 points or less in 10 of 13 games in that stretch. ASU scored less than 17 points just once this season (14 at Cincinnati).
- » Texas has forced a turnover in and FBS-leading 22 straight games and is tied for first in the FBS with 29 takeaways this season. Meanwhile, ASU is tied for second in the FBS with just eight turnovers lost.
- » Texas was first in the FBS pre-bowl season in allowing just 1431 passing yards per game. The team allowed just four passing touchdowns in the regular season while ASU has thrown for 3 or more in 5 of its last six games.
- » In its last six games, Texas has allowed just 20 total first half points. ASU is averaging 22.6 points per first half in its last six games. Texas has outscored opponents 108-24 in the first quarter of games while ASU has outscored teams 106-58 in the opening frame.
- » Texas' offense is sixth in the FBS with 20 plays of 40+ yards this year. ASU is sixth in the FBS in allowing just five 40+ yard plays this year.

KICKING OFF

- » ASU's 11-2 record marks and 7 1/2 game improvement in the win/loss column from a year ago, tied for the seventh-best single-season turnaround in program history. A win this week would move ASU into a tie for second-best all-time. With a win, ASU's nine-game improvement in the win column alone from a year ago would mark just the seventh time in FBS history a team has accomplished the feat.
- » With ASU vacating its wins in the 2021 season, the 11 wins this season easily surpass the team's combined win tally from 2020-2023 (8 wins).
- » Sam Leavitt's 903 grade on overall offense for the season is seventh-best among all FBS freshman quarterbacks in the PFF era since 2015 (min. 500 snaps played). Of the six players tied or ahead of him, five have started an NFL game this season (Trevor Lawrence, Caleb Williams, Drake Maye, C.J. Stroud and Spencer Rattler). He ranks ahead of the freshman seasons of 2024 NFL starters Brock Purdy (89.4), Sam Darnold (85.0) and Justin Herbert (77.2).
- » Leavitt has thrown at least three touchdown passes in six games this year, most among FBS freshmen. The last Big 12 freshman to have that many performances in a season was Oklahoma's Sam Bradford in 2007 (eight).
- » Cam Skattebo is the first FBS player to record 150+ scrimmage yards and 3+ scrimmage touchdowns in three straight games since Boise State's Jay Ajayi in 2014 (four straight).
- » ASU was one of only 13 teams to go undefeated in the month of November (5-0). Of those 13 teams, only 7 were from a Power 4 conference (including Notre Dame). ASU was one of only four teams the FBS to go 5-0 in the month of November.
- » ASU is 5-0 in games decided by a seven points or less and 6-1 in games decided by one score (8 points or less). The 5-0 record is second behind Arkansas State's 7-0 mark in games of seven points or less and the six wins are tied for third behind only Syracuse and Arkansas State's for most wins in one-score games.

AN ASU VICTORY WOULD...

- Give ASU an 8 1/2 game improvement from a season ago, which would be tied for second-most in FBS history (Tulane, +9 in 2022). The team's current 7 1/2 game improvement is tied for ninth-best in FBS history.
- Give the Sun Devils a nine-game improvement in the win column alone, marking ASU as just the seventh program in FBS history to accomplish the feat.
- Improve the Sun Devils to 2-0 in the Peach Bowl (victors of the 1970 Peach Bowl).
- Give ASU 12 wins in a season for just the second time in program history (1975 team went 12-0).
- Improve ASU to 5-0 against AP-ranked opponents this season. It would match ASU's most wins against Top-25 teams in a single season in program history (5 in 1986).
- Give the Sun Devils their first victory over a Top-10 team in a neutral-site game since defeating #4 Michigan in the 1986 Rose Bowl campaign. It would additionally be ASU's first victory in the month of January since that 22-15 victory.
- Be Arizona State's first victory over a Top-10 team overall since defeating No. 6 Oregon in 2019.
- Improve ASU to 2-0 over the SEC this season, notable as the program has not defeated an SEC team in history entering the year.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Currently at 19, Cam Skattebo needs one rushing touchdown to set ASU's school record in the category (Woody Green, 19, 1972). He needs just one TOTAL touchdown to set ASU's school record in the category (22, Wilford White, 1950).
- Skattebo needs 75 rushing yards to break Eno Benjamin's school record of 1,642 rushing yards in a single season (currently at 1,568).
- Skattebo is one touchdown away from scoring his 50th career touchdown from scrimmage (currently at 49, 41 rushing, 8 receiving).
- Skattebo is 251 rushing yards away from reaching 4,500 career rushing yards (currently at 4,249). He is 20 rushing yards away from the 700-carry mark in his career (currently at 680 carries) and 16 touches away from the 800-touch (receptions + carries) mark in his career (currently at 784 touches).
- Sam Leavitt has the second-most passing yards by a freshman in program history. He is now 281 yards away from establishing a new passing yards record for freshman quarterbacks at ASU (record is 2,943 yards currently held by Jayden Daniels in 2019).
- Leavitt is tied for 9th in program history with 24 touchdown passes this season. He needs four more to move into the Top-5 all-time among ASU QBs.
- Keyshaun Elliott needs 5 tackles to reach 200 for this career (currently at 195).
- Shamarri Simmons needs 2 tackles to reach 250 for his career (currently at 248). He is one interception away from picking off 10 passes in his career (currently at 9).
- Xavier Gully needs 81 receiving yards to reach 2,000 receiving yards in his career (currently at 1,919).
- Chamon Metayer currently has five touchdown receptions, which is tied for the third-most in a season by a tight end in program history. He needs just one receiving touchdown to match Zach Miller (2004) and Joe Petty (1971) for the single-season program record for touchdown receptions by a tight end.

MAKING THE GRADE (NOTABLE PFF GRADES)

- Cam Skattebo (92.6) is the second-highest graded running back on overall offense this season and the fifth-highest graded offensive player at any position this year in the FBS.
- Skattebo's 94.1 grade on rushing plays this season is second behind only Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty. It is the seventh-best grade by an FBS running back in the category since the 2015 season (min. 100 carries).
- Sam Leavitt is the nation's highest-graded freshman player on offense OR defense with his overall offense grade of 90.3 (min. 500 snaps) - nearly 4 points higher than Ohio State receiver Jeremiah Smith's 86.4 mark in second. He is 7.3 points higher than the next closest FBS freshman QB (South Alabama's Gio Lopez, 83.0) and 12.3 points ahead of Tennessee's Nico Iamaleava for the highest freshman grade among Power 4 freshmen quarterbacks (78.0).
- Leavitt is the 7th-highest graded quarterback in the nation, regardless of eligibility, and 15th-highest graded player in the FBS regardless of position.

Kenny Dillingham put together a roster that started with 60 total newcomers this season - the ninth-most of any FBS school after being second a year ago. The Sun Devils have just three players in their final year of eligibility that started their careers at Arizona State (Trenton Bourguet, Caleb McCullough and Anthonie Cooper) - tied for the fourth-lowest tally in the FBS. ASU's 46 scholarship newcomers were tied for third-most in the FBS while the teams 58 returning players were tied for the fifth-lowest tally in the FBS. Only 38 of those players were scholarship student-athletes, tied for the third-lowest mark in the FBS.

54.9 percent of Sun Devil offensive drives have resulted in ASU scoring a touchdown or getting in range for a field goal attempt - good for 13th nationally. Only 40.3 percent of such opponent drives have done the same, a net +14.6 percent difference that is the 22nd-best in the nation. ASU ranked dead last (133rd) in the category a season ago with a net -29.0 percent tally as only 28 percent of its drives resulting in a touchdown or field goal attempt (124th) compared to a 57 percent success rate for opponents (132nd of 133). The Sun Devils are averaging 3.12 points per drive this season, good for 10th nationally and are 8th in picking up 59.9 percent of the total yards available.

He has allowed just 90 yards in coverage this season - 4th-lowest among all FBS players. He has allowed just 0.20 yards per coverage snap this season, the 2nd-lowest total in the FBS. Alford has forced an incompleteness 26.3 percent of the time when targeted, the 8th-best tally among all FBS players.

He started all 12 games for the Sun Devils a year ago, playing all but one snap of the season (helmet came off) for the team at center (850). Leif Fautanu has just 6 pressures credited against him, tied for 26th-fewest among FBS players and 14th among centers (min. 300 pass block snaps). His 1.5 pressure allowed percentage is 15th among FBS centers. His 87.8 pass-blocking grade is the 4th-best grade for any FBS center and 17th among all players. The 13 sacks in the last 8 games were 42nd-lowest in that time while the 17 in the first four weeks were sixth-WORST in the country.
- » The team allowed a knockdown percentage of 11.1 percent in the final eight games and is right in the middle of the FBS. Through the first four weeks of the season, ASU's knockdown percentage was 21.9 - 7th worst in the FBS.

- » Opponents are averaging just 5.16 yards per play - 40th-lowest in the country after being 93rd at 5.95 a season ago. Only 22.6 percent of opponent plays have gained 7 or more yards, the 28th-lowest tally in the country after ranking 105th last season at 35.1 percent.
- » Opponents averaged just 1.81 points per drive on drives starting between their own 20- and 40-yard lines, the 39th lowest total in the country. ASU was 127th in the category a year ago.

- » The team has allowed offenses to pick up just 45.6 of their available yards, the 53rd-lowest total nationally. ASU was 124th in the country a year ago in allowing 56.3 percent of available yards.
- » ASU has been much improved in keeping opponents from getting across the 50, allowing other teams to pick up just 67.5 percent of their available yards up to their own 40-yard line - the 60th-lowest total in the FBS while also allowing only 59.3 percent of opponent yards up to the ASU 40 - 54th nationally. ASU ranked 121st and 126 in those categories a year ago.
- » Only 40.3 percent of opponent drives have resulted in a touchdown or field goal attempt, the 56th-lowest total in the FBS - notable after being 132nd (of 133) in the country last year with a 57.0 clip.
- » Since 2018, ASU has held opponents to the 400 or less mark for total offensive yards on 45 occasions over 80 games (56.3 percent of the time) - including nine of 13 this year. For comparison, ASU accomplished the feat just 24 times in the 65 previous games (36.9 percent) from 2013-2017.

- » ASU is 11 for 12 in holding opponents under their season scoring average this year, following the season opening: Mississippi State (23/56.0), Texas State (28/41.5), Texas Tech (30/44.7), Utah (19/28.3), Cincinnati (24/31.0), Oklahoma State (21/30.5), UCF (31/33.2) Kansas State (14/31.2), BYU (21/31.6), Arizona (7/23.1), Iowa State (19/31.2). In eight of 11 games following the season opener last season, ASU held its opponent at or below its season scoring averaging entering the game (Oklahoma State 27/27.0, Fresno State 29/36.5, USC 42/59.3, Cal 24/32.8, Colorado 27/34.2, Washington 15/44.3, Washington State 27/32.9, UCLA 7/28.6).

- » Wide receiver Jordyn Tyson had nine touchdowns in his last eight games and 892 yards (107.0 yards per game) on 61 catches in that span. In the first four games, he had 14 catches for 209 yards with one touchdown.
- » The 892 yards were the most for any FBS player from Week 6 to the end of the regular season, as were his 9 touchdowns.
- » Tyson's 624 yards in the month of November were 119 more than any other FBS player for the month and his six touchdowns were 2nd.
- » Tyson has 1,101 yards on the year and is the first Sun Devil to go over 1,000 receiving yards since Brandon Aiyuk in 2019 (1,192). The tally is 10th-most in program history and 6th-most in a 12-game season.
- » Tyson 10 receiving touchdowns on the season, tying him for sixth all-time in Sun Devil Football history and one of just 11 Sun Devils total to reach double digits in a single season. He is the first to reach double digits since Jaelen Strong had 10 in 2014.
- » The 10 receiving touchdowns were 10th in the FBS regular season and behind only Travis Hunter's 14 in the Big 12
- » Tyson became the first Sun Devil to catch two touchdowns in two straight games since Frank Darby had back-to-back two-score games at UCLA (10/26/19) and vs. USC (11/9/19).
- » His 176 receiving yards against KSU were the most since Brandon Aiyuk put up 196 on

Washington State back on Oct. 12, 2019. It was the most receiving yards in a road game since Devin Lucien had 200 yards at California on Nov. 28, 2015.

- » Tyson's 11-yard catch at 7:48 in the third quarter of that game gave him a new career high for single-game yardage, surpassing his previous best of 137 yards against Oregon in 2022 while he was a member of the Colorado football team. He also set a new career high with 12 receptions in the game.
- » Four of his touchdown receptions this season have come in the final five minutes of a half (two in the first half and two in the second half).

GOLD RUSH

- » The Sun Devils rank 23rd in the FBS in averaging 198.8 rushing yards per game this year.
- » Twice this season, ASU has rushed for over 300 yards in a game - the first time it has accomplished that feat since 2012 (vs. NAU, vs. Navy).
- » The group is averaging a rushing first down or touchdown 30.5 percent of the time, good for 38th nationally.
- » The rushing attack has been especially efficient in punishing opponents with ASU running backs earning 3.9 yards after contact per rush - 13th in the FBS.
- » ASU has forced 157 missed tackles on run plays this season, 3rd-most in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils ranked 10th in the FBS in averaging 0.28 missed tackles forced per running play last season, a tally they have repeated to the dot this year and sit at 11th.
- » Since 2020, ASU's 20.5 percentage of total drives have ended with a rushing touchdown is 11th in the FBS.
- » ASU has received a team rushing grade of 98.1 from PFF since the 2020 season, the 16th-highest tally in the FBS.
- » Since 2020, ASU has been stuffed at or behind the line of scrimmage on just 18.4 percent of its rushes - good for the 35th-lowest tally in the FBS. The team has averaged 3.3 yards after contact per rush in that time - tied for 19th in the FBS.
- » Since 2020, ASU has picked up a first down or touchdown on 30.6 percent of its rushes - 16th-most in the FBS. The team is averaging 5.3 yards per rush in that time, tied for 33rd in the FBS.
- » Since 2018, ASU has rushed for 100+ yards in 61 of 80 games (76.3 percent).
- » The Sun Devils have produced a 1,000-yard rusher 10 times in the last 14 seasons - with one of the lone exceptions being the shortened 2020 season. For comparison, from 1976-2010, ASU had just eight 1000-yard rushers over 34 years.

BUT ALSO NO RUSH

- » The Sun Devils have held opponents to just 117.5 rushing yards per game, the 27th-best total in the country and second in the Big 12. This comes despite ASU playing four of the Top-20 teams in the nation this season in rushing offense (7. UCF, 13. Kansas, 15. Texas State, 18. Kansas State). No other team in the Top-30 faced more than two such opponents in the regular season.
- » ASU was 36th in the FBS in allowing just 133.5 rush yards per game to opponents last season.
- » 11 times in 25 games under Kenny Dillingham and Brian Ward has ASU held an opponent under 100 rushing yards in a game.
- » Shamari Simmons ranks 5th among all Big 12 players with a run-blocking grade of 86.0 this season - 2nd among Big 12 corners. Javan Robinson was 15th in the league with a 78.0 mark - 3rd among league corners. They rank 8th and 44th among all FBS corners overall.
- » Caleb McCullough has the 11th-best run blocking grade in the Big 12 overall (2nd among linebackers) and 39th among all FBS linebackers (82.3)
- » A year ago, the Sun Devils allowed only 88 rushing yards to Washington State, which marked the third consecutive game that ASU had held an opponent to under 100 rushing yards. It was the first time since the first three games of the 2016 season that ASU had accomplished the feat (Northern Arizona - 56 yards, Texas Tech - 72 yards, UTSA - 93 yards).
- » It was the first time it had happened against three-straight Pac-12 Conference opponents since a four-game stretch in the 2015 season (USC - 76, UCLA - 62, Colorado - 49, Utah - 72).
- » In that three-game span against CU/UW/WSU, Arizona State allowed only 157 total rushing yards - the fewest over a three-game stretch since the Sun Devils allowed only 96 against Colorado (99), Washington (-5), and Washington State (2) during the 2013 season.
- » A lot of that success can be attributed to the Sun Devil secondary as well, which received a positive rush defense grade on 17.3 percent of run plays this season from PFF, the 32nd-highest tally among safeties and corners in the FBS.

A HAND IN THE COOKIE JAR

- » Arizona State only had eight takeaways all of last year - 127th of 133 teams. It has 22 (15 interceptions and 7 fumble recoveries) through 13 games this year - a total good for 16th in the country.
- » The team ranks 8th in the FBS with a +1.08 turnover margin per game.
- » The Sun Devils were 129th in the nation in turnover margin a year ago at -11, improving that mark to +14 this year and the No. 6 mark in the country. The 25-turnover swing is the largest turnaround by any team in the FBS this season, the 5th-best in the last 10 years and the 25th-best of any program since the 1996 season
- » ASU is tied for 6th nationally with just three fumbles lost this year. It has recovered seven, good for 50th after ranking 110th last season with just four.
- » ASU has recorded four defensive touchdowns this season (2 pick sixes, 2 fumble returns), the 5th-most in the FBS.
- » ASU has outscored opponents 976-561 in points off takeaways since 2012 and 69-21 this season.
- » Iowa State had lost just three fumbles during the entire regular season prior to losing two in the third quarter alone to the Sun Devils in the Big 12 Championship. The Cyclones had entered the contest 17th in the country with a +0.75 turnover margin per game prior to losing three in the third quarter to the Sun Devils.
- » Sun Devil true corners (excluded the nickelback) recorded interceptions in four straight games (Keith Abney vs. Utah and at Cincinnati/Javan Robinson at Oklahoma State/Laterrance Welch vs. UCF). It was the first time ASU has had corners accomplish that feat in four straight games since 2013 (Robert Nelson at Stanford/Osahon Irabor vs. USC and Notre Dame/Nelson and Lloyd Carrington vs. Colorado).
- » This season marked the first since 2020 (at USC 4 TOs; at Arizona 7 TOs) that the Sun Devils forced three or more turnovers twice in a three-game span (3 vs. Wyoming, 3 at Texas State).
- » The Sun Devils picked off Utah's Cam Rising three times, matching the veteran's career high for a game. Rising now has 17 interceptions in his career (on over 750 career passes), of which the Sun Devils are responsible for six of them (35.3 percent). The three interceptions in the game were the most for an ASU team since having three against Stanford on Oct. 8, 2021.
- » ASU was one of just five teams in the country with a fumble recovery in each of its first three games.
- » Taking out ASU's COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, the Sun Devils had a streak of at least one pick six in 23 consecutive seasons (2000-2022) come to a close last season - ending what was the longest streak in the FBS.
- » ASU immediately started a new streak with Zyrus Fiaseu's 29-yard return in the opener of 2024. ASU would also pick up a scoop-and-score from Justin Wodtly later in the contest on a 6-yard fumble return, giving ASU an interception AND fumble return for a touchdown in the same game for the first time since UCLA in 2008.

WHO'S THE NEW GUY

- » For the second consecutive season, there will be a slew of newcomers taking the field for the Sun Devils in the form of 60 new players this season - the ninth-highest tally in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils have just three players in their final year of eligibility that started their careers at Arizona State (Trenton Bourguet, Caleb McCullough and Anthonie Cooper) - tied for the fourth-lowest tally in the FBS.
- » ASU's 46 scholarship newcomers are tied for third most in the FBS while the teams 58 returning players are tied for the fifth-lowest tally in the FBS. Only 38 of those players are scholarship student-athletes, tied for the third-lowest mark in the FBS.
- » The Sun Devils welcomed the 48th best freshman class in the country by 247Sports, good for the top half of the Big 12 at No. 7 in the league.
- » The team's transfer portal haul was tabbed at No. 30 overall and No. 4 in the Big 12.
- » Overall, with the two groups combined, ASU checks in with the No. 43 class in the country and No. 7 in the Big 12.
- » It should be noted, however, that ASU's talent rating from 247Sports (which takes into account transfer's high school ratings) is ranked 30th in the nation and second in the Big 12.
- » While both were on the Sun Devil roster last season, antiquated NCAA rules that were inevitably overturned kept Jake Smith and Xavion Alford out for the season. When the duo takes Frank Kush Field on Saturday night, it will have been 1,342 days for Smith (Dec 29, 2020 - Aug. 31, 2024) and 1,009 days for Alford (Nov. 27, 2021 - Aug. 31, 2024) since either player has appeared in a college football game.
- » Ben Coleman was another newcomer last season that was forced to miss the year with an injury and will be taking the field for the first time in 646 days (Nov. 25, 2022-Aug. 31, 2024) on Saturday.

MOUNTAIN AMERICA STADIUM, HOME OF THE ASU SUN DEVILS

- » Arizona State University and Sun Devil Athletics have announced a multi-year naming rights partnership last season with Mountain America Credit Union to form one of the most dynamic naming rights deals in college athletics.
- » The 15-year partnership with Sun Devil Athletics – the most important deal in athletics department history - includes ASU's football stadium, which will now be called Mountain America Stadium, Home of the ASU Sun Devils.
- » The partnership happens as a fever pitch surrounds Sun Devil Football and the hiring of Sun Devil graduate Kenny Dillingham, one of eight Arizona State alumni leading programs as head coaches at the University.
