DUAL-MEET RECORD: 9-3

THE NATIONAL MEET -- 15-time national champion Augsburg is competing at the NCAA Division III National Championships this Friday and Saturday at the Alliant Energy PowerHouse in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Augsburg enters the national meet ranked No. 5 in the final National Wrestling Coaches Association Division III tournament national poll and No. 3 in the NWCA dual-meet poll.

Action begins at 10 a.m. (Central time) on Friday with preliminary rounds, and quarterfinal and wrestleback action at 5 p.m., determining the eight All-Americans in each weight class.

On Saturday, action continues at 10 a.m. with championship semifinals, consolation action and placing matches for third, fifth and seventh places. Parade of All-Americans will be at 6:30 p.m., with the 10 national championship matches scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

AUGSBURG'S ALL-AMERICAN TRADITION -- Depth has always been a hallmark of the Augsburg men's wrestling program, and that has shown in the number of All-Americans -- finishers in the top eight of each weight class -- that the team has had in national competition. Augsburg has earned at least two All-Americans every year since 1988, and has had at least five All-Americans in 32 of the last 37 years.

Augsburg has had at least one All-American in national competition every year since 1977 -- 49 straight years. Augsburg has earned 286 wrestling All-Americans in program history (235 in NCAA competition, 38 in NAIA, 13 by the NWCA in 2020 and 2021).

AUGGIES QUALIFY 10 WRESTLERS TO NATIONALS -- Augsburg has a national-high 10 NCAA Division III national tournament qualifiers this season. Augsburg has had seven or more national tournament qualifiers in 22 of the last 23 seasons.

The last four times Augsburg has had 10 national qualifiers, it has won the team national title (2004-05, 2006-07, 2014-15 and 2023-24). Augsburg also had 10 qualifiers in 2002-03, when it finished second nationally. Roanoke (Va.) and Wartburg (Iowa) have nine qualifiers each, while Wisconsin-La Crosse has eight qualifiers.

WILLIS GOING FOR 4TH ALL-AMERICAN HONOR -- At 165 pounds, Cooper Willis (SR, Kansasville, Wis./Union Grove HS) will attempt to become the 10th men's wrestler in Augsburg history to earn four or more All-American honors.

The No. 3-ranked wrestler nationally at 165, Willis enters the tournament seeded No. 2 in the field, carrying a 26-3 record. He is 124-18 in his Auggie career. Willis earned national runner-up honors last season and finished fifth nationally his first two seasons.

NATIONAL TOURNEY MILESTONES FOR AUGGIES -- Chance Suddeth (JR, Stoughton, Wis./Stoughton HS) will compete in his third national tournament after winning the regional title for the second straight year at 133 pounds. Suddeth, who placed seventh nationally last year at 133, is now 23-11 on the season and 73-29 in his career, and is seeded No. 9 in the 133-pound field.

No. 3-ranked 149-pounder Matthew Randolph (SO, Jordan, Minn./Jordan HS (Scott West)) is competing in his second national tournament. Now 25-2 on the season and 56-6 in his career, he is seeded No. 2 in the field. Randolph finished fourth nationally at 149 last year to earn All-American honors for the first time.

Defending 184-pound national runner-up Brandt Bombard (SR, North Branch, Minn./North Branch HS) will compete in his second straight national tournament. Seeded No. 6 in the tournament field at 184, Bombard is 25-4 on the season and 79-27 in his career. No. 10-ranked 141-pounder Cole Becker (SR, Albertville, Minn./St. Michael-Albertville HS) is also competing at the national tournament for the second straight year.

At 125, first-time national tournament competitor Keno Vanier (SR, Edina, Minn./Richfield HS), the son of two-time national runner-up Jafari Vanier '07, could become part of Auggie men's wrestling history as potentially the third father-son duo to both earn All-American honors. Bob Adams '83 and Jason Adams '10 were the first Auggie father-son All-American duo, joined by Steve Gliva '85 and Victor Gliva '20.

Augsburg University -- a tradition of men's wrestling excellence

Augsburg's men's wrestling team has dominated small-college competition over the last four decades.

• Augsburg has finished among the top two teams in men's wrestling national competition 29 times since 1975, winning national titles 15 times in NCAA Division III competition and earning runner-up honors 13 times (12 in Division III, once in NAIA). Augsburg finished among the top four teams nationally in Division III competition every year from 1989 to 2012, and every year from 2017 to 2025.

• The Auggies have won 15 NCAA Division III national championships in the last 34 seasons (1991, 1993, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2005, 2007, 2010, 2015, 2019, 2023, 2024), tied with Wartburg (Iowa) for the most in Division III history. Augsburg is one of only five NCAA schools to have won 10 or more NCAA wrestling national titles (Oklahoma State has won 34 Division I team titles, while Iowa has won 24 Division I team titles, Wartburg has won 16 Division III team titles and Penn State has won 11 Division I team titles). Augsburg has also finished second 12 times since 1984 and in the top 20 nationally (NCAA from 1983 to present, NAIA pre-1983) every year since 1971.

• Against opponents from Divisions II and III, Augsburg is 396-61-1 in dual meets since the 1989-90 season. Augsburg has lost just 57 matches to non-Division I opponents since the 1995-96 season.

• Against strictly NCAA Division III opponents, Augsburg is 380-59-1 since the 1979-80 season. Since 1989-90, Augsburg is 305-49-1 against Division III opponents.

• Against opponents from the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, Augsburg is 219-7 since the 1975-76 season. In winning each of the 14 MIAC Team Dual Meet tournaments, Augsburg outscored its conference opponents by a 3,266-145 margin in going 68-0. The MIAC no longer sponsors an individual tournament and ended the MIAC Team Duals in the 2003-04 season.

Augsburg has a record of individual success nationally, both on the mat and in the classroom.

• Since Pat Marcy won the school's first NAIA national title at 150 pounds in 1972, Augsburg men's wrestlers have earned 59 individual national championships, including 55 NCAA Division III national titles, the most in Division III history (Augsburg has been an NCAA Division III member since 1983). Wartburg (Iowa) is second with 52 NCAA Division III individual titles, while Montclair State (N.J.) is third with 28, Brockport State (N.Y.) is fourth with 25, and The College of New Jersey and Wisconsin-La Crosse are tied for fifth with 23.

• Augsburg has earned 286 All-Americans in school history (since 1969; 38 NAIA, 235 NCAA, 13 NWCA). Augsburg has had at least one All-American in national wrestling competition (NAIA and NCAA) every season since 1977, and has had three or more All-Americans at 46 different national tournaments. At the 2005 NCAA Division III national championships, Augsburg earned All-Americans in all 10 weight classes for the first time in program history and just the second time in Division III history (Wartburg in 2003).

• • Augsburg University has also been a success in the classroom. Since 1983, Augsburg has produced 243 National College Wrestling Association (NWCA) Scholar All-Americans. Augsburg had a school-record 21 Scholar All-Americans in 2024-25 and has had 220 athletes honored since 1997. Since the NWCA has awarded Division III academic team national championships, Augsburg has finished first three times (1998-99, 2011-12, 2021-22) and second four times, including the 2021-22 academic national title with a team grade-point average of 3.879 (4.00 scale).

• Augsburg has also had 17 College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA) Academic All-Americans in wrestling -- Dan Lewandowski (1996-97), Josh Cagle (1998-99 and 1999-2000), Jim Peterson (1998-99), Brian Jones (1999-2000), Mark Matzek (2004-05), Ryan Valek (2004-05 and 2005-06), Tony Valek (2010-11 and 2011-12), Victor Gliva (2017-18), Sam Bennyhoff (2017-18), Tyler Shilson (2021-22 and 2022-23 - AAA of the Year), Charlie Stuhl (2022-23 and 2023-24) and Tyler Kim (2023-24).

He earned NWCA Scholar All-America honors in 2010, 2011 and 2012, and earned College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Division III Academic All-America first-team honors and Academic All-District honors in both 2011 and 2012. Valek received his bachelor's degree in accounting and business management from Augsburg in 2012 and completed his master in arts of leadership at Augsburg in 2014.

Associate Head Coach Jim Moulsoff

Prior to the 2022-23 season, he was named as associate head coach. The 2025-26 season is Moulsoff's 19th on the Augsburg coaching staff, serving as an assistant coach for one season under former head coach Sam Barber and six seasons under former head coach Mark Matzek. During his Augsburg coaching tenure, Moulsoff was a part of the 2009-10, 2014-15, 2018-19, 2022-23 and 2023-24 national title squads and national runner-up squads in 2008-09, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2016-17 and 2017-18, with 97 All-Americans (84 NCAA, 13 NWCA) and 17 national champions. NOTES: Augsburg competed as a club program in the 1947 and 1948 seasons before starting a varsity program in 1949.

* The last NAIA championship meet for Augsburg was held in 1983, as was its first NCAA III championship meet. Augsburg competed in both meets. Prior to 1983, Augsburg competed in the NAIA national championship meets.

The 2003 and 2004 MIAC championships were from the Team Duals tournament; the MIAC individual tournament ended in the 2001-02 season; the MIAC no longer sponsors wrestling as a championship sport. GLR in the MIAC/Regional Finish category refers to the NCAA Division III Great Lakes Regional, which replaced the MIAC championships as the national qualifying tournament for Augsburg and other MIAC schools from 2003 to 2012. WR refers to the NCAA Division III West Regional, which Augsburg joined in 2013 and ran until 2017. UMR refers to the NCAA Division III Upper Midwest Regional, which Augsburg joined in 2018. R VII refers to the Region VII Regional, which Augsburg joined in 2025.

% The 2020 NCAA D-III National Championships was not held due to the COVID-19 pandemic. All-Americans were named by the National Wrestling Coaches Association in 2020.

$ The 2021 NCAA D-III National Championships and NCAA D-III Upper Midwest Regional were not held due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The National Wrestling Coaches Association held a Division III individual national tournament, which did not have team scores.
