KNIGHT INSIGHTS

- The 2022 campaign marks the second in Division I and the ASUN Conference for Bellarmine. The Knights were previously a member of Division II and were a founding member of the Great Lakes Valley Conference, where baseball had competed since 1980.
- From 2017-19, Bellarmine's three final full seasons in Division II (the pandemic cut 2020 short), the Knights earned bids in the NCAA II Tournament. Bellarmine also captured the 2019 GLVC Tournament title in its last full season in the league.
- Bellarmine has played a loaded schedule thus far before even stepping foot on the field against traditional power Louisville. The Knights have already faced two nationally ranked teams and four that made the 2021 NCAA Tournament. Virginia, NJIT, Southeast Missouri State and Presbyterian all went dancing last season, while Virginia and Purdue are the two ranked opponents.
- Louisville was Bellarmine's first-ever opponent at the D1 level. The Knights and Cardinals opened 2021 with a three-game series at Jim Patterson Stadium. Louisville, ranked sixth at the time, swept the series by scores of 5-1, 13-1 and 8-3. Other 2021 in-state foes included Western KY, Kentucky, Murray State and Eastern KY.

KNIGHT INSIGHTS

- To say that Bellarmine is road-tested entering its game with Louisville is an understatement. Including the contest with the Cardinals, BU will have played 16 of its first 17 games away from Knights Field. Bellarmine opened the year with neutral-site games against Virginia and NJIT in Gardner-Webb's Jerry Bryson Classic; U of L represents BU's 14th true road game.
- After going deep in the series finale against Purdue, Matt Higgins moved into sole possession of sixth place on the program's all-time home run list. It was the 27th career homer for the senior left fielder. Higgins is sixth on the career RBI list with 139 and tied for 10th in career doubles with 44 after clubbing 3 vs. Purdue.
- Higgins' homer at Purdue cleared the batter's eye behind the 408-foot center-field wall. A Purdue athletics staff member working the game said this of the blast: "The HR to CF was likely the longest homer ever hit in a game at Alexander (Field)."
- Senior third baseman Colin Bertsch, a transfer from Southwestern Illinois College, is on a team-high 10-game hitting streak. That ties senior utility Jacob Mulcahy for the team's longest of the season.
- Mulcahy has reached base in a Bellarmine season-high 14 consecutive games.

ABOUT LOUISVILLE: Before its Tuesday home meeting with Northern Kentucky, Louisville took two of three in a home series against Michigan. The Cardinals bridged wins of 5-3 and 13-1 around a 16-7 loss. The Cardinals entered the series against the Wolverines on a six-game winning streak, including a dominant sweep of Akron in which they won all three games by eight runs or more. Louisville directly preceded the Michigan games with a 9-8 home triumph over No. 15 TCU. Heading into the NKU game, Louisville carried a .330 team batting average. Nine players with at least 37 at-bats sported a .297 average or better. Christian Knapczyk led the pack at .441 while Ben Bianco followed at .409. The Cardinals' power has been impressive as well. Ben Metzinger had walloped seven homers leading into the NKU contest while Dalton Rushing and Cameron Masterson had five apiece. Before facing the Norse, Louisville's pitching staff combined for a 4.87 team ERA.

2022 BELLARMINE SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2022 campaign marks the Bellarmine University baseball team's second in Division I and the ASUN, and with a year under its belt at the NCAA's highest level, Knights Coach Larry Owens believes the program is equipped to make considerable progress.

"Overall, I think the quality of our depth sticks out on this year's club," said Owens, who is in his ninth season leading the program. "Despite losing some key pieces, I think we are overall better offensively and defensively. We did lose some power and experienced arms, but I feel we have more pitch-ability on this year's club. Combine that with the experience we gained as a team and as individuals, I expect an improved team and results — which is what we need to do as we continue to make the transition."

In its inaugural season in D1, Bellarmine went 13-36 overall and 8-16 in the ASUN, highlighted by being one of only two teams in the conference to deal Liberty a loss in the regular season. In their three full seasons in D2 before making the jump, the Knights earned NCAA Tournament bids and were poised to make it four in a row before the pandemic forced the premature end of an expectation-filled 2020.

"I think the biggest takeaway from last year is that the kids didn't pack it in," Owens said. "They certainly could have after winning only 13 games. They competed all year and competed well, holding their own against some very good D1 teams. I think they learned that free bases hurt a little more the higher levels you play. Most importantly, they realized that they belong. I feel they are a pretty confident bunch and are ready to improve on last season."

Bellarmine will have an intriguing mix of the known and unknown this season. For instance, fifth-year senior outfielders Matt Higgins and Jacob Mulcahy and shortstop Clayton Mehlbauer are program stalwarts who have all logged more than 100 games played. But other areas are much less clear, which has created plenty of position battles leading into the season.

"Which is a great thing and very helpful to our team," Owens said. "On any team or any organization, I feel the trick is to relay to the players that they are truly playing for each other. The better they are at each position or facet of the game, the better we will be as a team as long as they don't care who gets the credit. I know that each of them wants to win and they all want to contribute, but at the end of the day they really don't mind how we get there as long as we get there."

Here's a position breakdown of how things are shaping up for the Knights entering 2022.

• OUTFIELD

While program home-run king Chris Gambert graduated, Higgins (.338 BA, 9 HRs, 34 RBIs) and Mulcahy (.265 BA, 4 HRs, 24 RBIs) are both back providing ample stability and production in the outfield. Higgins is a Preseason ASUN All-Conference selection who earned second-team All-Conference accolades last season despite missing a month due to injury. Mulcahy is a four-year starter. Higgins and Mulcahy are set to man the corner outfield slots. Senior Jack Ockerman (21 starts, 30 games, 7 steals), juniors Will Aubel (.273 BA) and Robert Sproul (.390 OBP, 20 games) and redshirt freshman Jackson Case are all options in center field. They could also fill the corner spots if needed, as could senior A.J. Arnold or junior Tommy Dilz.

• FIRST BASE

Last season, Davis Crane (.286 BA, 5 HRs, 15 RBIs, 29 starts) became the first player in program history acknowledged on the ASUN All-Freshman Team. Junior Noah Nelson (.269 BA, 15 starts) completes a strong tandem at first base.

• SECOND BASE

After the graduation of Justin Rouse, second base has not been locked down yet. Juniors Drew Buhr, Brett Pfaadt and Dylan Byerly and freshman Casey Sorg are all possibilities.

• THIRD BASE

In a sense, it's the beginning of a new era at third base for the Knights, as program stalwart and first-team ASUN All-Conference selection Josh Finerty finally departed after a long and distinguished career. Like second base, third is not set in stone yet for Bellarmine. Junior Peyton Back, senior newcomer Colin Bertsch and redshirt freshman Webster Walls are all in the mix.

• SHORTSTOP

Three-year starter Mehlbauer (.301 BA, 6 HRs, 26 RBIs) is back in providing a cornerstone in the middle infield. Sophomore Zac Common saw action at shortstop last season as well.

• CATCHER

Junior Gabe Bratetic (10 starts) has the most returning experience handling Bellarmine's staff, but sophomore Kevin Butler and sophomore newcomer Ashton Smith are expected to see action as well.

• STARTING PITCHING

Bellarmine graduated Deylen Miley, who signed a free-agent deal with the Houston Astros organization, Jacob Nagel and Shane Barringer, but junior righthander Nolan Pender (15 appearances, 8 starts, 36 Ks in 37.1 IP) was a conference starter in the latter half of last season and is anticipated to assume that role again. Sophomore lefthander Gavin Braunecker, who over the summer was named Pitcher of the Year in the Ohio Valley League, has made significant strides up the ladder. Senior righthander Matt Craven (10 appearances), junior righthanders Devin Ecklar (19 appearances) and Ryan Johnson (11 appearances), junior righthander and newcomer Joe Wilkinson, freshman righthander Arren Hash and Buhr could also be the first to take the mound on game day.

• RELIEF PITCHING

The uber-dependable Anthony Ethington, who ranks fifth all-time at Bellarmine in career appearances, graduated but the Knights will have plenty of options in the bullpen with senior lefthander Nick Parrish, senior righthanders Ethan English (also a viable DH candidate) and Jon Cato, junior righthander Adam Spalding, junior lefthander Steven Thom, sophomore righthander Cody Medley and Common and Sorg.

BELLARMINE ATHLETICS ENTERS 2ND SEASON IN D1

The 2021-22 season marks Bellarmine University's second as a full-scale Division I athletics program.

Bellarmine celebrated the elevation of its athletics program from NCAA Division II to NCAA Division I on July 1, 2020. The jump made Bellarmine the only private D1 university in Kentucky and one of only a handful of D1 Catholic universities in the South.

All 22 of the Knights' varsity sports programs now compete in D1, including 18 in the ASUN Conference.

Previously, only lacrosse competed at the NCAA's highest level.

Bellarmine teams in the following 18 sports compete in the ASUN: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, volleyball and lacrosse.

Wrestling is a member of the Southern Conference.

Men's and women's swimming participate in the Coastal Collegiate Sports Association.

Field hockey began competition this season in the Mid-American Conference.

NO POWER OUTAGE HERE

Bellarmine made its Division-I debut last season, and its power translated well to the NCAA's highest level. In 2019, their final full season in D2 (2020 was cut short due to the pandemic), the Knights led the Great Lakes Valley Conference in home runs with 78. Bellarmine amassed 48 dingers last season, which tied for second in the ASUN. The Knights finished just six back of conference leader Liberty (54) despite playing eight less games. Senior outfielder Matt Higgins (nine), senior shortstop Clayton Mehlbauer (six) and sophomore first baseman Davis Crane (five) are the leading returning long ball hitters.

FINGERPRINTS EVERYWHERE

ASUN Preseason All-Conference pick Matt Higgins will look to further his assault on the Bellarmine record book this season — or, in some cases, cement his spot. Entering 2022, the fifth-year senior ranks third all-time in program history in career batting average (.374), is tied for ninth in home runs (23) and is 11th in RBIs (124). He's seven doubles away from joining the top 10 and 27 hits from the top 12. Since 2006, the outfielder ranks first in career slugging percentage (.607) and on-base percentage (.460) and is tied for 10th in total bases (297). Higgins was a second-team ASUN All-Conference selection last season despite missing a month due to injury. He was a consensus Division II All-American in 2019 after batting .419 with a program-record 90 hits, 13 homers, 18 doubles and 63 RBIs.

A COUPLE MORE CORNERSTONES

In addition to Matt Higgins, outfielder Jacob Mulcahy and shortstop Clayton Mehlbauer are also back for fifth seasons. Mulcahy is a four-year starter who has appeared in 127 games and batted .287 with 11 homers, 27 doubles and 81 RBIs over his career. He's coming off a .265/four/eight/24 campaign. Mehlbauer has started the last three seasons and appeared in 115 games while hitting .290 with 10 homers, 18 doubles and 66 RBIs in his career. He produced a .301/six/eight/26 campaign last season.

RATED ROOKIE

Davis Crane made a strong impression with Bellarmine in his first season with the Knights. Last year, the first baseman became the first player in program history to earn ASUN All-Freshman Team honors. Crane ranked third on the team in on-base percentage (.385) and fourth in batting average (.286) and slugging percentage (.467) while amassing five homers, four doubles, 15 RBIs and 14 runs scored in 32 games.

THE MAN IN MANKATO

Matt Higgins was named co-MVP of the Northwoods League last summer. Playing for the Mankato MoonDogs, the fifth-year senior ranked second in the league in RBIs (53) and doubles (22), third in hits (80) and slugging percentage (.504), sixth in OPS (.918), tied for ninth in runs scored (45) and tied for 11th in batting average (.339) over 63 games. Higgins was selected to the NWL's Postseason All-Star Team and preceded that with a midseason All-Star nod.

FLASH OF GREATNESS

Last summer, Gavin Braunecker was the first-ever recipient of the Ohio Valley League's Gordon Guess Pitcher of the Year award. Tossing for the Henderson Flash, the sophomore left-hander led the league in strikeouts (58) and strikeouts per nine innings (11.03) and ranked second in innings pitched (47.1) and third in ERA (1.90) over 11 appearances with six starts. Braunecker posted a 4-0 record and tallied one save. Opposing hitters batted a meager .191 against him. In 20.0 innings over his last six appearances, Braunecker yielded only two earned runs while striking out 34 batters.

STARRY SUMMERS

Junior right-hander Nolan Pender was selected to play in the Northwoods League All-Star Game last summer, while junior infielder Peyton Back earned an All-Star bid in The Old North State League. Pender led the Northwoods League in wins (eight), ERA (2.43) and batting average against (.221) while ranking fourth in innings pitched (55.2) and fifth in strikeouts (54) over 13 appearances with nine starts for the Mankato MoonDogs. Back competed for the Mocksville Muscadines and finished first in The Old North State League in stolen bases (17), fourth in runs scored (20), sixth in batting average (.379) and hits (25) and ninth in RBIs (17) over 23 games. He amassed eight multi-hit games, including a three-game stretch where he went 7-for-9.

CALL OF A LIFETIME

Deylen Miley may not have been selected in the 2021 Major League Baseball draft, but the disappointment didn't last long. Almost immediately after the 20-round draft ended, the Houston Astros reached out to express their interest in the former Bellarmine University right-hander, who signed as a free agent with the organization. Last season, Miley led the ASUN in strikeouts in the regular season and finished with 86 over 64.2 innings pitched. He was the Knights' Friday starter for much of the season.

GETTING HIS FILL

Nick Eversole became the first full-time assistant coach in the history of the Bellarmine baseball program when the promotion was announced in early August. Eversole helped guide the Knights into Division I and the ASUN in 2021. Prior to Bellarmine's rise to D1, he helped lead the Knights to the Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament title in 2019 along with a program-record three straight NCAA II Tournaments from 2017-19. The 2018 squad amassed a program-record 38 wins, the second of three straight campaigns with at least 34 victories. The Knights have produced four All-Americans (Matt Higgins, Chris Gambert, Alex Phillips, Zac Wiley), garnered 17 All-Region accolades and piled up 29 All-Conference laurels with Eversole on board the staff.

NEW TO THE CREW

This season, Chris Dominguez rejoined the coaching staff and Cody Williams has come aboard. Dominguez was an assistant coach at Bellarmine in the pandemic-shortened 2020 season. In 2021, he was an assistant coach at the University of Miami, where he helped lead the Hurricanes to the NCAA Tournament. Dominguez was a two-time All-American and two-time BIG EAST Player of the Year while at the University of Louisville. He carved out an 11-year career (2009-19) in the professional ranks, including stints with the San Francisco Giants and Cincinnati Reds. Williams previously was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Mount Mercy University in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for five seasons from 2016-21. The NAIA Mustangs posted a winning record in each of his last four seasons.

LOOK AT THE LEAGUE

In the ASUN preseason coaches' poll, Liberty earned nine first-place votes and 140 total points in being tabbed as the favorite to win the conference title. The Flames went 19-2 in league play last season — one loss came at the hands of Bellarmine — and 41-16 overall while punching an at-large ticket to the NCAA Tournament. FGCU, which posted the second-best overall (28-20) and conference (12-6) records in the league last season, was picked to finish second with three top votes and 128 points. Liberty and FGCU combined to receive all 12 first-place votes. Stetson (107 points) was picked to finish third followed by new member Jacksonville State (fourth, 102), Kennesaw State (fifth, 94), North Florida (sixth, 84) and Jacksonville (seventh, 78), the latter of which made an improbable run to an ASUN Tournament title last season after recording the least amount of conference wins (three) in the league during the regular season. New members Eastern Kentucky (57) and Central Arkansas (57) tied for eighth in the poll and Lipscomb (49) was 10th followed by Bellarmine (11th, 21) and North Alabama (12th, 19).

PRESEASON PROPS

Bellarmine's Matt Higgins was among the three outfielders voted to the ASUN Preseason All-Conference Team. FGCU and Liberty tied for the most players on the team with four apiece. Representing the Eagles were Brian Ellis in the outfield, Joe Kinker at first base, Luis Rodriguez at second base and Bobby Head at third base. The Flames had Trey Gibson acknowledged as a starting pitcher, Gray Betts at catcher, Aaron Anderson in the outfield and Brady Gulakowski at designated hitter. Kennesaw State had two honorees, as Cash Young tied Head at third base and Tyler Simon was cited at shortstop. Central Arkansas' Tyler Cleveland and Stetson's Nick Durgin were also recognized as starting pitchers, while Eastern Kentucky's Will Brian was lauded as the relief pitcher. Liberty swept the individual ASUN awards, as Anderson was tabbed Preseason Player of the Year, Gibson was voted Preseason Pitcher of the Year and outfielder Jaylen Guy was selected Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

EAST AND WEST

The ASUN will be split into East and West Divisions, with the regular-season conference contests comprised of two three-game series — home and away — against teams within the division. Bellarmine is a member of the West and is joined in the division by Central Arkansas, Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State, Lipscomb and North Alabama.

HEAD COACH LARRY OWENS

Larry Owens was hired as Bellarmine University's head baseball coach in September of 2013.

Owens will enter his ninth season at Bellarmine in 2022.

The 2021 season marked Bellarmine's first in Division I and the ASUN Conference. The Knights earned three All-Conference awards, and following the year, senior right-hander Deylen Miley signed a free-agent deal with the Houston Astros.

Prior to Bellarmine's rise to DI, Owens built a 188-146 overall record and 104-82 record in the Great Lakes Valley Conference in seven seasons in DII. He led the Knights to the GLVC Tournament title in 2019 along with three straight NCAA II Tournaments from 2017-19. His 2018 squad amassed a program-record 38 wins, the second of three straight campaigns with at least 34 victories. The Knights produced five DII All-Americans (Austin Crutcher, Matt Higgins, Chris Gambert, Alex Phillips, Zac Wiley), two GLVC Player of the Year recipients (Crutcher, Wiley) and two GLVC Pitcher of the Year recipients (Hunter Spencer, Eddie Mathis) under Owens' stewardship along with two Major League Baseball draft picks (Michael Messier and Brandon Pfaadt).

The 2020 season marked Bellarmine's final year in DII, and it was canceled in the early going due to the coronavirus. Ranked No. 17 in the preseason by the NCBWA, the Knights were 10-4 overall and 3-0 in the GLVC after sweeping perennial conference power Quincy when the remainder of the season was called off. Junior right-hander Brandon Pfaadt became the second-highest MLB draft selection in program history after being picked in the fifth round by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

In 2019, Owens led Bellarmine to a GLVC Tournament title and a program-record third straight appearance in the NCAA II Tournament. The Knights also set new program records by winning at least 34 games for the third consecutive season and boasting four All-Americans in Wiley, Higgins, Gambert and Phillips. Wiley was named GLVC Player of the Year and selected as the Midwest Region Player of the Year by both the Division II Conference Commissioners Association and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. Bellarmine finished 34-21 overall and led the GLVC in a slew of offensive categories including batting average (.322) and home runs (77).

The 2018 campaign was a historic one. Bellarmine won a program-record 38 games, tying and breaking the record on the same day at the GLVC Tournament. The Knights received their second straight at-large bid to the NCAA II Tournament and earned the two-seed in the NCAA Midwest Regional. In the regional, they recorded a 6-1 victory over No. 16 Northwood. During the regular season, Bellarmine rose to No. 17 in the national rankings. The Knights finished second in the GLVC East with a 16-8 conference mark and had a program-record nine All-GLVC selections while Mathis was named GLVC Pitcher of the Year.

In 2017, Owens led Bellarmine to its first berth in the NCAA II Tournament since 2013. The Knights received their first at-large bid into the Big Dance since 2008. Bellarmine's 34 wins were only two shy of the program record. The Knights finished second in the GLVC East with a 20-8 record and secured a third bid in a row in the GLVC Tournament.

Bellarmine earned its second straight trip to the GLVC Tournament in 2016. The Knights finished 15-11 in league play and captured third place in the GLVC East. In the conference tourney, Bellarmine defeated No. 18 Quincy in the opening round. Under Owens' tutelage, Spencer was named GLVC Pitcher of the Year one season after throwing 9.0 total innings.

In 2015, Owens led Bellarmine to 28 victories overall, a nine-game improvement over 2014. He guided the Knights to 20 wins in the GLVC, which was twice as many as BU recorded the previous season. Bellarmine earned a trip to the conference tournament after finishing third in the GLVC East. Crutcher was named the GLVC Player of the Year and an honorable-mention All-American by the NCBWA.

Owens joined the Knights after working the previous seven seasons as a minor league pitching coach in the Chicago White Sox organization with the Kannapolis Intimidators (2007-10) of the South Atlantic League and the Bristol Sox (2011-13) of the Appalachian League.

Prior to his time with the White Sox, Owens was an area scout for the Boston Red Sox (2006) and a pitching coach for the Independent Professional Baseball League's San Diego Surf Dawgs (2005), who captured a Golden League championship and were managed by former Major League All-Star catcher Terry Kennedy. Owens was part of a team that included future MLB Hall of Fame outfielder Rickey Henderson, who is often considered the best leadoff man in history and played that summer for the Surf Dawgs.

Prior to his nine years of professional baseball service, Owens coached college baseball for 11 years, nine of which were spent at Division-I institutions. He worked at the University of Memphis from 2001-04 under former big leaguer Dave Anderson, who also managed in the minor leagues and coached in the majors. Owens spent two seasons each as the pitching coach at the University of Louisville (1996-97) and Austin Peay State University (1999-00). He also had coaching tenures at Missouri State University and Wabash Valley College.

Owens is no stranger to the summer circuit of college baseball either. He was the pitching coach for the Falmouth Commodores (1997) of the prestigious Cape Cod Baseball League and, before that, spent three summers with the Rochester Honkers serving as pitching coach in 1994-95 and manager in 1996.

Owens' prep career was played in close proximity to Bellarmine at Jeffersonville High School in Indiana. Playing for Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame Coach Don Poole, Owens earned honorable-mention All-State status as a senior and played in the annual North/South all-star game series.

Following his high school career, Owens played at Bellarmine for one season and was teammates with current Bellarmine Director of Athletics Scott Wiegandt. He then transferred to Vincennes University, where he received his associate's degree and played for Indiana Baseball Hall of Fame Coach Jerry Blemker.

Owens played his final two seasons of college baseball at Armstrong Atlantic State University and was a member of the 1989 team that advanced to the Division II World Series.
