KNIGHTS INSIGHTS

- Bellarmine and Louisville are meeting for the fifth time in the Knights' three-year Division-I era. The Cardinals hold a 4-0 lead. The teams are set to meet again May 2 at Jim Patterson Stadium.
- Chris Dominguez will be leading Bellarmine against his alma mater for the first time as head coach of the Knights. Dominguez was one of the most accomplished players in Louisville program history after becoming a two-time All-American and two-time Big East Player of the Year in a career that spanned from 2006-09.
- In November, Dominguez was inducted into U of L's Athletics Hall of Fame. The former third baseman still tops the program list for career RBI (218) while ranking second in both home runs (61) and runs scored (196) and tying for ninth in hits (252).
- Bellarmine Assistant Coach Adam Elliott was also a standout at Louisville, closing out an exemplary five-year career with the Cardinals in 2021. A left-handed reliever, Elliott made 87 appearances on the mound over his tenure while recording an 11-5 record, six saves, a 2.95 ERA and 138 strikeouts in 134.1 innings pitched.
- Dominguez has Bellarmine within one win of matching its season total from 2022 (11). The Knights are also just three conference wins shy of matching their league total from last season (eight).

- Bellarmine is coming off perhaps its most impressive ASUN series win in its three seasons in the conference after the Knights captured two of three games from Stetson last weekend. The Hatters entered as the ASUN co-leader, but BU bridged 6-3 and 11-6 victories around a 14-3 loss to secure the series.
- In the Stetson series, Peyton Back batted .727 over the three games. The senior infielder went 8-for-11 with two doubles, three RBI and three runs scored. Back went 7-for-8 over the final two games, following a 3-for-3 effort with a 4-for-5 outing. In the 11-6 series-clinching win, he gave the Knights the lead for good with a two-run single.
- Luke Scales is on a five-game hitting streak. The freshman shortstop went 4-for-8 with a double, three RBI and three runs scored in the Stetson series.
- Bellarmine homered twice in the Stetson series, and both long balls were provided by Colin Bertsch. The senior third baseman/DH also doubled while going 5-for-12 overall with six RBI.
- Senior center fielder Will Aubel hit .500 in the Stetson series after going 5-for-10. He's stolen nine bases in 10 attempts this season.
- Junior outfielder Reed Blaszczyk is tied for 13th in the ASUN with eight home runs, and he's tied for 11th with nine doubles.

RECOGNIZABLE ROTATION

All three of Bellarmine's weekend starters from last season have returned. Senior right-hander Nolan Pender amassed 14 starts in 2022, junior left-hander Gavin Braunecker accumulated 13 and senior right-hander Drew Buhr notched 10. Pender had team highs in innings pitched (86.0) and strikeouts (62). Braunecker was right behind him (79.2 innings, 61 Ks) followed by Buhr (62.0, 53). At the end of the regular season, Pender ranked second in the ASUN in innings pitched and Braunecker was third.

MOVING ON AFTER MAINSTAYS MOVE OUT

Bellarmino graduated three players in outfielders Matt Higgins and Jacob Mulcahy and shortstop Clayton Mehlbauer who spent five years each with the program and combined for 541 games played and 527 starts. The trio combined for 644 hits, 412 runs scored, 391 RBI, 120 doubles and 80 home runs in their careers. The 2022 ASUN Player of the Year and an All-American, Higgins became the program's home run king (45 career HRs) while Mulcahy tied for 15th all-time (18) and Mehlbauer was only one long ball shy of tying for 15th with 17.

NEW LOOK OUTFIELD

In addition to Higgins and Mulcahy, who started in left and right field, respectively, Bellarmine graduated starting center fielder Jack Ockerman, meaning any starting lineup the Knights utilize this season will have a completely different look in the outfield. Higgins and Mulcahy were cornerstones since their debut seasons with Bellarmine, while Ockerman delivered his best season in a Knights uniform as a senior after batting .275 with 12 steals and 28 runs scored in 53 games while playing error-free in the outfield.

FAMILIAR UP FRONT

While Bellarmine will feature a revamped outfield, the Knights do have significant experience returning in the infield and at catcher. Junior first baseman Davis Crane, a 2021 ASUN All-Freshman Team selection, logged 71 starts over his first two seasons. Senior infielders Peyton Back and Colin Bertsch amassed 39 and 32 starts, respectively, last season while senior catcher Gabe Bratetic registered 37 starts. Senior middle infielder Brett Pfaadt tallied 19 starts last year while junior catcher Ashton Smith made 21 starts.

NEXT LEVEL

Following the 2022 MLB Draft, Higgins signed as an undrafted free agent with the San Francisco Giants. It was the second straight season in which Bellarmine had an undrafted player sign with an MLB organization as right-handed pitcher Deylen Miley inked a free-agent deal with the Houston Astros after the 2021 draft. Although not all immediately following their final season at BU, the Knights have had five undrafted MLB free-agent signings since 2013. Right-handed pitcher Kyle Grana, in 2013, and left-hander Austin Warner, in 2017, both signed with the St. Louis Cardinals, while outfielder Austin Crutcher inked a deal with the Chicago White Sox in 2016.

PEN PALS

Like its starting pitching, Bellarmine returns a considerable amount of experience in its bullpen. Senior right-hander Devin Ecklar led the Knights last season in relief appearances with 20 and senior right-hander Ryan Johnson was next with 19 relief outings. Fifteen appearances apiece of senior right-hander Matt Craven and senior left-hander Steven Thom came out of the pen last season while sophomore right-handers Casey Sorg and Arren Hash logged 14 and 12 outings in relief, respectively.

METEORIC RISE

Brandon Pfaadt was Bellarmine's most recent player (of 10 total) picked in the MLB Draft, as the right-handed pitcher was selected in the fifth round in 2020 by the Arizona Diamondbacks. He's been a rising star in the organization. Last season, the Diamondbacks recognized him as their Minor League Pitcher of the Year after his 218 strikeouts between Double-A Amarillo and Triple-A Reno were the most in the minors since Brandon Claussen had 220 in 2001. Pfaadt went 11-7 with a 3.83 ERA and only 33 walks in 167 innings.

RETURN OF ROSS

Ross Spurgeon rejoined Bellarmine's coaching staff as the team's pitching coach/recruiting coordinator after previously working as an assistant in 2021. Spurgeon served as the pitching coach/recruiting coordinator in 2022 at Volunteer State (Tenn.) Community College and helped guide the Pioneers to a 27-21 record. Prior to his first stint with the Knights, he helped Division II King University engineer a worst-to-first turnaround, as the Tornado went 15-9 — winning one more game than the previous year in only half a season — and was tied for first place in Conference Carolinas before the pandemic forced the cancellation of the remainder of the year.

NEIGHBORLY THING TO DO

Adam Elliott has joined the coaching staff this season, and his journey to the Knights from his previous stop was essentially a modest bike ride away. Elliott was a graduate assistant at alma mater Louisville in 2022, preceding that stint with a five-year playing career for the Cardinals. Last season, Elliott helped nearby U of L to a 42-21-1 finish and berth in the NCAA Tournament as the Cards advanced to the NCAA Super Regionals after hosting and winning their NCAA Regional. As a player, Elliott was a left-handed reliever who made 87 appearances while recording an 11-5 record, six saves and a 2.95 ERA with 138 strikeouts in 134.1 innings pitched during his tenure.

PREDICTIONS ARE IN

With 10 first-place votes and 191 total points, Liberty was chosen as the favorite to win the ASUN in the league's preseason coaches' poll. Kennesaw State (second, 173, two top votes), FGCU (third, 161, two), Lipscomb (fourth, 142) and Eastern Kentucky (fifth, 134) rounded out the top 5, while Stetson (sixth, 117), Jacksonville State (seventh, 116), Jacksonville (eighth, 114), North Florida (ninth, 90) and Central Arkansas (10th, 84) were 6-10. Austin Peay (11th, 60), North Alabama (12th, 34), Bellarmine (13th, 29) and Queens (14th, 25) concluded the poll at 11-14. FGCU's Alejandro Figueredo was selected as the ASUN Preseason Player of the Year, Liberty's Garrett Horn was chosen as the Preseason Pitcher of the Year and Lipscomb's Caleb Ketchup was tabbed as the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Eastern Kentucky and Lipscomb were the West Division co-champions last season, while Liberty and Kennesaw State were co-champs of the East. Kennesaw State captured the ASUN Tournament title. Liberty joined the Owls in earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

ONE FOR ALL

The ASUN will no longer utilize divisions. The conference standings will reflect 14 teams without any separation. Previously, the ASUN was divided into two six-team divisions (East and West). Last year, conference teams played only within their division in the regular season with three-game home-and-home series. This season, ASUN teams will play 10 different opponents in three-game series. The conference expanded from 12 to 14 teams with the additions of Austin Peay State and Queens.

HEAD COACH CHRIS DOMINGUEZ

Chris Dominguez was promoted to head coach of the Bellarmine University baseball team in June of 2022.

The 2023 campaign will mark Dominguez's first as the Knights skipper after he was an assistant coach at Bellarmine in 2022 and 2020, bookending those seasons around a one-year stint as an assistant at the University of Miami. Dominguez is the 19th head coach in Bellarmine program history.

With Dominguez on board as an assistant in 2020, Bellarmine's final year in Division II before transitioning to Division I and the ASUN Conference, the Knights were ranked No. 17 in the preseason by the NCBWA and finished 10-4 overall and 3-0 in the Great Lakes Valley Conference when the remainder of the season was canceled due to the pandemic. Junior right-hander Brandon Pfaadt became the second-highest MLB draft selection in program history after being picked in the fifth round by the Arizona Diamondbacks.

Following a season at Miami, Dominguez was back at Bellarmine as an assistant in 2022, a campaign highlighted by Matt Higgins becoming the program's first-ever ASUN Player of the Year and its first-ever D1 All-American.

In 2021, Dominguez helped lead Miami to the NCAA Tournament. He was the infield coach and assisted with hitters as the Hurricanes went 33-21 overall and 20-15 in the ACC. Catcher Adrian Del Castillo (second round, Arizona Diamondbacks), right-handed pitcher Jake Smith (sixth round, LA Angels) and catcher Anthony Vilar (15th round, San Diego Padres) were selected in the 2021 MLB Draft.

Following a standout career at the University of Louisville in which he was a two-time All-American, Dominguez carved out an 11-year career (2009-19) in the professional ranks, including stints with the San Francisco Giants and Cincinnati Reds. The Miami native was a member of the Louisville Bats, the Triple-A affiliate of the Reds, for much of 2015.

In his pro career, Dominguez played in over 1,000 minor league games and totaled 134 home runs, 210 doubles, 20 triples and 592

RBIs while hitting .263. In 2010, his first full season in pro ball, he cranked 21 homers, 32 doubles and four triples while amassing 101 RBIs with the Augusta GreenJackets, the Class-A affiliate of the Giants. In 2014, Dominguez hit 21 homers and stole 21 bases for the Fresno Grizzlies, the Triple-A affiliate of the Washington Nationals.

Dominguez had a phenomenal collegiate career at Louisville. As a redshirt junior in 2009, his final season with the Cardinals, the third baseman was named Big East Player of the Year and a first-team All-American by Baseball America, Louisville Slugger and PING! Baseball after batting .345 with 25 home runs and 82 RBIs.

Dominguez was the Big East co-Player of the Year in 2008 and earned third-team All-America plaudits from Baseball America, Louisville Slugger, PING! Baseball and the NCBWA after hitting .365 with 21 homers and 75 RBIs. That followed a 2007 campaign in which the infielder was named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by PING! Baseball after swatting 15 home runs and 19 doubles while driving in 61 runs.

Dominguez played a central role in Louisville making its first-ever appearance in the College World Series in 2007. He was named MVP of the Columbia Regional after batting .421 and followed by launching three homers in the CWS.

Dominguez was an MLB draft pick on three separate occasions. He was chosen by the Texas Rangers in the 17th round in 2005 out of Gulliver Prep (Fla.) High School, by the Colorado Rockies in the fifth round in 2008 after his redshirt sophomore season at Louisville and by the San Francisco Giants in the third round in 2009 after his last season with the Cardinals.

Dominguez has a wife, Shannon, and son, Patrick.
