Coaching History

The Carthage men's soccer program traces its beginnings to 1967 when German professor Guenter Pfister launched an unofficial Carthage club team that played on campus, near the site of today's football practice field. Pfister left the faculty in 1968, and Randy Sisulak, a player on the team, guided the squad for the next three seasons. Sisulak would later become the father of Erich Sisulak, who played on the 2000-03 Carthage men's teams. One of the highlights of that early period was a 1-1 tie with Northwestern University. Masato Mizuno, '70, a former member of the Carthage Board of Trustees, was a member of that first team.

Carthage granted official club status to the team in 1971, with mathematics professor Harvey Glaess taking over coaching responsibilities. The program first gained varsity status in 1981 with Glaess remaining as head coach. John Bocwinski, a member of the U.S. Olympic soccer team in 1972, took over from Glaess beginning in 1984. From 1981-83, the team played in the Wisconsin Collegiate Soccer Conference, along with Gateway Technical Institute, Holy Redeemer College, Maranatha Baptist Bible College, Milwaukee Area Technical College, Northwestern College and the Waukesha County Technical Institute. Carthage's 1982 team was actually a coed squad, as Lori Vogt, Lori Bowie and Sherri Berg were members of the team.

Varsity play continued through the 1986 season before reverting to club status in the late 1980s and early 1990s. The Carthage teams in the late-1980s played their home contests on the Harvey Glaess Memorial Soccer Field on the Carthage campus. That facility was located in the left-field portion of the Carthage Baseball Field. The baseball facility was fenced in during the early 1990s, putting an end to the soccer facility.

Carthage College Athletic Hall Of Fame

Mike Domin, 1995-97

A 2007 inductee from Naperville, Ill., Mike Domin lettered three times in soccer (1995-97) after attending Rockford College his freshman year. He was named National Soccer Coaches Association of America second-team All-Midwest Regional, as well as All-College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin all three years and was named CCIW "Co-Player of the Year" in 1997. Domin is Carthage's career leader in total points (120) and assists (40), while ranked second in goals scored (40). He set Carthage season records in 1996 for total points (45) and assists (21).

Wisconsin Soccer Association Hall of Fame

Paul Smith, 1981

Paul Smith, a member of Carthage's inaugural men's soccer team in 1981, was inducted into the Wisconsin Soccer Association Hall of Fame in March 2010. A native of Racine, Wis., Smith was co-captain and team MVP in 1981 and set a Carthage game record that season, which still stands, by collecting four assists against Milton College on Oct. 21. He went on to play for the Racine Soccer Club for 20 years and served as a member of the board of directors of the Wisconsin Soccer Association from 1994 to 2008. He was elected president of the Wisconsin Soccer Association from 2000 to 2003. A resident of Wauwatosa, Smith is employed as outdoors editor of the Milwaukee Journal-Sentinel.
