HONORS AND AWARDS

Tom Hartog, '78, won CCIW titles in the 100 backstroke four-straight years from 1975 to 1978, won CCIW titles in the 200 backstroke three-consecutive years from 1975 to 1977, and he finished second in the 200 backstroke at the 1978 CCIW meet. He was a two-time honorable mention NCAA Division III All-American, finishing 11th in the 100 backstroke at both the 1977 and 1978 NCAA Division III Swimming and Diving Championships. Hartog was named a winner of an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1978 and was inducted into the Carthage Athletic Hall of Fame in 2000.

Spencer Rice, Carthage's first-ever triple winner at the CCIW Swimming and Diving Championships, took first place in the 1998 50 freestyle, the 100 freestyle and the 100 butterfly. Rice shared 1998 MVP honors with Wheaton (Ill.)'s Eric Baldwin.

Judson Koenitzer, '78, was a two-event CCIW champion in both 1975 and 1977, winning both the 50 and the 100 freestyle. He finished second in both events in 1976 and second in the 50 freestyle in 1978. Koenitzer was named an NCAA Division III All-American in 1978 with a second-place finish in the 50 freestyle at the NCAA Division III Swimming and Diving Championships at Grinnell College. The year before, Koenitzer was named honorable mention NCAA Division III All-American with a ninth-place finish in the 100 freestyle. Koenitzer was inducted into the Carthage Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

Nathaniel Chapman, '06, earned College Swimming Coaches Association of America All-America honors in eight events, including the 200 backstroke in 2004; the 100 backstroke, the 200 backstroke and the 400 individual medley in 2005; the 200 backstroke, the 400 medley relay, the 400 freestyle relay and the 800 freestyle relay in 2006. He was named the "most valuable performer" at the 2005 CCIW Men's Swimming Championship with first-place finishes in the 100 backstroke, the 200 backstroke, the 400 individual medley, the 200 medley relay and the 400 medley relay. Over the course of his career, Chapman earned all-conference citations in 15 events, including 10 championships. He was named College Swimming Coaches Association of America All-Academic Individual four-straight years, CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine District 5 all-academic in 2005 and 2006 and CCIW "Jack Swartz All-Academic" in 2006.

Henry Somers, '06, earned College Swimming Coaches Association of America All-America honors in both the 200 freestyle relay and the 400 freestyle relay in 2006. He earned All-CCIW honors in 11 events over the course of his career, including eight championships.

A seven-time College Swimming Coaches Association of America All-American (four individual, three relays), Zach Jole, '07, also won 11 CCIW titles over his career (five individual, six relays) and was named the CCIW Men's Swimming "Most Valuable Swimmer." When he graduated in 2007, Jole was listed as the 11th-fastest 200 breaststroker in NCAA Division III history.

Stephen Schranck, 2009, was named a College Swimming Coaches Association All-American on five occasions and All-CCIW 10 times between 2006 and 2009. In 2007, Schranck finished fourth in the 200 breaststroke, seventh in the 400 individual medley and 11th in the 100 breaststroke at the NCAA Division III Men's Swimming Championship. He took ninth place nationally in the 200 breaststroke in 2008 and seventh place in the same event in 2009. At the CCIW Swimming Championship, he won the 400 individual medley in 2006, the 100 breaststroke, the 200 breaststroke and the 200 individual medley in 2008, and both the 100 breaststroke and the 200 breaststroke in 2009.

Kyle Drake, Carthage's most-decorated swimmer, was named College Swimming Coaches Association of America All-American four-straight years, earning honorable mention honors in the 200 backstroke in 2008, 2010 and 2011, as well as the 200 backstroke and 400 individual medley in 2012. He was named the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin "Men's Swimmer of the Year" in both 2011 and 2012 and the MVP of the 2012 conference championship. Drake earned All-CCIW honors in 15 events over his four-year career (2008, 2010-12), including 10 individual conference championships.
