Gene Fitzgerald is the program's winningest coach with 214 victories over 18 seasons. Fitzgerald led the Scots to two national tournament appearances in 1985 and 1987.

Kyle Taylor guided the men's basketball program to two winning seasons in his seven years on the job. Taylor's 2015-16 team captured the USA South Tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Division III Tournament for the first time in program history. In that 2015-16 season, Taylor's squad went 18-10 overall, setting a then-program record for winning percentage.

Neal Young spent five seasons on the sidelines leading the Scots and set a program record with a .627 winning percentage (79-47) in those years. Young's teams won three USA South regular season titles and had three 18-win seasons. His final team (2021-22) went 18-7 to set a program record for season winning percentage (.720). He was the USA South Coach of the Year in 2018-19.

Billy White played from 1983-87 and scored 1,700 career points (seventh in program history) and is the program's leader in career rebounds with 1,082. He was a honorable mention NCCAA All-American in 1987 as he helped lead the Scots to 22 victories.

History was made in the 2015-16 men's basketball season. Little was thought of the Scots in the beginning of the year as Covenant was picked to finish 10th in the USA South in the league's preseason poll. But with 10 returners, two key transfers and a freshman, Covenant had one of its best seasons ever.

The Scots nearly knocked off Division I foe Liberty in an exhibition game and then started the year 3-0. After suffering through a tough December and early January, Covenant won five straight conference games, including a victory at Maryville. The Scots continued much of that momentum into the month of February as they won the final two regular season games of the year before entering the USA South Tournament as a No. 2 seed.

Spearheaded by the play of senior TJ Cox, sophomore Berto Dryden, freshman Bailey Spragg and others, the Scots advanced to the tournament championship game. Facing LaGrange, a team that had beaten Covenant twice already during the year, Covenant built a 19-point second half lead. But LaGrange put together a rally and tied the game in the final seconds to send the contest into overtime. Covenant regrouped in the extra session and ran away with the game for a 101-92 victory and the tournament title.

Cox was named tournament MVP after averaging 16.7 points and 5.3 assists per game. Dryden and Spragg were also named to the All-Tournament team.

It was the first conference title since 1964 and the first conference tournament title ever in the program's history.

The USA South title gave Covenant an automatic berth to its first NCAA Division III Tournament. The Scots drew perennial power Emory, who defeated Covenant earlier in the year, in the first round. Having to play on Emory's home court in Atlanta, Ga., Covenant struggled in the first 15 minutes of the game and would not be able to rally in a 76-51 loss.

Covenant finished the year with an 18-10 overall record (.643 winning percentage) and was 10-4 in the USA South. The 18 wins are tied for fourth-most in program history and the .643 winning percentage set a then-program record.

TJ Cox was named USA South Tournament MVP after averaging 16.7 points and 5.3 assists to lead the Scots to a championship.

NCAA TOURNAMENT RESULTS:

1985 NCCAA NATIONAL TOURNAMENT - CHATTANOOGA, TENN. - MCGILVRAY GYMNASIUM

Under head coach Gene Fitzgerald, the Scots basketball team produced the best season in program history to date in the 1984-85 season. The Scots finished the year with a 17-14 overall record and advanced to the NCCAA National Tournament for the first time.

The team was led by second team NCCAA All-American Eddie Salter and All-District honorees Billy White and Jeff Parks. Fitzgerald, in his eighth season, was named District Coach of the Year.

The Scots captured the NCCAA District 5 championship with a 100-64 rout of Clearwater Christian in the title game that earned Covenant a berth into the national tournament.

Earning the fifth seed in the national tournament, which was played at Tennessee Temple's McGilvray Gymnasium, Covenant faced off against fourth-seeded Taylor University. The Scots fell behind early before making a run in the second half, but the Trojans were victorious 68-55.

RESULTS:

L, 55-68 vs. (4) Taylor (Ind.)

1987 NCCAA NATIONAL TOURNAMENT - CHATTANOOGA, TENN. - MCGILVRAY GYMNASIUM

With a pair of NCCAA All-Americans and a host of other key contributors, the 1986-87 Covenant teams set a program-record with a 22-13 overall record and a second appearance in the NCCAA National Tournament. Covenant advanced to the NCCAAs with a District 5 title after defeating Tennessee Temple and Palm Beach Atlantic.

At nationals, again held at Temple's McGilvray Gymnasium, the Scots pulled the upset over top-seeded George Fox 75-73 in the first round on a Wayne Weaver buzzer-beating jumper. Covenant trailed 62-56 with seven minutes left in the contest, but All-American Robert Cummings took over and brought the Scots back. Weaver grabbed a rebound with just seconds left and drove to the free throw line and shot the game-winner. Cummings had 25 points in the win.

Covenant again fell behind in the semifinal round to Eastern, but could not complete the comeback falling 94-76. The Scots then were defeated by Bethel (Ind.) in the consolation round 86-75.

With its loss, Covenant finished fourth in the tournament, its highest finish ever. Cummings earned his second of three straight NCCAA All-America honors, while Billy White was a honorable mention selection. Cummings was also named to the All-Tournament team.

RESULTS:

The current home of the Scots, Barnes PE Center opened in 1972. In this early (undated) photo of the facility, some of the same aspects in the original gym can still be seen today. The original floor in the gym was not wood and the original bleachers remained in use until 2013.
