Heather Taylor held the head coaching position for eight years and guided the team to 124 wins, including two straight 20-win seasons. She was named GSAC and NCCAA Mid-East Region Coach of the Year in 2012 after leading the Scots to a conference regular season title.

Joanna Ehman, a 2010 Covenant alumna, was the head coach for nine seasons (2013-21) and guided the program to two NCAA Tournaments, two USA South Tournament titles, and four USA South regular season divisional championships. She is the winningest coach in program history in both wins (168) and winning percentage (.618). In 2017, Ehman became the quickest in program history to reach 100 career coaching wins.

2023 CCS REGULAR SEASON AND TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS - NCAA D3 TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

For the second year in a row, Covenant Volleyball won the CCS Regular Season and Conference Tournament Championship. The Scots also advanced to the NCAA Division III National Tournament for the second time in as many seasons.

Covenant broke the school record for wins in a season with a 35-3 record and a perfect 16-0 record in CCS play.

The Scots won their first five games of the year which included a win over rival Sewanee, before falling in five sets to No. 16 Transylvania on the road.

This would be the only loss Covenant had for over 40 days. Covenant broke a school-record with 20 consecutive wins as it went into conference play. During conference play, the Scots lost just three sets the entire season.

On October 20th, Covenant welcomed No. 5 Emory to Barnes Gym for Pink Night. In front of a great home crowd, Covenant defeated the Eagles 3-1 for its highest ranked win in school history. This was also Covenant’s first win over Emory since 1991.

As a result of its strong season up to this point, the Scots broke into the AVCA National Rankings for the first time in school history at No. 25. As the season progressed, Covenant moved up to No. 24.

As the No. 1 seed in the CCS Tournament, Covenant hosted all three rounds and didn’t miss a beat. The Scots swept, Agnes Scott, Berea, and Maryville to earn the trophy.

The NCAA Tournament selection committee sent the Scots to Berry for the NCAA Regionals, where they were paired with Mount St. Joseph in the first round. Covenant came out shaky, dropping the first set 25-17 before responding with three-straight set wins, all by at least five points to earn Covenant’s second ever NCAA Tournament win in school history.

The second round paired up Covenant with Emory for a rematch of the game earlier in the year on Lookout Mountain. The round two matchup lived up to the hype, but it was the Eagles who came out on top in five sets to end Covenant’s magical season.

Covenant had five All-Conference players: Rachel Bartlett (1st team), Emma Kalbfleisch (1st team), Hannah Haerer (1st team), Kyla Bailey (1st team), and Kelsey Carman (2nd team). Kalbfleisch was picked as the CCS Player of the Year while Head Coach Stephanie Wharton was named Coach of the Year. Kalbfleisch also picked up AVCA All-Region honors and AVCA All-American Honorable Mention honors.

2022 CCS REGULAR SEASON AND TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS - NCAA D3 TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

For the first time since 2017, Women's Volleyball returned to the NCAA Tournament after yet another 20-win season. Ending with a 14-2 conference record and an overall record of 21-12, the Scots had an outstanding year under new head coach, Stephanie Wharton.

The Scots started the season off strong with a sweep at home, but fell to several tough opponents shortly after— early losses coming from teams such as Emory, Berry, Ohio Northern, Birmingham Southern, and Transylvania, all of whom were nationally-ranked at one or more points throughout the 2022 season.

Though the pre-conference schedule was challenging, the Scots were able to come together and go on a 12-win run as conference play began. Suffering a conference loss early on sparked the win-streak as Volleyball then went on to defeat Maryville on the road. This was the first victory over the Maryville Scots since 2018.

However, when Covenant hosted Maryville just a few weeks later, the Scots were unable to claim their second victory of the season over their conference foe. After sweeping the last two CCS regular season matches, the valent effort by Maryville did not prove to be enough and Covenant then took the regular season title.

Seeded first heading into the tournament presented the Scots with the potential opportunity to host the CCS volleyball championship. Covenant won handily in quarterfinals and the tournament was set for Lookout Mountain.

With the 3-1 win over the Berea Mountaineers, Covenant earned their spot in the finals. The championship opponent would be none other than the team that gave the Scots their first conference loss so early on in the season: Huntingdon.

Scots Volleyball handled business and swept the Hawks for the championship title. With the first ever CCS Championship under their belt, Covenant was hopeful for a pool B bid into the NCAA Tournament as there was no automatic bid.

And that is just what they got. The Scots were matched up against a familiar opponent, the Berry Vikings, for the first round of NCAA Regionals hosted at Transylvania. Covenant traveled to Kentucky in hopes for a different outcome than when the two teams previously faced off in September, but in the end, the Scots just could not overcome the Vikings.

The Scots had a memorable and successful season under first-year head coach Stephanie Wharton. With an NCCAA Second Team All-American, two major conference award winners (Player of the Year and Coach of the Year), four All-Conference honorees, three named to the All-Championship Team, and an NCAA appearance, Covenant Volleyball accomplished much over the course of the season.

2017 USA SOUTH CHAMPIONS • NCAA DIVISION III TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE (SECOND ROUND)

The 2017 Covenant volleyball team will go down in program history as one of the best. With a bevy of experienced returners, including three seniors, the squad began the season with high expectations.

After starting the year 3-6 overall, Covenant won 22 of its final 24 matches including a program record 17 straight. In the process, the Scots captured a third straight USA South West Division title and were regionally-ranked by the NCAA for the first time in program history.

With the division crown, Covenant was once again a No. 1 seed in the USA South Tournament. After defeating Huntingdon in the quarterfinals, the Scots took down William Peace in the semifinals before facing top overall seed, and host, Averett for the championship.

It was in the USA South Tournament title match with Averett that this team began its lasting legacy. Covenant fell behind 2-0 in the match, but then put together one of the best comebacks ever in program history. The Scots staved off two Averett match points in the fourth set to win in extra points and then dominated the fifth set to capture the USA South crown for a second time in three years.

Senior setter Schuyler Moore earned the tournament’s MVP, while Ginny Moore and Jessica Seehorn also were selected to the All-Tournament team.

Getting the automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament was just the tip of the iceberg for the team, however. Covenant was the No. 6 seed in the Atlanta regional and faced Birmingham Southern in the first round. After taking the first set, Covenant fell behind 2-1 in the match before mounting yet another comeback. The Scots won the fourth in extra points and then took the fifth set, 15-13, on a Seehorn kill giving Covenant its first-ever win in a NCAA Tournament.

In the second round, Covenant went up 2-0 in the match against No. 2 seeded Berry, but could not hold on as the Vikings rallied and took the match in five sets. The Scots finished 25-8 overall (matching a program-record for winning percentage) and were 12-0 in USA South play and finished a perfect 11-0 at home.

Schuyler Moore was named USA South Tournament MVP after leading Covenant to a comeback in the championship match.

A lot was accomplished in the 2015 season for the Covenant volleyball team. The Scots, under third-year head coach Joanna Ehman, climbed to the top of the USA South Athletic Conference and earned the program's first bid to the NCAA Division III Tournament.

First, Covenant earned the South division title in the USA South by finishing regular season play with a 13-3 conference record. In the process, the Scots claimed the top overall seed in the USA South Tournament, which meant being able to host the entire tournament inside Barnes Physical Education Center.

The Scots took advantage of playing on their home court as they stormed to a conference tournament championship. Led by the play of senior Chelsea VanDyk and sophomores Ginny Moore and Schuyler Moore, Covenant defeated Ferrum (3-0), Meredith (3-1) and two-time conference champion Maryville (3-1) en route to a title. Ginny Moore was named tournament MVP after tallying double-doubles in all three matches, while Schuyler Moore and VanDyk each took spots on the All-Tournament team. The championship match broke the attendance record for a volleyball contest at Barnes PE Center with over 400 fans in attendance.

Covenant earned the No. 7 seed in the Mount Berry Regional of the NCAA Tournament. The Scots matched up with No. 2 seed Hendrix in the first round and fell in three sets. Hendrix later advanced to the national semifinals before being eliminated. Covenant finished the year 19-13 overall.

The team picked up several major awards as the season concluded. Ehman was named USA South Coach of the Year, while both Moores and VanDyk earned spots on the All-USA South first team. VanDyk later was named an AVCA All-America honorable mention, becoming the first All-American in program history.

Ginny Moore was named USA South Tournament MVP after recording double-doubles in all three matches to help lead Covenant to a championship.

Before the 2015 season, there was only one time that Covenant had advanced to a national tournament. That feat was accomplished in the 1984 season.

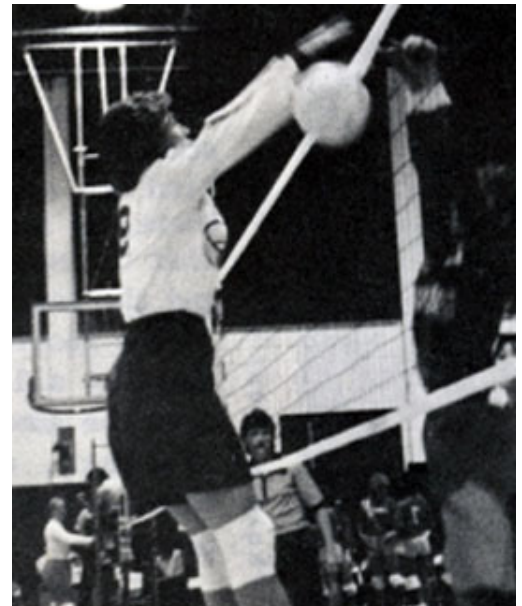

Under first-year head coach Cindy Ricks, the Lady Scots pulled off a remarkable season by setting a then program-record for wins with 26 (26-12 overall), winning the NCCAA district championship and appearing in the NCCAA national tournament.

After getting through the regular season with a 19-9 record, Covenant traveled to Bryan College for the NCCAA district tournament. The Lady Scots won six straight contests over a two-day span to capture the district crown.

The turning point of the district tournament came on the second day against host Bryan. The Lady Scots fell behind 12-2 in the opening set before rallying for a thrilling 21-19 win and would go on to win the match 2-0. Covenant won the championship with a 15-11, 15-8 victory over Central Wesleyan.

In the national tournament, held in Chicago, the Lady Scots would finish fifth in the country.

The team was led by team captain Jill Hamilton and featured strong play from Debbie Carlson, Yukari Takeda, Kim Warren, Jan George and Erika Streich. Other significant contributors included freshmen Mari Lajara (a future volleyball head coach at Covenant) and Petie Jones.

Kim Warren goes up for a block during the 1984 season.
