- 57 games - Adrian;
- 35 games - Saint Mary's;

DOMINANT DEFENSE

A dominant afternoon for the ninth-ranked Hope College women's basketball team on Jan. 10 delivered a 104-43, bounce-back win over The University of Olivet. The matchup was effectively decided within the opening minutes when the Flying Dutch set a new DeVos Fieldhouse record for fewest points allowed in a quarter with two, taking a 31-2 lead into the second quarter. The mark surpassed the previous record from 2020 during the NCAA Tournament when Hope allowed just three points against Grove City College. Offensively, it was the 41st time the Flying Dutch eclipsed 100 points in a game.

BIGGEST CROWD

A timely Terin delivered on both ends of the court at a critical juncture for the Hope College women's basketball team in the latest round of The Rivalry on Jan. 3 at DeVos Fieldhouse. Junior guard Terin Maynard's dogged defense and assertive offense helped the ninth-ranked Flying Dutch stave off a comeback-minded Calvin University midway through the third quarter on Saturday, earning a 67-56 victory in front of a season-high DeVos Fieldhouse crowd of 2,409. It was the largest NCAA Division III basketball crowd of the season, for either women's or men's basketball.

- 17 — Sydney Vis vs Wis.-La Crosse (N) (11/07/2025).

BLOCK PARTY

Senior Sydney Vis set a season high with three blocked shots at Trine University on Jan. 7.

- 3 — Sydney Vis at Trine (01/07/2026);
- 2 — Maddie Petroelje at Trine (01/07/2026);
- 2 — Leah Richards at Trine (01/07/2026);

PROGRAM MILESTONE

After a slow start, the Hope College women's basketball team upped the tempo to defeat Alma College, 85-69, on Nov. 18 in the MIAA opener at DeVos Fieldhouse, marking the 1,000th victory in program history, a mark reached in 1,355 games. The Flying Dutch were the sixth program to accomplish the feat, joining the University of Scranton (Pennsylvania), Husson University (Maine), Elizabethtown College (Pennsylvania), St. John Fisher (N.Y.), and Southern Maine University.

MIAA ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Sophomore guard Anna Richards was named MIAA Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week on Nov. 25 after helping lead the Flying Dutch to a 3-0 week featuring wins against Alma College (85-59), Carthage College (80-52) and No. 10 Illinois Wesleyan University (76-73). ## BRIAN MOREHOUSE HEAD COACH

Brian Morehouse '91 has developed the Hope College women's basketball team into one of the nation's elite programs during his tenure, guiding the Flying Dutch to national championships in 2022 and 2006 and a national runner-up finish in 2010 as well as 18 MIAA championships through the 2023-24 season.

Through the 2024-25 season, Morehouse has guided the Flying Dutch to a 745-105 record (.879) over 29 seasons.

On January 13, 2024, Morehouse became the fastest collegiate basketball coach to 700 wins with a 79-77, double-overtime victory against Alma College at DeVos Fieldhouse in his 795th game. He broke the collegiate record set by Mark Campbell of Union University, Tenn. (811 games) and the NCAA record set by Kim Mulkey of Louisiana State (813 games).

In 2022, Morehouse guided the Flying Dutch to the third national title in team history and a 32-1 overall record. Hope extended a winning streak to 61 games over three seasons — tying for the third-longest in NCAA Division III history.

In 2021, Morehouse led Hope to a 16-0 record in a season shortened by the COVID-19 pandemic. The Flying Dutch's 45-game winning streak set a school record and ranked as the eighth-longest in NCAA Division III history.

In 2020, Morehouse guided Hope to being the only undefeated team in Division III women's basketball with the No. 1 ranking. The Flying Dutch were one of 16 teams in title contention before the NCAA Tournament was canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic. It also marked the 22nd consecutive time the Flying Dutch had earned at least 20 wins during his tenure.

During the 2020 season, Morehouse reached the 600-win mark in his 690th game — faster than, at the time, any basketball coach in NCAA history at any level, women's or men's.

Morehouse has been chosen as the Division III National Coach of the Year three times by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (2021, 2020, 2006). He was also named Division III Coach of the Year by D3hoops.com (2019-20).

Morehouse was selected as the 2024 MIAA Women's Basketball Coach of the Year by his peers after leading the Flying Dutch to a fourth consecutive regular season title and seventh consecutive MIAA Tournament title game appearance.

Morehouse has been named the Michigan Collegiate women's basketball coach of the year by the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan four times in his career (2001-02, 2007-08, 2011-12, 2015-16). Morehouse is ranked among Division III's elite active coaches by winning percentage.

In 2024, Morehouse was selected to serve as an on-court coach for the USA Women's Under 17 Team Trials in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Morehouse's basketball roots run deep. His father, Dean, was the boy's basketball coach at Fremont (Mich.) High School. He joined son Brian as an assistant coach in 2000-01. Brian and Dean were honored as "Hometown Heroes" during the 2006 National Baby Food Festival in Fremont.

Morehouse currently represents MIAA coaches on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Conference Captains Committee and serves as a member of the WBCA board. He also serves as a member of the board of the Hand Up Fund, and is involved with Special Olympics and Holland Area Hospice.

VOLLEYBALL SWEEPS WASHINGTON AND LEE, SETS UP REMATCH WITH NO. 1 JUNIATA

The second-ranked Hope College volleyball team powered its way into the NCAA Division III national semifinals with a season-best performance during a 3-0 quarterfinal victory against No. 11 Washington and Lee University on Wednesday.

The Flying Dutch (29-2) recorded team season-highs in three-set matches in both kills with 56 and assists with 53. Hope hit over .300 as a team for the second time during the NCAA Division III Tournament an 14th time this season. Outside hitter Addie VanderWeide put down a match-high 17 kills, the most by a Flying Dutch player in a three-set match. Junior Lauren Lee's 53 assists are the most by a Hope setter in a three-set match this season.

The Flying Dutch bring a 21-match winning streak into tonight's national semifinal against top-ranked Juniata College (Pennsylvania). It is the second Hope-Juniata match of the season and the third in a row in postseason play. They met in the 2023 title match and the 2022 national quarterfinals.

Juniata has won the past three meetings, including a 3-1 victory at Hope's DeVos Fieldhouse on Sept. 13.

The Flying Dutch then split their matches on Sept. 14, defeating Otterbein University in five sets before losing to eventual national quarterfinalist University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh in three sets. It was the last time Hope lost this season.
