GAME NOTES

ROLLING OUT THE ORANGE CARPET

International social media sensations Josh and Jase — Josh Clarke and Jason Riley from Nottingham, England — attended a Jan. 14 game at DeVos Fieldhouse. The duo toured the United States, beginning in West Michigan and documenting their adventures on TikTok, Instagram, Facebook and YouTube. It marked their first collegiate basketball game as fans. Josh & Jase sat courtside in the Hope student section, participated in the Big E's-sponsored halftime shootout and met with fans. Their content can be found on TikTok, Instagram and Facebook.

DEFUSING THE THUNDER

On a charged Wednesday night inside DeVos Fieldhouse, the Hope College men's basketball team delivered a wire-tight, cinematic finish in front of 1,074 fans, outlasting Trine University 82-80 in a thrilling MIAA opener. The finish delivered non-stop, back-and-forth action. Trine overcame a 14-point deficit with 7 minutes, 47 seconds remaining to pull within two twice late. Logan McKenzie sank the first but missed the second. Cade Brenner grabbed the loose ball, but without a timeout, Trine scrambled for a game-winning shot. Sophomore Charles Howell (Cadillac, Michigan / Cadillac HS) ripped the ball away for a clean steal, then found an open Brendan Cargill (Grand Rapids, Michigan / Forest Hills Central), who was immediately fouled and split his two free-throw attempts to secure the win.

COMING UP CLUTCH

The Flying Dutchmen tipped off the first of MIAA play with two thrillers against two of the top four teams in the MIAA Mens' Basketball Coaches Preseason Poll: an 82-80 victory at home against Trine University on Jan. 7 and a 67-65 victory at The University of Olivet. It marked the first time since the 2008-09 season the Flying Dutchmen played in back-to-back games decided by two of fewer points.

NON-CONFERENCE TESTS

Hope had played the toughest schedule among MIAA teams heading into league play, ranking 38th out of 400-plus teams in NCAA Division III. The Flying Dutchmen's non-league opponents combined for 76-51 record (.595).

ANOTHER THRILLER

The Hope College men's basketball team closed out its weekend swing through the state of Ohio with another nail-biting win Dec. 6, edging Ohio Wesleyan University, 60-59, in Delaware, Ohio. The Flying Dutchmen trailed, 59-56, with a little more than a minute remaining. Junior forward Parker Hovey (Shelby, Michigan / Hart) scored on a layup with 43 seconds left to pull Hope within one. Hope then forced an OWU miss and grabbed the loose ball. Following a miss, Hovey grabbed another offensive rebound and was fouled with 11 seconds remaining. After the Flying Dutchmen timeout, senior guard Marcus Wourman (Lansing, Michigan / East Lansing) found a cutting Hovey in the paint on the inbound pass, where he was fouled. Hovey, who entered the game shooting 61.1% from the free-throw line, made both foul shots to put Hope ahead. The Battling Bishops (3-5) then missed a shot in the paint on their final possession. Wourman grabbed the rebound to secure the victory.

BUZZER BEATER

With 4.3 seconds left in the Nov. 115 home opener, Parker Hovey rebounded a missed free throw and kicked the ball quickly to Marcus Wourman. The Lansing, Michigan, native performed a little magic, dribbling quickly up the court and burying a 3 from the left wing that hit nothing but the bottom of the net as time expired to give the Hope College men's basketball team a thrilling 76-75 victory over Wheaton College (Illinois) on Saturday at DeVos Fieldhouse. Wourman finished with 22 points in 31 minutes for the Flying Dutchmen, who dramatically evened their record at 2-2. The East Lansing High School graduate also contributed two assists and two rebounds while not committing a turnover.

COACHING MILESTONE

Greg Mitchell '89 became the third Flying Dutchmen basketball coach to reach 200 career wins earlier this season, joining Glenn Van Wieren (660) and Russ DeVette (318).after a 98-83 victory at Anderson in the season opener. "Any kind of big win, I find myself reflecting," head coach Greg Mitchell said after the game. "I'm blessed to be in the position I'm in with the players I've coached and our coaching staff I've worked with." Heading into the Alma game, Mitchell's overall record at Hope is 207-102 (.670), including a 108-41 mark in MIAA play (.725).

WHAT'S NEXT

The Flying Dutchmen play their next two games on the road: Saturday, Feb. 7, at 3 p.m. at Alma College and Wednesday, Feb. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at Trine University. Hope returns home on Saturday, Feb. 14, at 3 p.m. vs. The University of Olivet for Senior Day.

GREG MITCHELL HEAD COACH

Greg Mitchell is the 11th head coach in the Flying Dutchmen’s storied history. He joined the college in July 2014 and also holds the rank of assistant professor of kinesiology.

In 10-plus seasons, Mitchell has led the Flying Dutchmen to a 210-103 record, four MIAA regular-season championships, four MIAA Tournament titles, and six NCAA Division III Championships tournament appearances.

Mitchell has deep ties to Hope Basketball. The 1989 Hope graduate played four seasons of basketball for the Flying Dutchmen, winning two MIAA championships (1986-87 and 1987-88) and making three NCAA Division III Tournament appearances (1987-89) during that time.

As a junior, Mitchell and the Flying Dutchmen made their deepest run in the national tournament, reaching the 1988 Great Lakes Regional final before falling in double overtime to eventual national champion Ohio Wesleyan University, 110-107.

Mitchell helped the Flying Dutchmen post a 74-27 overall record and a 40-8 mark in MIAA play during his four seasons as a player. He still holds the Flying Dutchmen record for career 3-point shooting at 46.4 percent (116-of-250). He averaged a career-high 10.3 points per game his senior season in 1988-89.

Before returning to his alma mater, Mitchell spent 25 years coaching varsity boys basketball at Laingsburg High School near Lansing, Michigan, while teaching for Laingsburg and Okemos schools. Mitchell compiled a 362-201 career record at Laingsburg, including a state runner-up finish during the 2012-13 season. At Laingsburg, Mitchell coached Laingsburg to three Michigan High School Athletic Association regional championships, six district championships, and six conference championships.

Mitchell was named Coach of the Year seven times: twice in Class C By the Basketball Coaches Association of Michigan (2013 and 1997), once in Class C by the Associated Press Sports Editors of Michigan (2012), once in Class C by the Detroit News (2013) and three times by the Lansing State Journal (2013, 2012 and 1997).

Mitchell earned a bachelor’s degree in physical education from Hope. He also received a master’s degree in athletic administration from Michigan State University.

Mitchell and his wife, Dina Zurchauer (’88), have four children: daughters Aleah, Quincie and Jalynn, and son Bryson.
