

#3 MOUNT UNION PURPLE RAIDERS (0-0)
AT
#5 WHEATON THUNDER (0-0)

2026 SEASON OPENER
 WHEATON, IL - McCULLY STADIUM | SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 5 | 1 PM

THE MATCHUP: The 2026 season is here. No. 3 nationally ranked Mount Union will start its 129th season on Saturday, September 5, as it travels to play No. 5 Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois-about 40 minutes west of Chicago. Last year's matchup turned into an exciting one-score game as the Thunder tried to rally with 22 unanswered points, and the Raiders held off Wheaton for a 37-29 win for its 38th-straight season-opening win. Mount Union is 7-0 all-time vs. Wheaton. Prior to last season, all other meetings between the two schools occurred in the NCAA Playoffs, including the 2008 NCAA Semifinals, when Mount Union won 45-24 on its way to win its 10th National Championship following a 31-26 win over Wisconsin-Whitewater in the 2008 Stagg Bowl. Their first meeting was on November 25, 1995 (Mount won 40-14).

MEET THE COACHES: Geoff Dartt (67-5 (.931)) is in his seventh season as head coach at Mount Union. Dartt was named the 2024 Larry Kehres OAC Coach of the Year (the second of his career). Dartt won his 50th game at Capital on November 2, 2024, becoming only the fifth coach in program history to achieve that milestone while doing so in the second fewest games. The Purple Raiders have won the OAC and have gone undefeated in the regular season in each of Dartt's six years at the helm. Dartt, who is undefeated against OAC schools during his tenure (48-0), has led Mount Union to the NCAA Championship Stagg Bowl twice (2022, 2024). Prior to becoming head coach in 2020, Dartt spent seven years as an assistant coach for the Purple Raiders, with five of those years as offensive coordinator, winning two National Championships (2012 and 2015). As a player, he was part of three National Championship teams (2002, 2005, 2006) as an All-OAC offensive lineman. Dartt is the 24th head football coach in school history and the fourth since 1962. Jesse Scott (48-12 (.800) overall) is also in his seventh season. Under Scott's leadership, Wheaton has advanced to the NCAA Playoffs in all but one season, not including the COVID year when the NCAA postseason was canceled - most recently advancing to 2025 NCAA Quarterfinals in a loss to the eventual National Champions, UW-River Falls. Coach Dartt and Coach Scott's coaching paths crossed as they were on the same coaching staff and roommates at Wheaton - Dartt was an assistant at Wheaton from 2008 to 2012.

THE MACHINE: Since Mount Union's first trip to the NCAA Semifinals in 1992, Mount Union has at least advanced to the NCAA Semifinals in every season except four times (not including the 2020 COVID Spring season when the NCAA Playoffs were canceled). That's 29 of the past 33 seasons of at least being one of the final four teams in the country. The Purple Raiders have competed in the Stagg Bowl 15 of the past 20 seasons (not including the canceled 2020 COVID season), winning six titles in that span. Mount has won an NCAA Division III-record 13 championships, seven more than the second most (Wisconsin-Whitewater-6).

13 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS • 23 CHAMPIONSHIP APPEARANCES • 34 UNDEFEATED REGULAR SEASONS • 36 OAC CHAMPIONS

O CAPTAIN! MY CAPTAIN!: The 2026 team captains, voted on by the players, for Mount Union are QB Mikey Maloney, OL Mitch Coffee, LB Gavin Ehrhardt, and DL Jackson Harris.

SCOUTING THE THUNDER: The No. 5 ranked Wheaton Thunder had a total of four players earn Preseason All-America honors by D3football.com, including seniors safety Colin Moore and punter Josiah Smith and juniors guard Aiden Byrne and linebacker Zeke Harris. Senior QB Mark Forcucci threw for over 3,000 yards and 36 touchdowns - both top 10 in D3. Last season, Moore had a team-high eight INTs, while Harris led in tackles last season with 119. Smith was second in the nation, averaging 45.41 per punt. Byrne helped anchor an offense that ranked top-25 in Division III last season in scoring offense, passing offense, and total offense.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN: Sophomore quarterback Mikey Maloney was named to the 2026 D3football.com Preseason All-America Team. Maloney is coming off his first year starting at quarterback with the Purple Raiders, where he earned All-Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) First Team honors and was named the OAC Bob Packard Most Outstanding Offensive Back. In 2025, Maloney led the conference with 42 total touchdowns, including an OAC—best 31 touchdowns through the air. He totaled 3,321 scrimmage yards, including 2,769 passing yards.

GAGLIARDI WATCH LISTS: Maloney was listed on multiple 2026 Gagliardi Trophy Watch Lists, including FloCollege and Division I Rejects. The Gagliardi Trophy, given annually since 1993, is awarded to the most outstanding NCAA Division III football player and recognizes excellence in athletics, academics, and community service.

MILESTONES TO WATCH: In only his second year at QB for the Purple Raiders, Maloney just needs 189 passing yards to join the 3,000 career passing club (he would be the 17th Raider to achieve it). He just needs eight passing touchdowns for 40 of his career (would just be the 13th Mount QB to accomplish that). Going into the season, Maloney's 70.3 career pass completion is ranked fourth-best, and his career pass efficiency of 187.0 is fifth-best in program history.

SEASON OPENING SUCCESS: Mount Union has won 38 straight season openers (1988-present). The Purple Raiders' last season-opening loss was at home against non-conference Wooster on September 12 with a 17-15 score.

SCORING STREAK: Mount has scored in 573 straight games, the most consecutive games of any college football program in any division. Its streak began on Nov. 7, 1981, at Kenyon under the guidance of head coach Ken Wable.

85 STRAIGHT: The Purple Raiders have won 85 straight regular season games, the longest streak across all divisions in college football (North Central is second with 53). Mount Union's last regular season loss was to former OAC foe John Carroll on Nov. 12, 2016 (L, 31-28).

WELCOME BACK: A pair of successful Purple Raiders returned to the coaching staff for 2026. Kevin Burke '15 was named the offensive coordinator, and Chris Kappas '08 was named the defensive coordinator. Burke was the quarterback of the 2012 national championship team and then became the first player to win the Gagliardi Trophy in back-to-back years. Kappas had previously served as the defensive coordinator at Mount Union, including 2015, when he earned National Coordinator of the Year honors, helping lead the team to its 12th national championship.

COLLEGE HALL OF FAME: A pair of former Mount Union football standouts are on the prestigious 2027 ballot for induction into the College Football Hall of Fame. All-Americans and National Champions quarterback Bill Borchert '98 and running back Nate Kmic '09 are on this year's ballot.

GOOD WORKS: Senior center Patrick Lavelle represented Mount Union on the distinguished 2026 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®.

NATIONAL POLLS: Mount Union has been nationally ranked by three different organizations heading into the 2026 season. The Purple Raiders were nationally ranked No. 2 by the Lindy's National College Football Magazine and third in both D3football.com and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

UP NEXT: Mount Union will wrap up its non-conference slate with its home opener against Grove City, who's receiving national votes, with a 1:30 p.m. kickoff at Kehres Stadium.
