Wofford College’s mission is to provide superior liberal arts education that prepares its students for extraordinary and positive contributions to a global society. The focus of Wofford’s mission is upon fostering commitment to excellence in character, performance, leadership, service to others and lifelong learning. Wofford strives for sustainability in all aspects of college life through respect for the environment and through our core values.
Wofford College, established in 1854, is a four-year, independent, residential liberal arts college located in Spartanburg, S.C. It offers a distinctive program with 26 major fields of study to a student body of 1,750 undergraduates.

Wofford has produced six Rhodes Scholars and is home to one of the nation’s 290 Phi Beta Kappa chapters.

A leader in offering high-impact learning opportunities to students, Wofford encourages students to take advantage of all that Wofford, and through it the world, has to offer.

These opportunities include internships with scientific, corporate and non-profit organizations across the globe, undergraduate research opportunities, service-learning in the local community, international study abroad programming and a thriving host of co-curricular opportunities on campus.

One of those co-curricular offerings is the James-Atkins Fund, a student-managed and operated investment organization. The Mungo Exchange also prepares students for life after Wofford by offering professional development, career services, entrepreneurship programs and more.

Student and residence life on campus include exciting Division I NCAA athletics, opportunities to participate in one of the college’s Greek-letter fraternities or sororities, competitive intramurals, a diverse selection of clubs, student publications and a housing plan that helps students progress from first year through fourth in a close-knit community that builds independence. The residence life experience culminates in a final year in The Village, beautiful, Charlestonian-style apartments designed to help transition students from college student to successful graduate.

Thanks to the generosity of alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson ’59, the Rosalind Sallenger Richardson Center for the Arts opened in May of 2017 and the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium opened in September of 2017. The new Greek Village was completed in the spring of 2016.

Additionally, the Chandler Center for Environmental Studies and Jerome Johnson Richardson Hall, a 150-bed residence hall, opened in the fall of 2020. Renovations to the library into an academic commons were completed in the fall of 2019. Burwell Dining Hall and Mungo Campus Life Center renovations were finalized in 2021 and a new softball stadium, along with improvements to Snyder Field were finished in the summer of 2022.

Wofford’s entire 175-acre campus is a national arboretum, named the Roger Milliken Arboretum at Wofford College in honor of the late longtime trustee and benefactor.

Headquartered in Duncan, SC, AFL is an international manufacturer of fiber optic cable, connectivity, transmission and substation accessories, test equipment, fusion splicers and more.

We’re proud to call the upstate home and proud to support Wofford Athletics!
A new era at Wofford began in 2018 with the opening of the Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium. The new home of basketball and volleyball is adjacent to the north end of Gibbs Stadium, where the Terriers play football.

Wofford alumnus and trustee Jerry Richardson, Class of 1959, provided the gift to fund the facility that includes a 3,400-seat basketball arena and a 350-seat volleyball competition venue as well as offices, locker rooms, meeting rooms, training rooms and special fan areas, including several open-air suites. The facility replaces Benjamin Johnson Arena, which will continue to be used as a first-rate gymnasium for intramural and campus recreational activities.

The facility has already been able to attract top opponents for the basketball teams, including South Carolina, North Carolina, Harvard and Georgia Tech.

The Jerry Richardson Indoor Stadium also has a seating capacity for non-athletics functions, such as commencement and concerts, of 4,500. The facility includes “Club 51” for club seat holders, the “Boneyard” lounge in the student section, state of the art sound system and acoustical design, along with electronic charging stations throughout the building.

Women’s Head Coach Jimmy Garrity

Jimmy Garrity enters his seventh season as the head coach of the Wofford women’s basketball program in 2022-23. Garrity was named head coach on April 25, 2016. In his six seasons at the helm, he has seen players earn 13 All-Southern Conference honors, six All-Freshman Team honors, a trio of All-Defensive Team selections and a SoCon Freshman of the Year. Last season he led the team to the best Southern Conference record in school history with the program’s first-ever WNIT appearance while posting the fourth-straight season with a .500 or better record.

The 2021-22 season saw the team continue to reach new heights with a 17-14 overall record and an 11-3 SoCon mark. The 17 overall victories are the most at the Division I level in program history (fourth overall), and the 11-3 SoCon record is also the program’s best ever. Upon the conclusion of the regular season, Jackie Carman was named All-SoCon First Team by the coaches and media, and Lilly Hatton earned second-team honors by both. Niyah Lutz and Alexis Tomlin garnered third-team selections from the media. Reagan Rapert was named to the SoCon All-Freshman and All-Defensive Teams.

The squad entered the Southern Conference Tournament as the No. 2 seed, its highest seeding ever. After a first-round win over No. 7 ETSU 66-54, the Terriers fell to No. 3 Furman in the semifinals. Alexis Tomlin and Jackie Carman earned All-Tournament nods on the first and second teams, respectively. The Terriers made their first-ever appearance in the WNIT, which was the program’s first postseason appearance at the Division I level.

During the 2020-21 season, the team was 13-11 overall and 7-7 in Southern Conference play. Following the regular season, Lilly Hatton was named to the All-SoCon Second Team by both the coaches and media, while Jamari McDavid was named to the All-SoCon Third Team by the media and was the recipient of the Ann Lashley Inspiration Award.

In the Southern Conference Tournament, the team entered as the No. 4 seed. After a 78-66 win over No. 5 seed UNC, the Terriers earned a 75-64 victory against No. 8 seed East Tennessee State in the semifinals. With the Terriers in the championship game for the first time in school history, Wofford was defeated by No. 2 seed Mercer. Lilly Hatton and Helen Matthews were named to the All-Tournament Team.

The 2019-20 season saw the team finish with an 8-6 mark in SoCon play. At the end of the season, Lilly Hatton was honored as SoCon Freshman of the Year, while Chloé Wanink, Da’Ja Green and Cairo Booked earned All-Conference accolades as well.

The 2018-19 season marked a turning point for Wofford women’s basketball, as Garrity led the team to their first winning season since the ‘01-’02 season with a 16-15 overall record and 7-7 SoCon record. The team earned their highest SoCon tournament seed since 2002 as a No. 5 seed, while Garrity earned his first SoCon tournament win in the quarterfinals with a upset win over No. 4 seed ETSU 75-66. A program-best five Terriers landed on all-conference teams: Chloé Wanink (First Team), Da’Ja Green (Second/Third Team), Cairo Booker (Third/All-Defensive Team), Niyah Lutz & Jackie Carman (All-Freshman Team).

Coach Garrity led the Terriers to a 10-20 record in 2017-18. Freshman guard Da’Ja Green was named Second-Team All-Conference and joined her teammate and fellow freshman Jamari McDavid on the All-Freshman team.

In Garrity’s first season at the helm he led the Terriers to a 13-17 record overall. Chloé Wanink was named to the Second-Team All SoCon under the direction of Coach Garrity as she averaged 16 points and 5.8 rebounds.

From 2013-15, Garrity was the head coach at Anderson University. Anderson reached the NCAA Division II Tournament twice as an at-large selection and in 2015 advanced to the Sweet Sixteen. He also coached two South Atlantic Conference Players of the Year.

Garrity spent the 2012-13 season at Clemson University as the women’s basketball assistant coach. With the Tigers, Garrity was in charge of scouting, practice planning, game scheduling, coordinating of the guards, community service and alumni relations.

Before spending a season at Clemson, Garrity spent a decade in various capacities with the UNC Wilmington basketball program. He was hired as the Director of Basketball Operations in 2002 for both the men’s and women’s basketball teams. Once the position split into two different roles, Garrity took over just the women’s side while also becoming an assistant coach in 2007. Continuing his tenure with UNCW, Garrity was promoted to the associate head coach role in 2011 and coached his team to the second round of the WNIT.

Garrity graduated from Elon in 1989 with a degree in business administration and marketing and later earned a Master’s in sports administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. in 1990.

Garrity is married to Jenny Garrity, who served as UNCW’s women’s tennis coach for 13 seasons. The couple have two daughters Kacey and Carly, and a son Corey.

The Terrier Club

The Terrier Club is committed to providing scholarship support and essential resources to more than 350 Wofford College student-athletes and 19 NCAA Division I sports programs. By increasing awareness, building partnerships and stewarding financial resources, the Terrier Club seeks to advance the mission and vision of Wofford Athletics.

Annual giving to the Terrier Club bridges the scholarship funding gap that allows Wofford athletics to fund a successful and broad-based program. Athletics endowed scholarships provide a valuable foundation for future scholarship support at Wofford, but annual contributions address the growing divide between the endowment income and actual scholarship expenses.

The cost of educating Wofford's student-athletes has grown exponentially. The need for additional funding through gifts to the Terrier Club is essential for Wofford athletics to maintain its 19-sport program. Support is critical to the future of Wofford athletics and Terrier student-athletes.

Wofford has always been a leader in athletics fundraising among its Southern Conference peers. The leadership role within the Southern Conference is defined through the generosity of Wofford supporters and by excellence shown on the field and in the classroom. The primary goals of the Terrier Club are to continue to promote growth in membership as well as increased dollars in the coming year.

The 2021-22 season saw Wofford post another 19-win season, the second under McAuley, with a 19-13 mark and a 10-8 league record. Wofford entered the Southern Conference Tournament as the No. 4 seed and ultimately fell to the No. 1 seeded Chattanooga Mocs, the eventual champions, in the semifinals. During the season, the Terriers notched a road win over a Power 5 opponent, the SEC's Georgia.

B.J. Mack and Max Klesmit were honored on the All-Southern Conference Second and Third Teams, respectively, marking the third-straight season with at least two All-SoCon honorees. On his own end, McAuley was named the 2022 Skip Prosser Man of the Year by College Insider Inc., presented annually to those who no only achieve success on the basketball court but who display moral integrity off the floor as well. McAuley was also featured in The Athletic's annual 40-under-40 publication, tabbed No. 17 on the list of 40 influential people in men's college basketball under the age of 40.

Despite the hardships that COVID-19 presented for the 2020-21 season, McAuley managed to guide Wofford to another impressive season in his second year, tallying a 15-9 overall record and finishing the regular season just a half game out of first place with a 12-5 Southern Conference mark. McAuley coached four Terriers to All-Southern Conference accolades for the 2020-21 season, highlighted by Storm Murphy as a First Team selection and landing three freshmen on the All-Freshman team in Morgan Safford (coaches, media), Sam Godwin (coaches) and Max Klesmit (media).

In his first year at the helm of the Wofford men's basketball program, McAuley led the Terriers to 19 wins, highlighted by a 68-64 win at No. 17 North Carolina (12/15/19) for the program's second win over an AP Top 25 team in school history. Entering the 2020 Southern Conference Tournament as the No. 7 seed, the Terriers dispatched The Citadel before knocking off No. 2 Furman 77-68 and advancing to their sixth SoCon Championship final with a win over No. 6 Chattanooga 72-70.

In addition to coaching Chevez Goodwin and Murphy to All-Tournament honors, McAuley helped Nathan Hoover garner All-SoCon Second Team status while Messiah Jones was recognized by the league's all-freshman squad.

On April 14, 2019, Wofford College announced the hiring of Jay McAuley as head men's basketball coach. McAuley spent the previous two years as the associate head coach of the Terriers.

In the 2018-19 season, the Terriers posted a 30-5 overall record, including a perfect 18-0 mark in Southern Conference play. They won the Southern Conference Tournament title, the second for McAuley at Wofford. In the NCAA Tournament, the Terriers were a seventh-seed — the highest by a team from the Southern Conference since the field expanded to 64 teams. A win over Seton Hall sent Wofford to the second round, the league's first NCAA Tournament victory in 11 years. They were defeated by second-seeded Kentucky 62-56 to end the season.

The team was ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time ever, ending the season at #19. Fletcher Magee was named Southern Conference Player of the Year, along with honorable mention All-America recognition and Lou Henson National Player of the Year recipient as the top mid-major player in Division I. Cameron Jackson joined Magee on the first team All-Southern Conference team by both the media and coaches.

During the 2017-18 season the team was 21-13 overall and 11-7 in the Southern Conference to finish tied for fourth. Highlights included a win at No. 5 North Carolina, the defending national champions. Fletcher Magee was named the Malcolm U. Pitt Player of the Year (Media) and was a first team All-SoCon selection, while Cameron Jackson earned second team honors and Storm Murphy was placed on the All-Freshman team.

In four seasons on the coaching staff at Furman, he helped guide the Paladins from a seven-win squad prior to his arrival and led it to improved records each season. The run culminated in a 23-11 record in 2016 that earned a share of its first SoCon regular season championship since 1990-91. He spent three seasons at Gardner-Webb University on Chris Holtmann's staff. After a 23-41 mark in the first two seasons, in the 2012-13 season he helped lead the Runnin' Bulldogs to a 21-13 overall mark.

Prior to McAuley's time at Gardner-Webb, he spent two seasons at Wofford where he helped lead the Terriers in 2009-10 to a 26-9 overall record and 15-3 in Southern Conference play en route to winning both the regular season and tournament titles. During his first season on staff at Wofford in 2008-09, the Terriers were 16-14 overall and 12-8 in league play.

McAuley, a Marietta, Ga. native, played four seasons at the University of Georgia and was on the 2008 team that won the SEC Tournament. After graduating with a degree in business education in 2006, he served as a graduate manager for two seasons and earned a master's degree in physical education.

McAuley married the former Sallie Willis in 2012 and the couple have two daughters, Addie and Charlie.

The Southern Conference, which enters its 102nd year in 2022-23, is a national leader in emphasizing the development of the student-athlete and in helping to build lifelong leaders and role models.

The Southern Conference has been on the forefront of innovation and originality in developing creative solutions to address issues facing intercollegiate athletics. From establishing the first postseason college basketball tournament (1921), to tackling the issue of freshman eligibility (1922), to developing women’s championships (1984), to becoming the first conference to install the 3-point goal in basketball (1980), the Southern Conference has been a pioneer.

The Southern Conference is the nation’s fifth-oldest NCAA Division I collegiate athletic association. Only the Big Ten (1896), the Missouri Valley (1907), the Pac-12 (1915) and the Southwestern Athletic (1920) conferences are older in terms of origination.

Academic excellence has been a major part of the Southern Conference’s tradition. Hundreds of Southern Conference student-athletes have been recognized on CoSIDA Academic All-America and all-district teams. A total of 20 Rhodes Scholarship winners have been selected from conference institutions, most recently in 2012-13, when former Wofford volleyball player Rachel Woodlee earned the prestigious award.

The conference currently consists of 10 members in six states throughout the Southeast and sponsors 20 varsity sports and championships that produce participants for NCAA Division I Championships.

The Southern Conference offices are located in the historic Beaumont Mill in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

A textile mill that was in operation from 1880 until 1999, Beaumont Mill was renovated in 2004 and today offers the league first-class meeting areas and offices as well as a spacious library for storage of the conference’s historical documents.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Men’s basketball was the first sport in which the conference held a championship. The league tournament is the nation’s oldest, with the inaugural championship held in 1921 at Atlanta’s City Auditorium and won by Kentucky. The tournament began Feb. 25, the same day that members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association met to discuss forming the new league that would become the Southern Conference.

Southern Conference declares champions in 10 men’s sports – football, soccer, cross country, basketball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, wrestling, baseball, tennis, and golf – and nine women’s sports – soccer, volleyball, cross country, basketball, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, tennis, golf, and softball. Rifle is a mixed sport.
