TIGERS STRONG IN 2010-11

The Tigers recently captured their third team title of the season at the Bluegrass Invitational in Lexington, Ky., marking the first time since the 1996-97 season an Auburn team won three events in a single year. The win was the 55th in school history and the fifth team title for second-year head coach Nick Clinard.

Clinard has also led five separate Auburn golfers to individual titles since his arrival on The Plains, marking the winningest two-year span in school history.

With a 2010-11 record of 127-18-1, Auburn will look to improve on their tie for ninth at last year's NCAA Regional, aiming to make the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2008.

The Tigers finished top five in all 2010-11 events and 14 of the last 15 regular season events. With the win at the Bluegrass, Auburn picked up its ninth-straight top-three.

HEAD COACH NICK CLINARD

Head coach Nick Clinard is in his second season after leaving Central Florida where he was head coach for eight seasons. Since Clinard has arrived on the Plains, the Tigers have won five team tournaments and earned five individual medalist honors.

Clinard led UCF to NCAA Regional play in five of his last six seasons, including 2004, 2005, 2007, 2008 and 2009. The Knights won six tournament titles in his last two seasons. Clinard had nine tournament victories including two conference championships, coached one All-American, four Academic All Americans, two conference players of the year, three individual conference champs and eight all-conference players at UCF.

UCF won the 2009 NCAA Southeast Regional title by defeating No. 2 Georgia and No. 13 South Carolina along with claiming the school's first Conference USA Championship.

Clinard played professional golf for five seasons from 1996-2001 on the NGA Hooters Tour as well as several Nike Tour and Canadian Tour events prior to becoming head coach of UCF Clinard played one year of collegiate golf at SMU before playing his final three years at Wake Forest from 1992-95, where the Demon Deacons were ranked in the top 10 in the nation all three seasons.

AUBURN AS A TEAM

The Tigers earned a No. 8 ranking in October, their highest since end of 2004-05 season. Auburn moved to as high as six in the Golfweek poll but, following a win at the Bluegrass Invitational which featured no teams ranked in the top-30, the Tigers slipped in the polls.

The 2010-11 season saw one of Auburn's most successful fall seasons to date, with two individual medalists, three team wins and nine top-three finishes.

Auburn sits at 127-18-1 (.876) on the season with an 8-2 record against Colorado Regional competition.

BLAYNE BARBER

Sophomore Blayne Barber will lead the Tigers in the No. 1 position this weekend, averaging just 70.93 strokes per round and finishing top five in 6-of-10 events this season. Barber found the switch to Auburn easy after transferring from Central Florida in 2009, and although redshirting his 2009-10 season, the Lake City, Fla., native is currently ranked 14th by both the Golfweek Magazine collegiate and Scratch Players World Amateur Golf rankings.

As a result, he was named a semifinalist for the 2011 Ben Hogan Award Wednesday by the Golf Coaches Association of America as a result of strong play in both the collegiate and amateur arenas.

At Central Florida, he was named to the 2008-09 Five-Man GCAA All-Freshman team and was a three-time Conference USA Golfer-of-the-Week. Barber claimed his first individual medalist honors for the Tigers at the 2010 Bridgestone Intercollegiate.

MICHAEL HEBERT

Sophomore Michael Hebert will play the No. 2 spot for the Tigers with a 2010-11 scoring average of 71.73 and 17 rounds at par or better. Since transferring to Auburn following a strong freshman season at Florida State, Hebert has earned four top-10s including a pair of fourth-place finishes at the Jerry Pate National and the John Hayt Collegiate.

The Orlando, Fla, native is currently ranked 47th by Golfweek Magazine.

NICLAS CARLSSON

International signee Niclas Carlsson will look to continue a stellar freshman campaign for the Tigers, holding down the No. 3 position. The Enebyberg, Sweden, product holds a 72.00 scoring average after becoming the first freshman to win an event since three-time All-American Jimmy Green won the 1988 Alabama Intercollegiate. Carlsson led the Tigers during their win over then top-ranked Florida and No. 4 Alabama at the 2010 Jerry Pate, shooting 8-under through 36 holes to claim medalist honors. He has accumulated two top-five and five top-20 finishes this season.

KYLE KOPSICK

Junior Kyle Kopsick will play the fourth position after earning top-25 finishes in five-consecutive tournaments. The Chicago, native fired a final round, 68, to help force a playoff with Florida en route to the Tigers victory at the 2011 Chris Schenkel Invitational. Kopsick has maintained his position as a consistent starter this season following the arrival of Clinard's young guns.

BEN HOGAN SEMIFINALIST

Blayne Barber was named a semifinalist for the 2011 Ben Hogan Award, the Golf Coaches Association of America announced April 13.

Presented annually as the most prestigious award in men's college golf, the Ben Hogan Award takes into account collegiate and amateur results from the past year to recognize the nation's top college golfer.

On the collegiate level, Barber has finished inside the top-five in 6-of-10 events this season, highlighted by a win at the 2010 Bridgestone Intercollegiate. Ranked 13th in the latest GolfWeek Sagarin ratings, Barber leads the team with a scoring average of 70.93. The Lake City, Fla., native also leads the Tigers in sub-par rounds and rounds in the 60s.

Ranked 16th by the Scratch Players World Amateur Rankings, the Lake City, Fla., native has also had a strong amateur season with top-fives at the Players Am and Southern Am. Barber won his US Amateur qualifier, going on to make the round of 32s. Barber also made it to the round of 16 at the Western Am after tying for third in the medal round.

Auburn golfer Will Blackmon won the coveted award in 1994.

HEAD COACH
NICK CLINARD

Hometown: Gastonia, N.C.
Alma Mater: Wake Forest, '95
Second Season At Auburn

Nine-year head coaching veteran Nick Clinard enters his second season as head coach of the Auburn men's golf team. His first signing class as Auburn's head coach was rated as one of the nation's best and will compliment the Tigers' returnees who racked up two team and three individual titles last season.

Clinard led the University of Central Florida to a top 10 finish in the 2009 NCAA Championship and led the Knights to NCAA Regional play in five-of-six seasons, including 2004, 2005, 2007, 2008 and 2009, and the Knights have won six tournament titles in the past two seasons.

Clinard has 11 tournament victories including two conference championships, coached one All-American, four Academic All-Americans, two conference players of the year, three individual conference champions and eight all-conference selections. UCF won the NCAA Southeast Regional title by defeating No. 2 Georgia and No. 13 South Carolina in 2009 along with claiming the school's first Conference USA Championship. The Knights also won The Hummingbird Intercollegiate and the Rio Pinar Invitational as Clinard was named Conference USA Coach of the Year and the NCAA Southeast Regional Coach of the Year.

In 2009, Clinard coached a PING All-America second team selection who was also named to the Golf Coaches Association of America National five-man All-Freshman team and garnered Conference USA Golfer of the Year and Freshman of the Year honors. Clinard's 2008-09 team also featured a pair of first-team All-Conference USA selections, two second-team All-Conference USA members and two GCCA All-South Region team picks. In 2007-08, Clinard coached two All-Conference USA first-team selections, the C-USA Newcomer of the Year, four C-USA Players of the Week and David Johnson, the Florida State Amateur Player of the Year. After Clinard inherited a UCF program that was ranked 147th in July 2001, his 2004 recruiting class was rated as the best in the nation by Junior Golf Scoreboard. He signed two of the top 16 players nationally in 2007, the two-time Florida State Junior Champion and the 2006 Florida State Golf Association Player of the Year in 2008 and three top 50 players nationally in 2009.

In the Knights' four years in C-USA, UCF men's golfers were named to the league's academic honor roll on 33 occasions. Clinard won Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year honors as his UCF team won the 2004 A-Sun Conference Championship. A pair of Knights won back-to-back medalist honors at the A-Sun Conference Championship with Stefan Wistorf in 2003 and Barry Roof in 2004.

Clinard played professional golf for five seasons from 1996-2001 on the NGA Hooters Tour as well as several Nike Tour and Canadian Tour events prior to becoming head coach of UCF. He was also the assistant tournament director of the Jim McLean Future Collegians World Tour from 1998-2001 and worked as an assistant golf professional at the Hank Haney Golf Ranch in McKinney, Texas, from 1997-2000.

The Gastonia, N.C., native graduated from Wake Forest University in 1995 with a Bachelor's degree in speech communication. He played one year of collegiate golf at SMU before playing his final three years at Wake Forest from 1992-95, where the Demon Deacons were ranked in the top 10 in the nation all three seasons. Clinard is married to the former Susan Roberts, and they have two daughters, Chloe and Peyton.

ASSISTANT COACH
EVAN OSTEEN

Hometown: Kings Mountain, N.C.
Alma Mater: North Florida, '05
Season Season At Auburn

Evan Osteen enters his second season as assistant coach for the Auburn men's golf team after arriving in 2009.

"Evan is an energetic person and a great recruiter," Auburn head coach Nick Clinard said. "He has a great rapport with players, is a player's coach and is a great fit with the vision of this program moving forward."

Last season, Osteen worked with a PING All-America second team selection who was also named to the Golf Coaches Association of America National five-man All-Freshman team and garnered Conference USA Golfer of the Year and Freshman of the Year honors.

The 2008-09 UCF team also featured a pair of first-team All-Conference USA selections, two second-team All-Conference USA members and two GCCA All-South Region team picks.

"It is a huge honor and privilege to be at a place like Auburn University with such a rich history and tradition," said Osteen. "I am excited about the opportunity to work with Coach Clinard, our current players as well as all the former players and donors. I look forward to competing and playing for championships with first class student athletes".

Prior to joining UCF, Osteen assisted with operations at the Pablo Creek Golf Club in Jacksonville, Fla., where he also worked for AXA advisors as a financial professional. He also has experience working for Toll Brothers, serving as a sales associate for the home builder.

Osteen graduated from North Florida in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He competed in eight tournaments for the Ospreys.

He began his collegiate career at Central Alabama Community College where he helped his team win three tournament titles in 2001 and a runner-up finish at the National Junior College Athletic Association Championship. Osteen notched three top five tournament finishes during the 2000-01 season and also finished in the top 25 at the national championship.

During his time at North Florida, he worked at the Tournament Players Club at Sawgrass in Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla. He played in the 2002 U.S. Amateur in Michigan, tied for 11th at the Rice Planters Invitational and had a top 30 finish at the Palmetto Amateur.

Osteen has been an instructor with the PGA Tour's First Tee Program and the Florida Collegiate Golf Coaches Camp. The Kings Mountain, N.C., native was an all-conference performer in golf, football and soccer at Kings Mountain High.

GARY KOCH INVITATIONAL

THE COURSE

Named after a nearby highway that was once the only route to the bay area of Tampa, Old Memorial Golf Club opened for play in November 1997, and its well-conceived clubhouse was completed the following February. The vision for the development of a world-class golf course, with facilities to match, was taking shape.

Along with a mixture of subtle and bold contours, Old Memorial's primary design feature is its bunkering. Large and beautifully sculpted, the bunkers have sand faces with long grass fingers that give them the appearance of a series of smaller bunkers. Unlike water hazards, bunkers are often just a quarter or half-shot penalty and recovery is always possible. Smyers' bunkers are dramatic, sweeping hollows of sand that intimidate, deceive, direct play and frame the course's landing areas and greens. Often, they make holes look more difficult than they really are. As one architecture editor wrote, "Not since MacKenzie or Tillinghast has a golf course architect used bunkering to make such bold statements, express such flair, instill such fear."

Auburn's Kyle Kopsick claimed medalist honors at the 2009 Gary Koch Invitational, surpassing Florida State's Seath Lauer (-13) in the final round.

"I played with a lot of confidence today," said Kopsick. "I knew I was playing well. There were a lot of birdies out there. I knew I was bound to make some. It was fun. I've worked really hard and it was good to see the results."

Kopsick was in third after recording a second round 63 en route to the title, the lowest 18-hole score ever recorded by a Tiger in collegiate competition. Closing out the tournament with a final round 66, Kopsick set new school and tournament records with a 201 three-round total.

Kopsick also led the 81-player field in par-3 scoring, averaging 2.58 per hole, while nearly claiming the course 18-hole record of 62 set by Camilo Villegas in 2001.

The win was the first for an Auburn golfer since Patton Kizzire claimed the 2007 SEC Championship and the first under Auburn head coach Nick Clinard.
