HEAD COACH DESIREE DRIVER

Desiree Driver was named Averett University's women's basketball head coach in August 2021.

Prior to coming to Averett, Driver had served as the women's basketball assistant coach at fellow USA South member N.C. Wesleyan College since October 2012. In 2021, she helped guide the Bishops to the USA South East Division title following a 12-0 record in conference and a 15-1 mark overall, including a win over Division I UNC Greensboro. While at N.C. Wesleyan, Driver also worked as the director of intramural sports and recreation. Before returning to her alma mater, Driver spent one year as the assistant varsity and junior varsity girls' basketball coach at Flagler Palm Coast High School in Palm Coast, Florida. Driver has additional coaching experience working with various camps and clinics.

A native of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Driver was a four-year starter for the N.C. Wesleyan women's basketball program from 2007-11. A two-time team captain, Driver earned USA South Academic All-Conference honors all four years and earned the Scholar Athlete Award three times.

Driver earned her bachelor of science in exercise science in 2001 from N.C. Wesleyan, and she completed her master's degree in parks, recreation, tourism and sports management from North Carolina State University in 2016.
