ROSS NAMED PRESEASON SECOND TEAM ALL-SWAC EARLIER THIS FALL

- Alabama State junior Jacoby Ross earned preseason honors on a vote of the league's head coaches and sports information directors earlier this summer.
- Ross, who was named Second Team Preseason All-SWAC, played in 31 games with 26 starts as a sophomore, and finished second on the team in scoring last season averaging 12.6 points per game.
- He also dished out 2.3 assists per game, while averaging 31.6 minutes per game. He finished the season shooting 34.0 (126-of-371) percent from the floor, and 33.3 (68-of-204) percent from beyond the arc. Ross also shot a team-high 83.5 (71-of-85) percent from the free throw line.
- The junior grabbed a total of 83 rebounds, averaging 2.7 rebounds per game and recorded 27 steals last season. He also scored in double figures 19 times, including 20-plus points five different times.

HORNETS PICKED TO FINISH FOURTH IN THE SWAC IN PRESEASON POLL

- The Hornets were picked fourth in the preseason poll with 140 votes, just behind Grambling State in third with 146 points.
- Texas Southern was picked second (156) and defending champion Prairie View A&M was picked to repeat with 161 total votes.

FATHER AND SON DUO STILL ON BENCH AND IN UNIFORM FOR THE HORNETS

- Although one Rogers' sibling graduated two years ago, one remains in uniform this season. Redshirt junior Austin Rogers has two years of eligibility remaining for the Hornets.
- He joins his father, Steve on the roster this year for the Hornets as he remains on the bench as an assistant coach.

DROPPING DIMES

- Kevin Holston picked up where he left off the 2018-19 season against (7/8) Gonzaga in the season opener. The DC-native dished out seven assists in the opener against the nationally-ranked Zags.
- He ended the 2018-19 season with six assists against Texas Southern in the conference tourney.

BIG MEN STEP UP AGAINST TALLER ZAGS

- Although there was foul trouble early on for the post players of Alabama State, they all responded.
- Brandon Battle, Mike Stone and Tyrese Robinson - all 6-7 or taller - got into foul trouble early, with Stone fouling out in the second half.
- However, they responded by combining for 21 points against the taller lineup of Gonzaga.

ROSS HITS FROM DEEP AGAINST GONZAGA

- Jacoby Ross produced one of his better shooting nights of his career in the season opener.
- After having a quiet first half of the first half, Ross caught fire and connected on 4-of-6 from beyond the arc on the night.
- Ironically all of his three-pointers came from the left wing.

CLOSE IN THE SECOND HALF

- After trailing by just one, Alabama State gave up a 13-0 run to the Zags in the first half and trailed by 12 at the break.
- After a pair of three-pointers from Jacoby Ross, the Hornets found themselves down just nine to the nationally-ranked Zags before Gonzaga was able to pull away.

HEAD COACH, LEWIS JACKSON

Lewis Jackson, one of the all-time greats in school history, will be returning for his 15th year as head basketball coach at Alabama State University.

Jackson was a legend as a player at ASU. The Wetumpka, Ala., native became his alma mater's head coach in June 2005, catapulting the former player and assistant coach to the top of the program he helped build into a Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) powerhouse.

Jackson had served as an assistant as ASU since the 2000-01 season and has been an integral part of the program's success. ASU has won two SWAC Tournament Championships (2009, 2011) and earned NCAA Tournament berths with those championships. He also led the Hornets to regular season conference titles in 2008 and again a year later in 2009. Last season he led the Hornets to a program first appearance in the CollegeInsider's Tournament.

The 2014-15 season saw the Hornets near the top of the SWAC the entire season finishing the season with a 19-10 overall record and a second-place conference finish with a 14-4 record.

Following the season Jamel Waters and Maurice Strong were named All-SWAC while Steve Rogers was named the SWAC Freshman of the Year.

Jackson led the team to a turnaround during the 2013-14 season, finishing the year with a 19-13 record, including a tie for second place in the SWAC with a 12-6 record. Jamel Waters and Bobby Brown were named to the All-SWAC team following the season.

The Hornets season saw them advance to the semifinals of the conference tournament and earning a first-ever invitation to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) where they faced Sam Houston State in the opening round.

The 2012-13 turned out to be one of the most challenging seasons' since Jackson took over the program. The team consisted of 10 new players and the scheduled included the likes of Middle Tennessee, Florida, Central Florida and Detroit, all 20-win programs and post-season tournament participants.

ASU rebounded once Southwestern Athletic Conference play started and finished the season tied for fifth at 8-10. Of the 10 losses, seven were by 10 points or less.

In 2011-12 Jackson led ASU to a 12-19 overall season, playing what may have been the toughest schedule in the history of the program. Of the team's 19 losses, 10 of those were by seven points or less and that included four losses by three points or less.

Jackson led the Hornets during a four-year run from the 2007-08 season through the 2010-11 season which saw ASU win two SWAC Regular Season championships, two SWAC Tournament titles, make appearances in two NCAA Tournaments and an NIT appearance.

The 2010-11 year was two seasons in one as ASU season struggled the first half of the season and then picked up steam in the second winning 11 of their final 12 regular season games which culminated in a SWAC Tournament Championship and another trip to the NCAA Tournament.

The 2009-10 season marked the third consecutive year that ASU finished with a winning record. The Hornets made it to the semi-final round of the SWAC tournament. The team included a pair of First Team All-SWAC players - Menji Mundadi and Tremayne Moorer.

In 2008-09, Jackson guided the Hornets to a 22-10 mark and a 16-2 conference record en route to a second consecutive SWAC regular season crown. In addition, ASU captured the SWAC Tournament title earning the conference's automatic NCAA Tournament berth.

In 2007-08, Jackson led Alabama State to the SWAC regular season championship with a 15-3 record, finishing the season 20-11 overall with an appearance in the NIT. The Hornets never lost back-to-back SWAC games that season and outscored their league opponents by more than 11 points per game.

Jackson began learning his up-tempo, full-court style as a graduate assistant at ASU under the late James Oliver Sr. Over the next five years, he served as a basketball instructor. In 1998, he coached The Challenge—an Amateur Athletic Union team that featured some of the top high school talent in the country, including stars Alvin Pettway and Tyrone Levett.

As strong as his coaching resume has been, Jackson's credentials as a player are equally as impressive. While playing for Wetumpka High, Jackson led his team to back-to-back state championships and was twice chosen as Most Valuable Player of the state tournament.

Jackson then selected ASU to continue his basketball career, becoming one of the best players in school history. After breaking into the starting lineup four games into his freshman season, he went on to score 2,203 points—ranking fourth on ASU's all-time scoring list.

After his senior season in 1984, Jackson was named SWAC Player of the Year, Black College Basketball Player of the Year and a Black College All-American. He was drafted by the Golden State Warriors in the third round and received an invitation to try out for the United States Olympic basketball team. He would ultimately play professionally in Australia, Canada and the Philippines before retiring in 1990.

In 1999, Jackson was inducted into the SWAC Hall of Fame. A year later, he was selected for inclusion in the Alabama State University Hall of Fame. His number, 33, is retired by ASU and hangs in the Dunn-Oliver Acadome. Wetumpka High School retired both numbers Jackson donned, 34 and 35.

Jackson is married to ASU's head women's basketball coach, Freda Freeman-Jackson. They have two children: Antron and Bianca.

Boise State used a pair of first half runs in which they held Alabama State to just one basket to pull away from the Hornets for a 100-57 victory at ExtraMile Arena Saturday night.

GAME 11

December 21, 2019
St. Petersburg, Fla. | MacArthur Center

Trailing by as many as 12, Alabama State fought back in the second half with two chances to take the lead, but their second half rally fell short in a 71-63 loss to UAB at the Basketball Destination St. Pete Classic Saturday night.

Alabama State (1-10) trailed by as many as 12 in the first half before a furious rally early in the second half due to full court pressure and 60 percent shooting, tied the game at 40-all with 14:27 to play. However, a missed shot turned into a 7-1 run by the Blazers to give UAB a 47-41 lead with 12:08 remaining in the game.

The Hornets to draw within a point again at 53-52 with 8:31 to play in the half on a layup by Austin Rogers, but UAB answered with another run to push the lead to 10 with just over six minutes to play. However, Alabama State did not go away as they pulled to within five with just under two minutes to play but couldn't convert on a free throw and layup. Those two misses allowed UAB to put the game away.

Tobi Ewuosho led Alabama State with 17 points and six rebounds, while also dishing out three assists and recording a pair of steals. He finished the night shooting 8-of-15 from the floor, while Brandon Battle added 10 points and seven rebounds. Four other players combined 33 points for Alabama State who finished the night shooting 40.7 (24-of-49) percent from the floor and 29.2 (7-of-24) percent from beyond the arc.
