2025-26 ALABAMA STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL

HEAD COACH TONY MADLOCK

Memphis, 1991
4th Season At Alabama State • (41-58 .414)
6th Season Overall • (57-78 .427)

Tony Madlock enters his fourth season as the head men's basketball coach at Alabama State University after arriving on campus for the 2022-23 season.

Madlock led the Hornets to a historic 2024-25 season as ASU won 20 games for only the fifth time in school history, and the first since the 2008-09 season.

The Hornets finished the season on a magical run that saw them win 10 of their final 12 games, including three consecutive at the SWAC Tournament to win the program's fifth tournament title, which also saw them move on to the program's fifth NCAA Tournament with the automatic berth. The Hornets finished the regular season 20-16 overall and 12-6 in SWAC action.

ASU made its second First Four appearance and picked up the program's first NCAA Tournament victory with a last-second basket to defeat Saint Francis 70-68. From there the Hornets moved into the First Round of the NCAA Tournament against #1 seed Auburn.

Following the season Madlock was named the HBCU Sports Coach of the Year, while Amar Knox was named First Team All-SWAC and TJ Madlock was named to the second team.

His second season saw the Hornets improve from eight wins from his first season to 13 wins in season two, which also saw ASU improve from six conference wins in season one to eight wins in season two.

In his first season at the helm of the Hornets, Madlock led the team to an 8-23 record including a non-conference victory over Eastern Illinois, while also leading the team to six Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) victories in his first season. He also coached his son, T.J., to the SWAC Newcomer of the Year award after averaging 11.2 points per game.

Madlock came to Alabama State after a year at South Carolina State in which his team finished 15-16 overall and 7-7 in the MEAC, falling to Morgan State in the conference tournament. The Bulldogs recorded non-conference victories over South Florida, High Point, Tennessee State, The Citadel, and Charleston Southern. They averaged 71.8 points per game last season while shooting 39.3 percent from the floor, while also leading the nation in offensive rebounds per game (15.23). They also finished third in the country in total rebounds per game at 41.81, trailing only Buffalo and Gonzaga.

He was named as a finalist for the Joe B. Hall Award, given to college basketball's top first-year coach after leading South Carolina State to its highest win total since 2015-16. The 15 wins by South Carolina State is the highest total in five seasons, with he and his son – TJ – leading the Bulldogs to one of the top turn-arounds in the NCAA with 14 more wins than the program had all of 2020-21.

Prior to being named the head coach of the Bulldogs, he spent three years as an assistant coach under former NBA All-Star Penny Hardaway at Memphis. Madlock, who has 25-plus years of experience as a college assistant, also spent 2017-18 as the interim head coach at Ole Miss. During his time at Memphis, he reunited with Hardaway – a teammate during the 1991-92 season in which they reached the 1992 Elite Eight. As an assistant coach on the Tiger staff, he helped guide Memphis into a national powerhouse beginning in 2018 with the No. 1 recruiting class in 2019.

While at Ole Miss (2015-17), Madlock helped guide the Rebels to back-to-back 20-win seasons, including a trip to the NIT Quarterfinals. He coached the Rebels' Sebastian Saiz to all-league honors and to a record-breaking senior season, as well as Stefan Moody, who earned first team All-SEC honors for two straight years.

Prior to Ole Miss, Madlock spent four seasons as an assistant coach on Tony Barbee's staff at Auburn and four seasons as an assistant at UTEP. He was an assistant at Arkansas State for nine seasons, where he spent six of his nine years as the assistant head coach prior to leaving for UTEP. He helped Arkansas State to the 1998 Sun Belt Conference regular season championship and the 1999 Sun Belt Conference tournament title, during a stint in which recruited six JUCO All-Americans and the only junior college player in Arkansas State history to score 1,000 points in two seasons. He is also credited with developing four all-conference players
