Baptist Bible takes NEAC Women's X-Country Championship;
Keystone Dominates Men's Championship

Cazenovia, N.Y. – The Sat., Oct. 29 Cazenovia College-hosted North Eastern Athletic Conference Cross-Country Championships provided a number of thrilling finishes and record-breaking performances.

The Keystone College Giants dominated the field with a team score of 43 to take the men's team championship. With three runners in the top-10, and four runners in the top-20, every Keystone scorer or displacer finished in the top-20. Tim Nowakowski led the way for the Giants. He finished third in the individual results with a time of 28:27.

The Baptist Bible College Defenders finished second in the men's team competition. Led by Andrew Warner's fourth place finish, the Defenders finished with 68 team points.

The individual men's champion was Penn. State – Berks College Nittany Lion Ronak Patel. A freshman, Patel ran a blistering course-record 27:40. Berks finished in fourth with a team score of 117, 43 points off of the pace set by the third-place Bard College Raptors. Patel, by finishing first, was also named the NEAC Cross-Country Runner of the Year.

Tim Doyan ('09, Bennington, Vt. / Mount Anthony Union HS) finished second in the individual results for Cazenovia. Doyan's [pictured above] time of 28:01 contributed to a sixth-place Cazenovia men's team finish.

The women's race finished with Baptist Bible taking the team crown with a 71-point effort. Danielle Seelhorst and Liz Atkins both led the way with a third-place and fifth-place finish, respectively.

Keystone College and Cazenovia College tied with 89 points in the team competition. However, by the merits of the NEAC tie-breakers, Keystone gets credit for a second-place team finish. The Giants' freshman Jackie Kirby had an outstanding day and was named NEAC Women's Runner of the Year. Kirby finished with in first-place with a course-record 21:14.

Cazenovia, who finished third in the team competition, was led by Priscilla (Constableville / Morrisville State College). Paluck [pictured below], a senior competing in her last Wildcats fall cross-country event, finished seventh in the individual results with a time of 22:41.

The Keuka College Storm's Kasi Sanders finished in second place in the women's individual results. Her 21:46 finish helped the Storm to a fourth-place women's team finish.

The top seven performers in each race received First-Team All-NEAC recognition. Runners 8-14 received Second-Team All-NEAC recognition. Runners 15-21 received All-NEAC Honorable Mention recognition.

The Chestnut Hill College Griffin's women's team did not participate as a scoring participant.

This event concludes the fall cross-country regular season for Cazenovia and the NEAC.
