HEAD COACH KIM MULKEY

When Women's Basketball Hall of Famer Kim Mulkey accepted the position of women's basketball head coach at Baylor University, few could have predicted the dramatic and prestigious turn the program was about to take. In just nine years at Baylor, the former All-American and Olympic Gold medalist has guided the Lady Bear basketball program to the pinnacle of women's basketball, the 2005 NCAA national championship, eight NCAA Tournament appearances and nine 20-win seasons.

The 2005 national title was Baylor's first for a women's team sport and the first basketball national title, men's or women's, in the Big 12 Conference's 13-year history.

In winning the 2005 title, Mulkey became the first person, man or woman, to win a basketball national championship as a player, assistant coach and head coach.

En route to the NCAA championship, the Lady Bears won their first Big 12 Conference championship and were the league's tournament champion as well. Baylor claimed another Big 12 title by winning the league's 2009 postseason tournament.

Mulkey has produced amazing results since taking over the reins of the program on April 4, 2000, averaging 26.4 wins a season. In her 10 years at the program's helm, she has posted an impressive 264-75 (.779) record which ranks her No. 4 nationally in winning percentage. In addition, the Lady Bear program ranks No. 6 among the NCAA Division I's winningest teams over that span.

Since taking over a squad that was just 7-20 the season prior to her arrival, Mulkey has guided the Lady Bears to 10 postseason appearances, including nine NCAA Tournaments, two trips to the Women's Final Four and a trip to the 2003 WNIT finals.

Mulkey's autobiography, "Won't Back Down," hit bookstores on Nov. 1, 2007, the paperback edition became available on Sept. 8, 2008.

Since coming into the league in 2000-01, Kim Mulkey owns the top winning percentage and most victories among Big 12 coaches at 77.9 percent (264-75).

All told, it was Baylor's seventh 20-20 performance and only the second recorded in Big 12 Conference play by a Lady Bear. Danielle Crockrom tallied 41 points and 22 rebounds against Texas A&M on Jan. 20, 2001.
- In addition, eight of Mulkey's 10 Baylor squads have posted 25-win seasons, including seven straight.

Last Time Out...

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) - Baylor's youth nearly cost the Lady Bears a trip to Final Four, and ended up saving the day.

Phenomenal freshman Brittney Griner caught a pass, spun around and hit a short jumper with 45 seconds left to propel fourth-seeded Baylor to a 51-48 win over No. 2 seed Duke on Monday night for its second trip ever to the Final Four.

"I knew we needed that bucket so I did everything I could to get position and to have (the defender) pinned behind me and step through and go up strong," Griner said.

Duke led the entire second half until Griner's basket and by as much as 10 points--enough for freshman Jordan Madden to start longing for the bench.

"I really didn't want to be out there because I didn't want to make a mistake and turn the ball over or foul and let them shoot free throws," Madden said.

The Blue Devils held a 46-38 advantage with 4:59 left before a pair of free throws by Kimetria Hayden launched a 13-2 run for the Lady Bears (27-9).

Krystal Thomas spent 26 minutes guarding Griner in the paint before fouling out with 2:17 left. That cleared the way for Griner, who hit the game-winning shot over Cheek's extended arm.

Hayden, also a freshman, made a pair of free throws and stole the following inbounds pass by Cheek, dishing it to Melissa Jones for a layup with 2:10 left that pulled the Lady Bears within one. Jones, who finished with 10 points, also hit a pair of free throws with 26 seconds left, forcing Duke (30-6) to scramble.

A fired-up Mulkey sat Griner for 20 seconds early in the second half because she wasn't playing aggressively enough and spent a timeouts after Hayden's two free throws yelling at Hayden and fellow freshman Shanay Washington for their lack of effort in rebounding.

"Dang if the kid doesn't come back and make the play of the game under the basket pressing," Mulkey said of Hayden's steal. "It's what you get with freshmen. You get the good and you get the bad."

Two 3-point attempts by Cheek in the last 17 seconds bounced off the rim as the Blue Devils missed their last nine shots and a chance at their first Final Four since 2006.

Griner just missed her third triple-double of the season, finishing with 15 points, 11 rebounds and nine blocks.

The game was every bit the defensive battle that was expected, with Baylor shooting 27.6 percent and Duke 24.2 percent in the first half. The Lady Bears have held each of their opponents in the NCAA tournament to under 35 percent shooting.

Griner, who blocked 14 shots in the second round against Georgetown to set an NCAA tournament single-game record, has 35 through four tournament games. That broke the previous record of 30 by Duke's Alison Bales in 2006.

Duke shot a season-worst 23.1 percent for the game, and for once the Blue Devils weren't able to generate points through their offense with Baylor handling the pressure.

Duke has thrived off low-scoring games this season. It was the 23rd time the Blue Devils held an opponent to 60 or fewer points but only the first time they'd lost when doing so.

Triple-Doubles...

- Brittney Griner etched her name in the Baylor record books when she produced the program's first triple-double on Dec. 16 against Oral Roberts. The 6-8 post poured in a career-high 34 points, blocked a career-high 11 shots and hauled down 13 rebounds in Baylor's 101-76 victory.
- In that same game, Melissa Jones narrowly missed a triple-double, ending with 15 points, nine rebounds and nine steals.
- Griner added back-to-back triple-doubles when she tallied 24 points, 11 blocks and 10 rebounds against Colorado on Feb. 6, and 17 points, 11 blocks and 10 rebounds at Oklahoma on Feb. 10.

* school record

- Griner is the only player in the Big 12 Conference to record three triple-doubles this season. Only Griner and former Kansas State standout Shalee Lehning have produced three triple-doubles in a season, as Lehning tallied three in 2009 and a Big 12 record five for her career.
- Griner is one of two NCAA Division I players to produce three triple-doubles this season. St. Mary's (Calif.) junior Louella Tomlinson also has three. Overall, only 20 players have registered a triple-double this season.

Injury Update...

- After missing 11 straight games due to a stress reaction in her right leg, Melissa Jones is back in the starting lineup. She narrowly missed a double-double against Fresno State, she scored 11 points and hauled down nine rebounds and added eight points, 10 rebounds, four assists and three steals in 40 minutes against No. 13 Georgetown.
- Freshman guard Jordan Madden injured her right knee in the first half at Iowa State (Feb. 13). She suffered a sprained medial collateral ligament (MCL) and rehabilitation was expected to take four to six weeks. However, she progressed faster than expected and has played in six of Baylor's last seven games (Texas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Fresno State, Tennessee).
- Sophomore point guard Cherrish Wallace hasn't played this season due to a leg stress fracture and subsequent surgery.

More for the Record Books...

- The Lady Bears' .692 shooting percentage (36-52) against Texas State on Jan. 2, marked the best shooting percentage in school history. The previous record was 67.2 percent (39-58) against Oklahoma on Feb. 1, 1998.
- In addition, the .692 shooting percentage ranks as the second-best mark in NCAA Division I this season.
- Baylor's 13-for-13 from the free throw line against Kansas on Feb. 28, was the third-best perfect free throw performance in program history. BU was 20-of-20 against Texas Tech (2/19/06) and 16-of-16 against Texas A&M (2/25/07).
- Brittney Griner has already become the program's top-scoring freshman. Her 631 points and 18.6 points per game surpassed Mary Lowry's 498 total points and 17.8 scoring average set during the 28-game 1992-93 season.
- Baylor's 622 free throws made breaks the program's single-season free throws made mark (in NCAA competition) set in the 2004-05 season.
- Griner's 10 blocks against Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship quarterfinals broke OU's Courtney Paris' 2008 tournament record of seven blocks in a game.
- Baylor's 14 blocks against Georgetown set an NCAA Tournament single-game record.
- Griner set an NCAA Tournament single-game block record with her 14 against Georgetown. It also bettered her own Big 12 and Baylor single-game block record.
- Griner's 14 blocks against Georgetown enabled her to break the NCAA Division I single-season block record set earlier this season by St. Mary's junior Louella Tomlinson. Griner now has 218 for the year with at least one more game to go while Tomlinson ended her season with 195 when her squad lost in the WNIT to Utah.
- Baylor's 16 team blocks against Georgetown set a new program record for blocks in a game, eclipsing the previous mark of 15 against New Orleans (Dec. 20, 1986) and Oregon (Dec. 12, 2007).
- Griner's 35 NCAA Tournament blocks is a tournament record.

Freshmen Starters...

- Brittney Griner became just the seventh Baylor freshman since 1978-79 to record a start in the opening game of their rookie season. She joins Maggie Davis (1986-87), Charlene Hudlin (1988-89), Jennifer King (1989-90), Mary Lowry (1992-93), LaToya Ellis (1995-96) and Chanelle Fox (2000-01) in the elite group.
- All told, two freshmen have started almost every game this season. Griner has started all 34 of the games she's played in, while Shanay Washington has started in 31 of the 35 games she's played in. In addition, Kimetria Hayden has started in eight games during her rookie campaign.

Griner Sets NCAA Single-Season Block Record...

- Brittney Griner has overtaken St. Mary's junior Louella Tomlinson for the NCAA Division I single-season block record. Griner rejected a NCAA Tournament record 14 shots against Georgetown and has since raised her season mark to 218. Tomlinson's team was eliminated from the WNIT by Utah, as she finished her junior season with 195 blocks.
- Griner will get a chance to add to her total when the Lady Bears take on Connecticut on Sunday in NCAA Tournament semifinal action.
