BIG 12 CONFERENCE

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

To support the overall mission of the University by providing a nationally competitive intercollegiate athletics program that attracts, nurtures and graduates student-athletes who, under the guidance of a high-quality staff, pursue excellence in their respective sports, while representing Baylor with character and integrity. Consistent with the Christian values of the University, the department will carry out this mission in a way that reflects fair and equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff.

Baylor University is an equal opportunity institution whose programs, services, activities and operations are without discrimination as to sex, color, or national origin, and are not opposed to qualified handicapped persons.

MEDIA INFORMATION

BAYLOR BALLPARK PRESS FACILITIES

Baylor Ballpark features one of the nation's top press facilities, comprised of the Jack D. Loftis press box and the Jarrell McCracken broadcast booths.

Press facilities at Baylor Ballpark are governed by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association and by Baylor Athletics Communications. A professional atmosphere will be maintained at all times. Cheering, clapping or loud talking inside the Jack D. Loftis press box will not be tolerated and are grounds for removal at the discretion of Zach Rhodes, associate director of athletics communications and contact for Baylor Baseball.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Statistics, game notes and rosters are available at the upstairs elevator lobby. Telephones, stat monitors and work space also are available in the press box and in each broadcast booth. Box scores are distributed on the field prior to postgame interviews and also are available in the press box following the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Steve Rodriguez and selected players will be available for interviews 10 minutes after the conclusion of all games. Rodriguez meets with media via Zoom after an interview with the Baylor/IMG Radio Network. Requests for postgame interviews with specific players should be made to Zach Rhodes by the end of the eighth inning. Baylor's clubhouse is closed to the media.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

Head coach Steve Rodriguez and student-athletes also will be available for interviews prior to practice on Thursdays via Zoom. Baylor's Thursday practices usually start at 2:30 p.m. Interviews before a road trip on the travel day will be held via Zoom. Wednesday is typically the team's off day.

Requests for pre-practice interviews with specific players and requests for additional interviews with Rodriguez should be made to Zach Rhodes, no less than 24 hours in advance.

BAYLOR MEDIA INFORMATION

For media information, including photos, logos and video FTP information, please contact Zach Rhodes from the communications staff.

BAYLOR VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS FTP SITE

Baylor provides broadcast-quality video of home game postgame highlights via FTP download. Contact Baylor Athletics Communications for more information.

WEB-BASED MEDIA

Web-based media from sites affiliated with established, nationally recognized news-gathering organizations are eligible for media credentials. Online media with an emphasis on the recruitment of potential student-athletes (that meet the above qualification) can request one (1) credential for the purpose of writing a game/event recap.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling. Nor will credentials be granted to "fan-submitted" or un-edited sites that are not affiliated with an established news-gathering organization and/or sites whose sole entity is fan-generated message boards that allow the posting of anonymous comments.

SOCIAL MEDIA

In addition to following the most up-to-date information on Baylor's Official Athletics Site, www.BaylorBears.com, the Baylor Athletics Communications office runs the Official Twitter feeds for Baylor Athletics (@BaylorAthletics) and Baylor Baseball (@BaylorBaseball).

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Media will be informed as soon as possible should a game be delayed, postponed or cancelled due to inclement weather. Any changes to the schedule will be reflected on the Baylor Athletics website — www.BaylorBears.com — as soon as possible. Game information will also be sent out on the @BaylorBaseball Twitter feed.

Fans and media who want to check on a game's status can do so by visiting @BaylorBaseball on Twitter.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Working press and photographer credentials for Baylor home games are distributed at the discretion of Baylor Athletics Communications.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead or via account-verifiable e-mail. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within 24 hours of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Zach Rhodes, Associate Director of Athletics Communications (E-Mail Zach_Rhodes@baylor.edu; FAX 254.710.1369; Mail 1500 S. University Parks Dr., Waco, TX 76706).

Credentials may be picked up in the Athletics Communications Office located in the Highers Athletics Complex, or at press will call in the ticket office at Baylor Ballpark. Parking at Baylor Ballpark is limited. Credentialed media will be allowed to park in the premium parking area if credentials are shown upon entering the parking lot.

PHOTOGRAPHER WELLS

Baylor Ballpark features four photographer wells for working credentialed media. These wells are located in the following areas: at the outfield end of each dugout, in the crow's nest atop the first-base grandstand and behind home plate just below the press box.

In accordance with NCAA regulations, flash photography of any kind is strictly prohibited at Baylor Ballpark.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF CREDENTIALS

Press credentials will be issued to working press only. Press credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working press is unauthorized. Press credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

DR. LINDA A. LIVINGSTONE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
OKLAHOMA STATE, 1982

Dr. Linda A. Livingstone is the 15th president of Baylor University. She previously served as dean and professor of management at The George Washington University School of Business, as dean and professor management at Pepperdine University's Graziadio School of Business and Management, and as a tenured faculty member and associate dean of graduate programs at Baylor's Hankamer School of Business.

As Baylor's president, Dr. Livingstone has overseen the development of Baylor's academic strategic plan, Illuminate, which details Baylor's pursuit of becoming a preeminent Christian research university, and the $1.1 billion comprehensive campaign that undergirds Illuminate, called Give Light.

A strong voice for the role of faith-based institutions in American higher education, Dr. Livingstone has established herself as a scholar in organizational behavior, leadership, creativity, and university accreditation. She has been extensively published and cited in academic and professional outlets, including American Business Review, Journal of Organizational Behavior, Journal of High Technology Management Research and the book Business and Corporate Integrity: Sustaining Organizational Compliance, Ethics and Trust. She serves on the Board of Directors of Capital Southwest Industrials and the Board of Trustees for Baylor College of Medicine. She was also recently elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the American Council on Education and the Board of Directors for Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas, Inc.

Dr. Livingstone is a member of Oklahoma State's Spears School of Business Hall of Fame and was the first recipient of the Outstanding Ph.D. Alumnus Award. She was recognized in 2015 with the OSU Distinguished Alumni Award.

A native of Perkins, Oklahoma, Dr. Livingstone played varsity basketball at Oklahoma State University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in economics and management, a Master of Business Administration, and a Doctor of Philosophy in management and organizational behavior. Her husband, Brad, a high school history teacher, also played basketball at Oklahoma State. They have one daughter, Shelby, a first-year student at Baylor's George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MACK RHOADESVICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
ARIZONA, 1993

Mack B. Rhoades, IV, who has provided outstanding leadership and vision for three NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision athletic programs, was named Baylor University's Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on July 13, 2016.

Rhoades has organized a team of dynamic administrators and restructured the athletics department to maximize efficiencies across teams. His concept of Preparing Champions for Life has provided the ongoing vision for Baylor Athletics, which aims to bolster the student-athlete experience by focusing on the areas of academic achievement, athletic success, character formation and spiritual growth. Rhoades has assisted University leadership in a campus-wide effort to structurally complete 105 recommendations related to Title IX and student safety.

The 2018-19 academic year brought several strategic initiatives to the forefront of athletics beginning with December's unveiling of the "Baylor Built" character formation program. Rhoades appointed Marcus Sedberry, Senior Associate AD for Student-Athlete Success to spearhead the platform, which is a four-year, classification specific program, which aims to ensure Baylor student-athletes participate in 48 hours of character formation programming during their respective tenures. The holistic program encompasses character and leadership development, personal skills, social responsibility, community engagement and spiritual growth.

Rhoades, in a collective effort with a team assembled by Jovan Overshown, Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs, launched - in association with NIKE - the "Baylor United" brand and visual identity for the department in April of 2019. The process produced a unified color palette, updated primary and secondary marks, new wordmarks and custom brand font and numerical system.

In May of 2019, as part of the Baylor Athletics Master Plan portion of the university's $1.1 billion "Give Light" campaign, Rhoades announced the department would build a new $105 million basketball fieldhouse following the largest current gift in the university's history. An anonymous lead gift will spearhead the Baylor Basketball Pavilion to provide an electric atmosphere for the department's highly-successful basketball programs.

Rhoades has led national searches for three head coaching positions during his time at Baylor, ultimately bringing to Waco, Matt Rhule (Football) in 2016, Casie Maxwell (Equestrian) in 2017 and Brian Boland (Men's Tennis) in 2018.

Since his arrival, Baylor has had at least 17 of 19 teams reach postseason competition in all three years, including 18 of 19 teams in each of his first two years and 17 of 19 teams in 2018-19. During his tenure, Baylor teams have earned 14 Big 12 titles. Additionally, acrobatics and tumbling secured NCATA national championships in 2017, 2018 and 2019, adding to their record five-consecutive titles, and the Baylor women's basketball team took home its third national championship in 2019. National titles for acrobatics and tumbling and women's basketball in 2019 marked the first time in school history two programs have taken home national championships in the same academic year.

Baylor continued its successful run academically in 2018-19, recording its 22nd consecutive semester with a 3.0 or better cumulative student-athlete GPA in Spring 2019. Baylor led the Big 12 in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) for the fifth straight year while 114 student-athletes earned degrees in the academic year. Eight of 15 Baylor athletics programs tracked by the NCAA registered perfect one-year APR scores of 1,000 and five different teams led the Big 12 in multi-year APR for their respective sports (baseball, men's golf, soccer, softball and men's track).

The Bears remain committed to giving back with student-athletes volunteering more than 4,900 hours throughout the Waco community in the last two academic years. Baylor's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) collaborated with Waco Habitat for Humanity to serve the Waco community through hands-on labor and connected with families in the community.

For the 12th consecutive year, Baylor's Sports Ministry Team traveled to share the love of Christ. Baylor Athletics hosted three international mission trips in 2018-19 with 49 student-athletes participating in missions to Kenya, South Africa and Guatemala.

Rhoades joined the Baylor family from the University of Missouri, where he spent the previous year (2015-16) leading the 20-sport South-eastern Conference intercollegiate athletics department, and he previously served in similar capacities at the University of Houston (2009-15) and the University of Akron (2006-09).

His first year in Columbia saw Mizzou student-athletes register the highest one-semester grade-point in school history at 3.03 for the fall 2015 term; Barry Odom hired as the Tigers' head football coach; wrestler J'den Cox win an NCAA title and earn a berth on the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team; the Tigers' men's swimming and diving team place a program-best eighth at the NCAA Championship and its women's basketball program return to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006. Bolstered by three top 11 NCAA finishes—wrestling (sixth), men's swimming and diving (eighth) and women's swimming and diving (11th), Missouri finished 43rd in the final 2015-16 Learfield Directors' Cup standings.

Rhoades and his staff developed a student-athlete enrichment program, Mizzou Made: Preparing Champions for Life. This innovative and comprehensive program is part of a campus community partnership focusing on life skills and career development among other core values.

Before moving to Missouri, Rhoades enjoyed five-and-a-half rewarding years guiding the athletic fortunes at the University of Houston as Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics. He reignited the Cougars' entire program, hiring 14 new head coaches, including 2015 FWAA First-Year Coach of the Year Tom Herman. Rhoades also oversaw a transformation of the student-athlete experience while also directing marked improvements in the areas of academics, facilities, fundraising and athletic success. In nearly every academic measurement, including grade-point average and the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate, Houston registered record achievements. He also unveiled the Cougar Pride Leadership Academy to equip student-athletes with life-long leadership and life skills.

Houston's football team appeared in four bowl games during Rhoades' six seasons, and enjoyed a historic 2011 campaign which saw it climb to No. 6 in the BCS standings en route to a 13-1 record and its first season-ending finish in The Associated Press Top 25 since 1990.

Known as an outstanding fundraiser, Houston raised nearly $100M and constructed $160M in new facilities during his tenure, including a new on-campus football stadium, a men's and women's basketball training center, a golf academy and a short game facility. Rhoades also negotiated one of the nation's top five facility naming rights agreements at the collegiate level and secured a new multi-media rights deal for Houston. Cougar Pride, Houston Athletics' fundraising arm, set an annual donation record for the fifth-consecutive year in 2013-14 as more than 3,100 Cougar Pride members contributed $4.5M to eclipse the previous mark of $3.5M set the previous year.

Rhoades and University of Houston President Dr. Renu Khator successfully steered the institution into an exciting new era when it was invited in December 2011 to join The American Athletic Conference beginning with the 2013-14 academic year. Houston's first year in The American was arguably one of the finest in school history, as its 2013-14 teams combined for 157 victories, 17 American individual championships, 10 NCAA post-season berths and a pair of American team titles. That successful surge led to Houston's highest national finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2000-01.

Rhoades served as chair of the American Athletic Conference Athletics Directors Committee, Athletics Directors Executive Committee and Athletics Directors Finance Committee after having served Conference USA as chairperson for its Championship and Site Selection Committees.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Rhoades helped the University of Akron achieve unprecedented academic and athletic success. During his tenure, Zip student-athletes earned: 765 total Dean's List honors, 213 All-Conference honors, 83 Academic All-Conference awards, 20 team championships, 14 Conference Player of the Year awards and 12 All-America honors.

Rhoades' Akron tenure was also marked by the construction of a $61.6M on-campus football stadium, the creation of a women's golf program, three-time recognition for the department's diversity strategy and the hiring of 11 head coaches. UA student-athletes also generously gave back the community during Rhoades' tenure providing more than 5,000 service hours to the greater Akron area during each of the 2006-07 and 2007-08 academic years.

He served as a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/Sports Management Cabinet—as well as its Administrative Committee, and led the Mid-American Conference External Affairs Committee. Rhoades also helped then-MAC Commissioner Rick Chryst negotiate an unprecedented TV contract for the league with ESPN.

Rhoades went to Akron after seven years at UTEP, where he worked his way up the department ranks to become the Miners Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director after starting as Assistant Athletics Director for Development. In his final position at UTEP, Rhoades oversaw all fundraising, the marketing and media relations offices as well as football external operations, men's basketball, men's golf, licensing, Miner Athletic Club and the athletics ticket office.

Rhoades, who holds a bachelor's degree in health sciences from the University of Arizona (1993) and a master's of science degree in athletics administration/sports management from Indiana University (2002), began his intercollegiate athletics career as a marketing assistant in the Yale athletic department (1996) and worked in development at Marquette (1997-98) before joining the UTEP staff in 1998.

Mack and his wife, Amy, have three daughters - Nicolette, Natalie (husband, Andrew Charbine) and Noelle.

BAYLOR BALLPARK

INTRODUCTION

Collegiate coaches named Baylor Ballpark the nation's No. 3 college baseball stadium in a 2003 Baseball America survey and a 2017 survey done by D1Baseball. com named Baylor Ballpark the best in the Big 12. Celebrating its 22nd year in 2020, the park remains one of college baseball's finest stadiums.

Baylor Ballpark is a beautiful facility constructed of red brick and exposed green steel beams, which complement the attractive architecture already found on the Baylor campus. The stadium was designed to ensure outstanding sightlines and comfort for fans, as well as meet the needs of the country's finest college baseball players.

Four entrances into the main grandstand, plus an additional ramp for disabled fans, lead to 3,200 chairback seats, including 650 field level seats in 42 separate boxes. Approximately 70 percent of the stadium seating is covered by an awning for protection from the sun or rain. New chairbacks were installed for the 2009 season.

The latest addition to the park is the Jack Ward Pitching Lab, which is located below the first base grandstand. The $220,000 and 4,000 square foot project was completed in November of 2017. The state-of-the-art pitching facility is one of a kind among all college baseball programs, featuring turf, two mounds, five motion capture cameras and software to display advanced metrics and biomechanics to improve every facet of what goes into making a great pitcher.

New in 2014 was the addition of a 24'-7.5" x 68'-7" videoboard from Floyd Casey Stadium to replace the Baylor Ballpark videoboard that was installed in 2003 next to the existing scoreboard. The Daktronics videoboard has the capabilities for instant replay, video highlights and more.

The two-level Jack Loftis Press Box is fully air conditioned and carpeted, with radio booths for both home and visiting teams, as well as a television booth. A VIP box with theatre-style seating for 12, two restrooms and a concession area also are part of the press box structure. Specially designed accordion-style windows allow a completely unobstructed view when open.

The Steve Macko Locker Room received a facelift prior to the 2019 season. The 1,200-plus square feet contains 35 custom-built lockers and as of January 2019 received a renovation that updated the design, graphics and overall feel of the locker room. It boasts the latest technology in television and stereo equipment. Located under the main grandstand, the locker room has direct access to the third base dugout. 2019 also saw the renovation of the park to include a state-of-the-art recruiting lounge that showcases Baylor's storied history in baseball, along with the addition of a nutrition space specifically for baseball student-athletes to keep their bodies fueled and primed to perform at their best.

The training room is located across the hall from the locker room, and is equipped with an ice machine, taping tables, and whirlpool areas. The equipment room is furnished with storage cabinets for uniforms and equipment and equipped with a washer/dryer area for on-site laundry.

Baylor Ballpark also houses the coaches' offices inside the stadium. Located on the third base side with windows facing the concourse, it houses the head coach's office, two offices for assistant coaches, a reception area, conference room and restroom.

The novelty store is located adjacent to the office suite with public entrance from the concourse. A beautiful glass entrance leads into the store, which carries authentic Baylor Baseball apparel and other items.

The Mickey Sullivan Room is a 1,200-square-foot room on the first-base side of the stadium used as a team meeting area and study lounge. It is equipped with a restroom of its own, as well as a countertop and sink area for food preparation. The room also serves as a trophy room and pre- and postgame meal area.

The indoor hitting cages are housed near the right field foul line. The large area (2,800 square feet) is completely surfaced, heated, and cooled. Two full-length cages are available for players' use.

Additional facilities within Baylor Ballpark include locker room facilities for both coaches and umpires, additional seating for 1,000 down the left field line and a beautiful elevated terrace down the right field line. The main concession areas and restroom facilities are located on the concourse just inside the main gate. Additional concessions are located on the third base concourse.

Despite being in just its first season and still under construction, Baylor Ballpark played host to an NCAA Regional and then an NCAA Super Regional in 1999.

The Bears took full advantage of playing at home, sweeping through the regional with wins over Eastern Illinois and Minnesota in their first two games. When the Golden Gophers fought through the loser's bracket to face Baylor again in the championship game, the Bears' bats came alive with one of the top performances in team history, scoring 22 runs to beat Minnesota and advance to the Super Regional.

Big 12 rival Oklahoma State came to Waco for that match-up. The underdog Cowboys took the first game in a slugfest, 18-11, but Baylor bounced back to claim the second game 17-7. The Bears then carried a lead late into game three before faltering and falling 6-2. Baylor Ballpark has hosted a total of four NCAA Regionals (1999, 2000, 2005, 2012) and three NCAA Super Regionals (1999, 2005, 2012).

Nine of Baylor Ballpark's top 30 crowds have come during NCAA postseason play. In 2012, Baylor Ballpark saw a record crowd of 5,911 for a Saturday night win against second-ranked Texas A&M. In 2012, a school-record 126,947 fans attended the Bears' 40 home games. Baylor Ballpark has ranked in the top 35 nationally or better in average attendance in all 19 seasons, and has seen more than 1.6 million fans walk through its gates.

In the long history of varsity baseball at Baylor, the Bears have called only four fields home for any extended period of time.

Carroll Field was the baseball team's first home. Located on the Baylor campus approximately where the Student Union Building sits today, Carroll Field was home to both the baseball and football teams.

In later years, the Bears played their home games at a pair of city fields in Katy Park and Dutton Street Park. The Bears moved back and forth between the two fields, at times playing whole seasons at one field and at other years playing in both parks during the same season.

Beginning in 1960, Baylor played exclusively at Dutton Street Park. That field remained Baylor's home until 1977, when Baylor returned to campus with the opening of Ferrell Field. A 1,700-seat facility, Ferrell Field served as home for the Bears through the 1998 season.

Construction on Baylor Ballpark began following the 1998 season. The new structure was built around the existing field. As work ran behind schedule, however, it became apparent that the ballpark would not be completed in time for the start of the 1999 season. The Bears played their first four home games that season at McLennan Community College in Waco before moving into Baylor Ballpark for good. For the rest of the year, players and fans battled construction as the park continued to be worked upon. The park was completed in time for the 2000 season and was dedicated in 2001.

STEVE RODRIGUEZHEAD COACH | SIXTH SEASON
PEPPERDINE, 2001

2017 Big 12 Coach of the Year Steve Rodriguez enters his sixth year at Baylor in 2021. In his five years in Waco he has led the Bears to three NCAA Regionals, a Big 12 Tournament title and a second-place finish in Big 12 play, the highest since 2012. He boasts an overall record of 140-98 record in those five seasons.

In the 2020 season shortened by COVID-19, he saw shortstop Nick Loftin named the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year, along with earning preseason All-America honors. Freshman Jared McKenzie led the Bears with a .406 average as the team's leadoff hitting center fielder, earning Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America honors. The Bears were 10-6 until COVID-19 shut down the season. Highlights of the year including sweeping through an SEC loaded Shriner's Hospitals for Children College Classic in Houston.

Rodriguez saw Loftin drafted in the first round of the 2020 MLB First Year Players Draft, giving the Bears the most first round selections (following two in 2019) by any program in the nation over the last two years.

In 2019, the Bears finished with a record of 35-19 overall and 14-8 in the Big 12, good for a second-place finish in the conference, the highest since winning the league in 2012. Under his direction, two more Bears in pitcher Kyle Hill and third baseman Davis Wendzel earned All-America honors. Wendzel was also named Co-Big 12 Player of the Year, the first Bear to earn the honor since Josh Ludy in 2012. Likewise, 12 Bears earned All-Big 12 honors, the most of any team in the league.

Rodriguez saw five of his players drafted in the 2019 MLB First Year Players Draft, including the first two first round selections of his career with catcher Shea Langeliers being his highest draft pick ever at No. 9 overall. Wendzel was a second first round selection 41st overall.

In 2018, Rodriguez's third season at the helm, he led the Bears to the Big 12 Tournament title for the first time in program history. The team finished with a record of 37-21 (13-11 Big 12), advancing to the NCAA Regionals for the second-straight season.

In 2017, Rodriguez led the Bears to the program's first NCAA Regionals appearance since 2012. The team finished with a record of 34-23 (12-12 Big 12) and the 34 wins under Rodriguez were the most since 2012 and 12 Big 12 wins were the most since 2013 to give the Bears a fourth-place league finish -- their best ending since 2012. Rodriguez's coach of the year honor marked the third time in his career that he's earned a conference coach of the year award and gave BU its 11th such honor.

Along the way in 2017, the Bears earned several honors under Rodriguez. Junior closer Troy Montemayor was named an All-American to give BU its first such honor since 2012. Freshman catcher Shea Langeliers earned freshman All-American status, marking the program's first since 2010. Junior starter Montana Parsons garnered Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the Year. Sophomore outfielder Richard Cunningham was named the program's first Big 12 Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. BU led the league with 15 Big 12 awards, including two first-team all-league choices, three second-team picks, five honorable mentions and two all-freshman honorees. The 12 all-league choices set a program record. The Bears also led the league with a program-record 15 Academic All-Big 12 selections.

Additionally, two players under Rodriguez (Parsons, 24th round by Miami; Kameron Esthay, 26th round by Washington) were taken in the 2017 MLB Draft. The duo gave Baylor its first multi-player draft since 2014 and at least one draftee in 40 of the last 42 drafts (dating back to 1976).

Rodriguez also helped continue the team's power surge. Baylor hit 51 home runs in 2017 in 57 games, which were 17 more than its season output of 34 in 53 games in 2016. BU had 40 or more homers for the first time since 2012 (46) and 50 or more for the first time since 2010 (57).

A successful first season for Rodriguez in 2016 saw the Bears achieve several feats that had not been accomplished in a few years. Rodriguez, who enjoyed a successful playing and coaching career at Pepperdine University, was introduced as Baylor University's 19th head baseball coach on June 12, 2015, and earned his first Baylor win on Feb. 20, 2016 in a 9-5 decision over Washington at Baylor Ballpark. The Bears used a seven-run, two-out rally in the sixth inning with seven straight batters reaching base safely to grab the victory.

Noteworthy accomplishments from the 2016 campaign include extending BU's run of qualifying for every Big 12 Championship event (20, now 21 after 2017) since joining the league in 1996, winning 10 or more (10) games in league play for the first time since 2013, taking two of three from No. 10 TCU for the program's first Big 12 series win over the Horned Frogs, hitting 30 or more home runs as a team for the first time since 2012, continuing BU's streak of finishing with a .500 record or better at Baylor Ballpark in every season in the park (18 seasons since 1999, now 19 after 2017), extending the Bears' streak of having 20 or more wins (24) in a season to 45 (since 1972, now at 46 after 2017) and posting the program's first five-game winning streak since 2013.

Among honors under Rodriguez, the Bears had 10 or more (11) Academic All-Big 12 selections for the fifth straight season, multiple (6) All-Big 12 selections for the 20th straight season (every year as a league member) and their first ABCA All-Region selection (RHP Troy Montemayor, first team) since 2012.

An All-America second baseman on Pepperdine's 1992 NCAA College World Series championship team, Rodriguez has spent the last 12 seasons as head coach at his alma mater, leading the Waves to a 401-300* (.572) record, including a 178-109 (.620) mark in West Coast Conference play, with eight NCAA Tournament appearances, five WCC regular-season titles, three WCC Championship Series crowns and a pair of WCC Tournament titles to his credit. He ranks as the second-winningest coach in program history, his 701 games coached are a school-record and he also earned a pair of WCC Coach of the Year awards.

In 2015, Pepperdine went 32-29 overall, 17-10 in the WCC and captured the WCC Tournament title for the second straight season to earn its eighth NCAA Tournament bid under Rodriguez. The Waves eliminated Clemson and Arizona State in Fullerton Regional action before falling to eventual College World Series entrant Cal-State Fullerton in the NCAA Regional final.

Rodriguez earned 2014 WCC Coach of the Year honors after leading the Waves to a 43-18 overall record (18-9 WCC), the program's most wins since 1999 and the seventh-most in program history, and a sweep of the WCC regular-season and tournament titles. Pepperdine went on to win the San Luis Obispo Regional with a 3-0 record to advance to its first-ever NCAA Super Regional (since the round was instituted in 1999), dropping a heart-breaking three-game series at nationally seeded TCU. Following the 2014 season, he served as an assistant coach with USA Baseball's Collegiate National Team.

Introduced as Pepperdine's 16th head coach on June 18, 2003, Rodriguez guided the Waves to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of his first five seasons as skipper (2004-08), averaging more than 37 wins per season in the process and winning at least 30 games every year, while capturing a pair of outright WCC crowns (2004 and 2005) and a share of the 2006 league title. Pepperdine also won three consecutive WCC Championship Series from 2004-06, advancing to the NCAA Regional final each season, and hosting its first-ever NCAA Regional in 2006.

The Waves were picked to finish fifth in the 2012 WCC preseason coaches poll, but beat San Diego in the final game of the regular season to clinch the league title and would go on to finish second at the NCAA Stanford Regional. For his efforts, Rodriguez was honored with his first WCC Coach of the Year award.

Rodriguez recruited and coached seven All-Americans at Pepperdine, including 2012 WCC Player of the Year Joe Sever, 2012 Brooks Wallace Award winner Zach Vincej and first-team All-American Aaron Brown, and his players earned 85 All-WCC honors. Four of his former players have reached the major leagues - Chase d'Arnaud, Barry Enright, Eric Thames and Danny Worth -- and his players were drafted by MLB clubs 43 times. The Waves tied a school record with nine players taken in the 2007 MLB Draft and had at least two players selected in 10 drafts.

In addition to enriching Pepperdine's proud history on the diamond, Rodriguez and his staff were also tireless fundraisers for the program. Those efforts have paid off with the installation of new stadium seats (2004), a new, state-of-the-art scoreboard (2007), a new backstop (2008), a new padded outfield wall (2009) and new turf in the batting cages (2011). Prior to becoming just the third Pepperdine player to later become the program's head coach, Rodriguez served as a Waves' assistant coach for four seasons, during which time Pepperdine compiled an overall record of 145-98 (.597), including an 88-32 (.733) mark in WCC play. The Waves captured the 2001 WCC title and made NCAA Tournament appearances in 2001 and 2003.

A fifth-round draft pick of the Boston Red Sox in 1992, Rodriguez played professionally for seven seasons with the Red Sox, Detroit Tigers, Los Angeles Dodgers and Montreal Expos organizations. He reached the majors with both Boston and Detroit in 1995.

A two-time All-American, he was named the 1992 WCC Player of the Year as the Waves posted a 48-11 mark and captured the program's first-ever College World Series title.

Rodriguez was named to the All-CWS team and was part of two memorable plays in Omaha: a grand slam that helped defeat Texas in the semifinal round and a late-inning defensive gem in the Waves' 3-2 win over Cal State Fullerton in the championship game. During his three seasons (1990-92) at Pepperdine, the Waves posted a 126-51-5 (.706) record, including a 72-26 (.735) mark in league play, with league titles and NCAA Tournament trips in 1991 and 1992.

Rodriguez' career batting average of .367 ranks second on the Waves' all-time list, and despite playing just three seasons of collegiate baseball, he is tied for third on the school's all-time career runs scored chart (187) and is fourth in hits (271). A first-team All-WCC selection in 1991 and 1992, Rodriguez made a big splash as a sophomore in 1991 when he batted .419, the third-highest single-season average in school history. His 104 base hits that season set a Pepperdine single-season record that still stands and he still ranks among the top 10 in five different single-season categories. In 2001, Rodriguez was named one of the WCC's Top 50 athletes of all time, and was selected to the conference's 40th Anniversary baseball team in 2007. On Oct. 16, 2016, Rodriguez was inducted into the Pepperdine University Department of Athletics Hall of Fame.

The two-time member of Team USA played in the 1991 Pan American Games and earned "Player of the Series" honors against Mexico and Cuba. He was also named "Player of the Series" against Korea while a member of Team USA in 1992.

Following his professional playing career, Rodriguez enrolled in classes at Riverside Community College and Chapman University before returning to Pepperdine, where he received a bachelor's degree in public relations in December of 2001. He earned a master's degree in educational technology from Pepperdine in 2003.

Rodriguez and his wife, Kimberlee, have a daughter, Julia, who is a Baylor graduate and a son, Nolan, who is a freshman on the Baylor baseball team. In October 2007, he was honored by the City of Malibu with the Jake Kuredjian Award for his service to the community. In January 2010, Rodriguez won the Top Chef Award at the Baseball Coaches Cooking Challenge hosted by the ESPN Zone in Anaheim, Calif., and successfully defended his title in 2011.

JON STRAUSS

ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON
LONG BEACH STATE, 1996

Jon Strauss is entering his sixth season at Baylor and brings more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience after spending six seasons alongside Steve Rodriguez at Pepperdine as the team's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator, and serves as pitching coach for the Bears.

Strauss' pitching staff helped the Bears to a 10-6 record in the COVID-19 shortened 2020 season, including a sweep of SEC teams at the Shriner's Hospitals for College Classic in Houston. He developed closer Luke Boyd, who tied for the nation's lead with six saves, as he boasted a 0.82 ERA in 11.0 innings pitched, striking out 16 to just one walk. Reliever Logan Freeman also thrived under his tutelage, finishing the shortened season with a 0.00 ERA over 9.1 innings of work, striking out 18 and earning one save.

In 2019 Strauss developed pitcher Kyle Hill into one of the premiere closers in the nation, as he was named a first team All-American by multiple outlets. Hill, became the first Bear to be named a finalist for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award and was named to the All-Midwest Region first team after not allowing a run (0.00 ERA) in 23 appearances, 29.1 innings of work on the season, finishing with a 6-0 record and seven saves. The 32-game, 29.1 innings scoreless streak is the longest in program history for one season and overall, he boasts a 32.2 scoreless inning streak over 24 games dating back to the 2018 season Hill's 0.00 ERA led the Big 12 and his six wins on the year were the most by a reliever nationally that did not have at least one start on the year.

Overall, five pitchers under the direction of Strauss earned All-Big 12 honors and three were drafted in Cody Bradford (6th round, 175th overall), Kyle Hill (10th round, 306th overall) and Luke Boyd (38th round, 1141st overall).

During 2018, Strauss earned recognition as one of the top assistants in college baseball by D1 Baseball as his pitching staff had the lowest ERA in the Big 12 Conference and he coached pitcher Cody Bradford to Big 12 Pitcher of the Year honors, the first in program history.

During 2017, his second season with BU, Strauss tutored junior closer Troy Montemayor to an All-American selection -- the program's first since 2012. He also quickly developed JUCO transfer starter Montana Parsons into Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the Year and saw him get drafted in the 24th round by Miami. Both players were key in helping the Bears make their first NCAA Regional (Houston) appearance since 2012.

In his first season with the Bears in 2016, Strauss mentored 2016 MLB 19th round pick and second-team All-Big 12 choice LHP Daniel Castano, All-Big 12 honorable mention RHP Drew Tolson and first-team All-Big 12 honoree RHP Troy Montemayor. Additionally, Montemayor's phenomenal breakout season under Strauss earned him a 2016 ABCA first-team All-Region nod as he converted 14 of 15 save chances with a 0.78 ERA and 22 strikeouts in 23 innings.

During his time with the Waves, the Southern California native helped Rodriguez win two West Coast Conference regular season titles, two WCC Tournament titles, make three NCAA Regional and one Super Regional appearances. He helped develop All-American and 2014 WCC Pitcher of the Year Aaron Brown along with 15 All-WCC pitchers, four WCC All-Freshman Team pitchers and had 12 pitchers taken in the MLB Draft. From 2010-15 Pepperdine pitchers compiled a 3.78 ERA and 1.39 WHIP with 34 complete games, 24 shutouts, 71 saves, 3,002 hits allowed, 1,264 walks and 2,194 strikeouts in 342 games and 3,053.1 innings.

Prior to his time at Pepperdine, Strauss had three separate stays with Long Beach State as an assistant coach (1995-2000, 2006, 2008-09). At LBSU, he helped the program win three Big West championships, appear in six Regionals and finish third at the 1998 College World Series. In 2008, five of his pitchers were taken in the first five rounds of the MLB Draft, including Big West Pitcher of the Year Andrew Liebel. Overall, 65 players signed pro contracts while Strauss was at Long Beach State.

Among his other coaching stops, Strauss spent the 2007 season as an assistant coach at San Jose State, serving as pitching coach, third base coach and recruiting coordinator. From 2003-05 he was the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator for Loyola Marymount, where he had 11 pitchers sign pro deals and won two West Coast Conference Divisional Championship titles. From 2001-02 he was head coach at Glendale Community College, compiling a 66-25 record as he guided GCC to league titles each year and was twice named Western State Conference Coach of the Year.

As a player, Strauss spent two seasons at College of the Canyons before being a catcher at Long Beach State for College World Series runs in 1993 and 1994. He spent a year in the New York Yankees' minor league system before graduating from LBSU in 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts in psychology. He and his wife Nikki have two sons, Casey and Braden, and a yellow lab named Cutter.

MIKE TAYLORASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON
PRAIRIE VIEW A&M, 1997

Mike Taylor is in his sixth season with Baylor and brings over 20 years of collegiate coaching experience. He serves as hitting and third base coach for the Bears.

In the 2020 season shortened by COVID-19, under the tutelage of the Taylor and the staff, shortstop Nick Loftin was named the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year, along with earning preseason All-America honors. Freshman Jared McKenzie led the Bears with a .406 average as the team's leadoff hitting center fielder, earning Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America honors. The Bears were 10-6 until COVID-19 shut down the season. Highlights of the year including sweeping through an SEC loaded Shriner's Hospitals for Children College Classic in Houston.

In 2019, Taylor played a big role in helping the Bears' offense to be one of the best not only in the Big 12, but also nationally. The Bears led the Big 12 in batting average (.310) and he helped tutor Davis Wendzel, who led the conference with a .367 average. The Bears ranked in the top five in many offense categories, including first in slugging percentage (.479), on-base percentage (.393), runs scored (385), hits (596) and runs batted in (349).

Taylor continued the team's increase in power production in 2017 to help Baylor reach an NCAA Regional (Houston) for the first time since 2012. BU hit 51 home runs in 2017 in 57 games, which are 17 more than its season output of 34 in 53 games in 2016. BU had 40 or more homers for the first time since 2012 (46) and 50 or more for the first time since 2010 (57). Taylor also helped develop outfielder Kameron Esthay into a 26th round pick by Washington, while coaching 10 hitters that earned All-Big 12 honors.

In his first season in 2016, Taylor helped the Bears improve their hitting numbers across the board as they hit .274 (highest average for BU since 2012) as a team with 494 hits (most since 2013), 92 doubles (most since 2012), 14 triples (most since 2012), 34 home runs (most since 2012 and equaling the past two seasons combined), 242 RBI (most since 2013) and 272 runs (most since 2012).

Taylor's guidance helped get All-Big 12 honors for IF Steven McLean (second team), OF/1B Kameron Esthay (second team) and C Matt Menard (honorable mention).

Serving the 2014 and 2015 seasons as hitting, catching and third base coach for Houston under Todd Whitting, he helped UH to a pair of 40-win seasons, 2015 American Athletic Conference regular season title, 2014 AAC Championship title, two NCAA Regionals and one Super Regional. He had five hitters picked in the MLB Draft, three ABCA All-Region hitters and eight All-AAC hitters. From 2014-15 the UH offense averaged 5.4 runs per game, hit .272 and blasted 61 home runs with 574 walks in 129 games.

Before joining Houston, Taylor was an assistant coach at Rice for 12 seasons under legendary head coach Wayne Graham. He helped the Owls to 12 straight conference titles and a 2003 College World Series title. While at Rice over 85 players under his tutelage were chosen in the MLB Draft, including third baseman Anthony Rendon as the sixth overall pick in 2011.

Prior to his tenure at Rice, the Houston native spent eight seasons at the junior college level. He was an assistant coach at Galveston College for two seasons, winning a conference title in 2000 and finishing ranked fourth nationally. He served as an assistant at Blinn College for six years, helping Blinn to a pair of conference titles and a No. 3 national ranking to end the 1993 season.

As a player, Taylor was a shortstop for Graham at San Jacinto

College. He helped the team to a national title as a freshman in 1987 and a national runner-up finish in 1988 before spending five seasons in the Toronto Blue Jays organization. Graham has called him "the best shortstop I've ever coached."

While coaching at Blinn, Taylor completed his undergraduate degree in human performance at Prairie View A&M in 1997. He and his wife Amy have four daughters: Macy Marie, Madisyn, Molly Kate and McKinley.

MITCH KARRAKERASSISTANT COACH | FIRST SEASON
OREGON, 2012

Mitch Karraker enters his second season in 2020-21 where he will serve as the volunteer assistant working with catchers and will run Baylor baseball camps.

In the 2020 season shortened by COVID-19, Karraker was a part of the staff that helped bring along Nick Loftin, who was named the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year, along with earning preseason All-America honors. Freshman Jared McKenzie led the Bears with a .406 average as the team's leadoff hitting center fielder, earning Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America honors. The Bears were 10-6 until COVID-19 shut down the season. Highlights of the year including sweeping through an SEC loaded Shriner's Hospitals for Children College Classic in Houston.

Karraker brings a wealth of experience from the University of Oregon, where he has been since 2009, both as a player and serving in various roles within the baseball program. He spent the last four seasons coaching catchers as a member of then-head coach George Horton's staff, including spending the 2016 season as the team's pitching coach.

During the 2014 and 2015 seasons, Karraker served as an administrative assistant at Oregon with duties in the baseball office and on the field as well as assisting with Oregon baseball camps. Before moving into that role, he spent one season as an undergraduate assistant coach and one season as a student manager.

Karraker joined head coach George Horton on the U.S. National Team coaching staff in the summer of 2016, serving as the bullpen coach. He was also the bullpen coach for the CNT in the summer of 2012.

Karraker also spent time coaching outside the Oregon baseball program. He was the head coach of the Klamath Falls Gems in the West Coast Summer League for two seasons before serving as an assistant coach with the Eugene Challengers, an American Legion team, in the summer of 2015. He also served as the liaison during summers between the Oregon athletic department and the Eugene Emeralds, while also working in the bullpen for the Ems during home games.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Karraker graduated from the University of Oregon in 2012 with a degree in sociology. He earned his Master's of Education from Northwest Christian University in 2014 and lives in McGregor with his wife Kelly and daughter Ella.

JUSTIN GRASSI*DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS | THIRD SEASON
FGCU, 2014

Justin Grassi enters his third season as director of operations with the Bears. He handles all business operations and team operational efficiencies.

Grassi serves as the lynch pin between the baseball office and ticketing, marketing and facilities offices within Baylor Athletics. Specific duties include coordination of practice and game video needs for coaches, team and recruiting travel, equipment management, assistance with on-campus recruiting visits, compliance and student-athlete services.

Grassi has served as a student manager for Baylor baseball since 2016, first as an undergraduate manager and then as a graduate manager since 2017. He developed policies and procedures for the training and daily duties of undergraduate student workers, helped with data and film collection and supervised undergraduate managers in addition to other duties.

Grassi has also worked as in Baylor's athletic performance department as a student worker, designing and implementing in-season strength and conditioning programming.

Prior to commencing his studies at Baylor Justin served in the US Navy Reserves for 8 years. While serving he deployed with Coastal Riverine Squadron TEN 2010 in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and again in 2013 with Coastal Riverine ONE in support of Operation Vigilant Mariner. He was honorably discharged in 2016 as a Master-at-Arms First Class with Expeditionary Warfare Specialist designation.

Grassi holds a master's in sport pedagogy from Baylor (2018), a bachelor's degree in education with a concentration in kinesiology from Baylor (2017) and a bachelor's in criminal justice from Florida Gulf Coast (2014).

Grassi and his wife Jennifer reside in Waco, Texas.

PROGRAM HISTORY

THE EARLY YEARS

Baylor's first season of baseball was in 1902. Baseball was the school's second varsity sport, following football by three years. The 2019 season is Baylor's 115th baseball season; the school did not field a team from 1943 to 1945 due to World War II.

The Bears finished the 1902 season 5-9 under the direction of coach/player J.C. Ewing, R.N. Watts coached Baylor the next two seasons before Lee Carroll led the Bears to a 12-7 mark, the program's first winning season, in 1905.

In 1906, L.F. Burseson was named head coach, a position he held for three seasons. After E.J. Mills coached Baylor in 1909, Ralph Glaze, who at the same time coached Baylor's men's basketball team, was named head coach. Glaze posted a 54-27 record in four seasons, including a 16-0 mark in 1912.

C.P. "Bubs" Mosley became the program's seventh head coach in 1914 and guided the Bears through the remainder of the teens. Mosley's second season was the first of competition in the Southwest Conference. The Bears placed fourth in the first SWC season with a 5-7 record. Baylor's best season under Mosley was 1916, in which the Bears posted a 13-7 overall record and finished second in the SWC at 6-4.

BETWEEN THE WARS

Frank Bridges, who also served as Baylor's head football coach from 1920 to 1925, was named head coach in 1920 and began the most successful era of the program's first quarter century. Baylor posted a winning record in six of Bridges' eight seasons as head coach, winning the Southwest Conference title in 1923 and reaching the 16-win plateau for just the third time in the program's young history in 1924.

In 1920, the Bears started the season 12-2 overall and 8-1 in SWC play. Baylor entered the season's final week leading the conference standings. However, the Bears dropped four straight games to Texas in that final week and finished the year third in the league.

Three years later, Baylor started SWC play 1-3 but won 13 of its final 15 conference games to win the 1923 Southwest Conference title, the program's first conference title and its last outright conference title for more than three-quarters of a century. The Bears swept a four-game series against Texas A&M in mid-season. In the campaign's final week, the Bears needed to win only two of four games against Texas to win the title. After dropping both games at Austin, Baylor posted wins of 6-2 and 5-3 over the Longhorns in Waco to claim the conference crown.

The 1923 team featured a lanky right-handed pitcher named Ted Lyons. A native of Vinton, La., Lyons earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1922 and 1923. He then signed with the Chicago White Sox and went directly to the Major Leagues. Lyons, who also was Baylor's first all-conference honoree in basketball, enjoyed a 21-year career with the White Sox. A 1937 All-Star, Lyons was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1955. To this date, he remains the lone player from the Southwest Conference's 82-year history to be inducted into Cooperstown.

The SWC began naming all-conference players in 1922. Lyons and outfielder R.M. Crosby were Baylor's first All-SWC players. The following year, Lyons became the program's first two-time all-conference honoree. In 1925, pitcher Carl Freeze became the program's first three-time selection.

In 1928, the Morley Jennings era of Baylor baseball began. Jennings, who graduated from Mississippi State University, was the first Baylor baseball head coach to have graduated from a school other than Baylor. Jennings also served as Baylor's football head coach from 1926 to 1940. In his first season, Jennings led the Bears to a 16-4 overall record and a second-place SWC finish at 11-4, falling to Texas on the season's final day to miss out on the conference title.

Baylor won at least 10 games in each of Jennings' first five seasons, including a 14-6 mark in 1929. Baylor's success in the first three years under Jennings continued into the 1930s as the Bears won 10 games in each of the decade's first two seasons. However, the middle years of the decade were slim; Baylor suffered three consecutive losing seasons from 1933 to 1935 before rebounding for a 9-7 mark in 1936. The following year, Jennings led the Bears to a 12-6 mark and a third-place finish in the SWC, Baylor's best conference finish since 1931.

Jennings coached Baylor through the 1939 season, guiding the Bears to a 13-4-2 mark in 1938 and an 11-7 record in his final year.

In 1940, Lloyd Russell became Baylor's 10th head coach. Russell guided the Bears for two seasons in his first stint as head coach before Floyd Crow was named head coach for the 1942 season.

THE POST-WAR ERA

Baylor posted a 12-9 record in 1946, the program's first season after a three-year hiatus during World War II. A.E. "Pete" Jones was the Bears' head coach coming out of the war and remained so through the 1950 season. The Bears finished third or better in the SWC standings in five of Jones' six seasons, including a second-place finish in 1946.

In 1948, Baylor competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. With a 16-9 record and a third-place finish in the Southwest Conference, the Bears earned a berth in the NCAA Western Regional at Denver, Colo. Baylor fell to Southern California 8-0 in the opening round but rebounded for wins over Colorado State (13-4) and Oklahoma State (9-8). The Bears were then eliminated from the double-elimination tournament the following day, falling again to eventual national champion USC 16-3.

The Bears finished 17-12 in 1949 and again placed third in the conference standings; however, they did not earn a second straight NCAA bid. In 1950, Jones' final season, Baylor reached the 20-win plateau for the first time ever, going 20-10.

Vic Bradford served as Baylor's head coach in 1951, and Chuck Devereaux had a one-year stint in 1952. Jones returned as the Bears' skipper in 1953 and led Baylor to a third-place SWC finish.

Boyd "Jelly" SoRelle took over the program in 1954 and continued Baylor's post-war success. The Bears finished second in the SWC twice during SoRelle's four seasons (1954 and 1956).

The early 1950s saw Baylor's first run of individual success. In 1952, catcher Larry Isbell became the program's first All-American, earning first-team honors from the American Baseball Coaches Association. Isbell also earned football All-America honors in 1951. Two years later, outfielder Mickey Sullivan was a first-team All-America selection, and the following year he became Baylor's first two-time All-American. To this day, Sullivan remains one of only two Bears to have earned All-America honors twice.

Lloyd Russell returned to the head coaching position in 1958. After sub-.500 seasons in each of his first two years back with the Bears, Russell guided Baylor to a 15-7 mark and a second-place tie in the SWC in 1960. The following year was one of Baylor's best to that point; the Bears finished the season 18-4-1 overall, 10-4-1 in SWC play and tied for second in the league standings. Despite not receiving an NCAA Tournament bid, Baylor finished the year ranked 25th nationally by Collegiate Baseball. It marked Baylor's first season-ending national ranking.

THE SCHROEDER ERA

Dutch Schroeder became Baylor's 16th head coach prior to the 1962 season. After employing 15 different head coaches in the program's first 60 years, Baylor has employed only four since Schroeder's hiring.

Schroeder, for whom the Schroeder Plaza between Baylor Ballpark and Gettman Stadium was named, led the Bears to winning seasons in each of his first seven years as head coach, including a 17-7 mark in his inaugural campaign.

After the 1965 season, right-handed pitcher Fred Rath was a fourth-round Class AA selection of the Chicago White Sox. Rath, who appeared in eight games over the 1968 and 1969 seasons for the White Sox, was Baylor's first drafted player.

The high point of the Schroeder era came in 1966 when Baylor finished 18-10-1 and shared the Southwest Conference title with three other schools at 8-6-1. Baylor had a chance to win the conference outright, hosting its final five games of the season. The Bears blanked Rice 1-0 and 2-0 in the first two games, respectively, but the Owls got the better of the Bruins in the series finale 2-0. However, Baylor bounced back four days later, sweeping a doubleheader against SMU 2-1 and 7-3. While the SWC recognized Baylor, TCU, Texas and Texas A&M as co-champions, the SWC representative in the NCAA Tournament was determined by a coin flip, won by Texas.

Jim Rath and Joe Robinson made Baylor history March 5, 1966. The duo combined on a seven-inning no-hitter at Austin College, the first no-hitter in the program's history.

The Bears reached the 20-win plateau in each of Schroeder's final two seasons. Baylor amassed 21 wins, then a school record in 1973, Schroeder's final year as head coach.

THE SULLIVAN ERA

Mickey Sullivan, who earned first-team All-America honors in 1953 and 1954, became Baylor's 17th head coach in 1974. The Bears posted winning seasons in all but three of Sullivan's school-record 21 years as Baylor's head coach.

Baylor's finest season to date came in 1977, Sullivan's fourth as head coach. The Bears finished 43-15 overall and placed third in the Southwest Conference at 15-9. After winning two of three against Texas to close the regular season, Baylor defeated Texas A&M once and Texas twice more to sweep through the SWC Tournament at Austin.

With an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, the Bears were sent to Arlington, Texas, for the South Central Regional played at historic Arlington Stadium. Baylor won its opening game against New Orleans 10-1 but then fell to Miami (Ohio) 7-3. The Bears rallied to defeat UNO again 7-1 and then defeated Miami twice to earn the program's first trip to Omaha.

Baylor's first opponent at the College World Series was South Carolina. The Bears dropped a tough 3-2 decision to the Gamecocks. The following day, Baylor was eliminated by Minnesota, again falling by one run 4-3. The Bears finished the season ranked seventh nationally, Baylor's highest final ranking until 2005.

Omaha must have been good to the Bears, because they returned the very next year. Baylor sustained the loss of three all-conference performers from the 1977 team, including All-American Steve Macko, and found itself barely above .500 at 22-17 in late April. However, the Bears posted a 10-game winning streak that included a sweep of the Southwest Conference Tournament for the second consecutive year to earn a return trip to Arlington for the NCAA South Central Regional. The Bears posted two wins against Mississippi State and one against Texas-Pan American and punched their ticket for Omaha.

Again, the Bears had little luck at the College World Series, falling to Michigan 4-0 and Miami, Fla., 12-1. The season ended with the Bears ranked eighth nationally after a 32-19 campaign.

Sullivan was named Southwest Conference coach of the year in 1977 and 1978, the first and second of five such honors for the Bears' skipper.

Andy Beene became the first Baylor pitcher to throw a complete-game, nine-inning no-hitter March 10, 1979. Beene had eight strikeouts in accomplishing the feat against Texas Tech.

Following the 1979 season, right-handed pitcher Jon Perlman became the first Baylor player drafted in the first round when the Chicago Cubs took him with the 12th overall selection. The Cubs drafted Perlman in the fifth round following the 1978 season, but he decided to return to Baylor. Perlman reached the Majors in three different seasons, one each with the Cubs, the San Francisco Giants and the Cleveland Indians.

Four years later, following the 1983 season, Baylor had four players drafted, which at the time was a program best. Included in that quartet was right-handed pitcher Stan Hilton, who was taken with the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Athletics. Hilton remains the highest-drafted player in Baylor baseball history. Also drafted that season was former Baylor head coach Steve Smith, who was selected in the fifth round by the San Francisco Giants.

Baylor opened the 1984 season with 13 consecutive wins, the best start to a season since the 1912 team finished 16-0. The 13-game winning streak still ranks as the fifth-longest in the program's history.

The Bears finished 42-13 in 1985, Baylor's first 40-win season since its first in 1977. It was the first of two consecutive 40-win seasons as the Bears went 40-22 in 1986. However, Baylor was shutout of the NCAA Tournament both seasons. Despite not receiving a postseason bid, the Bears finished the year ranked 21st nationally by Baseball America. The 1985 season included a program-record, 20-game winning streak from March 7 to March 26.

Right-handed pitcher Pat Combs became Baylor's third first-round draft selection following the 1988 season. Combs was taken with the 11th overall pick by the Philadelphia Phillies; he spent four seasons in the Majors, all with the Phillies, and posted a 17-17 record in 56 career starts.

Baylor reached the 40-win plateau again in 1991. At 40-16 following the regular season, the Bears dropped both games at the Southwest Conference Tournament in College Station, Texas. However, the NCAA still rewarded the Bears with an NCAA Regional selection. The NCAA also rewarded Baylor by sending the Bears to Wichita, Kan., home of the NCAA Midwest Regional and top-ranked Wichita State. After falling to California 8-3 in the opening round, the Bears were eliminated by eventual national runner-up Wichita State 13-7.

Right-handed pitcher Scott Ruffcorn became Baylor's fourth first-round draft pick following the season. He was selected with the 25th overall pick by the Chicago White Sox. Ruffcorn reached the Majors by 1993 and appeared in 30 career games over the next five seasons.

The Bears returned to postseason play in 1993. This time, the NCAA bid was automatic as the Bears defeated Texas Tech once and Texas twice to sweep the Southwest Conference Tournament. Baylor's destination was Baton Rouge, La., as the No. 2 seed in the NCAA South Regional at historic Alex Box Stadium on the Louisiana State campus. The Bears defeated Kent 4-1 in the opening round but fell to third-seeded South Alabama 9-3 in the second round. That set the stage for an elimination game against top-seeded LSU, which lost to Kent in the second round. The Bayou Bengals got the best of the Bears 13-6, ending Baylor's season. LSU went on to win its second of five national titles in a 10-year span.

Baylor had six players drafted following the 1993 season, at the time a program record.

The 1994 season was Baylor's last under Sullivan's leadership. The Bears sent their long-time skipper out in fashion, sweeping Houston at home in the season's final weekend. Sullivan's last game was the back end of a May 1 doubleheader. After defeating the Cougars 6-2 in the opener, the Bears completed the sweep with a 6-5 victory.

Sullivan amassed a 649-428-3 record in his 21-year tenure at Baylor. He led the Bears to five 40-win seasons, four NCAA Tournament appearances, two College World Series appearances and three Southwest Conference Tournament titles.

THE SMITH ERA

For Sullivan's replacement, the Bears stayed with their tradition of Baylor graduates. In the summer of 1994, Baylor named Mississippi State assistant coach Steve Smith, who pitched for the Bears in the early 1980s, as head coach.

In his first season at Baylor, Smith led the Bears to a 24-28 record. It would be Baylor's only sub-.500 record in Smith's first 10 years as head coach. The following year, the Bears went 32-27 and won three out of four against Texas, including taking two of three from the ninth-ranked Longhorns in mid-April.

With his first full recruiting class as juniors, Smith led the Bears to a 41-20-1 record in 1998. Baylor returned to postseason play for the first time in five years and began the program's most successful era. Ranked 13th nationally to start the season, Baylor climbed as high as seventh in the national rankings. The Bears posted a 14-game winning streak in mid-season, tied for the third-longest in school history.

Baylor entered the final weekend of the 1998 season with a chance to claim the Big 12 regular season title. However, the Bears dropped two of three to Texas A&M and had to settle for second in the final league standings. Baylor earned the third seed at the NCAA South I Regional hosted by Florida in Gainesville, Fla. The Bears were upset by Richmond 12-10 in the first round but rebounded to eliminate host and fourth-ranked Florida 10-5 in the second round. Baylor then faced Illinois in another elimination game, but the Bears fell to the Illini 8-7 in 13 innings.

Following the 1998 season, right-handed pitcher Kip Wells became Baylor's fifth first-round draft pick. Wells, who went on to pitch 11 seasons in the Major Leagues, was taken with the 16th overall selection by the Chicago White Sox. He was one of four Bears drafted that season, three of which went in the first 15 rounds. Outfielder Jon Topolski led the nation with 11 triples, becoming the first player in Baylor history to lead the nation in a statistical category.

One year later, the Bears enjoyed their most successful season since reaching the College World Series in 1978. Baylor entered the Baseball America Top 25 the week of Feb. 28 with a No. 22 ranking. The Bears remained in the publication's national rankings every week from that point until late in the 2001 season, a streak of 51 consecutive weeks.

En route to a school-record 50 wins, the 1999 team enjoyed winning streaks of 14 games (tied for third all-time at Baylor) and 13 games (tied for fifth all-time at Baylor). With a 4-2 stretch between the two streaks, the Bears won 31 of 33 games from Feb. 13 to April 9, the most successful 33-game stretch in the program's history.

The ninth game of the 13-game streak, played Feb. 26, was an historic one as the Bears christened Baylor Ballpark with a 22-6 win over Kansas State.

The Bears fell just short of the Big 12 Conference title, again finishing second to Texas A&M. Baylor swept through its bracket at the conference tournament, only to fall 4-3 to Nebraska in the championship game.

Still, Baylor was rewarded by the NCAA with more than just a postseason bid. Newly opened Baylor Ballpark, still under construction at the time, would be the site of the first NCAA postseason baseball event hosted by Baylor. The Bears defeated Illinois 7-3 and Minnesota 6-4 to reach the championship round of the four-team regional. Three months and four days after the 22-6 victory over Kansas State in Baylor Ballpark's first game, the Bears defeated Minnesota by the same score to post the program's third NCAA Regional title and its first since 1978.

Next was the NCAA Super Regional as the Bears hosted Big 12 rival Oklahoma State. Baylor won two of three against the Cowboys in Stillwater, Okla., during the regular season, but this time the Cowboys got the best of the Bears. After falling 17-11 in the first game, Baylor rebounded for a 17-7 victory in game two. The Bears led 2-1 through seven innings of the third and deciding game, but OSU rallied for a 6-2 victory and ended Baylor's season.

Five Bears were drafted off the 1999 team, including right-handed pitcher Jason Jennings. The first consensus National Player of the Year in Division I history, Jennings was taken with the 16th overall selection by the Colorado Rockies. He was named National League Rookie of the Year in 2002. Jennings was traded to the Houston Astros in 2007, and he spent the 2009 season with the Texas Rangers before retiring after nine seasons in the Major Leagues.

More than three-quarters of a century had passed since Baylor's last out-right conference title. And after falling just short in the Big 12 race each of the previous two seasons, the 2000 Bears closed the deal. Baylor swept Kansas State in Manhattan, Kan., in the season's final weekend to win the conference title with a 23-7 record. The Bears were swept at Texas Tech in the first conference series of the season but then won nine straight series with four sweeps to win the crown.

Baylor made history April 15, 2000, as Kyle Evans became the first pitcher in Big 12 Conference history to throw a no-hitter. Evans held Iowa State hitless with two walks and five strikeouts in a 4-0 Baylor victory. It was Baylor's first nine-inning, complete-game no-hitter since Andy Beene's against Texas Tech in 1979.

At 45-15 following a loss to Nebraska in the Big 12 Tournament championship game, Baylor was selected to host another NCAA Regional. However, this time the Bears' fortunes were not as sweet. Texas State defeated Baylor 6-0 in the first round. Florida then avenged its 1998 elimination loss to the Bears with a 10-1 victory, ending Baylor's season.

Chad Hawkins was named Baylor's fifth first-team All-America selection and also became the program's seventh first-round draft pick; Hawkins was the 39th overall selection, a supplemental first-round pick of the Texas Rangers. He was one of seven Baylor draft picks, at the time a school record. Freshman Zane Carlson was named Co-National Freshman of the Year by Collegiate Baseball.

A young Baylor squad battled to a 37-24 record in 2001 as the Bears reached NCAA postseason play for the fifth consecutive season. Baylor defeated Houston 7-1 in the first round of the NCAA Houston Regional hosted by Rice. The Bears and Owls met in the second round, and the host squad built a 9-0 lead through the first seven innings. However, Baylor scored five runs in the eighth and six runs in the ninth, held Rice to one run in the bottom of the ninth and won 11-10. Rice rebounded to defeat Houston in an elimination game and then defeated the Bears 7-4 to force a one-game championship. Baylor led 4-3 entering the bottom of the ninth; this time, though, it was the Owls who provided the late-inning heroics winning 5-4.

Baylor's 2001 team produced five draft picks, including consensus All-America catcher Kelly Shoppach, a second-round selection of the Boston Red Sox. Shoppach, who went on to play for the Cleveland Indians and Tampa Bay Rays before returning to Boston in 2012, won the Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top collegiate catcher.

In 2002, the Bears went 36-26 and reached NCAA postseason play for the sixth consecutive season. Baylor was sent to Austin, Texas, as the No. 2 seed in the regional and defeated Lamar 4-2 in the opening round. After a 10-8 loss to host Texas in the second round, the Bears reached their third regional title game in four years with a 10-9 victory over Lamar. However, Texas' pitching was too strong for Baylor as the eventual national champion Longhorns defeated the Bears 2-0. The 2002 team matched the 2000 squad's then-school record with seven draft picks.

Armed with one of the nation's strongest offensive attacks, Baylor reached postseason play for the seventh straight season in 2003. Leading the Bears' at the plate was outfielder David Murphy, who tallied a national-best and school-record 121 hits. Baylor led the Big 12 and ranked 16th nationally with a .326 team batting average. The Bears also established a school record with 167 doubles and ranked sixth nationally in that category. Baylor's .514 team slugging percentage ranked 13th nationally.

After an 11-game winning streak in late February and early March, Baylor found itself 14-3 on the season. That early season success laid the groundwork for a squad that finished the regular season 37-19. The Bears reached the championship game at the Big 12 Tournament only to fall to Texas 10-8 in 10 innings. Baylor was named the top seed at the NCAA Hattiesburg Regional, hosted by Southern Mississippi. The Bears defeated Murray State 7-6, Southern 10-3 and the host Golden Eagles to claim their fifth NCAA Regional title.

Having won 16 of its last 20 games, Baylor headed to Baton Rouge, La., for a best of three series against LSU. Right-handed pitcher Steven White pitched a gem in the opener as the Bears silenced a capacity crowd at Alex Box Stadium with a 4-1 win. Baylor erased an early 4-0 deficit and led 5-4 in the eighth inning of game two. But LSU got back-to-back home runs to take a 6-5 lead and went on to win the game by that score. The Tigers claimed the deciding game 20-5, ending Baylor's run.

Murphy, Baylor's seventh first-team All-America selection, became the program's eighth first-round draft pick. The first Baylor position player drafted in the first round, Murphy was taken with the 17th overall selection by the Boston Red Sox. Murphy was one of eight Bears drafted that season, again establishing a school record.

The 2004 season was a rough one as the Bears finished 29-31 overall and failed to make an NCAA regional appearance for the first time since 1997. Even harder to swallow was how close Baylor was to being really good. The 2004 Bears played 23 one-run games and lost 16 such contests, both tops nationally.

After seeing its streak of six consecutive postseason appearances and seven consecutive winning seasons snapped in 2004, Baylor enjoyed the program's best season in 2005. Returning eight of nine starters, 10 of 12 pitchers and 21 letterwinners, the 2005 Bears were the program's most experienced club ever and the nation's most experienced team that season. That maturity and experience showed as Baylor produced 12 final at-bat victories, including some of the most dramatic finishes and comebacks in the program's history.

Mid-season sweeps of eighth-ranked Vanderbilt and top-ranked Texas in consecutive weekends got things going for the Bears, who went on to claim a share of the Big 12 Conference regular season title with Nebraska. The two teams met in the conference tournament championship game, but the Huskers won 1-0 on a sixth-inning sacrifice fly.

Baylor's strong schedule, which ranked seventh nationally, a share of the conference title and a 38-21 record after the Big 12 Tournament landed the Bears the No. 4 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament, meaning the road to Omaha went through Waco, Texas.

After defeating Texas-San Antonio and TCU, both by scores of 8-3, in the first two rounds, Baylor faced perennial power Stanford in the NCAA Regional championship round. Trailing 3-2 entering the top of the ninth and playing as the visitor, Baylor got a leadoff home run from Seth Fortenberry to send the game into extra innings. Jeff Mandel, who pitched the game's final four innings, led off the top of the 12th with his first career home run to give Baylor the eventual 4-3 victory.

Clemson then came to Waco for the NCAA Super Regional. After dropping the first game to the Tigers 4-2, Baylor pitching and timely hitting eliminated Clemson as the Bears won game two 7-1 and the deciding third game 6-1. The series win over Clemson put Baylor in the College World Series for the first time in 27 years.

After sweeping Texas in the regular season and eliminating the Longhorns in the Big 12 Tournament, Baylor was matched up with its rival again in the first round of the College World Series. Texas won the game 5-1, but the Bears rebounded with the program's first win at Omaha two days later. Mike Pankratz had an RBI single in the top of the 10th to give Baylor an eventual 4-3 victory over Oregon State.

The following night, fans at Rosenblatt Stadium were treated to the second-largest comeback in CWS history. Baylor trailed top-seeded and top-ranked Tulane 7-0 entering the bottom of the seventh, but the never-say-die attitude of the 2005 team showed once again. The Bears scored three runs in the seventh, two runs in the eighth and three runs in the ninth for an 8-7 victory. Baylor and Texas met for a fifth time the next night, but the Bears fell to the Longhorns 4-3 on a leadoff walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth. Texas went on to win the national title, marking the fourth time

Baylor was eliminated from NCAA postseason play by the eventual national champion.

A school-record nine Bears were drafted from the 2005 team, including the program's ninth first-rounder — right-handed pitcher Mark McCormick, a supplemental first-round pick of the St. Louis Cardinals with the 43rd overall selection.

Baylor made its eighth postseason appearance in nine seasons in 2006, reaching the championship game at the Houston Regional. With a 37-26 record, the Bears reached 35 wins for the eighth time in Smith's tenure; Baylor reached 35 wins in a season only five times prior to the Smith era.

Zach Dillon, a Johnny Bench Award semifinalist, was named first-team Academic All-America after posting a Baylor-record and conference-leading .421 batting average in Big 12 play.

In January 2007, Baseball America ranked Baylor as the nation's 17th-best college baseball program. The Bears also were rated as one of five "rising" programs, making the second-most progress since 1999.

The 2007 season saw Baylor's youngest team in a decade (five true freshman starters) make a late-season run that propelled the Bears to a ninth NCAA Regional appearance in 10 seasons. Baylor joined an elite group of 15 Division I programs with at least nine postseason appearances from 1998 to 2007. Baylor reached the title game of the Big 12 Conference Championship for the sixth time in the event's 11-year history. The Bears then participated in the NCAA Houston Regional for the second consecutive year.

Baylor opened the 2008 season with seven consecutive wins and enjoyed its best 12-game start (11-1) since the 1984 squad won its first 13 games. The Bears climbed to No. 10 in the Baseball America Top 25 after sweeping a three-game series at Mississippi State, during which Smith claimed his 500th career victory. However, the Bears were 21-25 the rest of the way and missed NCAA Tournament play for only the second time since 1998.

The 2009 season had its ups and downs, as the Bears reached as high as No. 5 in the Baseball America Top 25 after knocking off No. 9 UCLA, No. 5 UC Irvine and No. 13 TCU in the season's first three weeks.

However, Baylor struggled to a 10-16 record in Big 12 play, and ended the season unranked after being swept in its last three conference series.

A strong showing in the Big 12 Championship helped Baylor earn a spot in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional, where it would knock off 21st-ranked Minnesota 5-0 in the first game, setting up a showdown against No. 2 LSU. In front of nearly 10,000 fans at Alex Box Stadium, the Bears dropped a 10-inning pitchers' duel against the Tigers, who went on to win the national championship.

Seven Bears were selected in the 2009 MLB Draft, the most since nine were drafted in 2005. Among the draftees was Aaron Miller, who became the program's 10th first-round selection when the Los Angeles Dodgers selected him 36th overall.

Despite an offense that started as many as five freshmen, the 2010 Baylor squad used a late-season charge to post a 36-24 record and finish as the runner-up in the NCAA Fort Worth Regional.

The Bears needed to win at least one game against Oklahoma State in the final weekend of the regular season to qualify for the conference tournament. Trailing 5-2 heading to the bottom of the ninth in the series opener, Baylor rallied for four runs and its first walk-off win of the year.

The Bears completed the sweep of the Cowboys, and then swept all three games in pool play at the Big 12 Championship before losing a 3-1 ninth-inning lead in the title game against Texas A&M.

Baylor claimed a No. 2 seed in the Fort Worth Regional, where it would lose the opener to Arizona before rebounding to eliminate Lamar and Arizona. However, TCU knocked off Baylor, 9-0, sending the Bears home with their only shutout loss of the year.

Six Bears were selected in the 2010 MLB Draft, but Baylor still returned four All-Big 12 performers for the 2011 season. The Bears were ranked No. 16 in the preseason by Baseball America, and Baylor climbed as No. 14 in the rankings before eventually dropping out after losing six of seven games.

The 2011 Bears put together a strong finish to the regular season by winning each of their last three series. Baylor won two of three at Nebraska to notch its first series win in Lincoln, Neb. since 1997, and the Bears won two of three at No. 19 Oklahoma State. BU ended the regular season with a walk-off win to clinch the series against No. 13 Oklahoma.

That late push was enough to give Baylor the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Houston Regional hosted by No. 8 national seed Rice. It marked BU's third straight NCAA bid and its sixth in the last seven years.

The Bears knocked off California in the opening round, then advanced to the championship with a 3-2 win over Rice. Cal forced a winner-take-all game by beating the Bears, 8-0, and Baylor was eliminated after giving up four runs in the bottom of the ninth to lose 9-8.

Three players were drafted in 2011, giving Baylor 77 draftees since 1998. At least one Baylor player has been drafted each season since 1991 and 23 Baylor pitchers have been drafted over the last eight years.

Baylor's 2012 squad started the season 11-7 through its first 18 games before an unofficial mascot began one of the most memorable runs in program history. After players found a beaver roaming the ballpark parking lot, the Bears won their next game in walk-off fashion, beginning a school and Big 12-record 24-game winning streak that resulted in Baylor's first-ever No. 1 national ranking.

Baylor's 20th win during the streak came on April 17 against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. In addition to tying Baylor's longest previous winning streak, the win gave Smith his 650th career victory and made him Baylor's all-time wins leader across all sports.

The winning streak included the first 18 games of Big 12 play, which was also a conference record, and the finishing touches were put on the streak when Baylor swept then-No. 2 Texas A&M in the final Big 12 edition of the "Battle of the Brazos." The sweep of the Aggies gave Baylor an 18-0 conference record, clinching the Big 12 title before losing a conference game. Collegiate Baseball had the Bears ranked No. 1 nationally on April 23, and Baylor went on to finish with the second-best conference record in the league's 16-year history at 20-4.

Baylor earned the No. 4 national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Bears dropped the opening game of the Waco Regional against Oral Roberts before rebounding to win four games in three days and claim their first regional title since 2005.

The Bears defeated Arkansas in game one of the Waco Super Regional, putting them one win away from a school-record-tying 50th win and a fourth trip to Omaha, but Arkansas rallied from a 4-3 ninth-inning deficit in game two and then won the decision game three, 1-0, in 10 innings. The Bears finished the season 49-17 and ranked No. 9 or 10 in all four major national polls.

Four Baylor players — Trent Blank, Josh Ludy, Josh Turley and Logan Vick — earned All-America honors, and the Bears broke school records with 11 All-Big 12 honorees and seven first-team All-Big 12 selections. Ludy was named Big 12 Player of the Year, while junior transfer Nathan Orf won the conference's Newcomer of the Year and Smith was named Coach of the Year.

Baylor had six players selected in the 2012 MLB Draft, bringing Smith's total to 74 players who went on to sign professional contracts during his 18 years as Baylor head coach.

The 2013 campaign saw Baylor extend several impressive streaks. The Bears remained one of two teams in the league to qualify for all 17 Big 12 Championships. Baylor had 12 or more Big 12 wins for the 15th time in 17 seasons with at least 10 wins each year. BU also posted 27 or more wins for the 29th time since 1977 and has had 20 or more wins each year since 1972.

BU opened up the season ranked No. 23 and started slowly as the Bears were swept at No. 30 UC Irvine. But Baylor quickly got back on track after posting wins over No. 2 and eventual College World Series champion UCLA, No. 29 Pepperdine and No. 12 Rice.

Then Illinois came to Waco and swept the Bears, which resulted in BU losing nine games during a 13-game stretch. That lull was quickly forgotten after Baylor split at No. 20 Oklahoma State in the Big 12 opening series and then took two of three at home from Kansas State, West Virginia and No. 8 Oklahoma.

After losing two of three at TCU, the Bears swept Texas in Waco, marking just the third time that BU had swept UT. However, Baylor lost eight of its last 10 games, which included losing series at Kansas and at Texas Tech before losing all three games in pool play at the Big 12 Championship to Oklahoma, Kansas State and Texas Tech to end the Bears' hopes of receiving an NCAA Tournament at-large bid.

Among honors from the season, Baylor had a league-best and school-record-tying 11 Academic All-Big 12 selections. BU tied a program record with four Capital One Academic All-District selections and had Kolt Browder become the third person in program history to earn the Capital One Academic All-America honor twice in a career. The Bears also had eight All-Big 12 honorees.

When the June MLB Draft came around, Baylor had five players taken to give the program multiple picks in 15 of the last 16 drafts.

The Bears had a similar season in 2014 as they equaled Oklahoma as the only two teams to qualify for all 18 Big 12 Championships and posted 20 or more wins to extend a streak that started in 1972.

BU opened the season with a nice win at No. 19 Arizona State but lost the next two games to the Sun Devils. The Bears returned home for four straight non-conference wins -- however -- a soggy trip to San Diego left BU winless in four games out west.

Like 2013, though, the Bears hit stride in the middle of the schedule. BU took two of three at home over No. 4 Cal State Fullerton, did the same versus No. 23 Texas Tech the following weekend and made it a third straight weekend series win by doing the same to No. 20 Oklahoma State.

Though, tough trips to West Virginia, Texas and Kansas State for series losses put the Bears in a tail spin until recovering for their first series win at Oklahoma since 2000.

Two weeks later, Baylor ended on a high note as the No. 7 seed at the Big 12 Championship. The Bears eliminated No. 3 Kansas and No. 6 West Virginia before a season-ending loss to No. 2 TCU.

Along the way, BU had multiple All-Big 12 selections for the 18th time in 18 Big 12 seasons and led all Big 12 schools with a school-record 13 Academic All-Big 12 selections. Doug Ashby's second-team Academic All-America selection extended the program's record streak to six straight seasons with an Academic All-American. A program-first was also accomplished during the 2014 campaign -- Logan Brown earning the program's first-ever Gold Glove, and Nate Goodwin earned the program's second-ever Big 12 Postgraduate Scholarship. Additionally, two players were taken in the 2014 MLB Draft to give the program multiple picks in 16 of the last 17 drafts.

In 2015, the Bears jumped out to a hot start by sweeping No. 13 Cal Poly to open the season, earning BU a No. 21 ranking after being unranked in preseason.

However, the early success disappeared after losing a midweek game to Dallas Baptist and then losing two of three to Kent State at home before recovering to top Northwestern State. But right after that win, the Bears endured a tough, 10-game losing streak.

The losing streak put the Bears in danger of missing the Big 12 Championship for the first time ever, but the team was up to the task to keep the streak alive. BU went on to win four of its last six games to qualify for the Big 12 Championship for a Big 12-record 19th consecutive season.

In the Big 12 Championship, the No. 8 seed Bears made a huge splash by upsetting No. 1 seed TCU in the opener. BU fell to No. 5 Texas in a very close game before coming back to eliminate No. 4 Texas Tech the next day. Unfortunately, Texas had the Bears' number and ended their season with a 4-0 win a few hours after sending TTU home.

When the 2015 season ended, the Bears had six All-Big 12 selections, 12 Academic All-Big 12 honorees and an Academic All-American in Logan Brown.

THE RODRIGUEZ ERA

On June 12, 2015, Baylor introduced former Pepperdine head coach Steve Rodriguez as the program's 19th head coach.

Rodriguez showed the ability to get the program headed back to the NCAA Tournament soon as the Bears achieved several feats that had not been accomplished in a few years.

The first win of the Rodriguez era came on Feb. 20, 2016, in a 9-5 decision over Washington at Baylor Ballpark. The Bears used a seven-run, three-out rally in the sixth inning with seven straight batters reaching base safely to grab the victory.

Noteworthy accomplishments from the 2016 campaign included extending BU's run of qualifying for every Big 12 Championship event (20) since joining the league in 1996, winning 10 or more (10) games in league play for the first time since 2013, taking two of three from No. 10 TCU for the program's first Big 12 series win over the Horned Frogs, hitting 30 or more home runs as a team for the first time since 2012, continuing BU's streak of finishing with a .500 record or better at Baylor Ballpark in every season in the park (18 seasons since 1999), extending the Bears' streak of having 20 or more wins (24) in a season to 45 (since 1972) and posting the program's first five-game winning streak since 2013.

Among honors under Rodriguez, the Bears had 10 or more (11) Academic All-Big 12 selections for the fifth straight season, multiple (6) All-Big 12 selections for the 20th straight season (every year as a league member) and their first ABCA All-Region selection (RHP Troy Montemayor, first team) since 2012.

Along the way in 2017, the Bears earned several honors under Rodriguez. Junior closer Troy Montemayor was named an All-American to give BU its first such honor since 2012. Freshman catcher Shea Langeliers earned freshman All-American status, marking the program's first since 2010. Junior starter Montana Parsons garnered Big 12 Co-Newcomer of the Year. Sophomore outfielder Richard Cunningham was named the program's first Big 12 Baseball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. BU led the league with 15 Big 12 awards, including two first-team all-league choices, three second-team picks, five honorable mentions and two all-freshman honorees. The 12 all-league choices set a program record. The Bears also led the league with a program-record 15 Academic All-Big 12 selections.

Rodriguez also helped continue the team's power surge. Baylor hit 51 home runs in 2017 in 57 games, which were 17 more than its season output of 34 in 53 games in 2016. BU had 40 or more homers for the first time since 2012 (46) and 50 or more for the first time since 2010 (57).

Baylor its first multi-player draft since 2014 as two players under Rodriguez (Parsons, 24th round by Miami; Kameron Esthay, 26th round by Washington) were taken in the 2017 MLB Draft.

In 2017, Rodriguez was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, leading the program to its first NCAA Regional (Houston) appearance since 2012 as the Bears posted a 34-23 (12-12) record in 2016.

The 34 wins under Rodriguez were the most since 2012 and 12 Big 12 wins were the most since 2013 to give the Bears a fourth place league finish -- their best ending since 2012. Rodriguez's coach of the year honor marked the third time in his career that he's earned a conference coach of the year award and gave BU its 11th such honor.

In 2018, Rodriguez led the team to its 20th NCAA Regional appearance and second-straight, as the Bears competed in the Stanford Regional. The Regional was the 20th in program history and the first time since 2009-12 that the Bears appeared in back-to-back Regionals. The Bears got there in part to a hot streak at the end of the season, as they won 24 of their last 29 games. The Bears finished the season with a record of 37-21, the best record under coach Rodriguez.

In another big year of firsts, the Bears won the Big 12 Tournament for the first time in school history. Catcher Shea Langeliers and pitcher Cody Bradford won Co-MVP honors for the Big 12 Tournament.

Bradford brought another year of firsts for the Bears as he was named Big 12 Pitcher of the Year for the first time in program history. The Bears placed 13 student-athletes on the All-Big 12 team, the most in the league for the second-straight season.

Bradford and Langeliers were named third and second team All-Americans by Collegiate Baseball, respectively. Freshman shortstop Nick Loftin earned Freshman All-America honors by multiple outlets.

The Bears finished the fourth season under Coach Rodriguez with a record of 35-19 and were 14-8 in the Big 12, good for a second place finish and highest since 2012. Under the leadership of Coach Rod, Davis Wendzel was named Co-Big 12 Player of the Year, the first for the Bears since 2012. Also under Rodriguez, closer Kyle Hill became the first finalist in school history for the Stopper of the Year Award after recording 7 saves, a 6-0 record and a 0.00 ERA in 29.1 innings pitched with 35 strikeouts. Hill earned First Team All-America honors by multiple outlets, becoming the first pitcher in BU history to be a first team All-American since Jason Jennings in 1999. Wendzel also earned All-America honors on the season.

Catcher Shea Langeliers and Wendzel were both first round selections (Langeliers, 9th overall, 2nd-highest draft pick in school history) and Wendzel, 41st overall, marking the first time in program history the Bears have had two first-round selections. Overall, six Bears were drafted, most since 2012.

The power surge continues under Coach Rodriguez, as Baylor has hit 195 home runs in 221 games under Rodriguez. BU hit 51 in 2017 for its most homers since 2010 (57), hit 54 in 2018 and came back with 57 in 2019. The Bears hit 50 or more homers in back-to-back-to-back seasons for the first time in the BBCOR era and first since 2008 (52), 2009 (73) and 2010 (57).

Rodriguez continues to preach success in the classroom along with on the field and in 2019 the Bears once again led the league with 17 Big 12 All-Academic honorees, after also doing so in 2018. The Bears set a new program record for total choices with 17 selections in 2018 and have had 10 or more honorees in nine-straight seasons.

PROGRAM HISTORY

2020 was a different season for the Bears as the COVID-19 pandemic shut the season down in mid-March. Baylor was just beginning to hit its stride coming off its Shriner's Classic Tournament Championship in Houston. BU was starting to get healthy and had a 10-6 mark before the season was cancelled. Freshman Jared McKenzie earned Freshman All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball in the shortened season and Luke Boyd was tied for the nation lead in saves with six. Shortstop Nick Loftin's name was called in the first round of the 2020 MLB Draft as he went to the Royals with the 32nd overall pick. The Bears once again were the best in the Big 12 academically with 19 conference honorees.

Led by senior All-America shortstop Steve Macko, the Bears came back through the losers bracket to take the 1977 South Central Regional title and advance to the College World Series for the first time.

After pounding New Orleans 10-1 in the regional's first game, Baylor lost to Miami (Ohio) 7-3. Facing elimination, the Bears beat New Orleans again (7-1) and Miami (Ohio) twice (12-7, 2-0) to advance to the CWS. John Schott and Jaime Cocanower combined to shutout the RedHawks in the title game.

Baylor entered the 1977 NCAA College World Series with a 43-15 record before losing two one-run, extra-inning games. The Bears fell 3-2 in 10 innings against South Carolina and 4-3 in 11 innings against Minnesota. Arizona State went on to win the national title, 2-1, over South Carolina in the championship game.

For the season, Macko led the Bears at the plate with a .417 average. Sammy Bickham (10-4) and Burl Coker (10-4) were Baylor's top pitchers, combining for 20 of the Bears' 43 wins.

For the second straight season, Baylor claimed the South Central Regional title and advanced to the College World Series. Unfortunately, the Bears also repeated their 1977 performance with a quick exit.

Despite the loss of three all-conference performers from the previous year, the 1978 Bears swept through the Southwest Conference Tournament to land a spot in the regional, then swept through the regional to earn a second straight CWS appearance.

Playing without injured ace Burl Coker, Baylor found enough pitching to beat Mississippi State (3-0), UT-Pan Am (3-2 in 10 innings) and MSU again (6-3) in the regional.

Fritz Connally earned regional MVP honors, thanks to a 7-for-14 performance with four RBI. Seven other Bears joined Connally on the all-tournament team.

In the CWS, Baylor lost its first game to Michigan, 4-0, then saw the season end with a 12-1 loss to Miami, Fla.

Baylor finished with a 32-19 record as champions of the Southwest Conference Tournament. The Bears were led by junior first baseman Luke Prestridge, who topped the team in batting average at .332, and junior third baseman Fritz Connally, who hit .316 with 11 home runs.

One year removed from the program's first losing season in nearly a decade, Baylor made its first College World Series appearance in 28 years in 2005. Baylor joined the 1993 Kansas Jayhawks as the only teams ever to reach the CWS one year after a losing season.

Eight returning starters, 10 returning pitchers with six fourth-year seniors: that was the nucleus for the first Baylor squad ever to sweep both Texas and Texas A&M in the same season. The Bears, who never lost more than two consecutive games, finished the Big 12 season 19-8 and shared the conference title with Nebraska. The two teams met again in the Big 12 Tournament title game with the Huskers edging the Bears, 1-0, on a sixth-inning sacrifice fly.

Baylor was awarded the nation's fourth overall seed, setting up regional and super regional stops at Baylor Ballpark. The Bears defeated UT-San Antonio, TCU and Stanford to win the regional and then bounced back from a game-one loss to defeat Clemson two games to one in the super regional.

In the CWS, Baylor lost its first game to Texas, 5-1. Two days later, the Bears recorded the program's first-ever CWS win, topping Oregon State, 4-3, in 10 innings. The next day, the Bears rallied from a 7-0 deficit through six innings for an 8-7 win, eliminating the top-ranked and top-seeded Tulane in arguably the best game in Baylor history. It was the second-largest comeback in CWS history. However, eventual national champion Texas ended the Bears' season the following night on Chance Wheelless' leadoff walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning for a 4-3 UT win.

Baylor finished the season 46-24 and ranked fourth nationally, the program's highest final ranking ever.

Despite the loss of three all-conference performers from the previous year, the 1978 Bears swept through the Southwest Conference Tournament to land a spot in the regional, then swept through the regional to earn a second straight CWS appearance.

Playing without injured staff ace Burl Coker, the Bears still found enough pitching to beat Mississippi State (3-0), UT-Pan Am (3-2 in 10 innings) and Mississippi State again (6-3).

Fritz Connally earned tournament MVP honors, thanks to a 7-for-14 performance with four RBI. Seven other Bears joined Connally on the all-tournament team.

In each of the first two games, Baylor rallied from behind to win (7-3 vs. Eastern Illinois, 6-4 vs. Minnesota). The Golden Gophers battled back to face Baylor again in the championship game, but with no pitching left, Baylor blasted Minnesota 22-6.

The Bears also hosted their Super Regional against Big 12 foe Oklahoma State. The Cowboys rocked Baylor ace Jason Jennings in game one and won going away, 18-11. Baylor turned the tables in game two, pounding OSU 17-7. In the decisive game three, the Bears held a 2-0 lead through seven innings before OSU rallied to win 6-2 and advance to the CWS.

Rice won its elimination game against UT-Arlington, creating a rematch against Baylor with the Bears just needing to beat the Owls once more to advance to the Super Regional. In the first championship game, Rice beat Baylor 7-4, but the Bears looked to be on their way with a 4-2 lead headed to the bottom of the ninth in the final game. In Sunday's finale, Baylor rallied for three unearned runs in the eighth to beat host Southern Miss 3-2. Tournament Most Outstanding Player David Murphy drove in two with a game-tying double, and Josh Ford followed with a bloop single that scored Murphy with the go-ahead run.

Backed by a dominant pitching staff and some timely hitting, the Bears returned to the NCAA Tournament after a one-year absence and rolled to the program's first College World Series appearance since 1978. Five different Bears recorded wins on the hill as the Baylor staff recorded a 2.21 ERA (compared to its opponents' 5.33 mark) and held the opposition to a .255 batting average en route to the school's third CWS trip ever.

Seeded fourth nationally in the 64-team field, Baylor earned home field advantage for the Waco Regional and quickly dispatched of regional rivals Texas-San Antonio and TCU. In the regional championship game against Stanford, the Bears' Seth Fortenberry slugged a solo home run in the top of the ninth inning to tie the game, before Jeff Mandel's solo homer in the 12th gave Baylor a 4-3 victory and their third-ever Super Regional trip.

Hosting a Super Regional for the first time since 1999, sixth-ranked Baylor left 14 men on base and dropped the series opener to 13th-ranked Clemson, 4-2. The Bears bounced back to take the series' second game 7-1 behind Mark McCormick's 10-strikeout, six-hit gem. With a trip to the CWS on the line and the score tied 1-1 in the fourth inning of game three, Baylor's Kevin Seivigny delivered a three-run double that proved to be the difference in the game as the Bears went on to defeat Clemson 6-1 and advance to the CWS.

Despite losing five position starters, two weekend starters and the closer from its 2005 College World Series team, the Bears reached the championship game of the NCAA Houston Regional. It was the fifth consecutive regional in which Baylor reached the championship game.

The weekend at Rice University got off to an ominous start as the Bears' opening game against 16th-ranked Arizona State, a team that took two of three in a weekend series at Baylor Ballpark in late February, was suspended due to rain with a runner on first and no outs in the top of the second. Ryan LaMotta, who relieved starter Cory VanAllen when play resumed the next day, held Arizona State to a pair of runs, one earned, on eight hits and a walk with eight strikeouts in Baylor's 3-2 victory.

LaMotta provided Baylor one the most dramatic moments in the program's history. Making his school-record tying 111th career appearance, LaMotta waved off head coach Steve Smith with a 3-1 lead, the bases loaded and one out as the skipper began to make his way to the mound for the second time in the bottom of the ninth. LaMotta got a sacrifice fly and a strikeout to end the game, the last in his Baylor career.

Baylor dropped a 7-2 decision the following day to host Rice, the nation's No. 2 overall seed. The Bears had to rebound and face Arizona State again immediately following the Rice loss in 100-degree heat. Beamer Weems' three-run homer in the third erased a 2-1 Sun Devils' lead, and the Bears never trailed again en route to a 7-2 victory. However, Rice ended Baylor's season the following afternoon.

Baylor fielded its youngest team in a decade in 2007, and it showed on several occasions throughout the regular season. However, the Bears caught fire in May, sweeping Kansas State in the final Big 12 Conference series and posting victories over 21st-ranked Missouri, 11th-ranked Oklahoma State and Oklahoma to reach the program's sixth Big 12 Championship title game in the event's first 11 years. A loss to 17th-ranked Texas A&M in the title game did not keep Baylor from making its ninth NCAA Regional appearance in 10 years.

The NCAA Houston Regional field was a familiar one for Baylor as the Bears had faced each of the other three teams during the regular season, splitting two games against TCU, defeating Prairie View A&M once and dropping two games to host Rice.

TCU broke a 1-1 tie with a pair of solo home runs in the bottom of the seventh. Beamer Weems' leadoff home run in the ninth pulled the Bears to within one run, and Baylor went on to load the bases in the frame.

However, Ben Booker struck out in a nine-pitch at-bat to give the Frogs a 3-2 victory. After defeating Prairie View A&M 9-2 in an elimination game, Baylor had another chance against TCU. The Bears led 5-3 entering the ninth inning, but the Frogs scored seven runs in the final frame for a 10-5 victory.

After dropping 10 consecutive conference games to end the 2009 season, the Bears' hopes of making a regional seemed bleak. However, in the first game of the Big 12 Championship, Baylor rallied from an early four-run deficit to defeat No. 5 Texas. The Bears added another win over Kansas, and that was enough to earn Baylor a berth in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional.

The Bears would play all three games at the Baton Rouge Regional against a pair of ranked teams. In the opener against No. 21 Minnesota, Willie Kempf turned in 6.0 shutout innings and the Bears rolled to a 5-0 win. No. 2 LSU knocked off Southern, setting up a Saturday showdown with Baylor.

Nearly 10,000 fans packed the brand new Alex Box Stadium to watch the Bears and Tigers battle for a spot in the regional final. LSU's Anthony Ranaudo struck out 14 batters in 9.0 innings, but it would take extra innings to determine a winner. LSU took advantage of a pair of Kendal Volz walks to start to top of the 10th and plated the game-winning run on Austin Nola's RBI single, sending the Bears to an elimination game in a rematch with the Golden Gophers.

Jon Ringenberg settled down after allowing two runs in the first inning against Minnesota, and the Bears held a 5-2 lead after six frames. However, Ringenberg ran into trouble in the seventh, and the bullpen allowed 10 runs in the final two innings to send the Bears to their final at-bat trailing 15-5. After hits from each of the first five batters in the bottom of the ninth plated two runs and loaded the bases, Kenton Gedwed delivered a pinch-hit Grand Slam to cut the deficit to 15-11. Ben Booker added a RBI single, but the rally fell short, ending the Bears' season.

Needing one win on the last weekend of the conference season to secure a spot in the Big 12 Championship, the Bears rallied from three runs down in the ninth inning to beat Oklahoma State in the series opener. That win got the Bears going, as they went on to sweep OSU and win all three games in pool play before falling in the title game at the Big 12 Championship.

The strong finish to the season was enough to earn the Bears the No. 2 seed at the NCAA Fort Worth Regional.

In the opener, four errors proved costly as they led to five unearned runs, helping Arizona take a 10-4 lead to the ninth inning. The Bears rallied for five runs but left the potential tying run on third base when Raynor Campbell hit a sharp liner to Arizona right fielder Steve Selsky.

With the Bears facing elimination against Lamar the following day, Jon Ringenberg allowed just one run in 5.2 innings, helping Baylor take a 4-1 lead through six frames. Max Muncy's two-run single extended the Bears' lead, which would prove to be crucial as Joey Latulippe hit a three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to cut the Baylor lead to 6-4. Brooks Pinckard moved from center field to the mound and got the final two outs to notch his 11th save of the season.

In a rematch with Arizona, Willie Kempf turned in one of the most impressive outings of the season, striking out eight without issuing a walk in 8.0 innings of work. After giving up a two-run double in the second, Kempf allowed only two hits to the next 23 batters he faced. Landis Ware's eighth-inning sacrifice fly broke a 2-2 tie and proved to be the game-winner, as Pinckard worked a scoreless ninth to earn another save and send the Bears on to the championship round.

Facing No. 6 TCU on its home field, Craig Fritsch allowed four runs in 6.2 innings while striking out eight, but the Baylor offense was held to four hits, and the Bears' season ended with a 9-0 loss.

The strong finish was enough for the Bears to secure the No. 2 seed in the NCAA Houston Regional hosted by No. 8 national seed Rice.

Logan Verrett turned in a solid outing to win the opener against California, 6-4. The following day, Josh Turley threw 135 pitches and allowed one earned run in a 3-2 complete game victory against Rice to push the Bears into the championship round.

California fought off Rice in an elimination game to setup a nightcap rematch with Baylor. Brooks Pinckard allowed only one run in 6.0 innings, but the Bears couldn't plate a run against Cal and eventually fell, 8-0, to setup a winner-take-all game on Monday.

Cal took an early 1-0 lead, but the Bears broke out for six runs in the fourth to move in front 6-1. Max Garner worked 5.1 innings in relief of starter Jon Ringenberg, and the Bears held an 8-5 lead heading to the bottom of the ninth after Verrett came on to get the final out in the eighth. A pair of errors gave Cal life, and the Golden Bears loaded the bases with one out trailing, 8-7. Verrett struck out the next batter and was a strike away from escaping the jam when Devon Rodriguez hit a 1-2 pitch into right field for a game-winning two-run single.

Baylor won its third Big 12 regular season championship and hosted its first regional since 2005 by earning the No. 4 national seed.

The Bears dropped the opener to Oral Roberts, forcing them into four must-win games over the following three days to keep their season going. Baylor faced UT Arlington in the first of those four games, and UTA had a 5-4 lead heading to the sixth inning. Max Garner came on in relief and held UTA scoreless over the next three innings, and Baylor rallied with seven runs to eliminate the Mavericks.

In a rematch with Oral Roberts, Logan Vick's two-run single erased an early 1-0 deficit, and Tyler Bremer pitched 6.0 solid innings before Crayton Bare came on to close out the game with 2.1 shutout innings.

After a two-hour break, the Bears returned to action against Dallas Baptist with freshman Austin Stone starting on the mound. Stone worked 5.1 no-hit innings, with the help of Dan Evatt robbing a two-run homer with a leaping catch over the left-field wall, and the Bears cruised to a 9-2 win to setup a winner-take-all rematch the following day.

DBU took an early 1-0 lead, but the Bears scored three runs in the second, and that would prove to be enough. Josh Turley, who was starting on two days rest after starting the regional opener vs. ORU, held the Patriots to two runs in 4.0 innings, and Dillon Newman took care of the rest, allowing only one hit over 5.0 shutout innings of relief.

Stone, Josh Ludy, Lawton Langford, Jake Miller, Cal Towey and Evatt were named to the all-tournament team, and Evatt was named Most Outstanding Player.

Baylor's Super Regional against Arkansas got off to a great start, as Vick crushed two-run homers in each of his first two at-bats, and Trent Blank allowed one run over 8.0 innings to give the Bears an 8-1 win and move them one victory away from their fourth trip to Omaha.

The Bears used a three-run fifth inning to take a 4-3 lead against the Razorbacks in game two, and Turley held the lead until turning the ball over to the bullpen in the eighth inning. Arkansas loaded the bases with one out in the ninth, and Garner induced a potential game-ending double-play grounder, but it slipped through Miller's hands, allowing the Razorbacks to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win 5-4, forcing a third game.

Bremer started on the mound and pitched 9.0 shutout innings, but the Bears couldn't plate a run, and Arkansas scored on a two-out single in the 10th hand the Bears a 1-0 season-ending loss.

Langeliers went 5-for-6 with three home runs and a career-high 11 RBI to lead the charge at the plate. His 11 RBI is not only a Baylor record, but an NCAA postseason record as well. Langeliers' three home runs also tied a BU record. Five Baylor starters recorded at least two hits and eight of the starting nine hit safely as the Bears scored 24 runs, their most ever in a postseason game and most in any single game since April 23, 2008.

No. 2 Baylor baseball's season came to an end with an 11-6 loss to the No. 1 overall seeded UCLA Bruins in the Los Angeles Regional. Cole Haring hit a two-run home run in the loss.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

1923 SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

Two years after finishing fifth of five teams in the SWC, Baylor posted a 13-5 league record and edged second-place SMU by percentage points for the program's first conference championship.

The Bears started the season 1-3 in conference play, splitting two games with TCU before being swept by SMU. However, a 9-3 victory April 13 against Rice sparked a nine-game SWC winning streak for Baylor. That run put the Bears into the driver's seat in the conference standings heading into the final four games of the season — two at Texas and two against the Longhorns in Waco.

Texas blanked the Bears 7-0 in the first Austin meeting and then edged Baylor 3-2 the next day. That put the pressure on the Bears to win both games at home later that week. Baylor did just that, defeating Texas 6-2 and 5-3.

The 1923 season featured an expanded SWC. After Arkansas joined the league in 1922, TCU and Oklahoma State began playing baseball in the league in 1923. Four Bears earned All-SWC honors in 1923: pitchers Carl Freeze and Ted Lyons, third baseman F.B. Strickland and outfielder Roy Williamson.

1966 SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE

After a 15-game conference schedule, four teams were tied atop the Southwest Conference standings. Baylor, TCU, Texas and Texas A&M all finished the 1966 season at 9-6 in league play and shared the conference championship.

The Bears actually finished the season 8-6-1 due to a 5-5 tie March 26 at Rice in a game that was suspended due to darkness. However, the league office determined that Baylor could not be penalized for tie and was therefore rewarded a victory for purposes of the conference standings.

Baylor had a chance to win the SWC outright, hosting its final five games. The Bears blanked Rice 1-0 and 2-0 in the first two, respectively, but the Owls got the better of the Bruins in the series finale 2-0. However, Baylor bounced back four days later, sweeping a doubleheader against SMU 2-1 and 7-3.

While the SWC recognized Baylor, TCU, Texas and Texas A&M as co-champions, the SWC representative in the NCAA Tournament was determined by a coin flip, won by Texas. Baylor was shunned in the hardwood department; no Bears received All-SWC honors.

2000 BIG 12 CONFERENCE

With Nebraska's Big 12 Conference schedule already complete, Baylor entered a May 12-14 weekend series at Kansas State knowing two wins would give the Bears their first out-right conference championship in 77 years.

Entering the weekend, Baylor (20-7) found itself percentage points ahead of the Huskers (21-9) and two games up in the loss column. The Bears wasted no time capturing the title, winning each of the first two games of the series. Baylor then completed the sweep of the Wildcats the following day.

Baylor sent Chad Hawkins to the mound for the Friday night start. The All-American pitched his seventh complete game of the season, holding Kansas State to three runs on eight hits and a walk with seven strikeouts. Meanwhile, the Baylor bats exploded for back-to-back five-run frames in the third and fourth innings and the Bears never looked back.

The next day, Kyle Evans took the mound for the Bears. However, this time Baylor fell behind early as the Wildcats erased a 2-0 BU lead with a three-spot in the third. K-State added two runs in the fifth, stretching its lead to 5-2. Baylor answered in the late innings, though, scoring two runs in the seventh and three in the eighth en route to a 7-5 title-clinching victory. Freshman Chris Durbin ripped a pinch-hit two-run double to put the Bears ahead 7-5 — a foretaste of a storied career to come. National Freshman of the Year Zane Carlson struck out the side in the ninth to close the game.

The title was especially sweet considering how the conference season started for the Bears. At 18-5 entering Big 12 play, the Bears were swept in a three-game series at Texas Tech.

However, Baylor did not lose consecutive conference games the rest of the way, going 23-4 in league play from that point, winning nine consecutive series and sweeping Nebraska, Iowa State, Kansas and Kansas State.

Baylor won its first three games of the Big 12 Tournament, defeating Texas A&M 12-3, Texas 3-2 and Texas Tech 10-1. However, the Huskers got the best of the Bears in the championship game, winning 10-1.

Seven Bears earned All-Big 12 honors: pitchers Zane Carlson, Kyle Evans and Chad Hawkins, and outfielder Jaime Bubela were first-team picks, while catcher Kelly Shoppach, second baseman Preston Underdown and short-stop Jace Brewer were second-team selections.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

2005 BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Baylor defeated Missouri 7-5 in the series opener but dropped the next two games against the Tigers in the season's final weekend. Meanwhile, Nebraska swept Kansas State. That created a tie atop the Big 12 Conference standings as the Bears and the Huskers shared the 2005 conference title at 19-8.

The Bears' push to the league title began in the first weekend of conference play with a sweep of top-ranked Texas for the first time since 1998. After a 3-2 win at Disch-Falk Field in the series opener, the Bears posted wins of 9-1 and 4-3 over the Longhorns at Baylor Ballpark. BU dropped two of three the following weekend at Oklahoma State but rebounded to take two of three against Oklahoma at home the next weekend. The Bears then posted back-to-back sweeps at home against Kansas State and at Kansas.

That set the stage for a showdown of the conference's top two teams in the league standings as Baylor traveled to Nebraska. The Huskers took the opener, but the Bears responded with a 4-1 victory Saturday afternoon. In Sunday's finale, Baylor led 3-2 before the Huskers got back-to-back solo home runs in the fifth to take the series.

The Bears then took two of three at home against Texas Tech and swept Texas A&M. That gave Baylor a two-game lead entering the season's final weekend.

In the series opener against Missouri, Baylor pounced on Big 12 Conference Pitcher of the Year Max Scherzer for three runs in the first inning. The Bears sent Scherzer to the showers with two more runs in the fifth. Meanwhile, Mark McCormick racked up a career-high 12 strikeouts en route to his third Big 12 Pitcher of the Week honor of the season.

After Missouri got a run in the top of the seventh, the Bears added a pair of insurance runs in the bottom of the frame. Those runs proved to be the difference as the Tigers got four runs in the eighth to pull within two runs. Ryan LaMotta retired the game's final five batters to give the Bears at least a share of the conference title. Missouri's late-inning rally in Friday night's game was a precursor for the rest of the weekend. The Tigers jumped out to an early 4-0 lead in Saturday's game and held on for a 7-3 victory. Baylor led 3-1 through seven innings in Sunday's finale, but the Tigers scored six runs in the eighth and added three in the ninth for a 10-4 victory.

McCormick, LaMotta and Zach Dillon earned first-team All-Big 12 honors. Josh Ford and Cory VanAllen were named second team, while Reid Brees, Michael Griffin, Trey Taylor and Abe Woody earned honorable mention honors.

2012 BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Baylor clinched the 2012 Big 12 regular season championship before it lost its first conference game. The Bears started league play with a Big 12-record 18-game conference winning streak, sweeping each of their first six series en route to posting the second-best conference record by any team in the league's 17-year history.

Baylor's 18-game conference winning streak was part of a 24-game overall winning streak that was also a Big 12 record. The Bears began conference play with three consecutive series at Baylor Ballpark, sweeping Texas Tech, Kansas and Oklahoma State. The Bears had to rally to complete the third consecutive sweep, as OSU took a 4-3 lead in the top of the 13th inning of the series finale, but Josh Turley's pinch-hit single gave the Bears a 5-4 win and pushed their Big 12 record to 9-0.

Baylor headed to Missouri for its first conference road series, and after winning the first two games, the Bears trailed 6-2 heading to the sixth inning. A four-run outburst tied the game, and Baylor took a 10-6 lead with four more runs in the top of the seventh. With a travel curfew looming, a heavy downpour of rain started in the bottom of the seventh, and the game would've ended in a 6-6 tie had the teams not been able to finish the inning. The teams were able to stay on the field and complete the seventh and eighth innings before the game ended with a 12-7 Baylor win.

The sweep of Missouri launched the Bears from No. 16 to No. 8 in the Baseball America poll. Baylor headed to Kansas State for another road series, and the Bears' streak nearly ended in the second game, as K-State took a 10-9 lead heading to the seventh inning. Yet again, the Bears rallied, putting up five runs in the seventh and holding on for a 14-12 win.

In the series finale in Manhattan, Baylor fell behind 5-1 in the third and 9-7 in the seventh, but Josh Ludy's third home run of the game put the Bears back in front 10-9. The teams ended up going to extra innings tied at 11-11, and Michael Howard delivered a two-out game-winning homer in the 12th.

The following weekend was the final Big 12 edition of the "Battle of the Brazos," and it paired the No. 6 Bears against No. 2 Texas A&M. In the opening game in College Station, BU trailed 3-2 in the eighth, but Logan Vick's two-run single provided the winning runs as the Bears won 5-3.

A Baylor Ballpark record crowd of 5,911 turned out to watch the second game of the series, and the Bears again came up big as Max Muncy's sacrifice fly in the fifth provided the game's only run. Trent Blank worked 8.0 shut-out innings to earn the win and clinch the series. In Sunday's series finale, Ludy fouled off 10 straight pitches before delivering a two-run homer on the 14th pitch of his at-bat in the first inning. A&M rallied to take a 5-4 lead in the sixth, but Dan Evatt delivered a game-winning two-run single. Max Garner closed out the win to become the first Baylor pitcher to save all three games of a Big 12 series.

The sweep of A&M launched the Bears to No. 1 in the Collegiate Baseball poll, giving the program its first-ever No. 1 national ranking. Baylor's Big 12 title was clinched before they would take the field again, as Texas' loss on May 5 assured the Bears could not be topped in the standings.

Baylor suffered a pair of one-run losses at Oklahoma before the Sooners completed a sweep, but the Bears bounced back to win two of three against Texas to finish Big 12 play with a 20-4 record.

Ludy was named Big 12 Player of the Year, Nathan Orf earned Newcomer of the Year and Steve Smith was tabbed Coach of the Year. The Bears had a school-record 11 All-Big 12 honorees and seven first-team selections. Garner, Lawton Langford, Ludy, Muncy, Orf, Turley and Vick earned first-team honors, Blank and Cal Towey were named second team and Evatt and Joey Hainsfurther picked up honorable mentions.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

Over the past 100-plus years, 43 former Baylor players have appeared on major league rosters. Foremost among the Baylor alumni in the pros is Ted Lyons, who was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1955 after pitching 21 seasons in the big leagues, all with the Chicago White Sox.

Jason Jennings was awarded with the 2002 National League Rookie of the Year award after a 16-8, 4.52 campaign in his first full season in the majors. When Jennings reached the big leagues in late 2001, he joined former Baylor teammate Kip Wells, who came up with the Chicago White Sox in 1999. Like Jennings, Wells was a first-round pick; the White Sox chose him with the 16th-overall selection in 1998 after his junior season at Baylor.

Most recently, Max Muncy made a name for himself with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 2018, becoming the first Bear to participate in the MLB Home Run Derby, while leading the team in home runs over the season, including a walkoff home run in the 18th inning of game 3 of the World Series to end the longest World Series game in history.

Baylor has had at least one player selected in 41 of the last 43 Major League Baseball drafts, dating back to 1976.
