BY THE NUMBERS

Bulldog defensive back Jordan McRae secured a 100-yard pick six in Saturday's game at LSU, marking the longest interception or fumble return in program history.

Linebacker Alonzo Jackson Jr. leads all Sun Belt defenders with five tackles for a loss thus far, and is one of six FBS players with at least 5.0 TFL and one of 13 with 3.0 sacks.

Jalen Mickens picked up a 67-yard touchdown reception on Saturday at Tiger Stadium, becoming the first Bulldog with consecutive 100-yard receiving games since Tru Edwards in 2024.

Tech's defense saw four first-half turnovers forced against LSU. It is the most turnovers created for LA Tech when going against a P4 team since forcing six against Illinois in 2012.

A LA TECH WIN...

- Would be the second win all-time vs. Baylor and second win when playing in Waco
- Would be the first-ever win for the Bulldogs when playing at McLane Stadium
- Would be Sonny Cumbie's first-ever coaching win over the Bears
- First win over a P4 team since 2019 (W, 14-0 vs. Miami in Independence Bowl)
- First win over a Big 12 team since 2002 (W, 39-36 vs. Oklahoma State - Aug. 31 in Shreveport)

BULLDOG STORYLINES AND LEADERS

• The Bulldogs take a visit to Waco, Texas for the first time since 1994, facing off with the Baylor Bears for their first meeting at McLane Stadium. Baylor has won the two previous matchups, outscoring the 'Dogs in those games 68-19. LA Tech's lone win over the Bears

• Under first-year defensive coordinator Luke Olson, the Bulldog defense saw one of the best statistical seasons in the country last year. The country was led by LA Tech's 7 defensive touchdowns (5 INT returns, 2 fumble returns), and the second-most interceptions in FBS with 22 behind Southern Miss' 23 to lead the country. The Bulldogs ranked first in Conference USA in red zone defense (71.8%), rushing defense (134.6 yards/game) and scoring defense (20.8 points/game), along with opposing quarterbacks having only completed just under 55% of their passes with an efficiency rating of 113.01.

• Jalen Mickens has surged as a top target for Blake Baker through the first two games, posting a Sun Belt-leading 234 receiving yards and becoming the first Bulldog with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Tru Edwards achieved the feat in 2024 during his tenure in Ruston. The second-year receiver has nine catches to lead the Bulldogs and sit in the top 10 among Sun Belt wide-outs and is one of six SBC players with multiple receiving touchdowns through two games.

• Alonzo Jackson Jr. was a dominant force in Saturday's game visiting LSU in Tiger Stadium, posting a game-high 12 total tackles with 3 sacks and 3.5 tackles for a loss along with a pass breakup. Jackson Jr. is the first Bulldog with 3 sacks and at least 3 TFLs in the same game since Willie Baker recorded 5 TFLs and 4 sacks in the 2018 Hawai'i Bowl victory over Hawai'i (W, 34-14).

LEXINGTON WITH THE BOOT

Punter Lexington Matthews had four of his six punts travel at least 50 yards in Saturday's game at LSU with a long of 58 yards. It was his first time as a Bulldog to eclipse the 50-yard punt mark, having previously recording 10 punts of 50+ yards in 2024 during his playing career at Savannah State.

DO-IT-ALL 'DOGS

LA Tech has consecutive games with two Bulldogs posting 100 all-purpose yards with Jalen Mickens (164 in Week 1, 101 in Week 2) doing so in each of Tech's first two games. Dedrick Latulas (107) was alongside Mickens in Week 1, while Jordan McRae (100) was the second Bulldog with triple-digit all-purpose yards in Week 2. It is the first time in the Sonny Cumbie era to start the season with multiple 100 all-purpose-yard players through the first two games of the season, and the first time it has happened since 2017--Teddy Veal (126), Boston Scott (110) and Jarred Craft (103) achieved the feat in Week 1 against Northwestern State, followed with Marcus Gaines (104) and Scott (104) in Week 2 against Mississippi State.

MAGIC MICKENS

WR Jalen Mickens has back-to-back games with 100 receiving yards and a score to start the 2026 campaign, becoming the first Bulldog to do so since Tru Edwards in 2024. Mickens ended Week 2 at LSU with a team-high 6 receptions and 101 yards, including a 67-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter against the Tigers.

ALONZO IN THE ZONE

Linebacker Alonzo Jackson Jr. made a statement on the defensive side in front of a crowd of 100,000+ at Tiger Stadium, recording the second-most tackles on the team with 12 and leading with 3 sacks and 3.5 total tackles for a loss. The third year Bulldog leads all Sun Belt players with 5.0 TFLs and is tied for the most sacks at 3.0 thus far. His sack and TFL totals also rank among the top 5 in FBS.

MCRAE MAKING HISTORY

DB Jordan McRae made program history against LSU on Saturday, returning a goal-line interception all the way back for a 100-yard pick six in Tiger Stadium. It is the longest interception or fumble return in program history, and McRae is the first player in 2026 with a 100-yard interception return after there were four recorded last year at the FBS level. The third year Bulldog posted a game-high 13 tackles which was also a new single-game career high, and his interception was the second pick six of his career--had an 83-yard interception return for a touchdown his freshman year at Georgia Military College.

WEEK 1 DOMINANCE

The Bulldogs outgained Northwestern State 528-129, giving the Bulldogs their lowest total yardage allowed in a game since allowing 142 to New Mexico State on Oct. 17, 2009. Tech's 528 yards are also the most in a season opener since recording 587 total yards of offense on Sept. 5, 2015 in a 62-15 win over Southern at Joe Aillet Stadium

NEW 'DOGS ON THE FIELD

Among the 22 starters for Louisiana Tech in the Sept. 5 season opener, just three players have at least 10 starts in their Bulldog career with Hayden Christman being the only starter with at least 25 starts at LA Tech.

YOU GET SIX! YOU GET SIX!

There were several firsts for Louisiana Tech in their 80-6 win, including the first time with 11-straight touchdown drives and 63 points in a half of play in program history. Along with the high team numbers, there were also several players to score their first touchdown as a Bulldog. First FBS touchdowns belong to Dylone Brooks, Sergio Snider, Dedrick Latulas, Joshua Brantley (passing TD) and Luke Watkins. Jaden Miller and Talyn Shettron brought in their first touchdowns as Bulldogs, with Miller scoring on the ground and Shettron scoring with a receiving score and a rushing score. Shettron is the first Bulldog with a receiving TD and a rushing TD in the same game since Greg Garner on Sept. 11, 2021 vs. Southeastern LA (2 rushing, 1 receiving). Eli Finley and Jay Wilkerson also registered their first touchdown receptions since 2024.

100+ YEARS IN THE MAKING?

It has been over 120 years since the last time Louisiana Tech defeated LSU in a football game, with the Bulldogs also never having won a game when facing the Tigers in Baton Rouge and at Tiger Stadium.

MICKENS ON THE MOVE

Jalen Mickens started the 2026 season off with a 75-yard touchdown reception on the first offensive play of the season, ending the game with 164 all-purpose yards and 133 receiving yards. Mickens is the first Bulldog with 100+ receiving yards in a game since Marlion Jackson (vs. WKU) and Eli Finley (vs. Southern Miss) in 2025.

YEAR TWO LUKE

Second-year defensive coordinator Luke Olson looks to build off success from his first year in 2025, when his defense saw the most defensive touchdowns and second-most interceptions in the country. The Bulldog defense also ranked in the top 10 nationally in 4th down conversion percentage (.500), red zone defense (.718) and total turnovers (25). There is a wealth of experience returning for Olson, including linebackers Kolbe Fields, Zheric Hill, Jadon Mayfield and Alonzo Jackson Jr. Veterans Donovan Rieman and Judd Rouyea look to lead the front line for Olson's defense, while some fresh legs in the secondary feature Sam Fongang, Kam Carter, Amari Butler and Jordan McRae.

NEW LOOK IN THE BACKFIELD

With the departure of Clay Thevenin and Omi Wiggins to the transfer portal following the 2025 season, LA Tech had some holes to fill. Along with having to replace the team's leading rusher, it was also vital for Sonny Cumbie to find a way to fill the hole of losing the team leader in rushing touchdowns in Andrew Burnette. In doing so, the Bulldogs brought in Jaden Miller, a stand-out running back who transferred in from Keiser. During his time with the Seahawks, Miller was named First Team All-Sun Conference and is coming off a stellar season with 1,127 yards and 18 touchdowns on the ground, becoming the fourth player in Keiser program history to rush for 1,000 yards. He tied for the most rushing touchdowns in a single game with four, and his 24 career touchdowns on the ground at Keiser rank fourth all-time. Through the air, Miller caught 15 passes for 120 yards last year after averaging 20.5 YPC in 2024 with six receptions for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

FINLEY'S FINAL AUDITON

In what has been a very busy offseason for LA Tech tight end Eli Finley, with fall camp and many NFL scouts coming to see the sought-after TE. Eli still has a big season ahead of him—he comes into the season just 35 receptions shy of 100 career catches and 232 receiving yards shy of 1,000 for his career. Last year he led the team in receiving yards and had a 155-yard game against rival Southern Miss, which earned him the John Mackey Tight End of the week honor. That game was also the first 100-yard receiving game from a LA Tech tight end since Dennis Morris in 2009.

THE KUKUK ARMY KNIFE?

After showcasing his dual-threat talents, head coach Sonny Cumbie and Nathan Young have a different gameplan in mind for quarterback Trey Kukuk in 2026. Kukuk was one of two LA Tech players to rush for 600 yards last year, finding the end zone five times and ending the year with three 100-yard rushing games in the last three games, including a career-high 172 rushing yards in a 42-30 win at Missouri

State.

ALL-AMERICAN STAFF

Former Louisiana Tech safety Jakari Foster joins the 2026 coaching staff after being named an AP First Team All-American and a Water Camp Second Team All-American, as well as Second Team All-CUSA honors. Foster's eight interceptions were tied for the second-most in a single season in program history and were the most by a Bulldog since 1995. His eight picks also led the country, with one of them returned for a touchdown to contribute to the team's FBS-best seven defensive touchdowns in 2025. Foster will assist first-year safeties coach Dexter McCoil Sr.
