... AND STAY HOT MIDDLE, LATE AND THROUGHOUT

In addition to the team's 36 first-period goals, the Eagles have tallied 33 goals in the second period (most in HEA in the second) and 34 in the third period (most in HEA in the third) ... MOVERS & SHAKERS IN BC HOCKEY HISTORY

Both Alex Carpenter and Haley Skarupa are not only making waves on the BC women's hockey records, but they're also having an impact on BC's overall hockey scoring records ... Skarupa's 12 goals are second in HEA behind Northeastern's Kendall Coyne, while Carpenter's 17 assists lead the league.

HEA CAREER SCORING TITLE WILL BE RACE TO THE FINISH

The Hockey East (only) career scoring chase will stay hot all winter as two current players enter the week ranked 1-2 ... last weekend, Alex Carpenter jumped both former record holder Kelli Stack '11 and Northeastern's Kendall Coyne '16 to become the conference's career scoring leader ... Stack (133 pts.) set the record in 2011, and on Friday night, Coyne tied Stack's record with her 133rd career point ... however, on Saturday afternoon, Carpenter recorded four points to leapfrog both players and claim the title for herself ... that night, Coyne added a single point to move into a tie with Carpenter, but on Sunday, the Eagles' captain posted two points to re-take the career lead ... BC has played 13 league contests (of 21) this season, while Northeastern has played 10.

SKARUPA WILL ALSO HAVE A PLACE AMONG THE TOP

In addition to Alex Carpenter and Northeastern's Kendall Coyne's season-long battle for the conference's career scoring title, BC's Haley Skarupa is also poised to make a major move up the league's career charts ... she is currently ranked sixth in career scoring with 116 points ... UNH's Sam Faber '09 is next up with 118 points, while BU/UNH's Jenn Wakefield '12 had 121 career points ... Kelli Stack '11 is currently third (133 pts.)

KENZIE KEEPING IT ROLLING

After five games without a point, Kenzie Kent has picked up nine points - four goals, five assists - in the team's last four games ... the scoring marks pushed her season totals to 7 goals and 13 assists and 20 points ... her scoring production recently has coincided with a return to the same line she played on as a freshman, with Kent on the left wing, Alex Carpenter in the center and Haley Skarupa on the right wing ... she started the season with Carpenter in the center and Makenna Newkirk on the right for 14 games.

BURT BACKING IT ALL UP

Katie Burt has been her usual brick wall in goal of late, allowing just eight goals and posting seven shutouts in her last 13 outings ... she has 17 career shutouts, second in program history despite playing in only 51 games ... Burt enters the weekend second nationally in GAA (0.98), second in save percentage (.957), second in shutouts (7) and tied for first in winning percentage (1.000) ... as a freshman in 2014-15, Burt led the nation with a 1.11 GAA and was tied for third nationally with 10 shutouts, a mark that matched the BC single-season record ... Burt is now four shutouts back of the BC career record (21, Molly Schaus '11).

Three of the Eagles' regular six defensemen are ranked in the nation's top six in DMan scoring per game ... Megan Keller (7-15-22) is third nationally in defenseman points per game (1.16), but leads all defenseman nationally in both goals (7) and points (22) ... Kali Flanagan is ranked fourth in points per game (1.00), and her 19 points are the fourth-highest total among all defensemen ... Lexi Bender is ranked sixth in points per game (0.95) with 18 points (4-14-18) in 19 games.

BENDER CONTINUES HER CLIMB UP D CHARTS

Lexi Bender enters the weekend with 18 points (4g, 14a) and is ranked fifth nationally in defenseman points and sixth in defenseman points per game (0.95) ... with 80 career points, Bender is fourth on the BC defenseman career scoring list behind Emily Pfalzer '15 (102), Genevieve Missirlian '99 (83) and Blake Bolden '13 (82) ... Bender is second in defenseman assists with 63 and is now 16 back of career assist leader Pfalzer (79).

KELLER BRUISING FROM THE BLUELINE

Megan Keller has been a rock at the blue line this season ... defensively, she's helped anchor the Eagles defense that has allowed 1.16 goals per game - third best in the country - and held opponents to one or fewer goals in 13 of 19 games with seven shutouts ... offensively, she's collected 22 points (7g, 15a), third on the team ... Keller's 1.16 points per game are third nationally among defensemen ... also, she's a +32 on the season, the second-best mark on the team.

FLANAGAN ON FIRE

Kali Flanagan has posted a career-best 19 points this season, from five goals and 14 assists through 19 games ... her five goals have already surpassed her 39-game freshman year total of three, while her 14 assists have more than doubled her rookie-season mark of 6 ... five times this season she's recorded multiple points, including matching her career best with three points last Saturday at Maine

... she has picked up at least one point in 12 of 19 games this season ... defensively, she's been part of the Eagles' defense that is ranked third nationally (1.16 gagg) ... Flanagan is a +27 on the year, the team's fourth-best mark.

ANASTOS MAKING AN IMPACT

Andie Anastos is tied for fourth on the Eagles with 21 points (9g, 12a), and her +28 rating is third-best on the team ... this season, Anastos has recorded seven multiple-point games, including a three-point effort at Maine on Sunday with one goal and two assists ... the junior captain now has 86 career points to rank 17th all-time at BC ... when she reaches the 100-point mark, she will become the 13th player to reach the century plateau.

KENT KEEPS GOING ALL YEAR LONG

Kenzie Kent keeps going all year long at The Heights, on the ice in the fall and winter before heading out to the lacrosse field in the spring ... on the lax field, Kent earned a place on the IWLCA national all-rookie team in 2015 after scoring 22 goals and 25 points in just eight games last year ... on the ice, she's collected 58 career points (14g, 44a) in 58 career games ... Kent is familiar playing with top teams as the hockey team has been ranked in the Top 3 for the entirety of her career, while lacrosse was a Top 5 team last year.

TRIVIGNO COZY IN THE PENALTY BOX

Dana Trivigno has spent her fair share of time in the penalty box in her BC career ... through 19 games into the season, Trivigno has 90 penalties for 188 career minutes ... she's fourth on the BC career penalties chart and third in career penalty minutes ... Becky Zavisza '09 holds the career penalties mark (105), while Mary Restuccia '12 holds the career penalty minutes mark (219 min.) ... Trivigno leads the team in penalties (15) and PIMs (30) this season.

GRIEVES' GETS OFF TO HOT START AS A SENIOR

Meghan Grieves is off to a career-best start in her senior year ... the forward has collected 12 points (5g, 7a) through 19 games, now matching her previous single-season best from 39 games in 2014-15 (8g, 4a) ... after an 8-point (3g, 5a) freshman campaign in 2012-13, she recorded one point in 35 appearances as a sophomore ... her 7 assists this season is a new single-season best for the senior.

CLASS OF ITS OWN

The Class of 2016 is the only graduating class in BC hockey history to claim three players who reached the 100-point mark as Alex Carpenter (235), Haley Skarupa (199) and Dana Trivigno (109) have all now reached the century mark ... prior to this, the Class of '15 had a pair of players to reach the 100-point mark: Emily Field (138) and Emily Pfalzer (102) ... NOTE: Carpenter matriculated at BC with the Class of 2015, but moved to the Class of 2016 after taking a leave of absence during the 2013-14 school year to play with Team USA at the Sochi Olympics.
