 Boston College, Head Coach

Steve Addazio was named Boston College's 35th head football coach in December of 2012 and wasted no time making his mark on the program. Addazio took over an Eagles program that had suffered back-to-back losing seasons for the first time in 14 years (including a 2-10 mark in 2012) and engineered a remarkable turnaround. In what were supposed to be rebuilding years, Addazio led the Eagles to back-to-back seven-win seasons and two consecutive bowl games.

When Addazio took over the BC football program in 2013, the team had won a total of six games the previous two seasons; BC fans knew the rebuilding process would take time, but few would have predicted the Eagles would receive back-to-back bowl invitations in Addazio's first two years as head coach. Although Addazio's youthful 2015 team was plagued by injuries and finished with a 3-9 record, they were led by the nation's top defense and came within a touchdown of winning five more games. In the final NCAA statistical rankings, the BC defense finished first in total defense (254.3 yards per game) and third down conversion defense (24.1 percent), second in fourth down conversion defense (20.0 percent), second to national champion Alabama in rushing defense (82.8 ypg.) and fourth (behind bowl teams Wisconsin, Ohio State and Alabama) in scoring defense (15.3 ppg.).

In 2014, the Eagles were picked by media to finish fifth in the ACC's Atlantic Division but surprised many by posting a second consecutive seven-win season and, in fact, falling a few yards and several plays short of finishing with a 10-2 mark. The season was highlighted by a prime-time upset of No. 9 USC, dominating the Trojans 506-337 in total offense, and a nailbiter in which the Eagles had a chance to upend undefeated Florida State in Tallahassee, a game FSU won by a last-second field goal after the Eagles had missed the go-ahead kick just minutes before.

Seven members of the 2014 BC team earned spots on the All-ACC team. Center Andy Gallik led the way as a first-team nod on the offensive side of the ball. He was joined by Hilliman and tackle Seth Betancourt on the third team, while tackle Ian Silberman and guard Bobby Vardaro earned honorable mention. On defense, tackle Connor Wujciak took home third-team honors and linebacker Josh Keyes earned honorable mention. Silberman, Gallik and defensive end Brian Mihalik were drafted while five more Eagles signed free agent contracts.

During the 2013 season, running back Andre Williams led the nation in rushing, earned the Doak Walker Award as the nation's premier running back and took a trip to New York as one of six finalists for the Heisman Trophy. Williams, a consensus All-America selection, finished the season ranked fifth among all FBS running backs in the history of college football in single-season rushing yards with 2,177.

Addazio's coaching pedigree includes 14 postseason bowl games (including six BCS bowl games) and two national titles while on the coaching staff at the University of Florida (a 41-14 win over Ohio State on Jan. 8, 2007 in Glendale, Ariz., and a 24-14 win over Oklahoma on Jan. 8, 2009 in Miami, Fla.).

Prior to his arrival in Chestnut Hill, Addazio led the Temple University Owls in a two-year period of success, transition and growth. Addazio coached the Owls to a nine-win campaign and a bowl victory for the first time in 32 seasons in his first year as head coach.

Prior to leading the Owls, Addazio spent six seasons (2005-10) at Florida under head coach Urban Meyer, serving as offensive coordinator in 2009-10 and interim head coach from Dec. 2009 to July 2010. During his tenure in Gainesville, the Gators participated in six postseason bowls and won two BCS national championships.

Born June 1, 1959, Addazio is married to the former Kathleen Donoghue. They have three children – Nicole, Jessica and Louie.

It's an honor to have my name in Alumni Stadium along with Doug Flutie, Mike Ruth and the other great players who have been recognized. I truly enjoyed my time at Boston College and would definitely choose BC if I had to do it again."

Opening in Ireland

• Boston College started the 2016 campaign in Dublin, hosting Georgia Tech in Aviva Stadium on Sept. 3 in the Aer Lingus College Football Classic.

• The Yellow Jackets edged the Eagles, 17-14, scoring a touchdown with 35 seconds left in the game.

• It was the third time in six years an American college football game took place in Ireland and the second BC played on the Emerald Isle.

• In 1988, BC defeated Army, 38-24, in front of 45,000 fans at Lansdowne Road Stadium in the Emerald Isle Classic. Aviva Stadium was built on the site of that stadium. That was the first American football game played in Europe.

• During the 2016 game, former quarterback Mark Kampaus was honored. He was the MVP in 1988, completing 15 of 20 passes for 194 yards and scoring a rushing TD.

Welcome to the Heights

• Fourth-year head coach Steve Addazio welcomed five new assistant coaches to Boston College during the offseason.

• Jim Reid returned to The Heights as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. The Medford, Mass., native was the defensive coordinator for the Eagles under Dan Henning in 1994. BC went 7-4-1 and ranked 11th in the nation, defeated Kansas State in the Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day. The Eagles recorded 47 sacks that season, a school record that still stands today.

• Scot Loeffler, BC's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, is working with Addazio for a third time in his career, after calling the plays at Temple and coaching QBs at Florida.

• Paul Pasqualoni joined the BC staff as the defensive line coach. He was the head coach at the Connecticut (2011-13), Syracuse (1991-2004) and Western Connecticut State (1982-86). Addazio got his start in coaching on Pasqualoni's Western Connecticut State coaching staff as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 1985.

• Former BC wide receiver Rich Gunnell returned to The Heights to coach his former position group. Gunnell was a four-year letter winner, served as team co-captain and earned the team's most valuable player award and All-ACC honorable mention accolades. He ranks on four BC career record lists.

• Anthony Campanile rounded out the BC staff as the defensive backs coach. He was a member of the Rutgers coaching staff for the last four years, working with wide receivers, tight ends and on the defensive side of the ball.

• In other coaching news, Justin Frye was promoted to run game coordinator and continues to coach the offensive line. Al Washington moved to special teams coordinator and works with the defensive line. Brian White oversees the running backs and Frank Leonard was promoted to assistant head coach.

Back to Where it All Began

• There are currently six members of the BC football staff who graduated from Boston College, including two coaches.

• Al Washington and Rich Gunnell both played football and earned degrees from BC.

• Current graduate assistants Ian White and Ty-Meer Brown are BC men; White earned his undergraduate degree from BC, while Brown transferred to BC for the 2014 season after completing his undergraduate work at Connecticut.

• Barry Gallup, the associate athletics director for football and alumni relations, has been at Boston College for 37 years, while former linebacker Ricky Brown, the Eagles' director of football initiatives, returned to The Heights in 2016.

2016 BC Captains

• Seniors Truman Gutapfel, John Johnson, Tyler Rouse and Myles Willis were voted team captains of the 2016 Boston College football team, head coach Steve Addazio announced before the first week of the season.

Towles Takes Over

• Graduate QB Patrick Towles made his Boston College debut on Sept. 3, getting the start against Georgia Tech in Ireland. He completed 11 passes on 27 attempts for 144 yards and scored his first BC touchdown on a six-yard run.

• On a 14-for-25 day with two touchdowns, he amassed 234 passing yards - the most in a BC uniform - in the 35-3 victory over Buffalo on Oct. 1. It was also the most completions to date in Towles' time with the Eagles and the first time a BC quarterback threw for over 200 yards since John Fadule hit the 257 mark against NC State on Nov. 7, 2015.

• In the Eagles' first win of 2016, defeating Massachusetts, 26-7, at Gillette Stadium on Sept. 10, Towles tallied 191 yards in the air and threw for two touchdowns. He rushed for 66 yards, a single-game high as an Eagle, and just 10 yards shy of his career best, which came against Mississippi State on Oct. 24, 2014.

• In BC's home-opening, 42-10 win over Wagner on Sept. 24, Towles was responsible for four of the Eagles' six touchdowns, throwing for two and accounting for two on the ground. His 17-yard rushing TD in the first quarter was the longest run in a BC uniform while his 58-yard TD pass to Jeff Smith was the longest pass while wearing Maroon and Gold.

• Towles' 13.59 yards per completion is fifth in the ACC. He has thrown for two touchdowns all three BC wins.

King of the Hilliman

• Redshirt sophomore RB Jon Hilliman made an impact at the start of the 2016 season after missing eight games in 2015 with an ankle injury.

• Against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3, he averaged six yards per carry as he led the Eagles rushing core in attempts (17) and total yards (102). He recorded his fifth 100-yard game while scoring the first touchdown of the season, rushing for a career-long 73 yards on the play.

• On Sept. 24, Hilliman notched his sixth career multi-touchdown game, scoring two TDs in the BC victory over Wagner. He opened the scoring for the Eagles on a one-yard touchdown in the first quarter, carrying all five times on the drive, including a 41-yard run. He then added a second TD on a six-yard rush in the third quarter. He finished the day with 83 yards on 19 carries.

QB Connection

- Graduate QB Patrick Towles and sophomore WR Jeff Smith have asserted themselves as a dynamic duo in the 2016 season.
- Three of Towles' touchdown passes have been to Smith and they have all be over 30-yard throws.
- Against UMass on Sept. 10, Towles and Smith connected on five catches for 98 yards and two touchdowns. The TD passes, on consecutive drives in the second quarter, were the first of Smith's career and the first for Towles in a BC uniform.
- The 58-yard touchdown pass in the victory against Wagner on Sept. 24 was the longest of Smith's career and longest for Towles in a BC uniform.
- Through six games, the two have combined for 15 receptions for 259 yards and three touchdowns with an average TD completion of 46.67 yards.
- The roles reserved against No. 3 Clemson on Oct. 7 as Towles hauled in his first career reception - a five-yard pass from Smith, a former QB - in the second quarter.
- Smith's 17.3 yards per catch average is sixth in the ACC.

Keeping Up with Our Jones

- Redshirt freshman RB Davon Jones transitioned from defensive back to running back in the offseason and the move has paid off.
- In the first three games of 2016, he carried the ball eight times for 26 yards with a long run of eight yards. Ready to roll in the home opener against Wagner on Sept. 24, Jones ran a career-high 12 times and led the Eagles with 90 yards. He rattled off runs of back-to-back runs of 25- and 26-yards in the third quarter to set up an eventual QB keeper TD play.
- Jones scored his first career touchdown on a one-yard run in the victory over Buffalo on Oct. 1, the first TD of the game. He finished the game with 53 rushing yards on 14 carries and did not lose a yard on the day. He also hauled in a career-long, 38-yard reception which set up the Eagles' third touchdown.
- Against third-ranked Clemson on Oct. 7, the RB tied a career high with another 12-carry game. He also brought in two catches for a 25 yards.

Hello Mr. Walker

- Sophomore Michael Walker has begun to assert himself as a receiving threat after mainly focusing on kick returning in his first-year campaign.
- He made two catches for a 35 yards in the season opener against Georgia Tech on Sept. 3, then career bests, before recording three receptions in the victory over UMass on Sept. 10.
- Walker went on to have a career day in the home opener against Wagner on Sept. 24, hauling in his first career touchdown on a 17-yard completion in the third quarter. He finished the game with a career-high four catches for a career-best 72 yards.
- In the win against Buffalo on Oct. 1, Walker hauled in an 11-yard TD reception.

Operation O-Line

- The 2015 Eagles did not return a starter from the 2014 team, in which boasted an O-Line of five graduates who combined for 134 career starts. BC had one of two offensive lines in the country in which all five linemen did not start a game last season.
- Now with a year of experience under their belts, the Eagles have allowed just four sacks on the season, fourth in the ACC.

The Eagles have allowed 253.0 total yards per game at the 2016 halfway point, first in the conference. Giving up just 149.7 passing yards per game, they are fifth in the nation and No. 1 in the ACC. The 103.3 rushing yards per game allowed is 10th overall and third in the conference.

- Senior DB John Johnson was named the recipient of the Jay McGillis Memorial Scholarship at the annual spring game, also named in honor of the former BC student-athlete. McGillis' family was on hand before the game to present Johnson with the award.
- The award is given annually since 1993 to a Boston College defensive back who best exemplifies the personal qualities of team dedication and leadership by example, an extraordinary competitive spirit, and personal concern for family friends and teammates. McGillis, a starting defensive back for Boston College, passed away from Leukemia in 1992. The Eagles' spring game

- Kuechly became the most decorated defensive player in BC football history after sweeping every major defensive postseason award in 2012, including the Dick Butkus Award, the Lott IMPACT Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Award and the Rotary Lombardi Award. The two-time consensus first-team All-American finished his three-year BC career with a school-record 532 tackles and ranked among the NCAA career leaders in several defensive statistical categories. He was selected by the Carolina Panthers ninth overall in the 2012 NFL Draft.
