Follow Along With The Eagles

Live Stats: <http://bceagl.es/Y8iNO>

Watch: Patriot League Network: <http://bceagl.es/Y8iWK>

- Boston College kicks off their 25th season as a Division I program on February 12 when they travel down Commonwealth Ave for a Valentine's Day weekend battle with rival Boston University at the Terrier's Nickerson Field.
- This will be the 17th matchup between the two schools all-time and the seventh with the Eagles as the visiting team.
- Boston College and Boston University have split the all-time series 8-apiece with the Eagles having won the last six games by a combined score of 95-56.
- This is the earliest that the two schools have ever played each other. Eight previous matchups took place in March; six took place in April and the last two matchup's occurred in May as the regular season finale for the Maroon and Gold.
- In the 2015 battle between BC and BU, the Eagles built on a 7-3 halftime lead by scoring 10 second half goals en route to defeating the visitors by a final score of 17-9. Then senior attack Covie Stanwick led all Eagles with six points (5-1-6) while 2015 IWLCA All-Rookie selection Kenzie Kent netted four goals and Sarah Mannelly added three of her own in the victory. It was also the final regular season home game for the Eagles six graduating seniors: Lauren Bronson, Rachel Igoe, Erin Kickham, Mikaela Rix, Stephanie Sabatini and Covie Stanwick.
- All time, Boston College is 13-11 in their season openers, with the Eagles having won their last seven opening day games.
- The Eagles have won their last four regular season games dating back to last season, with wins coming vs. Harvard (19-13), at Virginia Tech (13-11), at New Hampshire (20-7) and vs. BU (17-9). The last regular season loss for the Eagles came vs. Duke on April 4, 2015 (13-8). BC fell in the ACC Quarterfinals to Syracuse (14-13, 2OT) and to Loyola (Md.) in the NCAA Tournament (19-12) during that span.

Records: Boston College (15-3, 5-2 ACC), Loyola Maryland (17-4, 8-0)

Location: Newton Lacrosse Complex -- Newton, Mass.

Attendance: 544

BC HIGHLIGHTS

- When the Eagles were down, 12-3, in the second half, the Maroon & Gold surged back to score four consecutive goals (Caroline Margolis, Kara Magley, Tess Chandler, Covie Stanwick), bringing BC within five of the Greyhounds.
- Junior midfielder Kara Magley recorded a career-high eight draw controls while junior defender Molly Erdle tied a career high with three caused turnovers against Loyola Maryland.

KEY PLAYS

- Five straight goals from the Greyhounds (Kara Burke, Annie Thomas, Burke, Taryn Van Thof, Hannah Schmitt) gave the Greyhounds a 7-1 advantage in the first half.
- Loyola Maryland entered halftime leading, 8-2.
- Kara Burke scored a career-high eight goals for 10 total points to stifle the Eagles.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Greyhounds went up, 2-0, in the first three minutes of the game.
- Sarah Mannelly cut through the Loyola defense to cut the lead to 2-1, 7:40 into the game.
- After Katrina Geiger caused a BC turnover, the Greyhounds' Kara Burke converted her 62nd goal of the season to regain a two-goal lead with 14:22 to play in the first half.
- Burke's goal sparked a five-goal run that would send Boston College into halftime trailing, 8-2.
- Loyola came out strong in the second frame to put the Eagles in a nine-goal deficit, their largest of the season.
- BC scored four consecutive goals (Margolis, Magley, Chandler, Stanwick) in the second half to pull within five of the Greyhounds.
- Loyola countered with a 6-to-4 run to finish the game out with a 19-12 win.

NOTES

- Boston College is now 2-4 in the NCAA Tournament all-time.
- The Eagles finish the 2015 season tying the most wins in program history with 15.
- The Greyhounds advance to the NCAA Quarterfinal to play #4 seed Syracuse.

Season Headlines of Note

- 2016 marks the 25th season as a Division I program for the Boston College Women's Lacrosse team
- With four wins this season, Boston College will earn their 200th win as a Division I program
- The Eagles return three of their top five scorers from last season in Sarah Mannelly (50-17-67), Caroline Margolis (37-28-65) and Tess Chandler (28-8-36) and will look to fill the void left by their top scorer Covie Stanwick (50-26-76), a 2015 IWLCA First Team All-American and the all-time leading scorer in Boston College history (309 points on 196 goals)
- The Eagles will also welcome back sophomore Kenzie Kent, who notched 22 goals and three assists over the final eight games of last season. The daughter of assistant coach Jennifer Kent, the midfielder from Norwell, Mass. will return to the Eagles sideline upon completion of the 2015-16 BC Women's Hockey season, where she plays forward for one of the nation's top programs
- BC will seek their fourth straight NCAA appearance in 2016 and their fifth in six years. BC is 2-4 all time in tournament play and have advanced as far as the quarterfinals
- Boston College has 10 freshmen on this year's roster, which tied the 2015 squad for the most freshmen on the team in the past 10 years.
- The 2016 season will be the fourth for head coach Acacia Walker at the helm of the Eagles program. The Maryland '05 grad has been part of 12 of the last 13 NCAA appearances as either a player or coach. Her .700 winning percentage as a coach to begin the season (42-18) is the highest amongst BC lacrosse coaches all-time
- Joining the Eagles on the sideline this year is first year assistant coach Brooke Griffin, who graduated from Maryland in May 2015. She was a 2015 Tewaaron nominee and a 2015 IWLCA All-American. She was also named the Big 10 Attack Player of the Year and won the past two National Championships
- Senior Sarah Mannelly returns for her senior season as the first-ever Boston College Tewaaron Award finalist, a feat she accomplished during her 67 point junior campaign. She enters the season 19 points shy of 200 career tallies. She would become the seventh player in BC history to achieve 200 career points. Her 135 career goals are eighth most at BC and with 15 goals this season, she would become only the sixth player to record 150 goals at Boston College
- Senior midfielder Caroline Margolis is 11 points shy of becoming the 20th member of the Boston College 100 point club. With 12 assists, she would also become only the sixth player in BC history to tally 50 career assists.
- Boston College has two Preseason All-Americans on their roster in 2016. Midfielder Sarah Mannelly was named an Inside Lacrosse First Team All-American while fellow midfielder Caroline Margolis received Second Team All-American accolades

WOMEN'S LACROSSE Head Coach Acacia Walker

OVERALL RECORD AT BC:
42-18 (.700)

Acacia Walker enters her fourth season in 2015-16 as the head coach of the Boston College women's lacrosse team. She took over the position on May 23, 2012.

As either a player or coach, Walker has participated in 12 of the last 13 NCAA Tournaments and was a part of Northwestern's three consecutive NCAA titles from 2006-08 as an assistant coach.

Last season, Walker led a program that cracked the top three in the national rankings before falling to Loyola (Md.) 19-12 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament in May. The 2015 season was highlighted by several accomplishments in the 2015 season. The Eagles finished the season 15-4 overall, their highest winning percentage (.789) since Walker began her tenure as head coach, while recording an impressive 8-0 record on the road last season. Additionally, Walker coached three Tewaaraton Award nominees, including the first Tewaaraton finalist in Boston College history with Sarah Mannelly while Kenzie Kent was named to the IWLCA All-Rookie Team. Three Eagles earned IWLCA All-American Status and the team was honored by the IWLCA for achieving a team GPA of 3.0 or greater under Walker in 2015. Boston College was 5-2 in ACC play during Walker's third season as head coach.

In 2014 Walker led the Eagles to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament, beating Bryant and Loyola before finally falling to Syracuse. During the 2014 season BC reached a national ranking as high as No. 4. She coached two players to IWLCA All-American honors and four to IWLCA All-Northwest Region honors. She guided the program to a 15-6 overall record and a 3-4 ACC record.

In her first year as a head coach in 2013, she led the Eagles to their second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance and coached BC to school records for ACC wins in a season (3) and consecutive games won within a season (8). The winning streak began with victories over then-No. 9 Virginia and then No. 6-Duke with the win over Duke marking the first time BC had defeated the Blue Devils.

She guided the Eagles in matching a program record for wins in a season (12) while playing the seventh-most difficult schedule in the country based on the RPIs of a team's top-10 opponents faced. Also in 2013, she tutored All-ACC performers Covie Stanwick and Mikaela Rix and helped attract over 2,000 fans to the Newton Field in a single season for the first time in program history.

Walker spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as associate head coach for Boston College. In that role, Walker served as the Eagles' offensive coordinator and played a key role in recruiting, as well as in many other facets of the daily operations of the BC program. In 2012 the Eagles finished the season at 10-8 and 1-4 in the ACC. In 2011, Walker's first season with the team, BC went 12-7 (1-4 ACC) and reached the NCAA tournament for the first time in program history.

Assistant Coach Brooke Griffin

Brooke Griffin joins the Boston College staff as an assistant coach after graduating from The University of Maryland in May 2015 where she won two National Championships playing attack for head coach Cathy Reese.

Griffin brings several accolades and a wide variety of lacrosse knowledge that will compliment Acacia Walker's coaching on the sidelines of the Newton Campus lacrosse fields beginning in 2016.

Griffin was a 2015 Tewaaron nominee, the Big 10 attack player of the year and an IWLCA First Team All-American while finishing her career with 279 career points, the sixth most in Maryland history.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE

Assistant Coach Jennifer Kent

Jennifer Kent is in her eighth year in 2015-16 as an assistant coach for the Eagles. She focuses her attention on the defensive end but also plays a crucial role in individual development.

In both the 2014 and 2015 seasons, Kent was a member of the coaching staff that advanced to at least the second round of the NCAA Championship Tournament. In that time, she helped Mikaela Rix and Covie Stanwick twice receive IWLCA All-American honors while guiding Sarah Mannelly to an All-American nod in 2015 as well as the first ever Tewaarton Award finalist in program history.

In 2013, Kent assisted the Eagles to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament, beating Bryant and Loyola before finally falling to Syracuse. During the 2014 season BC reached a national ranking as high as No. 4. She helped coached two players to IWLCA All-American honors and four to IWLCA All-Northwest Region honors. Kent and the women's lacrosse coaching staff the program to a 15-6 overall record and a 3-4 ACC record.

In 2013, the Eagles had a milestone year, earning their second NCAA berth in program history, and the defensive end was a large part of that success.

A native of Norwell, Mass., and a graduate of Thayer Academy – where she was inducted into the Thayer Academy Sports Hall of Fame in 2001 – Kent was a four-year letterwinner at Colby College in Waterville, Maine. She played soccer, basketball and lacrosse for the Mules. In lacrosse, she was a two-year captain, MVP, and leading scorer. Kent earned Brine/IWLCA 2nd Team All-American honors in her senior season in 1990.

Kent currently lives in Norwell with her husband Jeff, and their six children: Alicia, Callahan, Kenzie, Parker, Addison, and Bailey.
