ON THE COVERS

The front cover of the 2016 Boston College football media guide features senior defensive back John Johnson, senior linebacker Matt Milano, senior running back Tyler Rouse and senior running back Myles Willis. The back cover features the 2016 schedule along with senior tight end Mike Giaccone, senior defensive tackle Truman Gutapfel, senior defensive end Kevin Kavalec and graduate transfer quarterback Patrick Towles. The inside front cover features senior offensive lineman Jim Cashman, senior long snapper Leonard Skubal, senior linebacker Mike Strizak and senior fullback Bobby Wolford. The inside back cover salutes former BC football players Luke Kuechly and Matt Ryan, and includes a list of the former players listed on NFL rosters as of June 2016.

EAGLES HOST GEORGIA TECH IN IRELAND

Boston College will host Georgia Tech in Dublin's Aviva Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 3 in the Aer Lingus College Football Classic. The game will be televised on ESPN2. It will be the third time in six years an American college football game will take place in Ireland and the second time BC will play on the Emerald Isle.

In 1988, the Eagles defeated Army, 38-24, in front of 45,000 fans in the old Lansdowne Road Stadium in the Emerald Isle Classic. It was the first American football game played in Europe. In 2013, members of the 1988 team, including head coach Jack Bicknell reunited for the silver anniversary of the game and were honored on the field at Alumni Stadium during the BC-Army game.

The 2016 opener will be the first meeting between the Eagles and Yellow Jackets since Oct. 20, 2012, when Georgia Tech beat BC, 37-17, in Atlanta. The Ramblin' Wreck hold a 6-2 series advantage as the Eagles earned wins in 1998 and 2007. The contest in Ireland will be the first in the series on neutral territory.

The tilt in Dublin is being organized by Irish American Events Ltd., a joint venture between Corporate.ie and Anthony Travel, who have been involved in the recent college football games in Ireland.

The 2016 Aer Lingus Football Classic is also part of the ACC Worldwide initiative that seeks to further the conference's member institutions internationally through promotion, marketing and athletic competition.

2016 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

COACHES & STAFF

HEAD COACH STEVE ADDAZIO

Steve Addazio was named Boston College's 35th head football coach in December of 2012 and wasted no time making his mark on the program. Addazio took over an Eagles program that had suffered back-to-back losing seasons for the first time in 14 years (including a 2-10 mark in 2012) and engineered a remarkable turnaround. In what were supposed to be rebuilding years, Addazio led the Eagles to back-to-back seven-win seasons and two consecutive bowl games.

When Addazio took over the BC football program in 2013, the team had won a total of six games the previous two seasons; BC fans knew the rebuilding process would take time, but few would have predicted the Eagles would receive back-to-back bowl invitations in Addazio's first two years as head coach. Although Addazio's youthful 2015 team was plagued by injuries and finished with a 3-9 record, they were led by the nation's top defense and came within a touchdown of winning five more games. In the final NCAA statistical rankings, the BC defense finished first in total defense (254.3 yards per game) and third down conversion defense (24.1 percent), second in fourth down conversion defense (20.0 percent), second to national champion Alabama in rushing defense (82.8 ypg.) and fourth (behind bowl teams Wisconsin, Ohio State and Alabama) in scoring defense (15.3 ppg.).

In 2014, the Eagles were picked by media to finish fifth in the ACC's Atlantic Division but surprised many by posting a second consecutive seven-win season and, in fact, falling a few yards and several plays short of finishing with a 10-2 mark. The season was highlighted by a prime-time upset of No. 9 USC, dominating the Trojans 506-337 in total offense, and a nailbiter in which the Eagles had a chance to upend undefeated Florida State in Tallahassee, a game FSU won by a last-second field goal after the Eagles had missed the go-ahead kick just minutes before.

The 2014 offense flourished with the run game; the Eagles averaged 254.7 yards per game on the ground, second in the ACC to Georgia Tech's triple option, and 14th in the nation. Graduate Tyler Murphy was a difference maker as a dual-threat quarterback. Murphy broke BC record for career rushing yards by a quarterback in just nine games and went on to break the ACC's single-season rushing record by a quarterback. In the Eagles' upset of USC, Murphy carried the ball 13 times for 191 yards and a touchdown. Freshman running back Jon Hilliman set the Eagles' freshman record for rushing attempts, tallied two touchdowns in five games in his first season at BC and at least one in eight of the final 11 games.

As prolific as the BC offense was rushing the ball, the defense was equally stingy against the run. The Eagles allowed a mere 94.5 yards per game on the ground (second-best in the nation) and finished third in the league and 14th in the nation in total defense. The Eagles held their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in eight games. Three times in 2014, opponents gained just 20 rushing yards or fewer; in back-to-back victories over USC and Maine, the Trojans could only muster 20 total rushing yards while the Black Bears tallied 16. Junior defensive back Justin Simmons had a breakout year to lead the team in tackles with 76 (63 solo) with junior linebacker Steven Daniels close behind with 72.

1978-81*

Central Connecticut State

Offensive Line

* Four-year starter; earned tryouts with the NFL's New England Patriots, USFL's Jacksonville Bulls, and CFL's Ottawa Roughriders

Seven members of the 2014 BC team earned spots on the All-ACC team. Center Andy Gallik led the way as a first-team nod on the offensive side of the ball. He was joined by Hilliman and tackle Seth Betancourt on the third team, while tackle Ian Silberman and guard Bobby Vardaro earned honorable mention. On defense, tackle Connor Wujciak took home third-team honors and linebacker Josh Keyes earned honorable mention.

Silberman, Gallik and defensive end Brian Mihalik were drafted while five more Eagles signed free agent contracts.

During the 2013 season, running back Andre Williams led the nation in rushing, earned the Doak Walker Award as the nation's premier running back and took a trip to New York as one of six finalists for the Heisman Trophy. Williams, a consensus All-America selection, finished the season ranked fifth among all FBS running backs in the history of college football in single-season rushing yards with 2,177. The ground game was accompanied by a solid passing game led by quarterback Chase Rettig and receiver Alex Amidon, who established school records for receptions and receiving yards. Ten players from that team were either drafted or signed NFL free agency contracts in 2014, including Williams (fourth round, New York Giants), linebacker Kevin Pierre-Louis (fourth, Seattle Seahawks), place-kicker Nate Freese (seventh, Detroit Lions) and defensive tackle Kaleb Ramsey (seventh, San Francisco 49ers).

Addazio's coaching pedigree includes 14 postseason bowl games (including six BCS bowl games) and two national titles while on the coaching staff at the University of Florida (a 41-14 win over Ohio State on Jan. 8, 2007 in Glendale, Ariz., and a 24-14 win over Oklahoma on Jan. 8, 2009 in Miami, Fla.).

Prior to his arrival in Chestnut Hill, Addazio led the Temple University Owls in a two-year period of success, transition and growth. Addazio coached the Owls to a nine-win campaign and a bowl victory for the first time in 32 seasons in his first year as head coach. His 2011 team finished the season with a 9-4 record, earning a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division and capturing a 37-15 victory over Wyoming in the New Mexico Bowl—Temple's first bowl victory since Wayne Hardin led the Owls to a 38-3 win over California in the 1979 Garden State Bowl. On Addazio's watch, three Temple players were selected in the 2012 NFL Draft — running back Bernard Pierce (third round), tight end Evan Rodriguez (fourth round), and linebacker Tahir Whitehead (fifth round) — and nine signed free agent contracts. Meanwhile, Addazio spearheaded the school's 2012 recruiting class to a No.1 ranking in the Mid-American Conference by Rivals.com.

Shortly thereafter, in March 2012, Temple announced that it would move from the Mid-American Conference to the Big East Conference for football that fall. While guiding the program through its transition in conference affiliation, Addazio led the team to victories in each of its first two Big East Conference games (against South Florida and Connecticut), later posting a 63-point, school-record scoring output against Army before finishing the 2012 campaign with a 4-7 record.

Prior to leading the Owls, Addazio spent six seasons (2005-10) at Florida under head coach Urban Meyer, serving as offensive coordinator in 2009-10 and interim head coach from Dec. 2009 to July 2010. During his tenure in Gainesville, the Gators participated in six postseason bowls and won two BCS national championships. Addazio joined the Gators' staff as tight ends coach in 2005 and also served as offensive line, tackles and tight ends coach (2006), offensive line coach (2007) and offensive assistant head coach (2008) prior to being named offensive coordinator.

Addazio tutored Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Tim Tebow and directed an offense with a total of seven NFL draftees, including first-round picks Mike and Maurice Pouncey, two of the most elite offensive linemen in Florida history. Florida finished the 2009 season ranked first in the SEC in total offense and second in rushing offense, passing offense and scoring offense. In 2009, the Gators were the only team in the nation to rush for more than 3,000 yards and pass for more than 3,000 yards. Addazio completed his tenure at Florida on Jan. 1, 2011, coaching the Gators to a 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl.

Addazio began his Division I college football coaching career in 1995 at Syracuse. The Orange won three consecutive Big East crowns and appeared in bowl games during each of his four years before he assumed assistant coaching duties at Notre Dame, where he served as offensive line, tight ends and special teams coach from 1999-2001. Addazio moved on to serve as offensive line coach then offensive coordinator during a three-year stint at Indiana (2002-04) before joining the staff at Florida.

Prior to his Division I collegiate coaching career, he served as one of the nation's top high school coaches at Cheshire High School in Cheshire, Conn., from 1988-95. There, his teams won 34 consecutive games, three state titles in a row and were nationally ranked in 1992 and 1994.

A native of Farmington, Conn., Addazio, 56, began his coaching career at Western Connecticut State University, where he served as an assistant coach under Paul Pasqualoni from 1984-87.

A graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Addazio earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1981. A four-year starter for the Blue Devils on the offensive and defensive lines, Addazio completed a master's degree in 1985. Addazio earned tryouts with the New England Patriots, the Jacksonville Bulls of the USFL, and the Ottawa Roughriders of the CFL.

Born June 1, 1959, Addazio is married to the former Kathleen Donoghue. They have three children — Nicole, Jessica and Louie.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- This is Leonard's 32nd year coaching, 29th at the collegiate level. This will be his fourth season at BC and first as the assistant head coach. He is also the tight ends coach for the Eagles.
- Instrumental to a program that achieved back-to-back, seven-win seasons in 2013 and 2014 and advanced to the 2013 AdvoCare v100 Independence Bowl and the 2014 New Era Pinstripe Bowl on the heels of a 2-10 campaign in 2012; the five-win improvement from 2012 to 2013 tied for fourth-best in the FBS.
- In his second season at The Heights, coached the tight end group that helped produce a rushing attack average 254.7 per game, second in the Atlantic Coast Conference and 14th among all teams in college football.
- Mentored a group of tight ends essential to an Eagle offensive unit that averaged 212.5 rushing yards per game, a mark good for second in the ACC and 20th in the nation; the average was a 121.5-yard spike from the previous season's average, marking the largest one-year improvement in ACC history.

- Developed and led an Eagle tight end corps that produced three of the team's top-six receptions leaders in 2013 — Jake Sinkovec, Mike Naples and C.J. Parsons; all three players eclipsed career highs in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions.
- Spent the 2012 season as tight ends coach at Temple under Steve Addazio; was a teammate of Addazio's at Central Connecticut State and the two coached together under Paul Pasqualoni at Western Connecticut State.
- Prior to Temple, spent three seasons (2009-11) as the tight ends coach for the St. Louis Rams under Steve Spagnuolo; the group played a key role in the Rams' offensive success in 2010. Daniel Fells finished fourth on the team in receptions as he set a new career-high with 41 catches. Billy Bajema also set a career best as he hauled in 14 passes while continuing to play a key role in the running game.
- Prior to making his coaching debut in the National Football League, he served as tight ends coach at Kansas State University for two years 2007-08.
- Spent three seasons (2004-06) as a special assignment scout for the New England Patriots.
- Enjoyed a 10-year tenure at the University of Richmond, where he coached the offensive line (1994, 1997-2003), running backs (1995-96) and served as the school's recruiting coordinator (2003).
- In 1998, the Spiders posted a 9-3 record and earned their first Atlantic 10 title, a berth in the NCAA I-AA playoffs, and a No. 5 final national ranking. The Spiders earned a second Atlantic 10 title and a No. 6 national ranking in 2000 after posting a 10-3 record, rushing for a school-record 3,669 yards and reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs.
- Has extensive coaching experience in the state of Connecticut; coached at the University of Connecticut (1990-93), Western Connecticut (1982-84, 1987-90), and Central Connecticut State (1985-86).

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Entering his 43rd year coaching, his 41st at the collegiate level and his first as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Boston College; spent the 2008-09 seasons as outside linebackers coach for the Miami Dolphins.
- Came to The Heights from Iowa, where he was the linebackers coach for three years (2013-15) and helped the Hawkeyes go 12-0 in the regular season reaching the No. 4 spot in the College Football Playoff poll before falling in the Big Ten championship.
- The Hawkeyes ranked 22nd in the nation in total defense and 15th in rush defense; in 2014, Iowa ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense and 22nd in total defense and mentored All-Big Ten second-team honoree Quinton Alston.
- In his first year at Iowa, coached three senior linebackers (Christian Kirksey, Anthony Hitchens and James Morris) who each recorded over 100 tackles and earned All-Big Ten recognition.

- Named National Linebackers Coaches of the Year — along with LeVar Woods — by FootballScoop as Iowa's defense ranked among the national leaders in total defense (sixth), first downs allowed (seventh) pass defense (ninth), scoring defense (ninth), pass efficiency defense (17th) and rushing defense (19th).
- Served as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Virginia for three years (2010-12); in 2012, the Cavaliers ranked fourth in the ACC in total defense, fourth in pass defense, third in first downs allowed and fourth in third-down conversion defense while UVA linebacker Steve Greer earned first team All-ACC honors.
- In his first season overseeing the Dolphins' outside linebackers, Joey Porter produced a career-high 175 sacks, second in the NFL as Miami won AFC East Division championship title for the first time in eight seasons; Porter's sack total marked the most ever by a Dolphins linebacker and third-most overall.
- Syracuse defensive line coach in 2004, when the Orange were Big East co-champions.
- His nine-year run as the head coach at Richmond (1995-2003), included a pair of Atlantic 10 Conference championships and five finishes in the FCS Top 20 rankings; selected as the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year in 1998 and 2000 and the Yankee Conference Co-Coach of the Year in 1995.
- Left Richmond as the program's third-winningest coach with 48 victories and led the Spiders to the first 10-win season in program history in 2000.
- BC's defensive coordinator in 1994, when the Eagles went 7-4-1 and as 11th-ranked team in the nation, defeated Kansas State in the Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day; the Eagles recorded a school-record 47 sacks.
- Richmond's defensive coordinator in 1992 and 1993
- Compiled a 36-29-1 record as the Massachusetts head coach (1986-91) and guided the Minutemen to three Yankee Conference titles; named the Yankee Conference Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990.
- Spent 13 seasons at UMass as an assistant and won six Yankee Conference.

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Entering his 10th year coaching, his fifth year at Boston College.
- After coaching the running backs the last three seasons, Washington is now the special teams coordinator and working with the defensive line.
- Mentored 2013 Heisman Trophy finalist and the Atlantic Coast Conference's first Doak Walker Award recipient in running back Andre Williams, who became the 16th player in Football Bowl Subdivision history to rush for 2,000 yards in the regular season and who established four of the top-five single-game rushing records in school history in 2013.
- Coached a running backs corps that contributed to an Eagle rushing attack that averaged 212.5 yards per game in 2013, a mark good for second in the ACC and 20th among all teams in college football; the average was a 121.5-yard spike from the previous season's average, marking the largest one-year improvement in ACC history.
- Led the running backs to improve the rushing average to 254.7 yards per game, second in the conference and 14th in the nation; the yardage total of 3,311 broke BC's single-season record total.
- Mentored freshman running back Jon Hilliman, who led the Eagles with 13 rushing touchdowns, set the BC freshman record with 210 carries, finished second on the team with 860 yards and earned All-ACC Third-Team honors and ECAC Co-Rookie of the Year accolades.

- Instrumental to a program that achieved back-to-back seven-win seasons in 2013 and 2014 and advanced to the 2013 AdvoCare v100 Independence Bowl and the 2014 New Era Pinstripe Bowl on the heels of a 2-10 campaign in 2012; the five-win improvement from 2012 to 2013 tied for fourth-best in the FBS.
- Returned to his alma mater as assistant defensive line and assistant special teams coach in 2012.
- Came to Boston College after serving as linebackers coach at Elon University for one season (2011) under the direction of head coach Jason Swepson. Swepson is a 1992 BC graduate who served as running backs coach at his alma mater for eight seasons (1999-2006).
- At Elon he worked with a talented group of linebackers that included 2011 All-American and All-SoCon selection Joshua Jones as well as SoCon All-Freshman Team member Jonathan Spain. Linebacker Jonathan Spain also collected freshman All-America accolades.
- Prior to his time at Elon, Washington spent the previous two seasons as the defensive line coach at Slippery Rock University which won 12 games in that span, including a pair of wins against top-25 foes. Coached all-PSAC conference defensive ends Pat Marsilio and Jeff Thompson.
- Served as North Carolina State University's defensive graduate assistant for one season (2008).
- Coached at Division III Rensselaer Polytechnic Institution (RPI) in 2007.
- Helped lead RPI to an 8-2 record, a Liberty League championship and a berth in the NCAA Division III playoffs; was a member of the 2007 Liberty League Coaching Staff of the Year.

AS A PLAYER

- Was a three-year starter at defensive tackle and four-year lettermen at Boston College (2002-05).
- Earned Boston College's Paul Cavanaugh Award in 2006, given annually to the player whose on and off the field accomplishments speak volumes about his commitment, outlook, volunteer work, ethics and work in the community and on the team.
- Captured the program's Leadership Award in 2005
- Signed with the Canadian Football League's Saskatchewan Roughriders in June 2006. Played one season — 2006 — for the Roughriders; also played for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

2002-06	Indiana University Offensive Line
---------	-----------------------------------

COACHING ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Entering his ninth year coaching and his third as offensive line coach at Boston College.
- Instrumental to a program that achieved seven wins in 2013 and advanced to the AdvoCare v100 Independence Bowl on the heels of a 2-10 campaign in 2012; the five-win improvement tied for fourth-best in the FBS.
- Led the Eagle offensive line in its return to prominence in his first season at The Heights in 2013.
- Structured and guided an offensive line that yielded a Heisman Memorial Trophy finalist and the Atlantic Coast Conference's first Doak Walker Award recipient in running back Andre Williams, who became the 16th player in FBS history to rush for 2,000 yards in the regular season.
- In his second season, mentored an offensive line that allowed quarterback Tyler Murphy to break the ACC single-season record for rushing yardage by a quarterback and the BC career record in the same category (1,184 yards).
- Molded an Eagle offensive line that produced a rushing attack that averaged 212.5 yards per game, a mark good for second in the ACC and 20th among all teams in college football in 2013; the average was a 121.5-yard spike from the previous season's average, marking the largest one-year improvement in ACC history.
- Worked with the 2014 offensive line that yielded 254.7 rushing yards per game, second in the ACC and 14th in the nation, and allowed just 21 sacks, tied for fourth in the league and 29th in the country.
- Mentored three players — left tackle Matt Patchan, center Andy Gallik and right tackle Ian White — to all-conference recognition in his first season as offensive line coach at Boston College and four players — Gallik, tackle Seth Betancourt, tackle Ian Silberman and guard Bobby Vardaro to league honors in year two.
- Came to The Heights after serving as offensive line coach at Temple University under head coach Steve Addazio for two seasons (2011-12).

- Has worked with head football coach Steve Addazio as a player at Indiana and as a coach at Florida, Temple and Boston College.
- Tutored an offensive line at Temple that blocked for the top rushing offense in the Big East as the Owls rushed for 102 yards per game in 2012. All-Big East first-team performer Montel Harris led the conference with 105.4 rushing yards per game.
- In Frye's first season at Temple (2011), the Owl offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown. Blocking the way were All-MAC offensive linemen Pat Boyle and Wayne Tribue. The starting offensive line combined for 147 starting appearances.
- Served as offensive line graduate assistant at Florida for two years (2009-10).
- Helped mentor future NFL draft picks Maurkice Pouncey, Mike Pouncey, Marcus Gilbert and Maurice Hurt while at Florida.
- Coached the 2010 Gator offensive line that allowed four Florida players to rush for over 300 yards on the year — one of only six BCS teams to accomplish the feat. The offensive line, which allowed only 24 sacks, had a Sporting News Freshman All-American in guard Jon Halapio and an Associated Press second-team All-SEC performer in center Mike Pouncey. Following a win in the Outback Bowl, tackle Marcus Gilbert and Pouncey were selected to play in the 2011 Senior Bowl.
- Helped tutor Maurkice Pouncey who won the 2009 Rimington Award, given annually to college football's most outstanding center. Additionally, the 2009 offensive line led the Southeastern Conference in rushing and total offense while finishing second in scoring offense.
- Began his coaching career at Indiana University, his alma mater, as an offensive graduate assistant (2007-08) working with the offensive line and tight ends.

Barry Gallup's name is synonymous with Boston College football. Now in his 37th year as a member of the staff, Gallup, one of the best receivers in school history, served as a BC assistant coach for 20 years (1970-91) and Northeastern's head coach for nine years (1991-99) prior to returning to his alma mater as assistant athletics director for football operations in May 2000. He was promoted to associate athletics director for football operations in May 2008.

Gallup has dedicated a large part of his life to football in Boston. In early 2007, Gallup received the John Baronian Award for Lifetime Contribution to Football from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston at its annual awards ceremony. In 2014, he was given the George C. Carens Award by the New England Football Writers Association for his contributions to the sport in the area.

After starring on the football field at Swampscott High for legendary coach Stan Bondevitch, earning All-America honors as a senior, he entered BC in 1965 and would become the greatest receiver in the school's history before graduating in 1969. He set school marks for receptions with 87 and receiving yards, 1,325 (Mel Briggs eclipsed both of the records in 1973). He had 735 yards and established a season record for catches (46) as a senior (a mark eventually broken by Gallup protégé Brian Brennan in 1983). He also played two years of college basketball for legendary former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy.

Upon college graduation, Gallup turned down an offer to play with the Boston Patriots and began his career in teaching and coaching, working in the Swampscott school district. In 1970, he embarked upon a 20-year coaching career with the Eagles when he became a part-time assistant coach at BC. He became a full-time assistant in 1973, coaching the team's defensive line. His role changed to receivers and tight ends coach and head recruiting coordinator when Jack Bicknell arrived as head coach in 1981.

As an assistant first to Joe Yukica, then to Ed Chlebek and finally to Bicknell, Gallup established himself as a top recruiter and football strategist. Gallup played a key role in attracting some of the nation's most talented players to BC, including Heisman Trophy winner and former New England Patriot Doug Flutie, Joe Nash, Fred Smerlas and Peter Cronan. He coached several future professional players while directing the receiving corps, including Brian Brennan (Cleveland Browns), Mark Chmura (Green Bay Packers), Kelvin Martin (Dallas Cowboys), Pete Mitchell (New York Giants), Tom Waddle (Chicago Bears) and the brothers Flutie, Doug and Darren, who both went on to play in the Canadian Football League. As BC's primary recruiter, he was one of the key builders of bowl-bound BC teams in 1982 (Tangerine Bowl), '83 (Liberty), '85 (Cotton) and '86 (Hall of Fame). He was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1983.

Gallup took over the Northeastern football program in 1991. After going 4-7 his first year, Gallup built the program into a winner that finished with a 6-5 mark in 1996 and an 8-3 record in 1997. He was named New England Coach of the Year in 1997. His 1998 senior class left as the most successful in school history. He left NU with an overall coaching record of 38-60-1. Before returning strictly to coaching in 1998, Gallup had an eventful four-year tenure as NU's athletics director in which the department successfully earned NCAA certification, initiated a comprehensive strategic plan to achieve gender equity, and added several prominent coaches, including highly respected hockey coach Bruce Crowder and men's basketball coach Dave Leitao.

Gallup resides in Wellesley with wife, Victoria. Their son, Barry Charles Jr., resides in New York City.

STEPHEN BUSHEE

Asst. AD, Sports Medicine

Stephen Bushee is entering his 32nd year as a member of the Boston College Sports Medicine staff and is entering his 17th year directing BC's Sports Medicine. He was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director, Sports Medicine in 1999.

The Lebanon, New Hampshire, native is a 1981 graduate of Colgate University where he majored in biology. Bushee earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Boston College in 1994.

In May 2001, Colgate honored him with the naming of the Steve Bushee Award, which is given annually to the Colgate student athletic trainer who demonstrates dedication and expertise in the care of student-athletes.

Bushee works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice. He also tends to the medical needs of BC's skiing and sailing teams.

In addition to standard sports medicine duties, Bushee handles the administration of athletic insurance, athletic educational programming; oversees the department's drug testing program; and is a staff liaison with outside medical providers.

During his first four years at The Heights, Bushee was the head athletic trainer for the Eagles' ice hockey team, but has been working with the football program since 1988.

Steve and his wife, Laura, are the parents of two children: Joseph, a 2014 Boston College graduate, and Elisa, a senior at Boston College. The Bushee family resides in Wayland, Massachusetts.

MICHAEL VIGNEAU

Assoc. Dir., Sports Medicine, Football

Michael Vigneau is entering his 13th season as athletic trainer for the Boston College football team. He works with the Eagle football team throughout the year, taking an active role in pre-season practice, the fall season, winter conditioning and spring practice.

After serving two years as a resident athletic trainer in the Boston College Sports Medicine Department, where he worked closely with the Eagles' football and track and field teams, Vigneau was named assistant director for sports medicine for football in September 2006.

He was promoted to associate director for football sports medicine in September 2012.

Vigneau also served as an orthopedic technician at Brigham and Women's Hospital prior to working as a resident trainer at The Heights.

A 2003 graduate of Colby-Sawyer, Vigneau earned his master's degree in education administration at Boston College in December 2007.

A native of Milbury, Massachusetts, Vigneau is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He is a licensed athletic trainer in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Michael and his wife, Shari, have two sons, Connor and Evan. The Vigneau family resides in Walpole, Massachusetts.

FRANK PIRAINO

Head Strength & Cond. Coach, Football

Frank Piraino is in his fourth season as head strength and conditioning coach for football at Boston College. He came to The Heights in December 2012 after spending two seasons as head strength and conditioning coach at Temple under head coach Steve Addazio.

Piraino oversees a staff of three and manages the Smith Family Strength and Conditioning Center in the Yawkey Athletics Center. The strength and conditioning staff coordinates all aspects of each football player's physical development on a year-round basis. These aspects include strength, speed, agility, conditioning, body composition and resistance to injury.

In 2010, Piraino was the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Marshall University. Prior to joining the Marshall staff, he served on the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Florida for five years.

Piraino served as the strength and conditioning coordinator for Florida baseball in 2008. Additionally, Piraino assisted in all aspects of the Gator football strength and conditioning program from January 2005 to January 2010. Florida football captured a pair of national championships and Southeastern Conference titles in both 2006 and 2008, under the direction of head coach Urban Meyer.

Prior to his tenure in Gainesville, Piraino served as a strength and conditioning assistant at Notre Dame in 2004.

As a graduate assistant at Michigan State from 2003-04, Piraino assisted in the planning and execution of the strength and conditioning programs for the men's and women's basketball and hockey teams as well as the football team.

From 2000-03, Piraino served as an assistant football coach at Walsh Jesuit High School in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. At Walsh, he coached the defensive ends, assisted in opponent scouting, and coordinated pre-game and pre-practice warm-ups.

Piraino's introduction to strength and conditioning came in 2000-01 as he completed an internship with the Cleveland Indians. At the Indians, he assisted in the conditioning of the team's major and minor league players.

Piraino is a 2002 graduate of the University of Akron with a bachelor's degree in sport and exercise science. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Michigan State in 2004.

SCOTT McLAFFERTY

Asst. Strength & Cond. Coach, Football

Scott McLafferty is in his fifth year at Boston College and is the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Eagles' football program. He joined the staff in June 2012.

McLafferty came to The Heights after having spent six seasons (2007-12) on the strength and conditioning staff at Rice University in Houston, Texas. During his last three years on the Owls' staff, McLafferty served as the associate director of strength and conditioning. As associate director, McLafferty's duties included daily responsibilities working with the Rice football team. He was also responsible for oversight of the Owl basketball team's strength and conditioning training as well as the strength training for the Rice baseball team's pitching staff.

Prior to being named associate director for football in February 2009, McLafferty was coordinator and head strength coach for the Rice men's basketball and men's and women's tennis teams for two years.

McLafferty began his full-time collegiate employment as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech University in August 2004, serving in that position for one academic year before he was elevated to head strength coach for Bulldog men's basketball. He remained in that position for a year and a half between 2005-07.

McLafferty also served as a student assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State University from 2001-04. He graduated from Louisiana Tech in 2007.

He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA), a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Association and USA Weightlifting.

JAMES MANGIERO

Asst. Strength & Cond. Coach, Football

James Mangiero is in his fourth year at Boston College as an assistant strength and conditioning coach. He joined the staff in July 2013.

Mangiero came to The Heights from Temple University. He began as strength and conditioning coach under BC's current head of strength and conditioning for football Frank Piraino before moving to the coaching staff. He was an offensive graduate assistant during his season year in Philadelphia and then moved to the defensive side of the ball with the Owls before coming to BC. He began his professional career at Susquehanna University in Selingsgrove, Pennsylvania, as a tight ends coach.

Mangiero played on the offensive line at Hofstra University from 2005-09. After expecting to play guard in his redshirt freshman season, an injury to a teammate moved him to the center position. That year he started six games. In 2007, he moved back to offensive guard, played in all 11 games for the Pride and started five games. He sustained an injury in 2008 after one game and returned for the 2009 season. He was also a four-sport athlete (football, wrestling, basketball and lacrosse) at Bloomington South High School in Indiana.

He earned his sociology degree from Hofstra in 2009 and is currently working toward his Collegiate Strength and Conditioning certification. His father, Dino, played eight seasons in the NFL, while his brothers, Daniel and Chris, also played Division I football. Chris played for BC head coach Steve Addazio at Indiana.

Mangiero is married to the former Paige Toscano.

SHANE MORIN

Asst. Dir., Football Operations

Shane Morin is in his fourth year as assistant director of football operations at Boston College. He joined the Eagles' staff in April 2013 and works closely with director of football operations Reggie Terry. He is responsible for providing assistance for coordination of team travel, facilitation of summer football camp logistics, facility management and all aspects of day-to-day football operations.

Prior to his arrival at The Heights, Morin spent the previous year as an operations assistant with the St. Louis Rams organization. There, he was involved in management of the team's annual pre-season training camp and organization and execution of team travel through the 2012 season, which included an international series against the New England Patriots at Wembley Stadium in London.

He served in a critical role for the organization's travel advance team, was involved with facility management and maintenance and worked closely with the sales and marketing staffs in coordination of player appearances for sponsorship opportunities.

Morin was hired in a full-time capacity by the Rams' organization after having served as a summer intern within the operations office in 2011.

A native of West Hartford, Connecticut, Morin earned a bachelor's degree in communications with a focus on business administration from the University of New Hampshire in May 2012.

He is currently enrolled in BC's Carroll School of Management's MBA program.

Leo Ferrine is in his third season as a member of the Boston College football staff. He joined the staff as recruiting specialist in July 2014. He was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in January 2016.

Prior to his arrival at Boston College, Ferrine was a recruiting assistant for two years at the Rutgers University. He also spent a year as an intern in the community relations and player personnel departments with the San Diego Chargers.

Ferrine graduated from Notre Dame in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in film and television. He earned his masters of education from the University of Delaware in 2010. He was a four-year member of the Fighting Irish football team, playing 28 games at defensive back. He recorded 34 tackles in his career and earned a tryout with the Philadelphia Eagles after graduation.

A Springfield, New Jersey native, Ferrine currently resides in Norwood, Massachusetts.

KEVIN MURPHY

Head Equipment Manager, Football

Kevin Murphy is in his fifth year as head equipment manager of the Boston College football program. Murphy joined the football equipment operations staff in July 2012 after having served as assistant equipment manager for Olympic sports at Boston College since February 2010.

Murphy's responsibilities include maintaining the program's equipment inventory, working directly with the athletic business office to ensure proper allocation of and adherence to the team's budget. Additionally, he is charged with formulation and implementation of equipment policies and procedures, including the issuing of equipment, inventory controls, laundry services and equipment security, as well as supervision of a staff of student workers.

The 2012 season marks his ninth year affiliated with Boston College and its athletics department. Murphy served four years as student manager for the football team while pursuing his undergraduate degree before becoming a graduate intern within the football equipment operation for the 2009 season. He was hired on a full-time basis at the conclusion of the season and managed the equipment budgets and needs for basketball, soccer, cross country, softball and lacrosse for more than two years.

Murphy, a Lowell, Massachusetts, is a 2009 Boston College graduate with a degree in communications who earned his master's degree in administrative sciences from BC in May 2011. Murphy and his wife Carolyn reside in Newton, Massachusetts.

BILL TOOF

Video Coordinator

The man in charge of BC's highly sophisticated computer analysis and video equipment system is Bill Toof, who has been the Eagles' video coordinator since 1990. Toof played a key role in developing the nonlinear editing system that is now an industry standard for pro and Division I football video analysis.

In addition to his duties in the video production room, Toof also served as the head coach of Boston College's highly successful men's and women's ski teams for 30 years.

Toof is a 1969 graduate of Boston College. In addition to being a two-time Eastern Collegiate ski champion and nationally-ranked slalom skier, he played both football and baseball while an undergraduate. A talented skier, he became an accomplished coach, taking over the school's fledgling ski team the season after graduation and bringing it to the level where both Eagle men's and women's teams were consistently among the top five in national competition. He was voted Eastern Collegiate Ski Conference Coach of the Year in 1985, '92 and '98.

Toof was inducted into the Boston College Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 2009.

Bill and his wife, Nancy, have two sons: Shaun, a former BC football letterman at wide receiver, and Bo who worked all four years in the football video department while matriculating at Boston College, graduating in 2004.

TY-MEER BROWN

Graduate Asst., Defense

Ty-Meer Brown is in his first season as a member of the Boston College football staff as defensive graduate assistant. He played his final year as a defensive back at The Heights in 2014.

Brown transferred to Boston College after completing his undergraduate degree at Connecticut in 2013. He played in all 13 games in 2014, starting the final six, and tied for sixth on the team with 43 tackles, including 29 solo stops. He was a member of the BC defense that ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 rushing yards per game. Brown registered a season-high nine tackles in the victory at Virginia Tech and notched seven, five unassisted, at No. 1 Florida State, and intercepted Jameis Winston. He earned the Athletics Director's Award for Academic Achievement while an Eagle.

The McKeesport, Pennsylvania, native started the first seven games of the 2013 season at UConn before an injury sidelined him. That season he notched 51 tackles and racked up a career-high 12 against No. 21 UCF. He earned his first letter in 2011, playing all 12 games and starting the last seven at safety.

BRENDAN MCGOVERN

Graduate Asst., Defense

Brendan McGovern enters his third season as a member of the BC football staff. He is in his first year as a graduate assistant for defense.

McGovern was a strength and condition intern for BC in 2015. Prior to that position, he was a volunteer offensive and recruiting assistant in the spring of 2014.

A 2014 graduate of Bentley University, McGovern worked as a manager and intern for the Falcons from 2012-13. A native of Oradell, New Jersey, McGovern is enrolled in the Woods College of Advancing Studies with a specialization in sports administration.

ALEX KURTZ

Graduate Asst., Offense

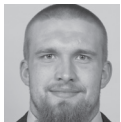

Alex Kurtz is in his third season working with the Boston College football staff and his first as an offensive graduate assistant. He served as a volunteer in 2014, working with the offense and special teams.

Kurtz arrived at The Heights from Staples High School in Westport, Connecticut, where he was a member of the football coaching staff for two years and had also taught social studies.

He graduated from Vanderbilt University in 2011 with a degree in history and political science. While in Nashville, Kurtz was a student manager for the football team. He is currently working toward his master's degree in sports administration in Boston College's Woods College of Advancing Studies.

A native of Westport, Connecticut, Kurtz currently resides in Brighton, Massachusetts.

IAN WHITE

Graduate Asst., Offense

Ian White is in his first season as a member of the Boston College football staff as an offensive graduate assistant. He played his final year on the offensive line at The Heights in 2013.

White was a three-year starter for the Eagles and a co-captain as a senior. He earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors mention from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association and the league's head coaches for his play in his final season. He also collected ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week after a stellar performance in the team's 34-27 home win over Virginia Tech on Nov. 2. White and the offensive line allowed BC to rush 42 times for 196 yards, marking the most VT had allowed up to that point. In his senior campaign, the Eagles rushed for at least 100 yards in 11 games, over 200 yards in six games, over 300 yards in three games and for 420 against NC State on Nov. 16. White blocked for 2013 Doak Walker Award winner Andre Williams, who became just the 16th running back in FBS history to eclipse 2,000 yards.

The Conway, New Hampshire, native started 42 games for the Eagles in his career. He earned his bachelor's degree in human development from the Lynch School of Education. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in administrative studies from the Woods School of Advancing Studies.

2016 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

HISTORY & RECORDS

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL TIMELINE

A HISTORY OF BC FOOTBALL

— Text by Reid Oslin, Boston College, '68

The 2016 season will be the 119th year of intercollegiate football competition for the Boston College Eagles. Here are a few of the milestones that have been reached along the way:

1891 — The Boston College student body was granted permission, but no money, by President Edward I. Devitt, S.J., to organize a football team. Joseph F. O'Donnell (1892), a Dorchester, Massachusetts, native with some previous amateur football experience, helped organize a team that played an informal schedule the following year.

1893 — Boston College began formal football competition. The team's first game was a 4-0 victory over St. John's Institute, an amateur power of the day (touchdowns were scored as four points by existing rules). BC played its first intercollegiate game on Oct. 25, a 6-0 loss to Tech '97, an MIT class team. The first varsity game was a 10-6 victory over Boston University in the final contest of the year. Joseph C. Drum ('94) served as BC's first football coach and the team's captain was Bernie Wefers ('94), who briefly held the world record in the 200-meter dash and 220-yard dash.

1894 — The Boston College football team got its first compensated coach, William Nagle. The school adopted the team colors of maroon and gold.

1896 — Boston College and Jesuit rival Holy Cross met for the first time in a home-and-home series. Boston College won both games, by scores of 6-2 and 8-6.

1900 — College President W.G. Read Mullan, S.J., refused to allow a football team to play under the school's name. Students formed an independent team named "Boston Combination" that competed locally. Fr. Mullan relented and allowed a varsity team to be fielded the following year.

1903-07 — In a reaction to the growing public outcry against the violence of college football, as well as for economic considerations, the sport was dropped at Boston College. United States President Theodore Roosevelt summoned the leaders of college football to Washington and urged that the rules of the sport be tightened. The resulting rules committee evolved into the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

1908 — Varsity football was restored at Boston College. The team practiced on the Massachusetts Avenue Grounds, the site of a former city dump. Team members mowed the grass and lined the field before practice sessions.

1913 — The college moved from its original location on James Street in Boston's South End to a new campus in Chestnut Hill. The football team's locker room and equipment storage area were located in the basement of the "Recitation Building" (renamed Gasson Hall in 1952), but coach Hiker Joy's team walked to the public park in Cleveland Circle for daily practice.

1915 — The original Alumni Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 30; however, the inaugural game was won by arch-rival Holy Cross by a 9-0 score before some 5,000 fans. A week later, Boston College won its first on-campus game, defeating Fordham, 3-0. The stadium was located on Middle Campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

1918 — Because of required military training for students in preparation for World War I, the football team was forced to limit practice sessions to no more than one hour per day.

1919 — A returning war hero, Frank Cavanaugh, was hired as BC's football coach. Known as "The Iron Major," Cavanaugh had been badly wounded in the Battle of San Mihiel, but recovered to launch a coaching career that would eventually lead him into the College Football Hall of Fame. In his first season at BC, he led his team to a startling 5-3 victory over heavily favored Yale — the biggest win in school history to that point. A 1943 movie, "The Iron Major" starring Pat O'Brien, chronicled Cavanaugh's life story. Part of the film was shot at the former Liggett Estate (now O'Connell House) on BC's Upper Campus.

1920 — The Boston College football team adopted the nickname "Eagles." The season was capped by a stirring 14-0 victory over Holy Cross before 40,000 fans at Braves Field. The win gave the team a perfect 8-0 season and the school's first "Eastern Championship."

1921 — The team's budding success drew national interest. The Eagles were invited to play Baylor in the dedication game of Dallas' Cotton Bowl stadium. The BC team, which made the 2,400-mile trip by train to play its first inter-sectional contest, responded with a 23-7 win over the Bears.

1926 — The final year of the Cavanaugh era produced another unbeaten season (6-0-2). The team captain was Joe McKenney, who would return to coach the Eagles from 1928-34.

1928 — McKenney's first year as head coach was a perfect 9-0 season and yielded another Eastern title. McKenney would later gain entrance into the College Football Hall of Fame as a highly respected college football official.

1936 — BC named Gilmour Dobie, another future College Hall of Fame member, as its head football coach. The Eagles' schedule was upgraded to include such national rivals as Kansas State, Kentucky, North Carolina State, Indiana and Florida, and home games were shifted to Fenway Park and Braves Field. Dobie's teams lost only six games in his three-year tenure.

1939 — On Feb. 7, Frank Leahy was named head football coach. "I have come here to succeed and to win football games," he told alumni a few days later. He did both, as the Boston College football team won

20 of 22 games played in the ensuing two seasons. The Eagles lost only one regular-season game in the 1939 campaign (7-0 to Florida) and became the first New England team in 20 years to earn a New Year's Day bowl invitation. The Eagles met Clemson in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, but lost a close 6-3 decision to the Tigers.

1940 — An undefeated (11-0) season, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship made this arguably the greatest season in Eagle football annals. On Nov. 16, BC handed Georgetown its first football loss in three years when "Chuckin" Charlie O'Rourke eluded a host of tacklers and took a safety in his own end zone as the clock expired to give the Eagles a memorable 19-18 victory. Sportswriter Grantland Rice described the contest as "the greatest game of football ever played."

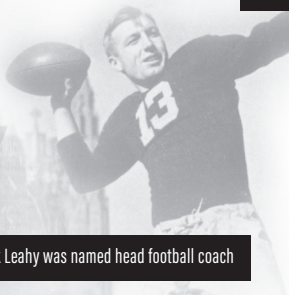

1941 — On Jan. 1, the Eagles would lay claim to the national championship with a 19-13 victory over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. Again, O'Rourke provided the heroics, scoring on a 24-yard touchdown run with three minutes remaining in the game. Leahy had installed the game-winning play in the BC offense one day before the game. Leahy and five members of the Sugar Bowl championship team would eventually be enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame (HB O'Rourke, C Chet Gladchuk, E Gene Goodreault, FB Mike Holovak and G George Kerr). A crowd of 100,000 people welcomed the Sugar Bowl victors back to Boston's South Station, but Leahy would leave Boston College for Notre Dame within a month of the game.

1941 — From a field of 80 candidates, Denny Myers was named Boston College's new head football coach.

1942 — The Eagles were undefeated and ranked No. 1 in the land as they headed into the final game of the season against Holy Cross on Nov. 28. The Crusaders pulled off one of the biggest upsets in college football history that day, upending BC by a 55-12 score. Many BC players and fans were so bitterly disappointed that a planned "victory party" at Boston's Coconut Grove restaurant was canceled. The Coconut Grove was destroyed by fire that night, and 492 people lost their lives.

1943 — Again playing on New Year's Day, Boston College lost to Alabama in the Orange Bowl, 37-21. One bright point in the game for the Eagles was the play of Holovak, who scored all three BC touchdowns and averaged 15.8 yards every time he touched the football — an Orange Bowl record that stands to this day.

1943-45 — A large number of Boston College players and coaches departed to serve their country in the United States armed forces during World War II. The teams fielded on campus found competition against service teams such as Melville PT and Squantum Naval Air Station.

1946 — Myers returned as head coach after the war and the Eagles undertook a national schedule that included LSU, Tennessee, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Michigan State and Penn State in following years. Two members of that September's freshman class — linemen Art Donovan and Ernie Stautner — would one day be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The roster also included lineman Ed King, who, after a brief pro football career, would later be elected Governor of Massachusetts.

1949 — On Nov. 26, Boston College scored its most lopsided victory, 76-0, over annual rival Holy Cross. BC fullback/kicker Ed Petela scored a record 34 points in the game — four touchdowns and 10 PATs.

1951 — Mike Holovak, who had played professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears, returned to his alma mater as head coach. He later would be the head coach of the Boston Patriots and long-time general manager of the Houston Oilers.

1956 — After losing to Holy Cross, 7-0, on Dec. 1, Boston College was told that football games will no longer be played at Fenway Park. The school considered dropping the sport.

1957 — On Jan. 23, Boston College President Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J., announced the decision to build a new stadium on campus. Athletics Director William J. Flynn and former head coach Joe McKenney led the successful $250,000 campaign to construct the new facility on the site of a filled-in reservoir on BC's lower campus. On Sept. 26, Alumni Stadium opened with a game against Navy that had been arranged with the assistance of then-U.S. Senator John F. Kennedy. The visiting Midshipmen spoiled the day, however, with a 46-6 victory before a standing-room-only crowd of 26,000-plus. The referee in the dedication game was the legendary Albie Booth.

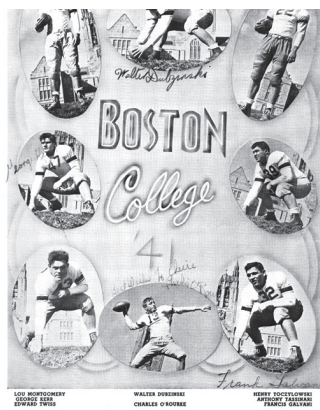

1964 — The Eagles knocked off highly ranked Syracuse, 21-14, on Sept. 19 in the season opener as Larry Marzetti hit Bill Cronin with a 45-yard touchdown pass on a fourth-down play as time ran out. A freshman running back for the Orangemen that year was Tom Coughlin.

1968 — Joe Yukica took over as the Eagles' head coach. He served notice of things to come with a stunning 49-15 win at Navy in his BC coaching debut. Among the defenders for the Midshipmen in that game was end Tom O'Brien.

1970 — Fred Willis became the first running back in BC gridiron history to surpass 1,000 yards rushing (1,007) in a 10-game season.

1971 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats, an artificial surface was installed and lights were added for night play.

1974 — The Eagles, under Yukica and offensive backfield coach Jack Bicknell, were the hottest team in college football down the stretch, outscoring opponents by a 270-27 margin in the season's final six games. FB Keith Barnette was the nation's top scorer with 22 TDs on the season. However, the team's 8-3 record did not attract any bowl invitations to Chestnut Hill.

1975 — The Eagles opened the season with an ABC-TV "Monday Night Football" appearance against Notre Dame at Schaefer Stadium in Foxboro. A record 61,000 fans filled the facility to watch the Irish take a 17-3 victory.

1976 — BC upended seventh-ranked Texas, 14-13, in a thrilling season opener at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 11. A key tackle by Kelly Elias on a Longhorn two-point conversion try with 4:38 remaining in the game proved the difference in this victory, the biggest for a BC team in years.

1978 — The Eagles suffered their worst season in history, losing all 11 games, including a 28-24 loss to Temple in a game played in Tokyo on Dec. 10.

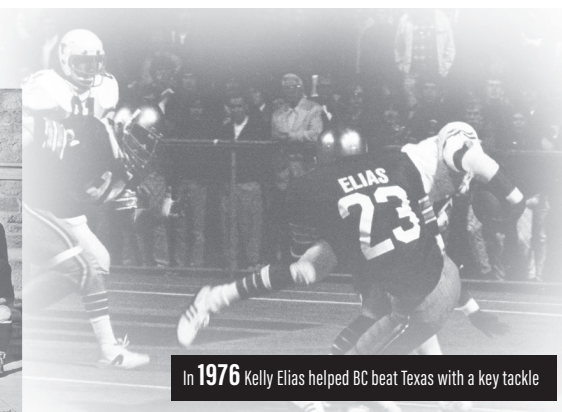

1981 — Former BC assistant Bicknell was hired as head coach. He opened the season with a 13-12 home victory over Texas A&M on Sept. 19. Freshman Doug Flutie saw his first action — on one special teams play. Flutie would be named the team's starting quarterback by Bicknell and QB coach Tom Coughlin prior to the Navy game on Oct. 17.

1982 — The Eagles opened the season with a smashing 38-16 victory over Texas A&M in College Station. Two weeks later, BC tied defending national champion Clemson 17-17 at "Death Valley," and once again Boston College football was drawing national attention. After beating Holy Cross 35-10 in the final regular season game, the Eagles were invited to the 1982 Tangerine Bowl in Orlando to play Auburn. Fans watching that game saw two future Heisman Trophy winners: BC's Flutie and the Tigers' Bo Jackson. Auburn won the Dec. 18 game, 33-26.

1983 — The Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-2 record, including the first win over Penn State (27-17 at Foxboro) and a last-minute 20-13 victory over Alabama on a rainy November night in Foxboro that was remembered as the game "that the lights went out." Fortunately, power crews restored electricity just as officials were considering stopping the game and BC went on to score on its final possession to win. The Lambert Trophy champions were matched up against Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl on Dec. 29 — a game that was played in frigid, icy conditions. Each team scored three touchdowns in that game, but BC missed all of its extra-point tries, while the Irish converted one of three to account for the heart-breaking 19-18 final score.

1984 — Perhaps one of the most storied seasons in Boston College football history, an early highlight was the Eagles' stunning 38-31 victory over Alabama in Birmingham before a national television audience on Sept. 8. The Eagles scored on their final possession of the game to beat the Crimson Tide — an omen of rallies to come. On Nov. 22, at the Orange Bowl, Flutie and Boston College football went into the storybooks as No. 22 threw a 48-yard "Hail Mary" touchdown pass to WR Gerard Phelan on the game's final play to give BC a memorable 47-45 victory over the Miami Hurricanes. A week later, Flutie completed one of his final college football goals by throwing a touchdown pass to his brother Darren, a freshman, in the final game of the regular season at Holy Cross on Dec. 1. He then flew to New York City where he was presented with the Heisman Trophy later that night.

1985 — Boston College scored its first postseason victory since the 1941 Sugar Bowl with an impressive 45-28 victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl on New Year's Day. The Eagles were ranked No. 4 in the final college football poll and won the Lambert Trophy as Eastern Champions for the second consecutive year.

1985 — Appearing in the Kickoff Classic, the Eagles lost to high-powered Brigham Young, 28-14, in the college football curtain-raiser, but NG Mike Ruth chased Cougar QBs all over the field en route to eventually winning the Outland Award as college football's top lineman that season.

1986 — After thrashing Holy Cross by a 56-26 score in Worcester on Nov. 22, the Eagles were invited to play Georgia in Tampa's Hall of Fame Bowl on Dec. 23. There, QB Shawn Halloran hit WR Kelvin Martin with a 5-yard scoring pass with just 32 seconds left in the game to give BC a 27-24 victory. Two months later, Holy Cross abruptly canceled the BC-HC rivalry that had begun in 1896.

1988 — A rebuilt Alumni Stadium with matching upper decks and state-of-the-art press facilities was dedicated in a nationally televised game against Southern Cal. On Nov. 19, Boston College and Army made sports history by playing the first American college football game in Europe. The Eagles topped the Cadets 38-24 in that contest, played at Dublin's Lansdowne Road Stadium.

1991 — Coughlin was hired away from the Super Bowl Champion New York Giants as BC's newest head football coach. BC played the first BIG EAST Football Conference game at Rutgers on August 31, the coach's 45th birthday.

1992 — BC scored three consecutive shutout victories (vs. Northwestern, Navy and Michigan State) on the way to an 8-2-1 regular season and a berth in the Hall of Fame Bowl against Tennessee. The Vols won the Sugar Bowl "rematch" by a 38-23 score.

1993 — The Eagles bounced back from losses in the first two games of the year to reel off eight consecutive victories and earn another postseason invitation. Highlighting this drive was a magnificent 41-39 victory at Notre Dame on Nov. 20, when David Gordon kicked a 41-yard field goal with no time remaining to shock the No. 1-ranked Irish. The Eagles' final 8-3 showing earned them a slot in the Carquest Bowl in Fort Lauderdale, where they beat ACC representative Virginia, 31-13, on New Year's Day.

1994 — Alumni Stadium was expanded to its current capacity of 44,500 and was completely refurbished. Unfortunately, as had happened on three previous occasions, the Eagles lost the dedication game, this time, 12-7, to Virginia Tech on Sept. 17. BC made up for the loss, however, by scoring an impressive 30-11 victory over Notre Dame in Chestnut Hill on Oct. 8 — the Eagles' first win in their new lair. BC went on to cap the season with a Christmas Day appearance in the Aloha Bowl in Honolulu where the Eagle defense led the way to a 12-7 victory over Kansas State.

1995 — Boston College was again invited to participate in the Kickoff Classic at the Meadowlands, but fared no better than in their 1985 appearance and lost to Ohio State by a 38-6 count. All 12 of the Eagles' games were on network television that year.

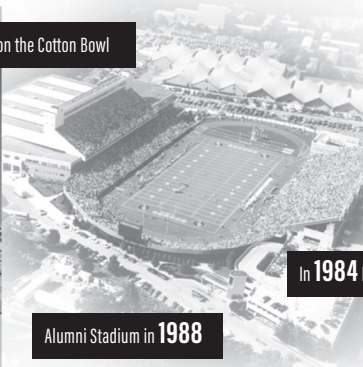

1996 — Tom O'Brien was named head coach at Boston College on Dec. 13.

1997 — O'Brien recorded his first victory as a head coach on Sept. 13, as BC beat West Virginia, 31-24. It was the first time the Eagles had defeated the Mountaineers in Chestnut Hill since 1976.

1998 — Mike Cloud rushed for a BIG EAST and then-BC single-season record 1,726 yards to become Boston College's all-time leading rusher with 3,597 yards. He became a consensus first-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Doak Walker National Running Back of the Year Award. The Kansas City Chiefs selected him in the second round of the NFL Draft.

1999 — Boston College engineered the third-best turnaround in major college football by finishing the regular season with an 8-3 record and ranked 22nd nationally. BC received an invitation to play in the Insight.com Bowl, its first postseason appearance since 1994.

2000 — Boston College made its second straight trip to a bowl game as the Eagles defeated Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the Aloha Bowl. William Green became the third-straight Eagle back to rush for 1,000 yards or more in a season and offensive tackle Paul Zukauskas earned first-team All-America honors and was later picked in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns.

2001 — The Eagles posted an 8-4 record and earned back-to-back bowl game wins with an impressive 20-16 win over Georgia in the Music City Bowl. Green rushed for 1,559 yards and earned first-team All-America honors. Green (16th, Cleveland) and OT Marc Colombo (29th, Chicago) were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

2002 — BC's 51-25 win over Toledo in the Motor City Bowl, an unprecedented third consecutive bowl victory, sent the 2002 senior class out with 32 victories in four years (32-17), tied with the 1981-84 group for the most wins in a four year period in 60 years of Boston College football. One of the top highlights of the season occurred on Nov. 2, when the Eagles marched into Notre Dame Stadium and defeated the previously undefeated, fourth-ranked and green-clad Fighting Irish, 14-7, to end ND's dreams of a national championship.

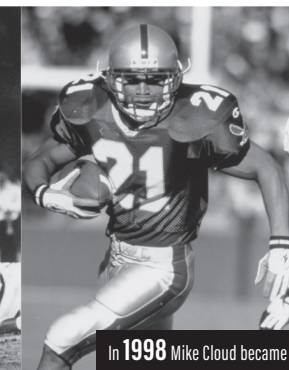

2003 — On Oct. 12, 2003, BC President William P. Leahy, S.J. and Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo held a press conference to announce that Boston College accepted an offer to become the 12th member of the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Eagles notched impressive victories over Notre Dame, No. 25 Penn State and No. 12 Virginia Tech en route to winning their 40th game in five seasons, tying an all-time school record. On New Year's Eve, the Eagles appeared in a school-record fifth consecutive bowl game at the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl. Their 35-21 victory over Colorado State made the Eagles the first team in BC football history to win seven or more games for five consecutive seasons and the only team in college football to have won a bowl game the past four years in a row. Senior running back Derrick Knight became BC's all-time rushing leader, finishing his career with 3,725 yards.

2004 — The Eagles rolled to another 9-3 season, winning a share of the BIG EAST Conference championship and missing a Fiesta Bowl bid only by a loss to Syracuse on the final day of the 2004 campaign. Senior QB Paul Peterson engineered a thrilling 24-23 victory at Notre Dame with a last-minute 30-yard touchdown pass to Tony Gonzalez setting up the stunning victory. Peterson was injured two weeks later in a win against Temple, but the Utah native returned to the lineup to lead the Eagles to a 37-24 victory over future ACC rival North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl in Charlotte.

2005 — After season-opening victories at Brigham Young and Army, Boston College played its first ACC game — a nationally-televised contest against Florida State on Sept. 21. ESPN's "Game Day" crew was on hand to broadcast from campus prior to the much-anticipated ACC match-up. The Eagles lost to Bobby Bowden's powerful Seminoles 28-17 in their league debut, but introduced themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the ACC with a 16-13 overtime victory at Clemson a week later. BC finished with another impressive 9-3 record and went on to play Boise State in the Humanitarian Bowl where they handed the host Broncos a rare defeat, 27-21, on their home blue turf.

2006 — Another successful year for BC football, as the team finished with a 10-3 record, including a pair of double-overtime victories over Clemson (34-33) and Brigham Young (30-23) on back-to-back September Saturdays. The big news of the year, however, came in December as Coach Tom O'Brien left Chestnut Hill to become head coach at ACC rival North Carolina State. Defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani took over leadership of the team for the Meineke Care Bowl against Navy in Charlotte and recorded his first head coaching victory as linebacker Jolann Dunbar recovered a Midshipman fumble late in the game and QB Matt Ryan led the Eagles back into scoring range where kicker Steve Aponavicius booted a 37-yard field goal to give BC a narrow 25-24 victory.

2007 — With new coach Jeff Jagodzinski — a former BC offensive line coach and NFL assistant — at the helm, the new-look Eagles rolled off eight straight victories to start the year — the best of them a stunning 14-10 win at Virginia Tech that featured two Matt Ryan touchdown passes in the game's final 2:11 — the game-winner a 24-yard scoring strike to RB Andre Callender with just seconds to play. The victory propelled BC to the No. 2 slot in the national rankings and helped them finish the regular season with a 10-2 mark, earning a spot in the ACC Championship game in Jacksonville vs. Virginia Tech. The Eagles lost to the Hokies, 30-16, in the title game, but bounced back to trim Michigan State, 24-21, in Orlando's Citrus Bowl, giving the team an 11-victory season, the most wins at Chestnut Hill since the legendary Sugar Bowl Champions of 1940.

2008 — As All-America QB Matt Ryan departed for the NFL (he was the first round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons), the Eagles regrouped quickly to post another 9-3 regular season that included a 17-0 shutout of Notre Dame — the Eagles' sixth consecutive win over the Irish. BC again won the ACC Atlantic Division crown and advanced to the league's title game again where Virginia Tech won a second straight championship at BC's expense. After losing to Vanderbilt, 16-14, in Nashville's Music City Bowl, Jagodzinski looked into NFL job possibilities and departed Chestnut Hill.

2009 — A longtime BC defensive assistant, Spaziani became the school's 34th head football coach, inheriting a team that was picked to finish last in the ACC's Atlantic Division. He led the team to an 8-5 record, earning a spot in San Francisco's Emerald Bowl against Southern California.

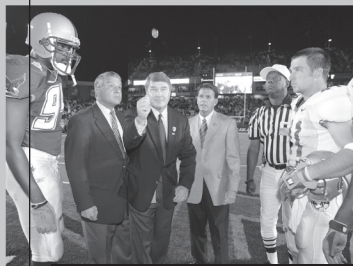

2010 — The defensively powerful Eagles qualified for a school-record 12th consecutive postseason bowl game, returning to San Francisco to meet Nevada in the re-named Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl.

2011 — For the first time in more than a decade, the Eagles slipped below .500 and missed out on postseason play. The season spotlight belonged to two-time All-America LB Luke Kuechly who made a "clean sweep" of national defensive honors, including ACC Defensive Player of the Year, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Butkus Award, the Rotary Lombardi Award and the Lott Impact Trophy after leading all collegiate football players in tackles (191) and solo tackles (102) during the 2011 campaign. Kuechly entered the NFL Draft after his junior season and was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the first round.

2012 — The Eagles slipped to a disappointing 2-10 season, the worst showing since the winless (0-11) season in 1978. At the end of the year, coach Frank Spaziani was replaced by former Temple head coach Steve Addazio, who was named BC's 35th head coach of football on Dec. 4.

2013 — Addazio wasted no time in returning the Eagles' football program to respectability. After tuning up with a 24-14 victory over feisty Villanova in his BC coaching debut, Addazio led the BC team to a successful seven win season and an invitation to play Pac-12 opponent Arizona in the Advocate v100

Bowl game in Shreveport, Louisiana on Dec. 31 — the Eagles' first post-season appearance since 2010. Along the way, BC scored ACC victories over Wake Forest, Virginia Tech, Maryland and North Carolina State. The 38-21 victory over the Wolfpack on Nov. 16, made the Eagles bowl-eligible and set off an enthusiastic celebration in Alumni Stadium, hailing the program's return to the ranks of college football's upper echelon. Running back Andre Williams was a key contributor to the resurgence, rushing for a school-record 2,177 yards and 18 touchdowns on a workhorse-like 355 carries. That tremendous offensive performance was not only the best of any of the nation's ball-carriers for the year, but also gave the soft-spoken senior entry into one of college football's most elite groupings: the 2,000-yard season rusher. Williams was accorded consensus All-America honors; won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back; and became BC's first Heisman Trophy finalist since the glory days of Flutie nearly 30 years earlier.

2014 — Addazio kept the Eagles on track with another winning season and another postseason bowl trip. BC went 7-6, highlighted by an electric, 37-31 upset over ninth-ranked Southern California in Alumni Stadium on Sept. 13. The Eagles topped the Trojans for the first BC victory versus a top-10 team in seven years and the first win for an unranked BC team against a top-10 team since 2002. The Eagles were nearly perfect on the road, winning the first four contests before dropping a 20-17 decision to top-ranked Florida State in Tallahassee with just three seconds to play in the final road game of the season. BC became bowl eligible on Nov. 1 with a three-point victory at Virginia Tech and later earned a berth to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium against Penn State on Dec. 27. The Eagles lost, 31-30, in overtime to the Nittany Lions on a missed extra point. Both the rushing offense and defense were stellar on the year. The defense ranked second in the nation, allowing just 94.5 yards per game and the offense finished the season 14th with 254.7 yards per game, setting a BC school record with 3,311 total yards. Quarterback Tyler Murphy made a lasting impression in his one season at The Heights, setting both the Boston College and Atlantic Coast Conference records for rushing yards by a QB with 1,184.

2015 — Although the team went 3-9 to miss out on a bowl game for the first time in three seasons, it was led by the nation's best defense. The Eagles held defending national champion Florida State to only one offensive touchdown and kept the Eagles within a touchdown of winning five games. The Eagles ranked first in total defense and first downs defense and fourth in scoring defense.

Note: Reid Oslin was Sports Information Director at Boston College from 1974 until the end of the 1997 football season. He is author of two books on the history of Boston College Football.

Clemson 6

Boston College 3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

Leahy's team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

Tennessee 13

In head coach Frank Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl. The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zabliski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied at 13. Don Currivan blocked a UT field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive.

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back for a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Crimson Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

Boston College 26

Eagle quarterback Doug Flutie put on a dazzling performance, completing 22-of-38 passes for 299 yards and two touchdowns (he also scored on a five-yard run and accounted for a pair of two-point conversions), but the Eagles' furious second-half rally fell just short of victory. The Eagles scored on the first drive of the game and then played tremendous defense, stopping the nationally ranked Auburn Tigers twice on drives inside their own 5-yard line without surrendering a touchdown. The Tigers used their blinding outside speed to score three second-quarter touchdowns and increased their lead to 33-10 by the end of the third quarter.

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16-of-37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a 3-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles' leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

DALLAS, TEXAS

Jan. 1, 1985

Boston College 45

Houston 28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years. Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead. Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest. Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a five-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, Fla.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission. Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

Boston College 23

The first bowl appearance in six years fell short of a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the Vols a lead that could not be matched. BC had outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

BC rallied with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's seven-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's closing effort.

Virginia 13

Glenn Foley put on a masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage, 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing minutes of play. In his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses dueling in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left.

The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

Boston College put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl. Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Boston College accumulated 180 yards on the ground, including a final 100-yard rushing game (109 yards) for Washington.

Boston College snapped its 22-game losing streak to ranked teams with a thrilling 20-16 victory over No. 16 Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl. Consensus All-America tailback William Green rushed for 149 yards, including a seven-yard, game-winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the game, to lead the Eagles to consecutive wins in a postseason bowl game.

Although the Eagles were outgained, 410 yards to 306 yards, the team did benefit from two UGA interceptions, two UGA fumbles and two first downs resulting from UGA penalties. Brian St. Pierre finished with 109 yards and one touchdown on nine completions. Green led all rushers with 149 yards and one touchdown, rushing for his 10th 100-yard game of the season. Fred Gibson was the game's leading receiver with 109 yards on six receptions.

Boston College won a bowl game for an unprecedented third year in a row as the Eagles thumped Toledo, 51-25, in the Motor City Bowl. Senior quarterback Brian St. Pierre completed 25-of-35 passes for a career-high 342 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles capped one of the most successful seasons in history. The Eagles scored touchdowns on their first six possessions. BC took the opening kickoff on its own 24 and marched 76 yards in 10 plays behind the rushing of Derrick Knight, who finished with 19 carries for 65 yards and a touchdown. After Toledo pulled to within 14-3, the Eagles mounted another impressive drive, culminating in a St. Pierre touchdown pass to talented sophomore wide receiver, a 40-yarder to Joel Hazard that made the score 21-3. The Rockets came no closer the rest of the day.

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left. A 40-yard Bradlee Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Bobby Stancil interception led to a Paul Peterson-to-Larry Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead. After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone.

CONTINENTAL TIRE BOWL '04

CHARLOTTE, N.C.

Dec. 30, 2004

Boston College 37

North Carolina 24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24. Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort. UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a one-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ryan Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead. BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

Ryan Glasper intercepted a Jared Zabransky pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to lift BC past Boise State 27-21 in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl.

Playing before a hostile crowd and on the blue turf of homestanding Boise State, the Eagles stunned the Broncos by scoring the first 27 points of the game as quarterback Matt Ryan connected on three touchdown passes, including two to Tony Gonzalez in the first half. Ryan completed 19-of-36 passes for 256 yards, 144 of them going to senior Will Blackmon.

Ryan got the Eagles on the board 3:29 into the first half when he found Gonzalez for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Following a Ryan Ohlinger 30-yard field goal, BC linebacker Jolonn Dunbar caused a fumble that was picked up by Ray Henderson and taken to the Broncos 13-yard-line. Ryan then hooked up with Gonzalez on a 13-yard strike to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead.

Navy 24

Interim head coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for NC State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations. Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's MVP after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown.

With Navy trying to kill the clock with less than two minutes remaining, Jo-Lonn Dunbar recovered a Reggie Campbell fumble at the 36. Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Ryan Purvis to get the Eagles within field goal range. Kicker Steve Aponavicius connected from 37 yards as time expired and the Eagles won yet another bowl game.

CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL '07

ORLANDO, FLA.

Dec. 28, 2007

Boston College 24

Michigan State 21

Quarterback Matt Ryan ended a brilliant career in style by leading the Eagles to an 11th victory for only the second time in school history.

BC defeated Michigan State, 24-21, in the Champs Sports Bowl in Orlando.

Ryan completed 22-of-47 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles kept the nation's longest bowl game winning streak alive with their eighth straight bowl win. The win also propelled the team to a No. 10 finish in the final AP college football poll of the season, BC's first top 10 finish since the 1984 season. Michigan State had an opportunity to pull the upset, taking over with 2:37 left in the game. But on first down, BC's Paul Anderson intercepted a Hoyer pass and returned it to the MSU 29, allowing the Eagles to run out the clock.

MUSIC CITY BOWL '08

NASHVILLE, TENN.

Dec. 31, 2008

Vanderbilt 16

Boston College 14

Vanderbilt won a bowl game for the first time in exactly 53 years when Bryant Hahnfeldt kicked a 45-yard field goal with 3:26 left to beat Boston College 16-14 in the Music City Bowl.

Vanderbilt hadn't even played in a bowl since 1982 and the win gave the Commodores (7-6) their first winning season since then.

Boston College (9-5) snapped the nation's longest bowl winning streak after eight straight games in its 10th consecutive bowl appearance. The Eagles also missed a chance at finishing with at least 10 wins for a third straight season.

USC 24

Boston College 13

Matt Barkley threw touchdown passes to Stanley Havili on Southern California's first two possessions and added a touchdown run in the fourth quarter to help the Trojans beat Boston College 24-13 in the Emerald Bowl.

Damian Williams caught 12 passes for 189 yards, setting up Havili's second score and Barkley's one-yard sneak that gave USC a 24-13 lead with 11:53 remaining.

The Eagles stayed close with the Trojans for most of the game before Dave Shinskie threw an interception to Shareece Wright early in the fourth quarter. On the next play, Barkley connected on a 48-yard pass to Williams. Barkley scored on the next play.

KRAFT FIGHT HUNGER BOWL '11

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

Jan. 9, 2011

Nevada 20

Boston College 13

Rishard Matthews caught a touchdown pass and returned a punt for another score, and No. 13 Nevada used its best defensive game of the season to beat Boston College 20-13.

Colin Kaepernick threw for 192 yards and a touchdown for the Wolfpack (13-1), who snapped a four-game bowl losing streak by tying a school record for wins in a season, set when it played in what used to be Division I-AA.

The win was sealed by Khalid Wooten's interception on the final drive of the game for the Eagles (7-6).

The game matched BC's top-ranked rushing defense against Nevada's high-powered pistol attack that was third in the nation in rushing. The defense won that battle, holding the Wolfpack to a season-low 114 yards on the ground, including just 22 for Kaepernick.

Freshman Chase Rettig completed 14-of-34 passes for 121 yards and two interceptions. Boston College played without leading rusher Montel Harris, who got hurt in pregame warmups.

First-year coach Steve Addazio said Boston College had plenty to be proud of after a remarkable turnaround season that included a return to postseason play after a 2-10 record in 2012.

Not much went right for the Eagles in a 42-19 loss to Arizona in the Advocare V100 Bowl. Boston College running back Andre Williams, the Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman finalist who came into the game with 2,102 yards rushing, was held to 75 yards and one touchdown in his final game.

BC (7-6) kept things tight early, trailing just 7-6 midway through the second quarter. But Arizona scored two quick touchdowns just before halftime to take a 21-6 lead and the Eagles could never mount another challenge.

BC didn't score a touchdown until Williams' 4-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Senior Alex Amidon established a Boston College career record for receptions (191) and receiving yards (2,800) in the game, recording 10 receptions for 129 yards against the Wildcats. Senior place-kicker Nate Freese connected on both field-goal attempts to conclude the season a perfect 20-for-20.

Boston College lost in overtime to Penn State, 31-30.

The Eagles rushed for 289 yards against the Nittany Lions, who came into the game with the top-ranked rushing defense in the nation, averaging 84.8 yards per game. For the first time since 2006, two BC players recorded 100-yard rushing games as quarterback Tyler Murphy and running back Jon Hilliman tallied 105 (11 carries) and 148 (25 carries), respectively.

After the two defensive-minded teams played to a 7-7 draw in the first half, BC built a 21-7 lead in the third quarter, but PSU scored to retie the game. The two teams traded field goals to send it to OT.

Murphy hit David Dudeck for a 21-yard score on the third play of overtime to put BC on top. Mike Knoll did not convert the extra point, giving BC a six-point lead. On third-and-15, PSU quarterback Christian Hackenberg found Jesse James for a 17-yard pick up and then on third-and-seven, the QB connected with Kyle Carter on a 10-yard pass for the TD. Sam Ficken made the extra point to give the Lions the win.

RETIRED JERSEYS & NUMBERS

RETIRED NUMBERS

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the No. 22 or No. 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie (1981-84) and nose tackle Mike Ruth (1982-85), respectively. Flutie won the 1984 Heisman Trophy, given annually by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the outstanding college football player in the nation, and the Walter Camp Award, given by the Walter Camp Football Foundation of New Haven, Connecticut, to the nation's most outstanding player.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on Oct. 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

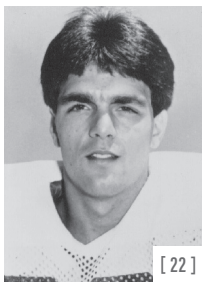

RETIRED JERSEYS

Eight other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Lou Montgomery, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban. Holovak, O'Rourke, Thurman and Urban were honored in ceremonies on Sept. 12, 1998, as the Eagles beat Rutgers.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first Eastern Championship. He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

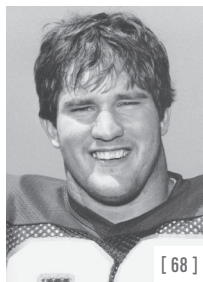

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

DOUG FLUTIE

*Quarterback - 1981-84
Nantuck, Mass.*

[68]

MIKE RUTH

*Nose Guard - 1982-85
Norristown, Pa.*

Thurman was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season.

Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957-90, and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletics facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at the 1999 Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3.

In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl.

He lettered for the Eagles from 1938-40 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

DOUG FLUTIE

Doug Flutie is the quintessential football performer. Between the 1981 and 1984 college football seasons, he produced a major college career record of 11,054 yards of total offense (10,579 of them from passing, a national career record).

He first appeared on the collegiate scene in the fall of 1981 starting in the fourth game of his freshman year in an already-lost game at Penn State. He raked Joe Paterno's defense for 135 passing yards and a touchdown and won the starting job with that performance.

He went on to post a 30-11-1 overall record as a starter while also leading BC to three postseason bowls, the school's first postseason play in 40 years. He was the game MVP of the Tangerine Bowl in his sophomore year against Auburn and the Liberty Bowl in his junior year vs. Notre Dame.

Flutie's last-chance, game-winning drives were the stuff of Hollywood screenwriters. As long as there was time on the clock, Flutie always believed that it was possible to win.

In those rare instances when it didn't happen, it was only because he had run out of time — not out of opportunity.

The best thing about watching Flutie in a game was wondering what astounding feat he would perform that day. Those feats weren't always game-winning plays, but often a series of individual plays within a game that, when totaled, made victory possible.

No obstacle on the field seemed too great to overcome. While gifted with great mobility and an uncanny talent to "photograph" an opposing defense and then pick it apart at his whim, perhaps his greatest talent was an innate sense of how to win — an asset that never was coached into him.

When he wasn't rolling up prodigious amounts of passing yards, Flutie tantalized his foes with his scrambling and finished his career with more than 700 rushing yards.

Then, there was the size factor — "Little Doug" playing in a land of giants. Of course, "Little Doug" was just as tall as the average American male, about 5-10. Perception soon became reality and a "little" man, real or imagined, wasn't supposed to accomplish what he did on a football field.

As a sophomore, he engineered a memorable tie against defending national champion Clemson. After the nationally televised game, CBS commentator Pat Haden, himself a smallish quarterback who succeeded at USC, sought him out and told him, "Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are too small to play this game."

Yet, he also was a man of the people. He went to class with other students; he ate on the same meal plan they used; he played pick-up basketball games in the gym with them; and he never sought an exalted place in either his campus or personal life.

He thrived in his family setting away from the adulation, glitz and glitter of his fame. One of the happiest moments of a momentous senior year was playing with his younger brother Darren, then a freshman wide receiver.

Oddly enough, Flutie eschewed scholarship offers from Holy Cross and Syracuse, who wanted to make him a defensive back despite his fine performances at quarterback for Natick High School, in Boston's Metro-west suburbs.

But Boston College got him with an assurance by new head coach Jack Bicknell that he would be given a full shot.

In 1983, he was key in the Eagles' upset victory over Alabama and another last-second win against Temple. His team lost to Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl, but he was named game MVP.

All of that simply set the table for his amazing senior season in 1984. He threw six touchdown passes in a 52-20 romp over North Carolina; got four in an opening-game victory over Western Carolina; and three each against Rutgers, Army and Holy Cross; and of course, his fabled, last-play touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan to beat Miami stood above all else.

In 1984, Doug Flutie became the first player in Boston College history to win college football's grandest individual award — the Heisman Trophy.

It capped an unbelievable 9-2 season that included the astounding victory over Miami, a victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl and a No. 5 national ranking.

He was the single-most exciting and resourceful player in college football that season. In addition to being named the starting quarterback on every major 1984 all-America team and winning the Heisman, he also won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's most outstanding college football player; the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and numerous player of the year awards.

As icing on the cake, Flutie headlined the 2007 College Football Hall of Fame class. Flutie was selected in his first year of eligibility and was inducted at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. He was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Indiana, during ceremonies in the summer of 2008.

Though his team had a losing record, Mike Ruth was honored in 1985, the only time a player from a non-winning team has been recognized.

At 6-1 and 265 pounds, he not only was the team's strongest player — he had a record 560-pound bench press as a junior — but he also was the quickest lineman.

He mauled the offensive linemen who tried to block him, often tossing them aside like rag dolls; or he fooled them with his cat-like quickness that helped him elude double teams by centers and guards until it was almost monotonous to watch.

The combination of his strength and quickness helped him accumulate a couple dozen sacks and nearly 300 tackles during his career.

Injuries once more dogged him as a senior but not enough that he didn't excel on a team that won only four of 12 games.

Ruth had built a tremendous reputation during his junior season and really secured the Outland Trophy in the 1985 season's first game, the Kickoff Classic against Brigham Young at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

He relentlessly harassed BYU's quarterbacks the entire game, convincing the trophy's voters that he still was the country's best interior lineman. His play for the rest of the season did nothing to diminish that impression.

Ruth showed as a freshman during the 1982 season that he would be special when playing a backup role. He accumulated 36 tackles and three quarterback sacks that season.

Though plagued by a season-long ankle injury as a sophomore in 1983, he more than doubled his tackles to 80 and had 7.5 sacks.

In 1984, as the key to the Eagles' defensive strength, Ruth had 102 tackles, 76 of them solo. He had 6.5

sacks, but also was credited with 20 quarterback pressures and seven other minus-yard plays. In the 1984 game against Holy Cross, he pressured the Crusader quarterback into throwing five interceptions.

Away from the field, he was just as unique.

For most of his time at BC, he seriously considered a vocation to the priesthood. He was a very faith-oriented person who practiced what he preached. Often, the night before a game, the team would watch a movie he found objectionable and he simply sat outside the meeting room where it was being shown, and studied.

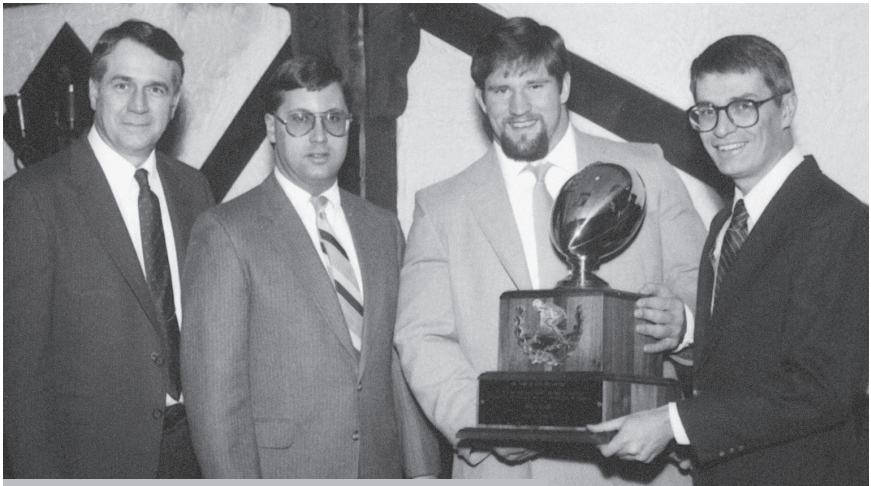

When his teammates emerged, he rejoined them for the team's late-night snack and everything was very comfortable for all concerned.

His mother was a victim of severe arthritis, so bad that at times she could not walk down the aisle in his family's parish church outside Philadelphia. No matter. Mike simply picked her up in his massive arms and carried her to her pew; and when it came time for her to receive Holy Communion, he carried her to the altar and back again.

He was team captain in 1985, his Outland Trophy year, but his leadership, even in a losing season, remained true to his personality. He told everyone before that season that he was not a holler guy, that his leadership would be by example. He never wavered and played as intensely as he had the previous seasons.

Ruth came to Boston College from Norristown, Pennsylvania, where he graduated from Methacton High School. He was a third-team all-state pick and was the team captain.

After his Boston College career, Ruth was a second-round draft pick (42nd pick overall) of the New England Patriots and played for the team from 1986-87.

Mike Ruth is the only Boston College student-athlete to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's best interior offensive or defensive lineman.

2016 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

UNIVERSITY & MEDIA

BOSTON COLLEGE

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education operating in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of approximately 14,100 undergraduate and graduate students from all 50 states and more than 80 countries.

Boston College is ranked 30th among national universities by US News & World Report. Its Graduate School of Social Work is listed among the nation's top 10, also by US News, while the graduate programs of its Lynch School of Education and its Connell School of Nursing are among the top 35. In addition, the Carroll School of Management was ranked 4th in Bloomberg/BusinessWeek's "Top Undergraduate Business Programs 2015." The University received nearly 29,000 applications for its 2,280-member Class of 2020, and is considered among the top American private research universities.

After more than 150 years of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes Reverend William P. Leahy, SJ, who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transformative experience for young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored by the MacArthur Foundation and the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20, also by US News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need. Each year, for example, BC undergraduates volunteer more than 550,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while 700 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in mind, body and soul. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports--all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level--and perennially has one of the highest student-athlete graduation rates in Division IA.

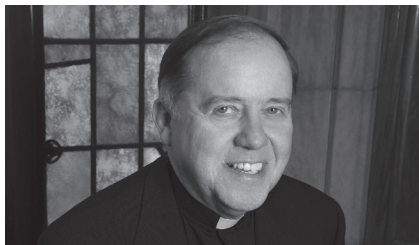

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Roche Center for Catholic Education; Church in the 21st Century Center; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Sloan Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; Weston Observatory and Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies.

William P. Leahy, S.J., became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, he grew up on his family's farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of study at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. He studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, earning a master's degree in divinity and a master's degree in sacred theology. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985. He is the author of the book Adapting to America: Catholics, Jesuits, and Higher Education in the Twentieth Century.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has earned its place among the country's best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, the University's endowment has more than doubled to $2.3 billion, among the nation's largest; sponsored research grants have grown to $51 million annually; and need-based undergraduate financial aid has risen to $109 million, with BC being one of only 19 private universities that is need blind in admissions and meets the full demonstrated need of its students. In addition, more than 100 full-time faculty members have been added, AHANA student enrollment has climbed from 18 percent to 29 percent and annual cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to more than $100 million.

During his presidency, undergraduate applications to Boston College have doubled, with the University attracting students from all 50 states and 80 countries. BC undergraduates have earned more than 300 prestigious fellowships over the past decade, including Rhodes, Marshall and Truman scholarships and Fulbright fellowships. Student-athletes at Boston College excel at balancing the demands of academics and athletics, with BC consistently posting among the NCAA's highest graduation rates.

Boston College continues to build on its strengths and accomplishments, while focusing additional resources on undergraduate liberal arts education, student formation and integrated science research and teaching. The University also is committed to applying the strengths of its professional schools to resolve critical societal issues, to enhance BC's international links, and to meet its goal of becoming the world's leading Catholic university and theological center.

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Since being named Director of Athletics at Boston College, Brad Bates has met with hundreds of student-athletes, coaches, faculty, staff, fans and other constituents while leading BC Athletics through a continued period of growth.

After taking the reins in October of 2012, Bates immediately conducted a thorough review of the football program that culminated in the hiring of Addazio as head coach. Bates has instituted sweeping changes in ticket sales, marketing, football gameday parking, pre-game hospitality, game atmosphere and customer service. Bates is currently leading his staff in the development of a long-range strategic plan for BC Athletics that includes a defined vision and mission statement and blueprint for student-athlete development, graduation and competitive success.

Under his direction, many teams have achieved athletics excellence. In the 2015-16 academic year, Boston College achieved its highest finish ever in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings, based on each Division I institution's sports finishes. The women's ice hockey team reached the championship game of the NCAA Women's Frozen Four, the men's team reached the Frozen Four, and the baseball team advanced to its first Super Regional after winning the Oxford Regional of the NCAA Tournament.

Student-athlete success in the classroom and job placement after graduation top priorities for Bates. Boston College ranked fifth in the nation for overall Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in all sports in 2014-15. BC boasted a GSR of 95 for the class that entered in 2008; only nine other FBS schools earned a GSR of 90 or more. Fifteen Boston College teams earned a perfect GSR of 100, an increase of 12 from the year before.

Athletics Fundraising under Bates' leadership has remained strong. As the University completed the $1.5B Light the World Campaign, athletics secured commitments to name the head men's basketball coach and director of athletics positions. Since his arrival, Athletics has secured more than 120 commitments of $100,000 or more. Those pledges have continued to enhance the endowment for scholarships, aided annual needs through the Flynn Fund and enhanced facilities including locker room renovations for football and men's basketball in 2015.

Bates came to BC after 10 successful seasons as Athletics Director at Miami University. He was also a member of the faculty at Miami University, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in sports administration. Prior to being named director of athletics at Miami, Bates served as senior associate AD at Vanderbilt University, where he had held positions of increasing responsibility within the athletics department between 1985 and 2002. A graduate of the University of Michigan, where he began as a walk-on defensive back before earning a football scholarship under legendary coach Bo Schembechler, Bates holds a master's degree in education from Michigan and a doctorate in education from Vanderbilt. He was also a member of the faculty at Miami University, teaching undergraduate and graduate courses in sports administration.

At Boston College, Bates is responsible for one of the nation's premier athletics programs with 750 student-athletes competing in 31 varsity sports. A perennial leader in NCAA student-athlete graduation rates, BC student-athletes continue to be national leaders in volunteer service, with Boston College winning the National Student-Athlete Advisory Committee Award of Excellence in 2010 in recognition of the community service endeavors of Eagle student-athletes.

A native of Michigan, Bates and his wife, Michele, reside in Chestnut Hill.

ALUMNI STADIUM

With a capacity of 44,500 maroon-and-gold-clad fans, Alumni Stadium is the home of the Eagles. The current version of Alumni Stadium opened in the fall of 1995.

The roots of Alumni Stadium and on-campus football at Boston College date back to 1915, when the original Alumni Stadium was dedicated. The facility was located on middle campus on the site of today's Stokes Hall.

As Boston College enjoyed more and more football success in the 1930s and 1940s, the Eagles moved a majority of their home games to Boston's two major league baseball stadiums, Fenway Park and Braves Field (now Nickerson Field on the Boston University campus).

On Jan. 23, 1957, Boston College president Joseph R.N. Maxwell, S.J., announced that a new Alumni Stadium would be built on the BC campus as football no longer would be allowed in Fenway Park. A $250,000 campaign followed and on Sept. 26, 1957, the Eagles played host to Navy in the first game on the site of the present Alumni Stadium before a sellout crowd of 26,000-plus.

The new stadium was constructed in an amazing span of 156 days. The game was arranged by then-United States Senator John F. Kennedy, but Navy spoiled the home opener with a 46-6 win.

In 1971, Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats and artificial turf and lights were installed. Alumni Stadium was rebuilt again in 1988 as matching upper decks and a new press box were added.

These renovations were part of the building of Conte O. Forum.

In the spring of 2012, Boston College installed a new, state-of-the-art, custom-designed AstroTurf surface. It replaced the artificial surface with an AstroTurf GameDay Grass 3D60H field. The scenic Chestnut Hill stadium, with the Boston skyline offering a splendid background in the distance, heightens the excitement and enthusiasm that is part of every Boston College home game.

State-of-the-art video boards and LED ribbon displays were installed before the 2014 season in Boston College's Alumni Stadium.

Each end zone video board is approximately 19 feet high and 54 feet wide utilizing more than 1,000 square feet, which is twice the size of the previously installed boards. There are 258,000 pixels and 855,000 LEDs per display. A total of 97 60-inch televisions would fit into one end zone display.

Accompanying the video boards are 1,065 LED ribbon displays that wrap around the entire stadium.

There are only 15 stadiums (college or pro) in the entire country with the 13HD technology that was introduced at Alumni Stadium and the video boards are the first of their kind in the Northeast.

Boston College is the only Atlantic Coast Conference school with the advanced outdoor video resolution and one of only two schools to have it in the Eastern half of the United States (South Carolina being the other).

Professional teams using 13HD technology include the Denver Broncos, San Francisco 49ers, Carolina Panthers and Pittsburgh Steelers. Other collegiate stadiums utilizing the technology include the University of Washington, Stanford, the University of Wisconsin and Texas A&M.

YAWKEY ATHLETICS CENTER

In March 2005, Boston College football staff and players as well as the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes moved into the Yawkey Athletics Center, BC's $27 million, 72,000-square-foot facility located behind the north end zone of Alumni Stadium. It includes new football offices, meeting and breakout rooms, locker rooms, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment room, theater-style classrooms, recruiting and player lounges.

The building also features the Murray Family Function Room, a multi-function room larger than the Shea Room that benefits the entire BC campus. After viewing the company's impressive work at North Carolina, North Carolina State and Virginia Tech, BC contracted with DJS Design of Charlotte, North Carolina, for concept, design and construction of a football museum.

Located in the main entry lobby, the museum features a soaring bronze eagle atop a lighted granite pedestal as its centerpiece. A multimedia kiosk will enable visitors to watch video highlights of great games and players in BC football history. Visitors will be allowed to touch and have photos taken with Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy, which is displayed in the open with no glass enclosure.

BC received a commitment of $15 million from the Yawkey Foundation to help fund the new building and other athletics-related improvements to enhance intercollegiate, intramural and club sports. Other benefactors generously donated the rest of the money needed to complete the construction, making the Yawkey Center the first structure on the BC campus to be built entirely with private funds.

Completion of the Yawkey Center created a domino effect of facilities improvements for sports other than football. Once the football and learning resources staffs had completed their moves, workers began a multi-million dollar renovation to Conte Forum. The construction provided new office and locker room space for many of BC's 31 varsity men's and women's sports as well as new office space for much of the administrative staff. Women's basketball moved into a new suite of offices shortly thereafter, and the old football locker room has been converted into five new locker rooms for women's sports. Many coaches and their assistants who had been working in cramped conditions have been relocated to new offices in the South end zone.

Prior to the start of the 2015 season, the locker rooms received a major renovation.

BOSTON COLLEGE IMG RADIO NETWORK

IMG College, the exclusive radio rights holder for Boston College Athletics, produces home and away broadcasts for Boston College football.

For the 12th straight season, Jon Meterparel will serve as the Eagles' play-by-play voice. He is joined in broadcast booth by expert analyst Pete Cronan and sideline reporter Scott Mutryn. Boston College fans can listen to the IMG Sports Radio Network on Flagship station WEEI, 93.7 FM, any one of 13 additional stations throughout New England, or globally on Sirius/XM Satellite radio.

Additionally, all games are streamed live over the internet and available on your mobile device free of charge via www.bceagles.com

Meterparel is entering his 11th season as the voice of Boston College football and is also entering his fourth season calling Boston College basketball. The Weston, Massachusetts, native began his career at WFNZ in Charlotte, North Carolina. He spent 12 years as a member of the Dennis and Callahan show on Sports Radio WEEI in Boston from 2000-12. Meterparel called Harvard University Football on TV and Harvard basketball on radio. He was also the voice of the New England Revolution. For his work on BC football, he was named the Lindsey Nelson Northeast sportscaster of the year in 2007. Jon and his wife, Heather, are the proud parents of sons Ben and Nick.

the 1976 Eagle entry, begins his 28th year as the color analyst for Boston College football. A second-round pick of Seattle, Cronan enjoyed a nine-year career in the NFL with the Seahawks (1977-81) and Redskins (1981-85). He has been the color commentator on the Boston College IMG Radio Network since 1988 and his broadcast partners have included Gil Santos, Dale Arnold, Dick Lutsik, Sean McDonough, Sean Grande, John Rooke and Jon Meterparel.

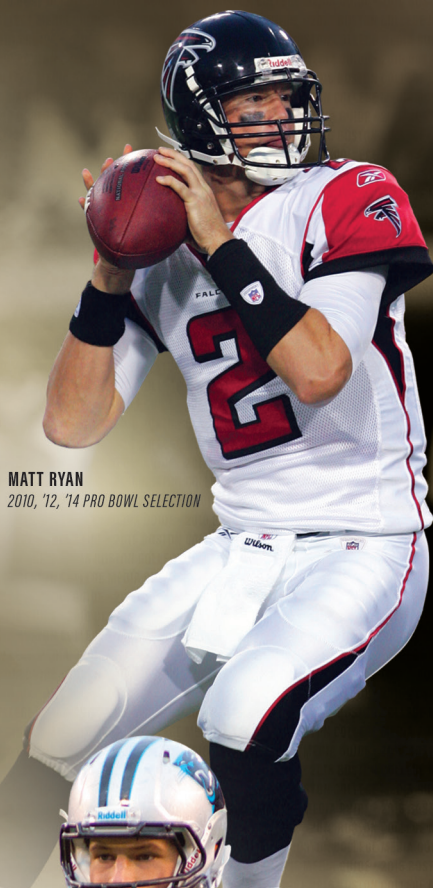

Mutryn, a quarterback at Boston College from 1994-98, is entering his fourth season on the Boston College broadcast team. Mutryn was a top recruit out of Saint Ignatius High School in Cleveland, Ohio, who finished his BC career ranked among the school's top-10 quarterbacks in total career yardage, passing yards, attempts and completion percentage. Mutryn signed a free agent contact with the New England Patriots in 1999 and competed against Drew Bledsoe, John Friesz and Michael Bishop during preseason, but did not make the final cut.
