Wagner-Boston College Scene-Setter

Chestnut Hill, MA - The Wagner Seahawks (2-0), who compete in the Football Championship Division (FCS), will face its sixth Bowl Championship Subdivision (FBS) opponent in program history on Sat., September 24 when the Seahawks meet the Boston College Eagles of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) in a contest that will be streamed live on ESPN 3.

First 2-0 Start Since 2006

In opening the 2016 campaign with victories over Saint Anselm (38-16) and Concordia (38-0), Wagner is off to its first 2-0 season start since 2006.

Sixth FBS Foe for Wagner

Boston College will be the sixth Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponent that Wagner has ever played, with each of the previous five matchups taking place since 2012. This is the second consecutive year that the Seahawks will face two FBS foes in the same season as the Green & White travel to UMass to meet the Minutemen on October 29 after playing Rice and BYU in 2015.

*-UMass will be second FBS foe that Seahawks will face this season

Seahawks Nearly Won First-Ever Clash with FBS Opponent

Wagner met an FBS foe on the gridiron for the first time on August 31, 2012 at Florida Atlantic and the Seahawks nearly pulled off the win as the Owls picked off a pass in the end zone en route to a 7-6 victory in the season opener for both teams. The Green & White got out to a 0-3 start that season before reeling off nine straight wins on their way to claiming the Northeast Conference (NEC) championship.

The Coaches

Wagner

Jason Houghtaling (say it Ho-tal-ling) is in his second season as the head coach of the Seahawks and, at age 35, is the third-youngest head coach in the FCS. He took over for Walt Hameline, who announced at the end of the 2014 season that he would be stepping down as head coach while remaining as Seahawk athletic director. Houghtaling (3-10) was the Seahawks' associate head coach and offensive coordinator when the Green & White claimed a share of the 2014 NEC title (with Sacred Heart), and overall, has spent seven years as a Wagner assistant. In his final three seasons as offensive coordinator (2011, 2012, 2014), the Seahawks amassed a 16-6 NEC record with league titles in two of those three years. In 2014, the Seahawks' offense ranked No. 4 nationally in time of possession and did not commit a turnover in the final three games of the season. Houghtaling served as offensive coordinator at Cornell in 2013 before returning to Grymes Hill as associate head coach/offensive coordinator.

Boston College

Steve Addazio was named Boston College's 35th head football coach in December of 2012 and wasted no time making his mark on the program. Addazio took over an Eagles program that had suffered back-to-back losing seasons for the first time in 14 years (including a 2-10 mark in 2012) and engineered a remarkable turnaround. In what were supposed to be rebuilding years, Addazio led the Eagles to back-to-back seven-win seasons and two consecutive bowl games. The former Temple head coach and Florida offensive coordinator is in his fourth season at the helm of the Eagles' program and is 18-23.

DID YOU KNOW?

The matchup between Wagner and Concordia will mark the first time that the Seahawks have ever played a team from the state of Michigan.

THIS IS WAGNER COLLEGE

As tenacious as any Seahawk, Wagner College enjoys a bucolic perch atop Grymes Hill overlooking Manhattan and the other boroughs of New York City. Founded in 1883 as a Lutheran proseminary, Wagner has evolved to become an independent residential liberal arts college enrolling a capacity of over 2,000 students. The location of the College above the gateway to one of the world's greatest financial and cultural capitals was the work of alumnus Frank Sutter who convinced the College's Board of Trustees to relocate Wagner here from Rochester in 1918. In this, the Rev. Sutter and the trustees were extraordinarily prescient. Their wisdom provided Wagner with a distinct geographical advantage over all other all liberal arts colleges in the country. Wagner is New York State's southernmost college and its 105 park-like acres represent the highest elevation on the eastern seaboard from Maine to Key West Florida.

The College's signature curriculum – the Wagner Plan for the Practical Liberal Arts – capitalizes on the best of a traditional, suburban, liberal arts college campus and the infinite array of educational opportunities afforded by New York City. Students intern in the world's leading financial institutions. They observe and experience diversity from the sophisticated workings of the United Nations to melting pots of multicultural neighborhoods. They circulate in the city's unparalleled creative environment of museums, media, and performing arts. This is their laboratory. They immerse themselves and are inspired by the city's sheer energy.

The contrast between the frenetic life of the city and the almost pastoral setting of the campus is the perfect metaphor for the melding of experiential and theoretical education that is the hallmark of The Wagner Plan. In small learning communities, students and faculty explore the conceptual foundations of the arts, humanities, and sciences. The faculty challenges students to consider new ideas, to master new skills and technologies, and to reflect and draw meaning from what they have experienced in and out of the classroom.

A lush canopy of mature maples and oaks shades Wagner's 105-acre campus of manicured lawns and gardens; historic and modern buildings; and sweeping views of Manhattan, Brooklyn, and New York Harbor. No wonder Wagner students voted their campus Most Beautiful in the Princeton Review's Poll in 2005. The carefully tended campus is yet one more manifestation of the nurturing environment Wagner provides its students.

Movie companies have frequently used the campus as a classic college setting, most recently for a movie titled "School of Rock" starring Jack Black (Shallow Hal). The picturesque campus was also used in a fall 2001 television series, The Education of Max Bixford, starring Richard Dreyfus and as the site of a prospective private military school in the HBO series, The Sopranos. The school was also used as a backdrop for current shows, Rescue Me and Law & Order.

Since the adoption of the Wagner Plan in 1997, enrollment has increased by nearly 40 percent and student quality as measured by high school average and SAT scores have improved as well. Once largely a commuter campus, now 82 percent of all undergraduates live on campus in residence halls that offer "million dollar" views. Though continuing to serve students from metropolitan New York, the college draws most of its enrollment from beyond the immediate region.

By every measure – enrollment, endowment, and national reputation – Wagner is ascending the ranks of America's strongest small colleges that blend the liberal arts with a commitment to service and preparation for the professions.

Campus life includes the array of sports provided by an NCAA Division I program which is housed in a 93,000-square-foot sports center featuring an extensive fitness center, an indoor NCAA swimming pool and a basketball arena. A football and track & field stadium showcases a variety of playing fields throughout the campus including baseball, softball, lacrosse and soccer venues.

Wagner's alumni include Broadway Tony award winners, movie stars, film producers, playwrights, and Fortune 500 CEO's including the chairman of GE Investments, the chairman of Dupont Europe, the chairman Emeritus of The Oppenheimer Management Company and the chairman of the New York Power Authority.

Visitors to and residents of New York City alike enjoy access to a rich and diverse array of museums, cultural organizations, arts performances, sports teams, societies and attractions. Some of the best and most famous attractions in the world call New York City home. We encourage you to find out more about them, so that you can plan a visit to what is one of the most vibrant and exciting cities in the world. To get to Manhattan from Staten Island, you can take a ride on the world-famous Staten Island Ferry, a well-recognized icon of New York City transportation, and incidentally, a free ride into the heart of New York City.

WAGNER SEAHAWKS

ATHLETIC HIGHLIGHTS

- The Spring 2016 season will go down as one of the most successful in the long and rich history of Wagner Athletics as three Seahawk teams - Women's Water Polo, Women's Lacrosse and Men's Golf - earned conference championships and went on to compete in NCAA postseason competition. For Water Polo, this marked the third consecutive year that head coach Chris Radmonovich has led the Seahawks to the MAAC Championship. Women's lacrosse, under first-year head coach Katie Rowan, and men's golf, led by veteran head coach Christopher Fourman, claimed their first-ever NEC crowns, and ensuing NCAA bids, in the history of their programs.
- The Wagner men's basketball team built a 14-point halftime lead and withstood a late St. Bonaventure rally in earning a 79-75 victory over the Bonnies of the Atlantic 10 Conference in the first round of the 2016 National Invitation Tournament (NIT).
- Senior-to-be Anu Nihipali made Wagner women's swimming & diving program history on June 27, becoming the first Seahawk to compete at the 2016 U.S. Olympic Team Trials, held at the Century Link Center in Omaha, NE.

INSTITUTIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Wagner College is a private liberal arts college located in Staten Island, New York, with a fulltime equivalent enrollment of approximately 2,000. Through its signature four-year undergraduate curriculum, the Wagner Plan for the Practical Liberal Arts, and its location in New York City, the College offers students a comprehensive educational program that is anchored in the liberal arts, experiential and co-curricular learning, interculturalism, interdisciplinary studies and service to society. Wagner also offers master's programs in nursing, education, business administration and microbiology.
- Wagner College appeared in Money magazine's third annual Best Colleges for Your Money list, a ranking of the top 705 colleges and universities in America, big and small, public and private, Ivy and otherwise. The list was released on July 11. According to Money's editors, all 705 of the colleges on the list (chosen from the roughly 2,000 four-year colleges in the U.S.) provide an above-average value for students' and parents' money. Money magazine's Best Colleges for Your Money list rankings were assigned based on 24 factors in three categories: quality of education, affordability and outcomes.
- For the fourth year in a row, Wagner College appears on the Forbes 2016 America's Top Colleges list, produced in partnership with the Washington, D.C.-based Center for College Affordability and Productivity. This is the ninth year Forbes and CCAP have produced the list, which was released July 7.

Linebacker Najee Harris, TE Ryan Owens Named 2016 Team Captains

Harris

HARRIS, OWENS NAMED 2016 TEAM CAPTAINS

Najee Harris (Norristown, PA/ Norristown) and tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, NY / Letchworth), a pair of graduate students, will serve as captains for the 2016 Seahawks. In 2015, Harris finished second on the team in tackles with 58, including 46 solo stops. The 6-1 220-pound Harris was the team-leader in tackles for loss with 10, which included four sacks. In addition, he recorded two interceptions, forced one fumble and was responsible for six pass deflections and four pass breakups. In the season finale at Sacred Heart (11/21), Harris registered a career-high 10 tackles, including six solo stops and one sack. Owens is coming off of a 2015 campaign that saw him earn Second-Team All-Northeast Conference (NEC) honors. The 6-3, 235-pound Owens demonstrated his athleticism and versatility in leading all NEC tight ends in both receptions (29) and receiving yards (353), both of which paced Wagner as well, in addition to averaging 12.2 yards per catch. His top statistical game came at home vs. Bryant (11/7), when he registered career highs with eight catches for 131 yards, highlighted by a career-long 43-yard touchdown reception.

2016 Game Notes

WAGNER IS ONLY FCS TEAM IN NATION TO FACE TEAMS FROM FOUR DIFFERENT CLASSIFICATIONS - NCAA FBS, NCAA FCS, NCAA DIVISION II, NAIA
Wagner has the distinction of being the only team in FCS football this season that will face opponents that compete in four different levels of classification. The Seahawks'-11-game game 2016 schedule features a cross-section of opponents who hail from the FBS (Boston College and UMass), Division II (Saint Anselm), NAIA (Concordia) and FCS (Columbia, as well as the NEC rivals Bryant, Duquesne, Central Connecticut, Robert Morris, and Saint Francis U). This Wagner-Concordia game on September 10 marked the first time that Wagner had ever faced a schools that competes in the NAIA.

SEAHAWK DEFENSE HAS ALLOWED JUST SIX POINTS IN LAST SIX QUARTERS

A Saint Anselm touchdown pass on the final play of the opening game represent the only points the Seahawks have surrendered in the last six quarters.

GREG SENAT TWO-SPORT ATHLETE

A three-year member of the Wagner men's basketball team, who contributed to Wagner's 2016 NEC regular season basketball championship team, Greg Senat (Elmont, NY / Elmont / Marianapolis Prep [CT]) joined the Seahawk football team in March, 2016 and has started the first two games of the season at left tackle. A power forward on the hardwood, the 6-8, 280-pound Senat competed at tight end for two years during his high school career .A three-sport athlete, who also competed in lacrosse ,in addition to basketball and football at Elmont HS, Senat was a member of the Spartans' jayvee football team as a sophomore in 2009 before being elevated to the varsity as a junior in 2010. He then transferred to Marianapolis Prep in 2010 where he focused solely on basketball.

YEVCHINECZ RECORDS FIRST WAGNER PUNT RETURN FOR TD SINCE 2004

While Wagner has had several kickoff returns for touchdowns in recent years, Andre Yevchinecz's 77-yard punt return for a touchdown vs. Concordia on September 10 marked the first time a Seahawk has returned a punt for a TD since October 16, 2004 when Al Phillips took one back to the house from 48 yards during a 27-14 victory home win over Iona.

SPREADING IT AROUND: THOMSON FINDS 10 DIFFERENT RECEIVERS

After completing passes to nine different receivers on the opening night win over Saint Anselm, quarterback Alex Thomson distributed the ball to 10 different receivers vs. Concordia.

MASSEI SEES FIRST CAREER ACTION

Sophomore quarterback Luke Massei (Cary, NC / Green Hope) saw the first action of his career when he took over for Thomson on the game's final possession.

FIRST RESPONDERS DAY

STANFORD OFFICIALLY ON NEW YORK JETS' ACTIVE ROSTER, WILLIAMS ADDED TO PRACTICE SQUAD

Former Wagner football standout Julian Stanford will open the 2016 NFL season on the active roster of the New York Jets while his former Seahawk teammate, running back Dominique Williams, has been added to the team's practice squad. First-Team All-Northeast Conference (NEC) selection in 2011, the 6-2, 230-pound linebacker began his NFL career as an undrafted free agent with Jacksonville in 2012 and played in 16 games with six starts for the Jaguars as a rookie. The Bloomfield, CT native also played 18 games in 2013-14 with the Detroit Lions and had two stints in 2015 on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' practice squad before coming to the Jets on Dec. 1. Stanford was credited with one tackle in the Jets' 37-31 season-opening win over Buffalo. Williams, who has spent time on the practice squads of the Minnesota Vikings and the Arizona Cardinals, ended his storied Wagner career (2009-13), ranks third all-time in both rushing yards (4,435) and scoring (276 points). In 43 career games, he rushed for 42 touchdowns and snared four touchdown catches as a receiver out of the backfield, while rushing for 100 yards or more on 26 occasions.

Wagner Football - A Proud History

The Seahawks, who have won at least a share of two of the last three NEC championships, off to an uncharacteristic 1-9 start in 2015, have a long and proud gridiron history. Since the football program was established in 1927, Wagner has had three undefeated seasons, in 1960 (9-0), 1964 (10-0) and 1967 (9-0). A Division III program until moving up to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 1993 (then 1-AA), undoubtedly the signature moment in Seahawk history came in 1987 when the Green & White won the NCAA Division III National Title, capping a 13-1 season with a 19-3 victory over Dayton in the championship game, known as the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl. That year, head coach Walt Hameline, who stepped down as head coach after 34 seasons at the end of the 2014 campaign, was named the 1987 Chevrolet National Division III Coach of the Year.

Wagner and the Northeast Conference

Wagner College is a charter member of the Northeast Conference (NEC), which was first established as the ECAC-Metro Conference in 1981. At that time, the league's founders had one goal in mind: to create a competitive NCAA Division I men's basketball conference for unaffiliated schools on the Eastern seaboard. A single-sport entity at its inception, the NEC has grown far beyond expectations over the past three plus decades, having transformed itself into a 10-member, 22-sport conference. In 1985, the league began sponsoring additional sports and, three years later, a change of name was in order and the Northeast Conference as we know it today was born. With membership and sport sponsorship continuing to grow over the years, the NEC now enjoys qualification or play-in access to 14 different NCAA Championships (baseball, men's and women's basketball, football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's lacrosse, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis and women's volleyball).

Wagner and Northeast Conference Football

The NEC began sponsoring FCS football in 1996. As a result of the NCAA Board of Directors' approval of a new budget that allowed for the expansion of the Division I Football Championship Subdivision post-season bracket, the NEC gained automatic access into the Division I Football Championship beginning in 2010. In 2012, Wagner captured its first-ever NEC title and accompanying NCAA Playoff appearance. On November 24, 2012, the Seahawks defeated Patriot League champion Colgate, 31-20, becoming the first, and to date only, NEC team to ever win an NCAA Playoff game. The following week, the Seahawks took a third-quarter lead at No. 4 Eastern Washington before the Eagles came back to post a 29-19 win. Following the 2012 season, Wagner became the first, and to date only, NEC team to finish in the Final Top 25 of both major FCS Polls (No. 21 FCS Sports Network Poll, No. 22 FCS Coaches Poll). Following the 2012 campaign, Walt Hameline earned two FCS National Coach of the Year honors (College Football News & College Sports Journal), in addition to being named NEC Coach of the Year.

Notable Wagner Football Alumni

Rich Kotite (1963-1965) is perhaps the most recognizable name by Wagner College football fans. Formerly the head coach of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles and the New York Jets, Kotite broke onto the football scene as a three-year performer at tight end for the Wagner football program. Kotite graduated with then school-record totals of 119 receptions and 2,065 yards in just three seasons, both of which stood for almost 20 years. Following Wagner, he played six seasons of NFL football with the New York Giants and the Pittsburgh Steelers. Kotite also worked for 13 seasons as an assistant coach under coaches as Hank Stram, Sam Rutigliano and Buddy Ryan, before rising to the rank of head coach for Philadelphia (1991-1994) and New York (1995-1996). A staunch supporter of Wagner athletics, Kotite can often be found in the stands attending a Seahawk event. Of more recent vintage, Wagner has three current former players playing professional football. Linebacker Julian Stanford is in his fifth season in the NFL and is currently on the New York Jets. Running back Dominique Williams, the second-leading rusher in Seahawk history, is in his third season in the NFL and is a member of the New York Jets' practice squad while linebacker C.O. Prime is in his fourth season in the CFL as a member of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

QB ALEX THOMSON

Head Coach Jason Houghtaling

Former Wagner associate head coach/offensive coordinator Jason Houghtaling (hO - Tail- Ling) , was elevated to head football coach on November 25, 2014 and will enter his second season at the helm of the Seahawk program in 2016.

Houghtaling took over for Walt Hameline, who served in the dual role as Seahawk athletic director and head football coach for 34 years, before announcing that he was stepping down from his role as head coach. Hameline remains as Wagner’s athletic director.

Prior to his appointment as head coach, Houghtaling spent seven seasons on the Wagner sidelines, serving as offensive coordinator during Wagner’s 2012 and 2014 Northeast Conference (NEC) title runs, while in-between, spending the 2013 season as offensive coordinator at Cornell

In his last three seasons as Wagner’s offensive coordinator, the Seahawks have amassed a 16-6 NEC record with league titles in two of the last three seasons. The Green & White staged a dramatic 23-20 come-from-behind victory at Bryant, marching 65 yards in the waning minutes for the game-winning touchdown that gave the Seahawks a 7-4 record, a 5-1 NEC mark, and a share of the 2014 NEC title.

The 2014 Seahawk offense followed a similar formula to the 2012 Seahawks, finishing the regular season ranked No. 4 nationally in time of possession (33:02), while not committing a single turnover in the last three games of the season.

When he returned to Grymes Hill in the capacity of associate head coach/offensive coordinator in January, 2014, this marked Houghtaling’s third stint at Wagner. Known as ‘Hoss’ to his players and fellow coaches, Houghtaling was a Seahawk assistant coach from 2006-2009, before becoming head coach at Hudson Valley Community College in 2010. Following one season as head coach of the Vikings, he returned to Wagner as offensive coordinator in 2011, where he spent two seasons, including the 2012 NEC Championship campaign.

“Jason has a sharp football mind and he is an excellent teacher and leader of young men,” said Wagner College President Richard Guarasci. “He has prepared himself carefully to be a head coach of a Division I program. He completed his Masters degree in education from Wagner where he learned how to teach students with different and unique skills and personalities. I am delighted that he will lead Wagner’s football program and continue his partnership with Walt Hamline as they take Wagner into the next generation of athletic and academic success.”

During Wagner’s 9-4 NEC Championship season of 2012, that saw the Seahawks become the first team in NEC history to win an NCAA FCS Playoff game and rank in the Top 25 of both final national polls, Houghtaling tutored the Seahawks’ record-setting quarterback, Nick Doscher, as he evolved into one of the all-time great quarterbacks to ever compete at Wagner and in the NEC.

Doscher operated Houghtaling’s offensive system with precision, finishing his career ranked No. 1 in Seahawk history, and No. 2 in NEC history, with 8,404 yards of total offense. His 6,100 passing yards are also No. 1 on the Wagner all-time list and No. 9 on the all-time NEC list. As a senior in 2012, Doscher fashioned a passer rating of 133.9, with 13 touchdown passes and just one interception, ending his career with a remarkable 221 consecutive pass attempts without an interception.

Led by Doscher, and star running back Dominique Williams, who is now a member of the NFL’s New York Jets, the 2012 Seahawks were one of the nation’s most balanced units, ranking No. 1 nationally with the fewest turnovers (6) in all of FCS football.

“I am thrilled that Jason Houghtaling will take over as Wagner head coach and I have full confidence that he will continue to keep the Seahawks on the path to success for years to come,” said Hameline.

Head Coach Jason Houghtaling

“His work ethic, passion, football knowledge, recruiting contacts, and familiarity with Wagner College are all major assets that will pay huge dividends for our program. In Hoss, we have an individual who has the respect of everyone that he comes into contact with, and is highly-regarded by high school coaches both within our region, and on a national scale.”

During the 2013 season as offensive coordinator at Cornell, Houghtaling coached quarterback Jeff Mathews, who led the Ivy League in attempts, completions and passing yards, before signing a free agent contract with the NFL’s Atlanta Falcons. Following the 2013 season, Mathews, who is currently a member of the practice squad of the Indianapolis Colts, was named to the College Sports Journal FCS All-America Team and received the additional honor of participating in the East–West Shrine Game, serving as captain of the East squad.

During his first season as a collegiate offensive coordinator (2011), Houghtaling directed the talented Williams to impressive numbers. Williams ranked among the national leaders by rushing for 121.6 yards per game and 14 total touchdowns, while posting eight 100-yard games in 11 contests. The following season, Williams was a 2012 College Sports Journal All-American, in addition to earning First-Team All-NEC honors.

“Wagner is a special place for both my family and I, so it’s truly an honor to be selected to continue to build this program,” said Houghtaling. “I thank Coach Hameline and Wagner College President Dr. Guarasci for entrusting me with this position and can’t wait to lead this program, coach our current players, and attract even more elite student-athletes in the coming years.”

When he first arrived at Wagner in 2006, Houghtaling served as running backs coach, before heading the Seahawk offensive lines from 2007-2009.

With an emphasis on New York State and Florida, Houghtaling has been the lead recruiter for a host of student-athletes who have gone on to enjoy outstanding careers on Grymes Hill. The list of top Wagner student-athletes that Houghtaling has recruited include New Jerseyan Dominique Williams, New York State natives Quintin Anderson, Tyrone Collins, Chazz Legette, Stefan Gage, Patrick Gibbons, and Sidiq Soulemana, as well as Floridians Keith Hernandez, Frantz Placide and Otis Wright. In 2010, his one season as head coach at Troy, NY-based Hudson Valley, he tutored two All-Conference performers.

Houghtaling began his collegiate coaching career at prep powerhouse Milford Academy in Berlin, NY, where he helped lead the Falcons to a 20-3 mark as defensive coordinator, while also serving as defensive line and strength and conditioning coach. A 2004 graduate of the University of Binghamton with a degree in History, Houghtaling earned a Masters in Education from Wagner in 2009. He originally attended Lafayette, where he was a defensive lineman for the Leopards, before injuries cut short his playing career and he transferred to Binghamton.

A native of Windsor, NY, Houghtaling got his start in coaching at his high school alma mater, Windsor Central High School, where he spent two seasons working with the Black Knights’ offensive line and linebackers under the head coach he played for, Dan Hodack.

Houghtaling and his wife Mary are the proud parents of two daughters, Abbie and Emma.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RICH SCANGARELLO
Offensive Coordinator

Rich Scangarello, who spent six years as a collegiate offensive coordinator before serving the 2015 season as a quality control assistant for the NFL's Atlanta Falcons, enters his first season as offensive coordinator.

With the Falcons, his responsibilities included assisting the offensive line coach with weekly run-game preparation, coordinating the defensive scout team for the offense, as well as breaking down film of upcoming opponents.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Scangarello spent three seasons (2012-14) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Northern Arizona University (NAU). In 2013, the Lumberjacks' passing unit connected on 235 out of 387 passes for a 60.7 completion percentage, while totaling 2,425 passing yards, in addition to 14 thrown touchdowns. In 2012, Scangarello helped mentor quarterback Cary Grossart who went on to finish his career with the top completion percentage in NAU history at 66.3. He also posted the second-best completion percentage in a season with 66.7. Overall, the Lumberjacks finished tied for 27th in the nation in scoring offense with an average of 31.6 points per game.

Prior to his tenure at NAU, Scangarello served two seasons as offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Millsaps College in Jackson, MS.

Before spending the 2009 season on the NFL's Oakland Raiders staff as assistant quarterbacks coach and offensive quality control assistant, Scangarello was a four-year member of the UC-Davis staff where, in 2008, he promoted to co-offensive coordinator, leading an offense that ranked 11th in the FCS in total offense at 426.5 yards per game, while scoring at 28.5 points per game.

The Roseville, CA native is a 1996 graduate of Sacramento State where he earned a degree in business administration.

TONY BRINSON
Defensive Coordinator

Tony Brinson, who enters his 23rd season as a collegiate football coach in 2016 and his sixth season at Wagner, will serve as defensive coordinator for the Seahawks in 2016.

During his five seasons on Grymes Hill, the veteran North Jersey native has worn many hats, having served in the roles of recruiting coordinator, in addition to coaching the Seahawks' special teams, defensive line and linebackers.

A member of the coaching staffs that led Wagner to the 2012 and 2014 (regular season) NEC Championship squads, in his time at Wagner he has produced two team MVPs, three Defensive MVPs four All-Northeast Conference plays and four NFL free agents, including current New York Jet Julian Stanford.

His more than two-decade career has taken him up and down the eastern seaboard where he has developed a host of deep and lasting recruiting relationships and contacts.

"Tony Brinson is a really good football coach and he has a lot of responsibilities, both on and off the field and I'm excited to have him lead our defense" said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He's also a terrific recruiter and is very, very organized. Tony is a veteran guy, carries himself the right way, and does what you expect of a top football coach."

Following the 2011 season, the aforementioned Stanford signed a free agent deal with the Jacksonville Jaguars after earning first-team All-NEC accolades. The 6-2, 225-pound Stanford earned a spot on the team's final roster, went on to make an early impact on special teams which led to his starting six of Jacksonville's 16 games.

One of 19 players to play in all 16 games for the Jaguars, Stanford finished his rookie campaign with 23 total tackles, including 18 solo stops. In making the Jaguars' roster, Stanford became the first Seahawk to appear on an active NFL regular season roster since Wagner Hall of Fame member Rich Kotite (1967-1972).

Stanford then signed a free agent contract with the Detroit Lions in 2013. Two of Stanford's teammates, also tutored by Brinson, inked NFL free agent deals following the 2011 season in safety Jeremiah Brown and DE Quintin Anderson and were in training camps with the Jaguars and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, respectively, before becoming a member of the Jets in 2015.

CUSTAVIOUS
PATTERSON
*Assistant Coach
Wide Receivers*

Custavious Patterson enters his fifth season as an assistant coach at Wagner in 2016.

After serving as offensive coordinator in 2015, he will return to coach the wide receivers, where he previously had great success, which included mentoring a group that helped the Seahawks' claim the 2012 Northeast Conference championship.

For the last two years, Patterson has had the distinction of serving as a head coach in the third annual Dream Bowl, a premier College Football All-Star Game featuring top FCS, D-II and D-III student-athletes, held on Martin Luther King Day in Virginia Beach, VA.

Patterson arrived on Grymes Hill in 2012 after spending the previous six seasons as an assistant coach at Fordham University

Last season, as offensive coordinator, Alex Thomson started nine games at quarterback and led the team with 1,395 yards of total offense (1,085 passing, 300 rushing). The last first-year quarterback to do this was Nick Doscher in 2012. With Patterson directing the offense in 2015, OL Andrew Oberg and TE Ryan Owens were named to the All-NEC Second Team, RB Otis Wright received College Sports Madness and NEC Player of the Week, while WR Andre Yevchinez earned James Robb Award as Offensive MVP of the Homecoming Game.

In 2014, as Quarterbacks Coach, Patterson tutored QB Chris Andrews, who led the Seahawks to a 4-1 record down the stretch, leading the team in Total Offense (1,025 - 657 passing, 368 rushing) and earning NEC Player of the Week for his efforts in the season-ending win at Bryant made the Seahawks' NEC Co-Champions.

While coaching the wide receivers in 2013, senior WR Tyree Watkins was the NEC's sixth-ranked receiver (4.1 per game), corralling 45 passes for 484 yards and four touchdowns. Watkins also earned the James Robb Trophy as MVP of the Homecoming Game. A Florida native, Patterson handles the Seahawks' recruiting efforts in the Sunshine State.

STEFON
WHEELER
*Assistant Coach
Offensive Line*

Former Michigan St. standout offensive tackle and professional player Stefon Wheeler enters his third season at Wagner in 2016 and second heading up the coaching efforts of the Seahawk offensive line.

Wheeler arrived on Grymes Hill after serving three seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Milford Academy, in Berlin, NY, and the last two seasons as Offensive coordinator/Recruiting coordinator.

After starring along the Milford offensive line in 2000, where he led the Falcons to a 10-3 record, Wheeler was awarded a full scholarship to Michigan State where he went on to start 35 games at left tackle. A two-time All-Big 10 Honorable Mention selection, he was voted to the Spartans First-Team All-Decade squad in 2012.

"Stefon Wheeler learned under Jeff Stoutland, who's now the offensive line coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, he brings NFL playing experience to our program, and does a tremendous job with our offensive line," said head coach Jason Houghtaling.

A 2005 Michigan St. graduate, Wheeler signed a free agent contract with the New Orleans Saints in 2006 and played in NFL Europa for the Cologne Centurions in 2007. While playing left tackle overseas, he helped open holes for the league's leading rusher. Later in 2007, Wheeler signed with the CFL's Toronto Argonauts.

ASSISTANT COACHES

STEVE CIOCCI

Defensive Line*

Wagner alumnus Steve Ciocci returned to Grymes Hill in the role of defensive line coach for the Seahawks in July, 2016 following a one-year stint on the Pace University football staff.

During his time as an All-Northeast Conference (NEC) offensive lineman and offensive line assistant coach at Wagner, Ciocci certainly made a name for himself, on and off the playing field.

On the field, the 6-4, 290-pound right tackle started 25 consecutive games for the Seahawks to close out his career and earned his first All-NEC nod in 2012 by opening holes for All-NEC running back Dominique Williams and providing protection for All-NEC quarterback Nick Doscher.

Off the field, there has perhaps never been a Wagner student-athlete who made his presence felt, or leant himself to more charity and civic-minded causes in the local community, than Ciocci.

The Seahawks, who finished the 2012 season at 9-4 in a landmark campaign, claimed the school's first NEC Football title, became the first NEC program to win an FCS playoff game, and ranked 21st in the nation in the final Sports Network FCS poll. At year's end, Ciocci was invited to participate in the FCS Senior Scout Bowl and Pro Grass International Scout Bowl.

DAVID FREDRICKSON

*Assistant Coach
Inside Linebackers*

A Staten Island native, David Fredrickson enters his second season as an assistant coach at his alma mater after serving as a mainstay, two-year captain, and eventual All-NEC center.

After earning the starting center spot in 2011 preseason camp, Fredrickson, a rare left-handed center, started all 46 games in his Seahawk career, playing an integral role on the 2012 and 2014 NEC Championship teams. On the Seahawk staff, Fredrickson will tutor Wagner's tight ends and tackles.

"Obviously everyone around here knows who David is. He started 40-plus straight games for us at the center position and was an All-NEC player," said Seahawk head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He has an energy and an enthusiasm about the game, he wants to be a football coach. We know what we're going to get from him, which is what we want - high energy, high effort and someone who is accountable."

Fredrickson originally attended Idaho State University in Pocatello, Idaho, where he was a member of the football team, following a standout career at Poly Prep in Brooklyn where he played for Staten Island native and former NFL star Dino Mangiero.

MAX WASSEL

*Assistant Coach
Inside Linebackers*

Max Wassel enters his second season as an assistant coach in charge of the inside linebackers following a brilliant playing career for the Seahawks.

"Max Wassel was a four-year guy here, started his last two years, fought through an injury, went on to be a captain for us, an All-League player and just another one who really illustrates and exemplifies what we want out of our coaches, and out of our kids," said Seahawk head coach Jason Houghtaling.

As a senior in 2014, Wassel was a terror all season from his inside linebacker spot en route to earning First-Team All-NEC honors. Seemingly always around the action, the 5-11, 235-pound Totowa, New Jersey native was tops on the team with 81 tackles, a 7.5 average per game, which ranked No. 6 in the NEC. In addition, his 21 tackles for loss (for minus 61 yards) ranked No. 2 in the NEC while his 52 solo tackles ranked No. 3 in the league. He added four sacks (minus 35 yards), along with three pass deflections, two interceptions and two forced fumbles.

Against Sacred Heart on November 1, Wassel wowed the Seahawk faithful on hand as well as the audience viewing the game on ESPN3.com, by totaling an astounding 18 tackles, which was the highest individual tackling mark by an NEC player in 2014.

Eric
Franklin

*Assistant Coach
Outside Linebackers*

Eric Franklin enters his second season as an assistant coach at Wagner, tutoring the outside linebackers after assisting with the defensive backs in 2015.

Franklin was a standout safety at the University of Maryland. A fourth-year defensive back who was a key contributor where he saw action in 40 games with 25 starts for the Terrapins, amassing 181 tackles with 13 pass breakups and three interceptions.

Following his 2013 graduation from Maryland, he served as an assistant coach at his high school alma mater, Archbishop Curly High School in Baltimore, MD.

In 2013, Franklin served as wide receiver/tight ends, defensive backs and special teams coach before assuming the duties of defensive coordinator in 2014. He has also worked as a coach at the Danny O'Brien Elite Football Camp.

"Eric Franklin came to us highly-recommended from Maryland where he was a really good player there in the secondary who's just cutting his teeth from a coaching standpoint," said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He did a nice job for us last year, has a bright future in coaching, and we're fortunate to have him on our staff."

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROB CALABRESE

*Assistant Coach
Running Backs/
Co-Special Teams*

Former University of Central Florida (UCF) standout quarterback and wide receiver Robert Calabrese enters his first season as an assistant on the Wagner coaching staff where he will serve as running backs/co-special teams coach.

Calabrese arrives on Grymes Hill following a two-year stint at UCF where he served as a graduate assistant. At UCF, Calabrese worked extensively with the Knights' quarterbacks and wide receivers, in addition to being responsible for all defensive film input and weekly opponent scouting reports. In 2014, he was one of 30 coaches selected for the NCAA-AFCA Future Football Coaches Academy.

"In Rob Calabrese, we've added someone who both played and coached at the FBS level which is very exciting," said head coach Jason Houghtaling. "He comes very highly-recommended, has a tremendous work ethic and is someone who I believe will relate extremely well with our players, and running backs, in particular."

After earning a bachelor of science degree in sports and exercise science from UCF in 2012, Calabrese served as the varsity quarterbacks coach at Oviedo High School Paraprofessional before becoming a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater in 2014.

During his collegiate playing career for the Knights, Calabrese passed for more than 1,200 yards and 12 touchdowns while rushing for more than 250 yards. He was a two-time "UCF Way" selection, and a recipient of the UCF "Great Effort", "Most Improved" and "Newcomer of the Year" awards. He was named the NCAA Playmaker of the month and was an AFCA Good Works Team Nominee.

ZAMEL
JOHNSON

*Assistant Coach
Defensive Backs*

Zamel Johnson, a former standout at Port Richmond High School here on Staten Island, and Temple University, enters his second year on staff at Wagner in 2016 and first as defensive backs coach after coaching the wide receivers in 2015.

"I'm thrilled to have Zamel on our staff," said Houghtaling. "He was a tremendous player at Temple, is someone who has a passion for teaching and brings obvious local ties as a former top student-athlete at Port Richmond. I'm excited that he will be heading up our secondary this season."

Johnson originally attended Hofstra for one year before transferring to Temple after the Pride dropped its football program. In his four-year career at Temple, Johnson was a three-year starter at cornerback who amassed 77 tackles for the Owls. In 2013, Johnson earned a bachelor of arts degree from Temple while majoring in communications with a minor in Sociology.

Prior to embarking on his collegiate career, Johnson was a Staten Island Advance All-Star Team selection under head coach Lou Vesce at Port Richmond, where he starred at wide receiver and in the secondary, leading the Raiders to the 2008 PSAL championship and a perfect 13-0 record.

A four-year honor roll student at Port Richmond, Johnson was also a 2009 Staten Island Advance All-Star in both indoor and outdoor track, where he excelled in a host of different sprints.

WALTER KUSMIREK

*Assistant Coach
Tight Ends*

Walter Kusmirek enters his first year tutoring Wagner's tight ends following a two-year stint as an assistant coach at Morrisville State College in Morrisville, NY.

While at Morrisville State, he wore many hats for the Mustang football program, serving as running backs coach, JV head coach, return game coordinator, as well as strength and conditioning coordinator, in addition to serving as assistant video coordinator.

The Mustangs went a combined 15-7 in his two seasons and were the New Jersey Athletic Conference co-champions in 2014, finishing with a 9-2 record that was capped with a victory in the ECAC North Central Bowl. Morrisville State ranked among the top 20 nationally that season in three major statistical categories, ranking fifth in third-down percentage and 13th in both total offense and rushing offense.

"Walter's a bright, hard-working young coach who has done a great job in his two coaching stops and I'm excited to add him to our staff," said head coach Jason Houghtaling.

In 2015, Morrisville State led the Empire 8 Conference in both total offense and rushing offense. Off the field, Kusmirek played an integral role in successfully recruiting the largest freshman class in school history.

VINCENT DIGAETANO

Defensive Assistant/Program Analyst

Vincent DiGaetano in his first season in the role of Defensive Assistant/Program Analyst, having previously worked on the defensive side of the ball for several football programs within the New York City metropolitan area.

Most recently, DiGaetano was the linebackers coach at Nassau Community College in 2015, having previously spent 10 years on the staff at SUNY-Maritime. From 2008-2014, the 1999 Wagner College graduate served as Defensive Coordinator for the Privateers, which followed a three-year stint (2005-07) where he served as Special Teams Coordinator at SUNY-Maritime from 2005-07.

In 2014, Coach DiGaetano was a finalist for the AFCA Assistant Coach of the year in Division III. He also served as Defensive Coordinator of the USA Select Team for the 2015 International Bowl which defeated the IFAF World Team 20-15 at the Dallas Cowboys' AT&T Stadium.

In 2013, DiGaetano was named to the USA Football Master Trainer program and is the only college coach in the nation with this assignment. Recognized as a subject matter expert in the area of tackling, Vincent has presented this NFL-sponsored program to many high school and youth football programs. His efforts in this area are helping to create a better, safer game for players across the nation.

"Vin will be a valued set of eyes for us this season and I'm excited to have him as part of our program," said Head Coach Jason Houghtaling. "His experience will be a tremendous asset to our players and program and, having been a four-year player here, he will offer a unique perspective for our guys."

OL Matt Diaz, TE Ryan Owens, P Bryan Rafano Named to 2016 All-NEC Preseason Team

East Rutherford, NJ – Senior offensive lineman Matt Diaz (Edison, NJ/Edison/Milford Academy), fifth-year senior tight end Ryan Owens (Gainesville, NY/Letchworth), and junior punter Bryan Rafano (South River, NJ / St. Joseph's-Metuchen) were named to the 27-man, 2016 Preseason All-NEC Team, the league office announced today at the #NECFB Social Media Day today at MetLife Stadium.

Defending league champion Duquesne was picked as the NEC preseason favorite with six one first-place votes. Sacred Heart, which picked up one first-place ballot, was chosen second in the annual predicted order-of-finish. Saint Francis U found itself in third place when the survey results were tallied, followed by Bryant, Central Connecticut, Robert Morris and Wagner.

The last time that the Seahawks were picked last was in 2012, a year that saw the Green & White stun observers by recording nine consecutive wins earning and earning the NEC Championship and a first-round NCAA FCS Playoff victory over Colgate.

For the third straight season in 2016, Diaz is expected to be a leader up front, anchoring the left tackle spot for the Green & White. At 6-6, 290 pounds, he is a mobile and talented offensive lineman who boasts a wealth of explosion at the point of attack, in addition to his tremendous size. This marks the second consecutive season that Diaz has earned a spot on the #NECFB Preseason Team. Last season, he suffered a leg injury in preseason camp and ended up seeing action in just six games, taking over the starting left tackle position in the last five games of the season.

The 6-4, 235-pound Owens was named to the 2015 All-NEC Team following a breakout season that saw him lead the Seahawks in both receptions (29) and receiving yards (353). An athletic tight end, who combines outstanding size with good hands, quickness and agility, the upstate New York native recorded a career-high 131 yards on eight receptions and a touchdown vs. Bryant (11/7) last season.

Owens, who capped the season with a five-catch, 57-yard effort at Sacred Heart (11/2), started all 11 games a season ago and caught at least one pass in 10 contests. A member of 2015 NEC Fall All-Academic Honor Roll, he enters the 2016 season with 53 career receptions for 586 yards (11.1 average) and three touchdowns in 33 games.

The 6-1, 180-pound Rafano will be looking to build upon a stellar 2015 campaign in which he started all 11 games on the season and took all 68 of the Seahawks' punts, totaling 2,689 punting yards on the year while averaging 39.5 yards per punt. In front of more than 56,000 fans at BYU (10/24), he totaled 425 punting yards on nine attempts, including five 50-plus yard efforts, highlighted by a career-long 57-yard boot. For the season, the 2015 NEC Fall All-Academic Honor Roll member recorded eight 50-plus yard punts.

The 2016 Seahawks, under the direction of second-year head coach Jason Houghtaling, open the season on Thursday, September 1 vs. St. Anselm College (NH) under the lights in a 6:00 p.m. start at Hameline Field. The Green & White will then host Concordia College (MI) on September 10 at Noon. Following a bye week, the Seahawks will conclude the opening month of the season by traveling to FBS member Boston College of the ACC on September 24.

Led by Owens, along with fellow co-captain and fifth-year senior linebacker Najee Harris (Norristown, PA / Norristown), Wagner entertains NEC rival Sacred Heart on October 1 in a Homecoming clash at 6:00 p.m., before hosting Ivy League member Columbia on October 8 in another 6:00 p.m. start. The Green & White then hit the road for three consecutive games. On October 15, the Green & White travel to New Britain, CT to meet Central Connecticut in a 1:00 p.m. matchup before playing their third NEC game of the season at Bryant on October 22 at 1:00 p.m.

Wagner closes out the month of October at FBS member UMass, before closing the season with three straight Noon NEC matchups. This pivotal three-game conference stretch begins at home vs. defending NEC champion Duquesne on November 5, continues at Robert Morris on November 12, and concludes with the regular season finale at home vs. Saint Francis U.

The 11-game schedule features a cross-section of opponents who hail from four different classifications; FBS (Boston College and UMass), Division II (Saint Anselm), NAIA (Concordia) and FCS (Columbia, as well as the six NEC rivals).

August 31, 2016
Wagner 38, Saint Anselm 16
Hameline Field

Staten Island, NY – Junior quarterback Alex Thomson (Keyport, NJ/Keyport) passed for 176 yards and two touchdowns, in addition to scoring on a 59-yard run, while junior running Denzel Knight (Rochester, NY/Salisbury School) rumbled for 147 yards and a score to lead the Wagner football team to a convincing 38-16 victory over Saint Anselm tonight at Hamline Field.

The Seahawks outscored the Hawks 28-6 in the second half in breaking open a game that was tied 10-10 at halftime. Not to be lost among the many offensive superlatives on this night was a virtuoso defensive effort turned in by the Green & White, particularly in the second half.

The only points allowed by the Seahawks following the halftime break came on the game's very last play when Saint Anselm quarterback Gianni Gavalas tossed a 15-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Hill on fourth down as time expired.

In the second half, the stingy Seahawk defense held the Hawks to just 166 yards from scrimmage.

Sophomore inside linebacker Quintin Hampton (Moultrie, GA / Colquitt County), who began his collegiate career at FBS member Central Florida, led the Wagner defensive charge with a game-high 10 tackles, including seven solo stops while senior cornerback Tiquan Garner (Brookville, NY/ Long Island Lutheran) responded to his first start with nine tackles and two pass breakups.

Also recording career highs in tackles for the Green & White were junior free safety Jesse Flaherty (Oceanport, NJ/ The Peddie School) and sophomore inside linebacker Santoni Graham (Arlington, VA/ Fork Union Military Academy) who recorded eight and five stops, respectively.

"Great to get a win," said coach Jason Houghtaling.. "We came out in the first half and had to deal with some adversity and our guys responded really positively and with real energy. I think we played extremely hard, which was great to see.

"I thought the defense really came alive in the second half," he added. "Tony (coordinator Tony Brinson) changed up some calls at halftime, but what was really important was the way everyone stayed together. I thought we hit harder and played harder after halftime.

For the evening, Thomson, finished 17-of-31 through the air, both career highs, for 176 yards. On this night, the 6-5, 225-pound Thomson was the ultimate distributor, as his 17 completions went to nine different receivers. For Knight, the 147 rushing yards also marked a career high and are the most by a Seahawk since October 26, 2013 when current New York Jet Dominique Williams ran for 177 yards on 33 carries vs. Georgetown. The 488 yards of total offense churned out tonight by the Seahawks marks their highest output since October 2, 2010 when the Seahawks amassed 460 yards in a 29-21 victory over Bryant.

The second half was a scoreless defensive stalemate until senior running back Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY/ Bishop Maginn/Jireh Prep [NC]) barreled into the end zone from five yards out, with just eight seconds remaining in the third quarter, en route to an eight-carry, 94-yard night. This score capped a 12-play, 63-yard drive and gave the Seahawks the lead for good at 17-10.

After forcing the Hawks into a three and out, Thomson took off on a nifty 59-yard touchdown run on 2nd-and-10 from his own 41 yard line. On a designed pass play, the Jersey Shore native pulled the ball down and dashed up the left sideline, before cutting back to the middle of the field, aided by a punishing downfield block from junior wide receiver John Williams (Sewell, NJ / Washington Township/Lackawanna JC [PA]).

The career-long 59-yard Thomson jaunt extended the Seahawk lead to 24-10 with 13:50 remaining in the game.

On their ensuing possession, Gavalas led the Hawks smartly into scoring range but on a 2nd-and-10 pass from the Seahawk 16, sophomore cornerback Sterling Lowry (Syracuse, NY/ Nottingham/Milford Academy) came up with a big interception in the end zone to snuff out the threat.

After Wagner took over on its own 20 following the touchback, McKinnon ripped off a 43 yard run all the way to the Hawk 37. On the very next play, Knight did the rest as the 6-2-, 220-pounder raced straight up the middle for a 37-yard touchdown. This score, which came with 41 seconds to go in the third quarter, made it a 31-10 game and effectively put the game out of reach. The Seahawks would add one final touchdown to complete a spree of 28 unanswered points when Thomson hit All-Northeast Conference (NEC) tight end Ryan Owens on a 21-yard touchdown strike with 2:52 to play to make it a 38-10 game.

Wagner took an early 3-0 lead in this one on a 37-yard field goal by senior James Cooper (Linwood., NJ/ Mainland Regional/Temple). After Saint Anselm ran off 10 straight points to make it a 10-3 game, the Seahawks tied things up 10-10 heading into halftime when Thomson found senior wide receiver Keith Foster (Newark, NJ/ Weequahic/Milford Academy) in the end zone on a six-yard pass to complete a seven-play, 78-yard drive.

For Saint Anselm, which competed in the NCAA Division II classification as a member of the NE-10 Conference, completed 22-of-40 passes for 263 yards one touchdown and was intercepted twice. His favorite target was wide receiver Zach Bartak who wound up with 13 receptions for 122 yards.

September 10, 2016
 Wagner 38, Concordia 0
 Hameline Field

Staten Island, NY – Staten Island, NY – Wagner excelled in all three phases of the game on a stifling hot afternoon at Hameline Field, as the Seahawks amassed 239 yards through the air, 125, more on the ground, and returned a punt 77 yards for a touchdown while allowing Concordia to gain just 116 yards of total offense, en route to a dominating 38-0 victory.

In jumping out to the its first 2-0 start since 2006, junior quarterback Alex Thomson (Keyport, NJ/ Keyport) completed 18-of-27 passes in accounting for all of Wagner's 239 aerial yards (all career highs) junior running back Denzel Knight (Rochester, NY / Salisbury School) surpassed the century mark for the second straight game in rushing for 112 yards, while senior Andre Yevchinez (Binghamton, NY/Binghamton) delivered his first career punt return for a touchdown, a nifty 77-yard effort up the left sideline in the second quarter.

The 38-0 win is Wagner's first shutout since a 20-0 blanking of Robert Morris on November 8, 2014.

Wagner jumped on top quickly in this one when Knight raced 71 yards for a touchdown on the game's second play from scrimmage. That's the way the score stood until Yevchinez received a punt at the Wagner 33, made several defenders miss early, before ambling his way up the left sideline for the 77-yard score that extended the Seahawks' lead to 14-0 with 7:07 remaining in the first half.

After the Seahawks' defense forced the Cardinals into a three-and-out, Wagner put together a crisp eight-play, 62-yard drive, keyed by a 41-yard completion from Thomson to junior wide receiver John Williams (Sewell, NJ / Washington Township/Lackawanna CC) that gave the Green & White a first-and-goal at the Concordia four-yard line. Two plays later, senior running back Matthias McKinnon (Albany, NY / Bishop Maginn / Jireh Prep [NC]) bulled his way into the end zone over right tackle in extending the Seahawks' bulge to 21-0.

With Concordia backed up deep in its own end following an 11-yard loss on a bad snap, Wagner wisely used all three of its timeouts in trying to preserve time. After taking over at the Cardinals; 28 following a short punt, the Green & White covered the 28 yards in five plays with Thomson delivering a dart to Williams in the end zone on a 15-yard TD strike to with just four seconds left in the half to make it a 28-0 game at the intermission. The Seahawks received a break on this drive when Concordia was called for offside while Wagner was in the process of missing a 37-yard field goal, which gave the drive new life.

The only scoring in the third quarter came on a 37-yard field goal by senior James Cooper (Linwood, NJ / Mainland Regional/ Temple) that extended the Seahawks' lead to 31-0. The final score of the game came with 8:25 left to play when Thomson capped a six-play, 65-yard drive with an 11-yard TD toss to sophomore wide receiver Willie Dale (Staten Island, NY/St. Peter's) which fashioned the final score at 38-0.

"I thought we did some good things in all three areas – offense, defense and special teams," said second-year head coach Jason Houghtaling. "As was the case last week, our guys continue to play hard. Obviously Denzel's (Knight) big run got us off to a good early start. While Alex (Thomson) put up some good numbers, I think if you ask our guys, a lot of them would say they could have done some things better out there. Defensively, we rotated a lot of different guys in there, I think we played six different outside linebackers, and we did some really good things I though on that side of the ball.

"Special teams, I think we did a solid job there also," Houghtaling continued. "Of course, Yevy's (Andre Yevchinez) return was a great play, he received some nice blocking there and did the rest himself. But also, we kicked a field goal, our kickoffs were good and Bryan Rafano did a really nice job punting the ball (45.4-yard average, career-long 62-yarder). So, overall, I'm very pleased heading into the bye week. These guys continue to play for another, complement one another, and are playing hard."

As he did in last week's 38-16 season-opening win over Saint Anselm, when he had 10 tackles, sophomore linebacker Quintin Hampton (Moultrie, GA / Colquitt County / UCF) paced Wagner this afternoon with seven stops. Recording five tackles apiece for the active and aggressive Seahawks' defense were fifth-year senior linebacker Najee Harris (Norristown, PA/Norristown), sophomore linebacker Santon Graham (Arlington, VA / Bishop O'Connell / Fork Union Military Academy), senior defensive end Jordan Baskerville (West Point, NY / James I. O'Neill / Milford Academy) and senior linebacker D.J. Paul (Dix Hills, NY / Half Hollows East). Recording one sack apiece for the Green & White were Graham, freshman linebacker Cameron Gill (Douglasville, GA / Chapel Hill) and sophomore defensive end Julian McLeod (Miramar, FL / St. Thomas Aquinas).

For Concordia, starting quarterback Seth Suida, under duress much of the game, was limited to 5-of-15 passing for 44 yards while being sacked twice. In the rushing department, the Cardinals were led by running back Joe Conner's 34 yards on nine carries. Defensively, Ty Peterson led the way by recording a game-high nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, while Nick Holshoe and Jay Koski contributed seven stops apiece.

SEAHAWKS POST-SEASON HISTORY

2012 NEC Champions, 2nd Round NCAA Playoffs

The Seahawks' sprint to a historic 2012 NEC Title featured a nine-game winning streak and the first-ever FCS Playoff win by an NEC team, a 31-20 victory over Colgate (11/24). The superlatives for Wagner were many, including a final national Top-25 ranking in both major FCS Polls, and a pair of National Coach of the Year Honors for Head Coach Hameline, who will bring a 213-127-2 (.626) record into his 33rd season as head of the Wagner program this season. Running back Dominique Williams was named to the College Sports Journal (CSJ) All-America Team while defensive tackle Daevonte Barnett was tabbed a CSJ Freshman All-American. All-NEC performers included Williams, QB Nick Doscher, OL Steve Ciocci, CB Jarrett Dieudonne, RS Otis Wright, LB C.O. Prime CB Torian Phillips, and SS Sidiq Soulemana.

1995 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

PITTSBURGH, PA — Duquesne jumped on Wagner early, building a 30-7 lead with a monstrous air attack that accounted for 357 yards in a 44-20 win. Two Kito Lockwood scores brought Wagner within 30-20 early in the fourth quarter, but Duquesne scored twice on the ground to clinch the game. Seahawk quarterback Jason Miletic completed 22 passes for 251 yards in the loss.

1994 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

JAMAICA, NY — The Seahawks turned the ball over five times and managed just 271 yards of total offense in a 34-14 loss at St. John's University, losing an ECAC Championship game for the first time ever. Ahead 14-7 and driving into Red Storm territory, the Seahawks fumbled. St. John's converted and never looked back. Pat Connolly caught five passes for 69 yards for Wagner.

1993 ECAC-IFC DIVISION I-AA BOWL

NEW ROCHELLE, NY — The Seahawks won a record fifth ECAC crown and avenged a regular-season loss by shutting out the Gaels on their home turf, 32-0. All-American linebacker Ryan Tobin, the game's MVP, made 18 tackles, including 12 solos, three tackles for a loss, two sacks, and forced a fumble, while Chris Purdy ran for four Seahawk touchdowns.

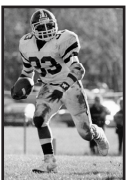

1992 ECAC SOUTHEAST CHAMPIONSHIP

STATEN ISLAND, NY — Senior quarterback Terry O'Hare earned MVP honors as he passed for 332 yards and three touchdowns, while also running for a score in leading the Seahawks to a 48-6 victory over the St. Francis (PA) Red Flash, avenging a regular-season loss. The Seahawk defense registered six sacks, including three by linebacker Bryan Devone.

1986 ECAC SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

LANCASTER, PA — Senior quarterback Jesse Foote ran for four touchdowns and passed for another as Wagner posted a 40-28 victory over host Franklin & Marshall to capture the ECAC South Championship at Williamson Field. Foote scored all four of his touchdowns in the final thirty minutes, including a 46-yard jaunt with 52 seconds remaining to seal the victory.

1985 ECAC SOUTH CHAMPIONSHIP

KING'S POINT, NY — Sophomore Peter Andolph's end zone tackle of King's Point running back Doug Jones with 7:47 remaining in the first half provided Wagner with the winning margin as the Seahawks captured the ECAC South Championship with a 9-7 victory at Captain Tomb Field. Freshman running back Terry Underwood scored Wagner's only touchdown on a two-yard run.

1983 ECAC METRO CHAMPIONSHIP

JAMAICA, NY — The Seahawks scored an ECAC Championship game record 48 points to capture the ECAC Metro NY-NJ Championship over host St. John's University, 48-7. The Seahawks took control early as tailback Ed Christensen scored three first-quarter touchdowns on runs of 77, 14 and 10 yards. Christensen ended the day with 177 yards on the ground.

The greatest day in the long and illustrious gridiron history of Wagner College came on a sunny December 12, 1987 in Phenix, Alabama, as the Seahawks captured the 1987 NCAA Division III National Championship with a 19-3 victory against the University of Dayton.

The Seahawks, winners of seven straight and 12 of 13 heading into the championship, rose to the challenge in the Stagg Bowl. Wagner jumped out to a 19-0 first-half lead and never looked back in cruising to the College's first and only national championship in any sport.

Quarterback Greg Kovar got Wagner on the board early, finding split end John Chaney in the end zone from 22 yards out with just under two minutes left in the opening quarter. Fullback Tom Pugh put the Seahawks up 13-0, bulldozing in from one yard out. Wide receiver Keith Johnson capped the Seahawk scoring 20 seconds before intermission, hauling in a 22-yard Kovar spiral for a 19-0 halftime lead.

With Kovar on the way to a 301-yard day, the defense took it the rest of the way, holding Dayton to just 234 yards of total offense and 2.9 yards per play. End George Gaspar led the way with 16 tackles and a sack, while linebackers Artie DiMella and Chris West made 13 stops each.

The Seahawks made three other NCAA Playoff appearances in the 1980s, earning berths in 1980 and 1982 and returning to defend their championship in 1988, but falling 34-31 in an overtime shoot-out to eventual national champion Ithaca
