EAGLES SEEKING FIRST CONFERENCE WIN

- The Boston College field hockey team has won all eight of its non-conference games, including four ranked opponents, but the Eagles are still looking for their first conference win.
- The Eagles have lost Syracuse, at North Carolina in overtime, at Virginia and in a shootout to Duke, all ACC teams ranked in the top 10.
- After each BC loss, the Eagles responded with victories in the following games, including three shutouts, defeating Providence, 4-0, then 18th-ranked William & Mary on the road, 3-0, at UNH with a 4-0 win and a 5-4, double-overtime win against Pacific.

STICKING TO THE TOP 10

- The Eagles started the season ranked 12th in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) preseason poll, but have remained in the top 10 ever since.
- After beginning 2017 4-0 with three wins over top-25 teams, BC moved up to the No. 8 spot and received one first-place vote.
- The Eagles returned to the eighth spot this week.
- BC has played eight ranked teams and has defeated four of them with two wins against higher-ranked teams.
- All seven ACC teams are ranked in the top 20 for the sixth straight poll. Duke is in the No. 2 spot with Virginia just behind at No. 3. North Carolina is sixth, BC eighth and Syracuse ninth. Louisville and Wake Forest round of the conference at 11th and 15th, respectively.
- BC plays five more teams ranked in the top 25 in 2017, including top-ranked Connecticut (Oct. 29), No. 13 Harvard (Oct. 8) and No. 22 Boston University (Oct. 15).
- The Eagles are 4-4 against ranked teams this season, falling to four top-10 opponents.
- The win over then-No. 6 Maryland was the seventh time under head coach Kelly Doton BC beat a top-10 team.

YOUNG GUNS

- The Eagles freshman class has scored 17 of the team's 32 goals in 2017.
- The first-year class has also amassed 38 of the team's 86 total points.
- Freshmen Jaime Natale, Elizabeth Warner and Fusine Govaert are all tied for second on the team with four goals apiece. Govaert and Natale also have nine points each, also second on the Eagles.
- Freshman Caroline McGovern is one of two players on the Eagles to have two game-winners. Govaert, Natale and Warner each have one.

SPREADING THE LOVE

- Through the first half of the season, the scoring has been spread out among 12 different Eagles.
- Senior Brooke Matherson leads the way with five goals and 11 points.
- Freshmen Jaime Natale, Elizabeth Warner and Fusine Govaert have four goals apiece.
- Matherson and McGovern each have two of the Eagles' eight game-winners with Natale, Warner, Govaert and Lytle each scoring one.
- Three BC players have logged four assists each - senior Alesandra Miller and juniors Ymke Rose Gote and Frederique Haverhals - while senior Chelcie Mendonca has three and McGovern has two.
- In all, 14 of the Eagles' 21 who have logged minutes have recorded at least one point.

EXTRA, EXTRA

- Five of the Eagles' 12 games have gone to extra time with BC winning three of them.
- The Eagles are 3-0 in double overtime games in 2017, lost one bid in overtime and one in a shootout.
- After a 2-1, double OT win against Albany (Aug. 27) in New York, BC took Northwestern to double overtime in Lancaster, Pa., pulling out a 3-2 victory (Sept. 1).
- BC forced overtime against the Tar Heels in North Carolina with the equalizing goal in the 61st minute, but could not pull out the extra-time victory (Sept. 16).
- The Eagles combined with Pacific to score a season-high nine goals in a 5-4, double overtime win (Sept. 24), rallying from down one three times to win on senior Brooke Matherson's first career game-winning goal
- BC also forced overtime against second-ranked Duke (Sept. 29) and neither team could score in the 30 minutes of seven-on-seven play. Duke was able to notch the deciding goal in the shootout.

THE ONE AND ONLY

- Sophomore Sarah Dwyer is the only goalie on the BC roster in 2017.
- She logged just over six minutes in her freshman campaign as Audra Hampsh's backup.
- She notched her first career save in the season opener against Quinnipiac before logging two in the victory against Albany.
- Dwyer went on to record six saves in the double overtime win against Northwestern in the ACC/Big Ten Cup.
- In the 2-1 overtime loss to No. 7 North Carolina, Dwyer tallied a career-high nine saves, stopped 10 of 11 corners and 11 of 13 shots on goal.
- She recorded her first career shutout in the win against Providence and repeated the feat at No. 18 William & Mary and at New Hampshire.
- Her 46 saves is second in the ACC.

CELEBRATING CHAMPIONS

- The BC field hockey team will honor the 1997 Big East championship team on Friday against Louisville. It marks the 20th anniversary of one of BC's three conference tournament titles. It is also Boston College's Homecoming Weekend.
- The Eagles will honor the 1997 team at halftime. There will also be a post-game reception for all field hockey alumnae.
- All former players and their families are also invited to a pregame tailgate on Saturday, Oct. 7 before the BC football team takes on Virginia Tech at Alumni Stadium. The 1997 team will be honored during the game.
- After starting the '97 season 5-4, the Eagles won 10 of their last 13 game.
- The team featured two All-Americans in Andrea Durko and Joy Ramsbotham, the Big East Defensive Player of the year (Ramsbotham), the Big East Tournament Most Outstanding Player (Durko) and four named All-Big East.
- The Eagles defeated Providence and Connecticut, both by a score of 2-0, to capture the Big East title on their home turf, hosting in 1997.

MURPHY'S LAW

- The Eagles are hosting 11th annual MS Game in honor of former student-athlete Kathleen Murphy, a 2009 Boston College graduate, on Sunday against Harvard.
- Murphy was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) in April 2007, then a forward on the BC field hockey team. MS is a disease of the central nervous system that disrupts the flow of information between the brain and body.
- Refusing to let the disease win, Murphy played 79 games in her BC career, scored 11 times, recorded nine assists and racked up 31 points.
- Since 2007, the BC field hockey team has participated in the MS Walk each year as part of "Murphy's Law."
- Murphy's former coach Ainslee Lamb, who was at BC's helm for 10 years, will be in attendance as she is working with the Harvard field hockey team.

RPI RANKS

- The Eagles are ranked seventh in the latest NCAA RPI rankings.
- Twelve teams BC faces in 2017 are ranked in the top 20: Connecticut (1), Duke (2), Virginia (3), Northwestern (5), North Carolina (9), Harvard (12), Louisville (13), Syracuse (14), William & Mary (16), Wake Forest (17), Maryland (18) and Pacific (19).

HAVERHALS EARNS PRESEASON HONORS

- Junior Frederique Haverhals was named to the Preseason All-Atlantic Coast Conference's Team. The Eagles' captain earned first-team All-America accolades a season ago.
- The Warmond, The Netherlands, native has started all 54 games in her BC career. She was an All-ACC Second-Team selection in 2016 and collected NFHCA All-Northeast Region Second-Team honors in 2015. Last year, Haverhals led the Eagles with seven assists and finished the year fourth on the team with 17 points, scoring five goals. She had a five-game point streak at the end of last season as BC made its fourth straight NCAA Tournament.
- Enrolled in the Carroll School of Management, Haverhals earned a spot on the NFHCA National Academic Squad and the All-ACC Academic Team.

NEW ADDITIONS

- Two new faces joined the BC field hockey staff since the team's fourth straight NCAA Tournament bid last season. Third-year head coach Kelly Doton hired Mark Foster and Nicole Cordero as assistant coaches.
- Foster joined in February, coming to The Heights after two and a half years with one of the top club programs in the country, WC Eagles, based in Pottstown, Pa. With WC Eagles, Foster was part of the coaching staffs of five teams that won the USA National Club Championships. He's also spent two seasons as a staff member with USA Field Hockey's National Indoor Team. Before coming to the U.S., Foster began his coaching career in England at his alma mater, Durham University.
- Cordero joined the staff in August after spending four years as the Oak Park Forest High School in her native Illinois. She played forward at Massachusetts from 2009 to 2013, earning NFHCA Second-Team Regional All-American honors and Atlantic-10 Conference First-Team honors as a senior.

2017 CAPTAINS

- Juniors Ymke Rose Gote and Frederique Haverhals were named the captains of the team for the 2017 season, head coach Kelly Doton announced at the team's annual banquet in the spring.
- "I firmly believe the success of a team starts with its leadership," head coach Kelly Doton said. "Every spring, we go through a thorough captain selection process. Ymke and Frederique have been leaders since they stepped foot on our campus and have overwhelmingly impacted their teammates. And as a result, they were voted captains. With these two at the helm, I know the team will always be put first and they will strive to make sure everyone is living up to the standards of wearing a Boston College field hockey jersey."

USA EAGLES

- Sophomore Sarah Dwyer was selected to USA Field Hockey's Under-21 Junior National Camp. The goalie competed in the 2017 Young Women's National Championship, a five-day event that included most elite collegiate and post-collegiate field hockey players in the country at the Home of Hockey at Spooky Nook Sports in Lancaster, Pa.
- More than 130 athletes showcased their skills in front of coaches and selectors in order to progress within the Olympic Development Pipeline.
- Emily and Eryn McCoy '16, along with Leah Settiple '15, were named to USA Field Hockey's Development Squad National Camp.

Head Coach Kelly Doton

Kelly Doton was promoted to head coach of the Boston College field hockey program on April 1, 2015. She is the eighth head field hockey coach in Boston College history.

In two seasons at the program's helm, Doton has led the Eagles to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2015 and 2016. She is the first coach in program history to lead the team to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of her first two seasons at the helm.

While leading the Eagles, she has produced four NFHCA All-Americans, including two each in 2015 (Emily McCoy and Leah Settipane) and 2016 (Frederique Haverhals and Ymke Rose Gote), as well as 12 NFHCA All-Northeast Region honorees and six All-ACC performers. In 2016, a program-record four Eagles earned all-conference accolades: Gote, Audra Hampsch, Haverhals and Emily McCoy.

The Greenfield, Mass., product has been with the Eagles since 2012 when she joined the program as associate head coach. She held the same position at Indiana prior to her arrival at The Heights.

In 2016, Doton's Eagles played the nation's second-toughest schedule and finished the year with a 10-10 mark. Of their 20 games, 14 were against ranked opponents – including all six ACC conference foes. Despite the challenge, BC went 3-3 in league play and tied its best-ever finish in the conference. The Eagles claimed the No. 3 seed in the ACC Championship. Boston College drew its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament berth, the longest run of consecutive appearances in program history.

In Doton's first year at the helm, the Eagles finished 13-9, defeating six ranked opponents and earning a 5-0 mark in overtime games. BC's highlights included the team's first-ever victory over Maryland, its first-ever ACC Championship victory and advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history and the first since 1998.

Before her promotion to head coach, Doton served as Ainslee Lamb's associate head coach for three seasons. After a three-year absence from the NCAA Tournament, the Eagles returned to the postseason in 2013 with a 12-8 record. In 2014, BC went 13-7 with five wins over ranked opponents, including upsets over No. 2 UConn, No. 4 Syracuse, No. 7 Louisville and No. 8 Virginia.

Doton came to BC from Indiana, where she had been coaching since 2008. She was an assistant coach for four seasons before being named the Hoosiers' associate head coach in 2011. In 2009, she was instrumental in helping Indiana reach the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history after finishing second in league standings and reaching the Big Ten Tournament title game.

A 2004 graduate of Wake Forest, Doton was an asset to the Demon Deacons on both sides of the ball during her collegiate career, helping to lead her squad to back-to-back NCAA championships in 2002 and 2003. Providing her team with her disciplined defensive skills, and quickly establishing herself as one of the best attack corner hitters in the country, she was honored as the 2003 Honda Award winner, the National Field Hockey Player of the Year.

In addition to being named the ACC Player of the Year in 2002, she was also a two-time NFHCA First-Team All-American and a three-time All-ACC honoree during her career.

In addition to her collegiate playing experience, Doton was a member of the U.S. Women's Senior National Team from 2005-10. In 2008, she was part of the U.S. squad that competed in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China. She began her career with Team USA on the New Zealand Tour and scored her first international goal against Australia in 2005.

Prior to playing at Wake, Doton was a standout at Greenfield High School, where she broke the school's scoring record as a senior and was tabbed as the team's MVP in 1999. She earned all-league honors in 1997 and 1998, in addition to being named to the All-Western Massachusetts Squad. She also earned Northeastern All-American honors as a sophomore.

Doton earned her Master's Degree in Administrative Studies from Boston College in 2015.
