EAGLES TAKE ON DUKE IN ACC TOURNAMENT

- The seventh-seed Boston College field hockey team will take on No. 2 seed Duke in the quarterfinals of the Atlantic Coast Conference Field Hockey Championships in Louisville, Ky.
- The Eagles and Blue Devils play on Thursday, Nov. 2 at 1:30 p.m. at Trager Stadium.
- In the 2017 regular-season meeting, Duke defeated BC, 3-2, in a shootout in Newton, Mass.
- Each time the Blue Devils went ahead, the Eagles answered, including senior Alesandra Miller's tying goal in the 49th minute, which eventually sent the game to overtime.
- Sophomore goalie Sarah Dwyer made six saves in the contest.
- This is the first time BC has faced Duke in the ACC Tournament and the two teams have never faced off on neutral territory.
- The Blue Devils lead the all-time series, 12-7, and have won the last five meetings.
- The last BC win came in 2012 in a 2-1 victory in Durham.
- BC is 1-2 in extra-time games, winning in 2006 in a double overtime victory and falling in overtime in 2014 and losing the shootout this season.

EAGLES IN THE ACC TOURNAMENT

- The Eagles are 1-12 in the ACC Tournament.
- Seven of the losses were by one goal and BC is 1-2 in overtime games in the league postseason.
- BC's first and only win came in 2015, in head coach Kelly Doton's first year at the helm. The Eagle defeated Wake Forest, 4-3, in double overtime in the first round. They lost, 3-2, to North Carolina in the semifinal game.
- This is the fourth time BC is the seventh seed (2013, 14, 15). Last year, the Eagles came in as the No. 3 seed, the highest spot in program history.
- They have been the fourth seed four times (2006, 07, 10, 12), the No. 5 seed three times (2005, 09, 11) and the sixth seed once (2008).

2017 ACC CHAMPIONSHIPS

- Virginia holds the top seed in the 2017 ACC Championships. After a bye, the Cavaliers will play the winner of No. 4 Wake Forest and No. 5 North Carolina. No. 3 Louisville will open the tournament against No. 6 Syracuse and No. 4 Wake Forest will take on No. 5 North Carolina in the opening round.
- This is the first time Louisville is hosting the ACC Championships. The Cardinals joined the league for the 2014 season.

WHAT HAPPENED IN 2017

- BC had a near perfect non-conference record in 2017, falling only to No. 1 Connecticut in Storrs, Conn., to go 11-1.
- The Eagles could not muster an ACC win this season, the first time in program history they did not capture a victory in league play.
- BC lost at then seventh-ranked North Carolina in overtime and to No. 2 Duke in a shootout at home.
- The back-to-back losses at No. 13 Wake Forest and No. 1 UConn was the only time in 2017 BC lost two games in a row. Until the final game of the season, the Eagles had bounced back from every loss with a victory, finishing the year 5-1.
- The Eagles were 6-7 against ranked teams in 2017 with five losses to top-10 teams.
- The Eagles did not allow a goal in the first half to the Huskies. The loss also marked the first time BC lost after a halftime tie. They finished the regular season 4-1 tied at halftime but 7-0 when leading at halftime and 10-0 when scoring first.

THAT'S SO EXTRA

- Seven of the Eagles' 18 regular-season games went to extra time with BC winning five of them.
- The Eagles are 3-0 in double overtime games in 2017, 1-1 in overtime and 1-1 in shootouts.

- BC forced overtime against the Tar Heels in North Carolina with the equalizing goal coming in the 61st minute, but could not pull out the victory (Sept. 16).
- The Eagles combined with Pacific to score a season-high nine goals in a 5-4, double overtime win (Sept. 24), rallying from down one three times to win on senior Brooke Matherson's first career game-winning goal.

Ymke and Frederique have been leaders since they stepped foot on our campus and have overwhelmingly impacted their teammates. And as a result, they were voted captains. With these two at the helm, I know the team will always be put first and they will strive to make sure everyone is living up to the standards of wearing a Boston College field hockey jersey."

USA EAGLES

Head Coach Kelly Doton

Kelly Doton was promoted to head coach of the Boston College field hockey program on April 1, 2015. She is the eighth head field hockey coach in Boston College history.

In two seasons at the program's helm, Doton has led the Eagles to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2015 and 2016. She is the first coach in program history to lead the team to NCAA Tournament appearances in each of her first two seasons at the helm.

While leading the Eagles, she has produced four NFHCA All-Americans, including two each in 2015 (Emily McCoy and Leah Settupane) and 2016 (Frederique Haverhals and Ymke Rose Gote), as well as 12 NFHCA All-Northeast Region honorees and six All-ACC performers. In 2016, a program-record four Eagles earned all-conference accolades: Gote, Audra Hampsch, Haverhals and Emily McCoy.

The Greenfield, Mass., product has been with the Eagles since 2012 when she joined the program as associate head coach. She held the same position at Indiana prior to her arrival at The Heights.

In 2016, Doton's Eagles played the nation's second-toughest schedule and finished the year with a 10-10 mark. Of their 20 games, 14 were against ranked opponents – including all six ACC conference foes. Despite the challenge, BC went 3-3 in league play and tied its best-ever finish in the conference. The Eagles claimed the No. 3 seed in the ACC Championship. Boston College drew its fourth-straight NCAA Tournament berth, the longest run of consecutive appearances in program history.

In Doton's first year at the helm, the Eagles finished 13-9, defeating six ranked opponents and earning a 5-0 mark in overtime games. BC's highlights included the team's first-ever victory over Maryland, its first-ever ACC Championship victory and advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament for just the third time in program history and the first since 1998.

Before her promotion to head coach, Doton served as Ainslee Lamb's associate head coach for three seasons. After a three-year absence from the NCAA Tournament, the Eagles returned to the postseason in 2013 with a 12-8 record. In 2014, BC went 13-7 with five wins over ranked opponents, including upsets over No. 2 UConn, No. 4 Syracuse, No. 7 Louisville and No. 8 Virginia.

Doton came to BC from Indiana, where she had been coaching since 2008. She was an assistant coach for four seasons before being named the Hoosiers' associate head coach in 2011. In 2009, she was instrumental in helping Indiana reach the NCAA Tournament for the second time in program history after finishing second in league standings and reaching the Big Ten Tournament title game.

A 2004 graduate of Wake Forest, Doton was an asset to the Demon Deacons on both sides of the ball during her collegiate career, helping to lead her squad to back-to-back NCAA championships in 2002 and 2003. Providing her team with her disciplined defensive skills, and quickly establishing herself as one of the best attack corner hitters in the country, she was honored as the 2003 Honda Award winner, the National Field Hockey Player of the Year.

In addition to being named the ACC Player of the Year in 2002, she was also a two-time NFHCA First-Team All-American and a three-time All-ACC honoree during her career.

In addition to her collegiate playing experience, Doton was a member of the U.S. Women's Senior National Team from 2005-10. In 2008, she was part of the U.S. squad that competed in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China. She began her career with Team USA on the New Zealand Tour and scored her first international goal against Australia in 2005.

Prior to playing at Wake, Doton was a standout at Greenfield High School, where she broke the school's scoring record as a senior and was tabbed as the team's MVP in 1999. She earned all-league honors in 1997 and 1998, in addition to being named to the All-Western Massachusetts Squad. She also earned Northeastern All-American honors as a sophomore.

Doton earned her Master's Degree in Administrative Studies from Boston College in 2015.
